MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Achilles Theodoulou, Christos, Intellectual Property Law in Cyprus, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £54.00, ISBN: 9789041133410

Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this monograph provides a survey and analysis of the rules concerning intellectual property rights in Cyprus. It covers every type of intellectual property right in depth – copyright and neighbouring rights, patents, utility models, trademarks, trade names, industrial designs, plant variety protection, chip protection, trade secrets, and confidential information.

Particular attention is paid throughout to recent developments and trends. The book provides a clear overview of intellectual property legislation and policy, and at the same time offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based. Lawyers representing parties with interests in Cyprus will welcome this very useful guide, and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative intellectual property law.

Arthur, Raymond, Young Offenders and the Law: How the Law Responds to Youth Offending, Routledge,

Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780415496629

How does the law deal with young offenders, and to what extent does the law protect and promote the rights of young people in conflict with the law? These are the central issues addressed by Young Offenders and the Law in its examination of the legal response to the phenomenon of youth offending, and the contemporary forces that shape the law.

Ashworth, Andrew; Redmayne, Michael, The Criminal Process 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £28.99, ISBN: 9780199547289

The fourth edition of The

Criminal Process continues in the tradition of previous editions in providing an insightful and stimulating analysis of the key issues in criminal processes and procedures. Two of the leading figures in the field, Andrew Ashworth and Mike Redmayne, draw on arguments from the law, research, policy, and principle, to present an authoritative overview of this area of study. This edition includes a new chapter on the interface between criminal and civil (preventive) justice, and the addition of questions for discussion and suggested readings at the end of each chapter to facilitate debate and further research.

Auchie, Derek; Carmichael, Ailsa, The Scottish Mental Health Tribunal: Practice and Procedure,

Dundee University Press, Paperback, £90.00, ISBN: 9781845860226

This unique text provides an authoritative and practical commentary on the procedure and practice of the new Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland. A full review of the Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland (Practice and Procedure) (No 2) Rules 2005 is conducted as well as a detailed examination of the relevant provisions of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003. The authors, both Legal Members of the Tribunal draw upon their own experience in convening tribunal hearings, as well as the experience of other members, making this text an invaluable tool for anyone involved at any level in the tribunal process.

Bachmaier, Lorena; Del Moral Garcia, Antonio, Criminal Law in Spain, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £77.00, ISBN: 9789041132956

Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides a practical analysis of criminal law in Spain. Its succinct yet scholarly nature, as well as the practical quality of the information it provides, make this book a valuable resource for criminal lawyers, prosecutors, law enforcement officers, and criminal court judges handling cases connected with Spain. Academics and researchers, as well as the various international organizations in the field, will welcome this very useful guide, and will appreciate its value in the study of comparative criminal law.

Bowling, Ben, Policing the Caribbean, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199577699
The first study of transnational policing in the Caribbean, this book assesses the extent to which a restructured transnational security infrastructure has enhanced the safety and wellbeing of the Caribbean islands, and other countries on the shores of the north Atlantic, and asks how we can ensure that the policing beyond boundaries is accountable and good enough to make the world a safer place.

Brayne, Hugh; Carr, Helen, Law for Social Workers 11th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £28.99, ISBN: 9780199575411
Law for Social Workers has been the leading textbook in its field since the first edition published twenty years ago. Suitable for students on all social work courses, it offers a clear approach to the law which governs the profession. Written by an author team with a strong background in teaching and practice, this book provides detailed analysis of the law which protects people from harm and enables social workers to assess needs and provide services to meet those needs.

Brest, Paul; Hamilton Krieger, Linda, Problem Solving, Decision Making, and Professional Judgment: A Guide for Lawyers and Policymakers, Oxford University Press USA, Hardback, £30.00,

ISBN: 9780195366327

Paul Brest and Linda Hamilton Krieger discuss essential qualities of practical wisdom that are important across disciplines and essential to one's everyday life as a decisionmaker, consumer, and citizen. This book can stand alone as a text or work as a supplement to a core law or public policy curriculum.

