Volume 19 Issue 11 Published Monthly

Nov/Dec 2014

---

This month we have published The 1980 Hague Abduction Convention: Comparative Perspectives, edited by Robert E Rains, The Evolution of the Land System in China: Politicized Law? by Yixian Zhao and The Legal Regime of Chinese Overseas Investment by Chenyang XIE. These are described in detail on pages 47-49 or on our website.

Pictures this month include the launch of Felicity Gerry, Cararina Sjölin and Lyndon Harris' Sexual Offences Handbook. There is also a picture from the launch of Informa's books Voyage Charters and Time Charters, and the 25th birthday party of Class Publishing. We also have a picture from the launch of the Inner Temple Book Prize.

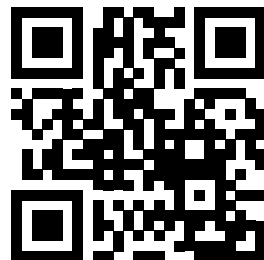

We also attended the launch of Nicholas Chambers Case Handling and the annual Thomas More Lecture in the old hall, Lincoln's Inn.

We were saddened to hear of the death of the crime novelist PD James at the age of 94. Years ago she often visited our shop when we kept a large true crime section and was well liked by myself and the staff who dealt with her in those days.

The Oil and Gas Law Statute Book

2014/2015

The Oil and Gas Law Statute Book is an essential tool for students studying UK oil and gas law at all academic stages and legal practitioners in the field.

The book provides a quick reference to primary and secondary legislation in their amended and unannotated form.

The statutes and provisions that have been included in the book are primarily focused on upstream UK oil and gas operations.

This is the first volume of the Oil and Gas Law Statute Book, which will be updated annually, and is the first contribution to the Energy Law Series that Dunya Publishing will produce to supplement legal research and practice in energy law.

For when you need information now

These are indeed exciting times in the legal eBook world! One of our long established eBook suppliers, LexisNexis, has just announced their own App. Lexis Note works in a similar way to Thomson Reuters ProView and gives you advanced referencing and highlighting tools as well as the ability to synch your notes over all your devices.

Important titles like the Cook on Costs, Butterworth Company Law Handbook and Butterworth Employment Law Handbook are available now with William on Wills, Macdonalds Immigration Law & Practice and Anthony & Berrymans Magistrates Court Guide all due before the end of the year.

If anyone has purchased the paper copies of the Butterworth Company Law Handbook or Butterworth Employment Law Handbook and would like to order the Lexis Note version then we can process this at a special rate. Please e-mail for further details.

However, the really exciting news is that there are going to be a number of looseleaves released on this platform in 2015. These looseleaves will automatically update so it really could be the end of manually filing releases. Although I have great memories of my time spent updating these multi-volume works I suspect this will be a welcome development. There will be further details about this in early 2015 and we will be talking to our existing looseleaf subscribers in the New Year.

We have been selling the European Lawyer Ltd's Jurisdiction Comparison books for a number of years now and we are pleased to add their eBooks to our extensive list. These titles are broken down by jurisdiction and each chapter is structured to help readers make quick comparisons with the litigation terrain in other countries. One of the most popular titles on their list, Shipping & International Trade Law, has just had a new edition published.

ISBN: 9780414038301

A couple of Law Society titles have just been released. The Solicitor's Handbook is hot off the press in both book and eBook format and we finally have the eBook of the Conveyancing Handbook. Although the book was published back in August we think this eBook will still be in high demand.

David Thomas' Sentencing Referencer has always been a popular title to have as an eBook. This title really works well in this format as you can just have it on your iPad and access it wherever you are. The new edition is due in December and is also available as a book & eBook pack.

ISBN: 9780414035515

Our eBook list is still growing on a daily basis and we now have over 7,400 titles available. All of these eBooks have been individually vetted before we add them to our database so you can be confident that they are titles you rely on. ### SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE IN THE COUNTY COURT A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation 6th ed

Patricia Pearl and Christopher Dodd

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854901425
Extent: 332 pp
Binding: Paperback

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The sixth edition of this well-established book includes everything which a professional advisor or one off court user needs to be confident and successful with pursuing or defending a claim allocated to the small claims track in the county court.

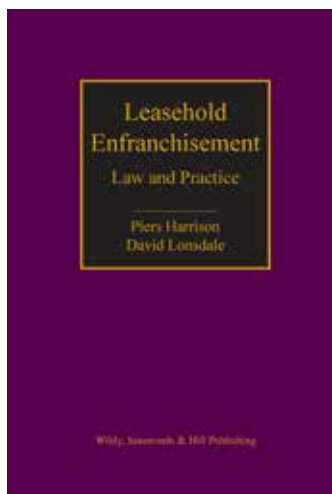

Small Claims in the County Court has been updated to take into account a large number of changes in procedure and rules over the last two years, including the increase in jurisdiction to £10,000, the introduction of the single county court and new rules and terminology concerning enforcement.

The authors demystify a process which can be overwhelming to court users. The book includes summaries of key rules and procedures and more detailed text follows. There are checklists to guide users through key stages of a court case and answers to frequently asked questions. The glossary is an invaluable tool for any court user who is unfamiliar with legal jargon. The authors have added all necessary case and rule citations and there is a full index. Key court rules plus up to date court fees are reproduced at the back of the book.

Written by authors with experience as a solicitor and a barrister but also with over 20 years combined experience as judges, this popular title will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available.

LEASEHOLD ENFRANCHISEMENT LAW AND PRACTICE

Piers Harrison and David Lonsdale

Price: £95.00
ISBN: 9780854900657
Extent: 374 pp
Binding: Hardback

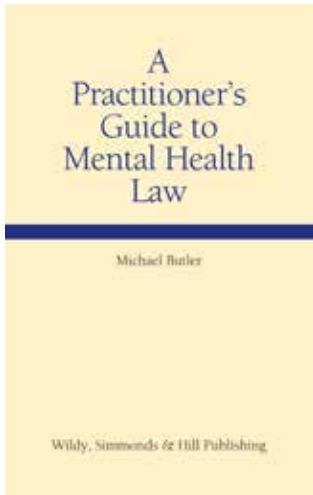

This practical book is written with the busy practitioner in mind, explaining the law in clear and simple terms and concentrating heavily on procedure. The procedural chapters make up the greater part of the book and are designed to ensure that the practitioner drafts notices without mistakes and understands the critical time limits.

Leasehold Enfranchisement contains checklists of mistakes to be avoided in the preparation of notices and clear guidance on procedure post service of the notice. The book enables the reader to find essential information easily.

Fully up to date with the new procedural rules, Leasehold Enfranchisement includes the latest forms published by the First-tier Tribunal. It is accessible and practical, providing guidance on filling in notices, and checklists of common mistakes to be avoided. The authors provide plenty of detail on how to accomplish the main task for a solicitor in this area. The book also tackles valuation in a way that a non-valuer can understand so that the solicitor understands the valuation exercise.

Piers' property practice covers all areas of property law and clients include property development companies, local authorities, government agencies and private companies and individuals. He is an editor of Landlord and Tenant Review. He has a particular interest in enfranchisement but his practice encompasses all areas of the law of real property. He is author of Service Charges & Management (3rd ed) and Megarry's Manual of the Law of Real Property (9th ed).

David Lonsdale has over twenty years' advocacy and advisory experience at all levels up to the Court of Appeal, including specialist tribunals such as the First Tier Tribunal. David's areas of particular specialisation are leasehold enfranchisement, restrictive covenants and forfeiture of commercial leases, but he accepts instructions across the range of Property law disputes as well as appearing and advising on cases in related fields such as professional negligence and insolvency. David is instructed by client companies with an international presence as well as local authorities, managing agents and individuals.

Price: £95.00
ISBN: 9780854901227
Extent: 852 pp
Binding: Hardback

The law and procedure relating to sexual offences is notoriously complex. Since the advent of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, the law (both as to the offences and as to sentencing) changes depending on when the offence was committed, the age of the parties involved and the nature of the act committed.