Buckley, Michael, Capital Tax Acts 2010, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback + eBook, £89.38, ISBN: 9781847665492

This unique tax legislation handbook covers, in one portable volume, Stamp Duties, Capital Acquisitions Tax and Residential Property Tax. The legislation is presented in a clear, easy-to-read style and every section contains up-to-date annotations, case law notes and cross references to defined words. Capital Tax Acts 2010 is an essential reference guide for solicitors, tax practitioners, accountants, business people, financial institutions, students of law and any person who deals with tax on a regular basis.

Callies, Graft-Peter; Zumbansen, Peer C., Rough Consensus and Running Code: A Theory of Transnational Private Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841139746

Rough Consensus and Running Code describes and assesses the different law-making regimes currently observable in the transnational arena. Its core aim is to reassess, in terms of its legitimacy, the transnational regulation of contracts and corporate law as undertaken by regulatory regimes which are neither purely national nor international, neither exclusively public, nor private in nature. Instead the institutions and the principal actors are hybrids. The challenge for scholars of public and private international law is to incorporate the new norms into existing bodies of law and this, ultimately, is the challenge met by this new work.

Carey, Peter; Armstrong, Nick; Lamont, Duncan; Quartermaine, James, Media Law 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £26.95, ISBN: 9780414042131 areas. Since 1999, we have been researching the legal profession in Asia, identifying the leading lawyers and law firms through interviews with thousands of lawyers and their clients. Our reputation is based on the independence and objectivity of our research. In addition to the ‘country’ listings, certain practice areas, such as arbitration and capital markets, have ‘Asia-wide’ listings which include those firms and lawyers with pan-Asian practices.

Chen-Wishart, Mindy, Contract Law 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780199570058

This textbook provides a unique approach to contract law, employing the use of numerous diagrams and boxes to help explain the subject and bring it to life. Written by a leading contract lawyer with extensive teaching experience, the book uses an informal, lively, and analytical style to explain the intricacies of contract law and the questions that arise during the life of a contract.

Clinch, Peter; Mullan, James, Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Hardback, £39.00, ISBN: 9780854900640

This comprehensive reference work is specifically aimed at busy practitioners (solicitors, barristers and professional support lawyers), particularly those who do not have the benefit of access to a law librarian or information officer. Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook provides practical advice on every aspect of effective legal research: problem analysis, selecting and finding the best sources, and presenting results effectively.

Coggan, Philip, The Economist Guide to Hedge Funds: What They Are, What They Do, Their Risks, Their Advantages 2nd ed, Economist Books, Hardback, £16.99, ISBN: 9781846683824

Nowadays most people have heard the term ‘hedge fund’ but few are clear about what exactly a hedge fund is or what it does. This guide aims to put them in the picture with the clarity and lively prose that the Economist is famous for. It provides a succinct survey of the industry for all those who think they should know about hedge funds, but do not.

Collins, Hugh, Employment Law 2nd ed, Oxford Univer-

sity Press, Paperback, £22.99, ISBN: 9780199566556

Employment Law covers all the main areas of the subject including contracts of employment, anti-discrimination law, trade unions, industrial action, and human rights in the workplace. It also discusses how UK law, under the influence of EU law and international protection of human rights, has been transformed for the twentieth-first century by pursuing new goals such as helping to achieve a better balance between work and life, to improve the competitiveness of business through partnership institutions, and to provide superior protection for the basic rights of employees in the workplace.

Colucci, Michele, Sports Law

in Italy, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £68.00, ISBN: 9789041133045

Derived from the renowned multi-volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in Italy deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations. This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics, practitioners, sports organizations, and policymakers access to sports law at this specific level. Lawyers representing parties with interests in Italy will welcome this very useful guide, and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law.

Cushway, Barry, The Em- ployer's Handbook: An Essential Guide to Employment Law, Personnel Policies and Procedures 2010-2011, Kogan Page Ltd, Paperback, £19.95, ISBN: 9780749460471

key employment issues.

D'Agostino, Giuseppina, Copyright, Contracts, Creators: New Media, New Rules, Edward Elgar Publishing Limited, Hardback, £79.95, ISBN: 9781847201065

Copyright, Contracts, Creators evaluates the efficacy of current copyright law to address the contracting and use of creative works. It looks in particular at freelance works and argues that their copyright treatment on a national and international level is inadequate to resolve ambiguities in the contracting and uses of the work. The author calls for a new framework to justify legislative provisions and resolve ambiguities while suggesting principles and mechanisms to address the inadequate treatment of freelance work. Scholars and students of law, cultural studies, and intellectual property will find this volume a critical addition to their libraries. Beyond these, policymakers, lawyers and anyone concerned with the blurring lines of intellectual property in the age of cyberspace will welcome the author's insights.

Dalhuisen, Jan;, Dalhuisen on Transnational and Comparative Commercial, Financial and Trade Law: Volume 1 Introduction - The New Lex Mercatoria and its Sources 4th ed, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £35.00, ISBN: 9781849460590

This is the fourth edition of the leading work on transnational and comparative commercial and financial law, covering a wide range of complex topics in the modern law of international commerce, finance and trade. As a guide for students and practitioners it is unrivalled. In a significant departure from earlier editions, the work is now divided into three volumes, each of which can be used independently or as part of the complete work.

Davidson, Fraser; Dundas, Hew; Barton, David, Arbitration (Scotland) Act 2010, W. Green, Paperback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780414017726

Domingo, Rafael, The New Global Law, Cambridge University Press,

Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9780521193870

The dislocations of the worldwide economic crisis, the necessity of a system of global justice to address crimes against humanity, and the notorious 'democratic deficit' of international institutions highlight the need for an innovative and truly global legal system, one that permits humanity to reorder itself according to acknowledged global needs and evolving consciousness. This volume offers a historical-juridical foundation for the development of this new global law.

Doyle, Brian; Casserley, Catherine; Cheetham, Simon; Gay, Vivienne; Hyams, Oliver, Equality and Discrimination: The New Law, Jordan Publishing Ltd,

Paperback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781846612015

The domestic law concerning discrimination is currently contained in five separate Acts and four sets of primary regulations, reflecting no less than six main EU Directives. The Equality Bill, currently before Parliament, seeks to harmonise discrimination law, and to strengthen the law to support progress on equality.

ture and mechanisms of the law in England and Wales. The authors skilfully blend an accessible style with a broad analysis of the subject, making this the definitive introduction to the area and the first choice for students year after year. Annually revised and fully updated, English Legal System continues to keep on top of this constantly evolving subject.

Endres, Dieter; Fuest, Clemens; Spengel, Christoph, Company Taxation in the Asia-Pacific Region, India,

and Russia, Springer-Verlag, Hardback, £81.00, ISBN: 9783642122163

The Asian-Pacific countries as well as India and Russia offer multinational companies all the benefits of booming economies in a world of recession. However, the investor must be aware of the tax regime under which he will operate. This survey presents the rates, definitions of taxable income and the incentives available in a complete, yet concise form. It goes on to review tax minimisation strategies and concludes with a comparison of the overall tax burdens for investors in each country derived from the Devereux/Griffith formulae – a methodology well known within the EU, but applied to this region for the first time.

convenient volume provides comprehensive analysis of the law affecting the physician-patient relationship in Portugal. After a general introduction, the book systematically describes law related to the medical profession, proceeding from training, licensing, and other aspects of access to the profession, through disciplinary and professional liability and medical ethics considerations and quality assurance, to such aspects of the physician-patient relationship as rights and duties of physicians and patients, consent, privacy, and access to medical records.

Faure, Michael; van der Walt, Andre, Globalization and Private Law: The Way Forward, Edward Elgar Publishing Limited, Hardback, £120.00, ISBN:

This timely book explores the relationship between private law and globalization. It examines the consequences of the fact that law making now takes place in a globalized world which increasingly leads to questions of accountability and legitimacy of the law making process. Within this work, European and South African scholars deal with the relationship between private law and globalization in fourteen innovative chapters, addressing inter alia globalization, democracy and accountability, harmonization versus decentralization, public law issues, corporate governance, procedural issues as well as human rights and the environment. This well-documented and original study will be a valuable resource for academics and legal practitioners as well as students. Specialists in private law, transnational law, international law and legal theory should also not be without this important book.