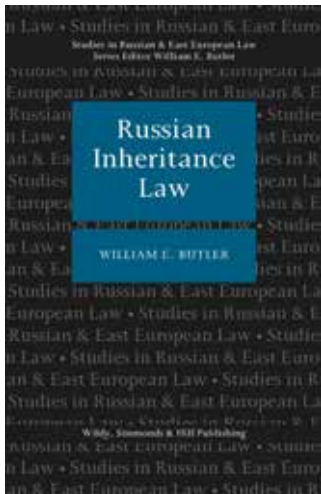

This new edition of the Sexual Offences Handbook has been updated to reflect the latest law, practice and procedure in all cases involving historic and recent sexual offences, providing a step-by-step approach from the perspectives of both prosecution and the defence. Written by practitioners and academics with extensive experience of researching, preparing and presenting such trials, this practical and accessible work will prove an invaluable reference for those working within this specialised area of criminal law.

Felicity Gerry QC specialises in high profile, serious and complex fatal, sexual and violent offences. She is regularly approached to speak on international issues including human trafficking, FGM and rape in conflict zones. Felicity is described in the Legal 500 as a ‘fearless and effective advocate’ and ‘an expert in the field of sexual offences’. She has appeared on all major television and radio networks and writes regularly for the broadsheet and legal press. She holds a research post at Charles Darwin University and has a column in Criminal Law and Justice Weekly.

Catarina Sjölin is a senior lecturer at Nottingham Trent University and holds a First Class Bachelors and Masters degrees in law from Cambridge. She spent 15 years at the Bar ultimately specialising in tough cases involving a wide range of serious violence including murder, abuse of children and sexual offences (recent and historic) appearing on behalf of the defence or prosecution. She has written for Counsel Magazine and Criminal Law and Justice Weekly.

CASE HANDLING
An Illustrated View from the Bench

HH Nicholas Chambers QC

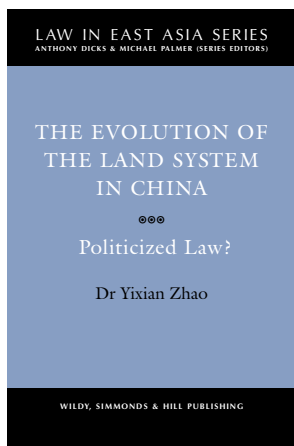

Price: £10.00
ISBN: 9780854901470
Extent: 55 pp
Binding: Paperback in colour

‘Experience of all sorts at the Bar and on the Bench has led to the thought that a few timely words could avoid a lot of grief as well perhaps bringing a smile or two from the pictures.’

At the Bar Nick Chambers did a great variety of cases ranging from the miners’ respiratory claims to the Kuwait Airways litigation. On the Bench his job was to manage and try cases as the Mercantile Judge for Wales and Chester and then for Wales as well as sitting in London in the Commercial Court and other jurisdictions. He was a member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee at the time of the introduction of the Woolf reforms. He now practices as an arbitrator and mediator from Brick Court Chambers.

The Chambers family’s involvement with watercolours goes back to 1779 with an ancestor’s sketches during the Siege of Gibraltar. Since then each generation has made its own contribution including scenes from Mumbai in the V&A and the first illustrations of the rules of rugby football done at the school in 1845. Illustrations and texts from Nick’s book Missed Moments in Legal History hang in the Rolls Building. The pictures in Case Handling pay a further happy tribute to his past.