The growth of the professional lobbying of MPs and the executive raises similar questions about money in politics. More broadly, inequalities emerge in terms of the opportunities the public have to participate in political debate. This analysis of the ways wealth can be used to influence politics in Britain explores the threat posed to the principle of political equality.

de Schutter, Olivier; Lenoble, Jacques, Reflexive Governance: Redefining the Public Interest in a Pluralistic World, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781849460682

Reflexive Governance offers a theoretical framework for understanding modern patterns of governance in the EU institutions and elsewhere. It offers a learning-based approach to governance, but one which can better respond to concerns about the democratic deficit and to the fulfilment of the public interest than the currently dominant neo-institutionalist approaches.

Shigeta, Protection: Standard Setting, Compliance

Control and the Development of International Environmental Law by the International Judiciary, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £104.00, ISBN: 9789041131515

It is widely understood today that nothing is more urgently needed than international agreement on the scale, application and enforcement of environmental law. This outstanding book – a major contribution to the debate – demonstrates that existing international judicial bodies have already taken giant steps toward overcoming the insufficiency of international law enforcement with standards, compliance mechanisms, and new law development in the field of environmental law. The author not only presents a detailed analysis of a wealth of relevant case law, but also outlines a model suggesting that a commitment to international judicial control can be used to contain deviance within acceptable limits, ensure harmonized interaction among regimes, and clarify the meaning and application of environmental norms.

Shorthose, Sally, Guide To EU Pharmaceutical Regulatory Law 2010, Kluw-

er Law International, Paperback, £178.00, ISBN: 9789041128454

In the European Union and its Member States, as elsewhere, the marketing of pharmaceuticals has become subject to an increasingly complex web of legislation and regulation, resulting from the intense scrutiny of the urgent and essential role such products play in human development and welfare worldwide. This incomparably useful volume lays out this system with extraordinary clarity and logic. Adopting a Europe-wide perspective on the law governing pharmaceuticals, its expert authors from the law firm Bird & Bird LLP map the life cycle of a medicinal product or medical device from development to clinical trials to product launch and ongoing pharmacovigilance, offering clear unambiguous guidance in matters of regulatory law at every stage.

Singleton, Susan, Retention of Title: How to Keep Ownership of your Goods, Thorogood Publishing Ltd, Paperback, A4, £145.00, ISBN: 9781854187031

How to keep ownership of your goods and recover them when a buyer goes under? There is a popular myth that buyers do not own goods until the buyer has paid. This is legally wrong. Instead title passes on delivery, unless a clause has been agreed in a contract between the parties that title passes on payment. This briefing looks at how to protect your business to ensure when a customer goes out of business you can recover your goods rather than being left as an unsecured creditor, who usually receives nothing.

Standley, Kate, Palgrave Law Masters: Family Law 7th ed, Palgrave Macmillan, Paperback, £23.99, ISBN: 9780230251595

This text provides a clear, comprehensive and engaging account of this rapidly developing subject. In addition to dealing with the intricacies of statute and case law, it deals with the wider social and policy issues, current family law debates and proposals for reform. It includes up-to-date coverage of the latest major developments.

Stumer, Andrew, The Presumption of Innocence: Evidential and Human Rights Perspectives, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781849460361

This book investigates the supposed justifications for limitation of the presumption of innocence. It does so through a comprehensive analysis of the history, rationale and scope of the presumption of innocence. It is argued that the values underlying the presumption of innocence are of such fundamental importance to individual liberty that they cannot be sacrificed on the altar of community interest.

The Rt Hon Lord Justice Wilson: His Honour Judge Anthony Cleary; The Hon Mrs Justice Black, The Family Court Practice 2010: The Red Book, Family Law, Hardback & CD-ROM, £325.00, ISBN: 9781846612213

The Family Court Practice is the acknowledged authority on practice and procedure in family courts and is relied upon every day by the judiciary, barristers, solicitors and justices' clerks.

Tiley, John, Studies in the History of Tax Law: Volume 4, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781849460484

This work contains the full text of the papers presented at the fourth Tax Law History Conference in July 2008. The Conference was organised by the Cambridge Law Faculty's Centre for Tax Law. The matters discussed are broad and include the extent to which charges levied by the Court of Wards were seen as taxes, the seventeenth century poll tax, traders, the excise and the in early nineteenth century England and the right of the Crown's right to elect between different heads of charge to income tax. There are also chapters on taxation in the reign of King John and Stamp Duties in the 18th Century.

Tranter, Kieran; Mortensen, Reid; Robertson, Michael; Corbin, Lillian; Bartlett, Francesca, Reaffirming Legal Ethics: Taking Stock and New Ideas, Routledge-Cavendish, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780415546539

This volume represents an opportunity for a comprehensive review of legal ethics as an international movement. Contributors include many of the key participants to the legal ethics field from the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, including David Luban and Deborah Rhode, as well as many of the recognised emerging thinkers.

Turner, Chris, Unlocking Contract Law 3rd ed, Hodder Education, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9781444109207

Contract law is an essential element of all law degrees. Unlocking Contract Law will ensure that you grasp the main concepts with ease, providing you with an indispensable foundation in contract law. This third edition is fully up-to-date with the latest changes in the law and includes discussion of the Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations, as well as all the major new cases.

Twigg-Flesner, Christian, Cambridge Companion to European Union Private Law, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780521516174, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780521736152

The emergence of EU Private Law as an independent legal discipline is one of the most significant developments in European legal scholarship in recent times. In this Companion, leading scholars provide a critical introduction to the subject's key areas, while offering original and thought-provoking comment on the field. In addition to several chapters on consumer law topics, the collection has individual chapters on commercial contracts, competition law, non-discrimination law, financial services and travel law. It also discusses the wider issues concerning EU Private Law, such as its historical evolution, the role of comparative law, language and terminology, as well as the implications of the Common Frame of Reference project. A useful 'scene-setting' introduction and further reading arranged thematically make this important publication the student's and scholar's first port of call when exploring the field.

Twining, William; Miers, David, Law in Context: How to Do Things with Rules 5th ed, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780521195492, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780521144308

New to English law? Need to know how rules are made, interpreted and applied? This popular and well-established textbook will show you how. It simplifies legal method by combining examples with an account of rules in general: the who, what, why and how of interpretation. Starting with standpoint and context, it identifies factors that give rise to doubts about the interpretation of a rule and recommends a systematic approach to analysing those factors.

Venables, Robert, The Taxation of Trusts 2010, Key Haven Publications PLC, Paperback, £150.00, ISBN: 9781901614459

This Intelligence Report is a revised, updated and expanded third edition of The Taxation of Trusts Post Finance Act 2006, the second edition of which was known as The Taxation of Trusts

Post Finance Act 2007. The new Report takes into account the changes made by Finance Acts 2007, 2008 and 2009, Income Tax Act 2007 and Corporation Tax Act 2009, as well as the recent developments in case law. In addition to the chapters on the Income Tax Settlement Provisions and on the Calculation of Charges to Inheritance Tax on relevant property settlements, added in the 2007 edition, the new edition contains additional chapters on The Transfer of Assets Abroad Provisions and Trusts and Foundations. The Intelligence Report is intended primarily for barristers, solicitors, accountants, chartered tax advisers, professional trustees, officers of trust corporations and other professionals.

Von Bar, Christian; Swann,

Stephen, Principles of European Law Volume 8: Unjustified Enrichment, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9780199229406

The Study Group on a European Civil Code has taken upon itself the task of drafting common European principles for the most important aspects of the law of obligations and for certain parts of the law of property in movables which are especially relevant for the functioning of the common market. This is a landmark research project in the harmonization of European Private Law - attempting to codify common principles of the law of Unjustified Enrichment. This book provides a framework for the future development of national and private international law.

Wells, Celia; Quick, Oliver, Law in Context: Lacey, Wells and Quick: Reconstructing Criminal Law: Text and Materials 4th ed, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £48.00, ISBN: 9780521737395

Since the publication of the first edition, this textbook has offered one of the most distinctive and innovative approaches to the study of criminal law. Looking at both traditional and emerging areas, such as public order offences and corporate manslaughter, it offers a broad and thorough perspective on the subject.