This book, with its pithy advice and attractive illustrations, makes taking the serious medicine of case handling a pleasure both for the recently qualified and anyone else with an interest in making dispute resolution work.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE LAND SYSTEM IN CHINA:
Politicized Law?

by

Yixian Zhao

Law in East Asia Series

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901432
Extent: 292 pp
Binding: Hardback

This study offers the reader an in-depth analysis of the role of law in China's impressive post-Mao economic transformation, contextualizing the Chinese experience in law and development theory and its application to China. The book makes a substantial contribution to discourses on the very important issue of the nature of the Chinese land system in the transformation from state-planning to the market. It is an on-going debate as to whether demarcated and secure property rights are essential for sustainable economic development. In addition, land is an extremely important issue in China, especially in terms of the role of state and the manner in which the state is dealing with land ownership and other rights in times of change. The book examines the hybrid dynamic of Chinese land law, the multi-layered stakeholders involved, and the varied and divergent incentives for exploiting land. The evolution of mainland China's land system has been shaped by various political and social forces, and the book highlights key aspects of the nature of the law and how complicated the law in action can be in transitional socio-economic systems such as that of China. The book also offers an evaluation of western mainstream theories of property rights and their relevance for understanding the place of land rights in Chinese society.

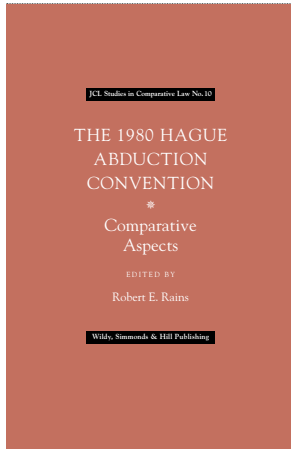

Dr Yixian Zhao, LLB, LLM and JSD (City University of Hong Kong), is a lecturer in law at Shantou University, and her current research interests are focused on issues of law and development, including in BRICS (that is, the Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa grouping of developing states), and on law and society matters. She has been a research associate and postdoctoral fellow at the School of Law, CityU Hong Kong. She at present teaches Jurisprudence, Law and Development, Sociology of Law and Land Law at Shantou University.

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901517
Extent: 438 pp
Binding: Hardback

Leading authorities explore the successes and shortcomings of the 1980 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction in the thirty years that have elapsed since that Convention entered into force. Special attention is given to national legislation implementing the Convention and to judicial practice applying Convention and legislative provisions. The Convention continues to attract ratifications, and lawyers from many countries will find the thoughtful articles contained in this volume helpful in understanding comparative approaches to this increasingly important domain of international legal cooperation.

Robert E. Rains is Emeritus Professor of Law at the Dickinson School of Law, Pennsylvania State University. His career as a family law specialist spans the decades in which the Hague Abduction Convention has been in force

THE LEGAL REGIME OF CHINESE OVERSEAS INVESTMENT

by

Chenyang XIE

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 11

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901531
Extent: 290 pp
Binding: Hardback

China has become the first socialist legal system to acquire an interest and the capacity to invest significantly beyond its own borders and abandon the policies of economic autarchy that approaches to socialist economic planning seemed to impose upon predecessor socialist legal systems. In this pathbreaking study, Dr. Chenyang XIE examines how the Chinese legal system regulates – usually by default rather than design – Chinese investor behavior with respect to outward investment opportunities and/or priorities. He offers intelligent and perceptive critiques of legal rules, institutions, systems, and administrative practices, providing suggestions for potential reform or adjustments of these.

Drawing upon the Chinese tradition of codification, the author has prepared a draft Code of Overseas Investment Law, together with Commentary to explain why each formulation is desirable and necessary. In his view, Chinese overseas investment relations are a “legal laboratory” for shaping a constructive legal regime to encourage and regulate such investment. His bold, subtle, and nuanced strategy embodies reservations about the extent to which in a planned economy the State should assume investment risks rather than the non-State sector.

Subjects covered include the Chinese macro policies and concepts of overseas investment, information services, investment promotion, approvals, authorizations, and filings, financial support, foreign exchange regulation, insurance, taxation, and supervision State-owned assets abroad. The draft Code of Overseas Investment Law is the first of its kind for any legal system.

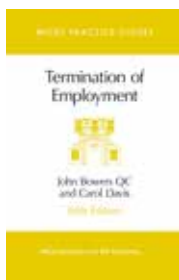

Chenyang XIE received his LL.M. and S.J.D. degrees at the Pennsylvania State University. He has many years of experience with legal aspects of inward and outward Chinese investment flows as a senior legal advisor employed by The Tiens Group in China.