Wheatley, Steven, The Democratic Legitimacy of International Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £60.00,

ISBN: 9781841138176

While international institutions continue to affirm that democracy is the only legitimate form of domestic government, the globalisation of governance has resulted in the removal of many issues from the domestic arena and the political control of citizens. This is the now widely recognised “democratic legitimacy deficit” in international law, which encompasses traditional forms of inter-nation law, and new forms of international governance by non-state actors (the Security Council and World Bank for example). The standard response is to argue for the replication of domestic institutions at the global level, restructuring the international order along cosmopolitan lines. In contrast, this work accepts the extant, fragmented system, and develops the idea that the counterfactual ideal of deliberative democracy developed by Jürgen Habermas (among others) can provide the basis for thinking about the exercise of political authority beyond the state, and explores an alternative view of the nature and purposes of the modern system of international law.

Woodroffe, Geoffrey; Lowe, Robert, Woodroffe and Lowe's: Consumer Law and Practice 8th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £30.95, ISBN: 9780414042407

Woodroffe and Lowe's Consumer Law and Practice provides undergraduate students and those studying the LPC with concise yet comprehensive guidance on consumer law. It takes an innovative problem-solving approach to the subject. It focuses on the types of problems most likely to arise or be encountered in real life and uses examples to explain how the law deals with such situations.

Supplier of the Year Award 2010 – Citation

2010 is the first year for a new award, one made to the supplier rated the best in a survey of the BIALL membership. 144 people responded to the survey, a sizeable proportion of the membership. Suppliers were rated on their advertising and marketing techniques, their pricing and negotiations, their after-sale service, and the quality of their products and services, as well as given an overall rating.

The supplier that has won the award was one of the more widely used of those assessed, with nearly half of respondents rating them. They achieved an average rating, across this large number of people, of over 4 out of 5 in all the categories assessed, with special mention for an average score of 4.73 in the customer service category. 35 respondents nominated the company as their favourite supplier, about 30% of the people who made such a nomination.

They were described as having an excellent product, with good pricing and outstanding customer service, nothing ever seeming to be too much trouble. They really understand the needs of the business, and of individual customers. They respond promptly and helpfully to communications, and resolve the few problems that occur quickly and efficiently.

Many respondents singled out the supplier's website for praise. It was described as easy to use with all relevant information provided at the touch of a button, and particularly complimented on its accuracy and detail. However, several people also mentioned the monthly printed current awareness newsletter, showing that this supplier continues to use traditional methods alongside modern ones, and manages to do both well.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Butterworths Guide to the Insolvency Rules 2009

by His Honour Judge Edward Bailey

LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, ISBN 9781405744928, due August 2010

The Insolvency Service has indicated that as well as changing the structure of the existing Insolvency Rules there will also be substantive amendments taking into account practical issues raised by the insolvency profession and others who use the legislation. This brand new text will provide a roadmap to the new Rules enabling all insolvency professionals and students alike to quickly come to grips with the new law, its meaning and effects. It contains key practical guidance in addition to the Rules reproduced in full and supporting tables cross-referencing between the old and new rules.

Tax and Family Breakdown: A Practical Guide

by Jason Lane

Law Society Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781853286148, due July 2010, £44.95

The division of assets following a family breakdown can often be complex. The tax consequences of a transfer of assets between former spouses or civil partners can be significant. With prior planning, the tax arising may be mitigated or avoided altogether. If this is not possible, the parties and, indeed, the court will want to take account of the tax consequences when considering the terms of a financial settlement. Practitioners providing family breakdown advice will find this book to be an invaluable guide to the tax issues. Tax and Family Breakdown enables practitioners to identify potential tax issues at an early stage of the divorce or dissolution process and acts as an aide memoire of the tax issues that can typically arise; outlines the basic tax treatment of spouses, civil partners, and co-habitees; examines the tax effects of transferring the most commonly held assets; provides an overview of the tax aspects of trusts and certain international matters in the context of family breakdown. The text includes worked examples, checklists, tables and flowcharts, making this a clear and user-friendly book.

Clarkson and Keating:

Criminal Law: Text and Materials 7th edition

by C.M.V Clarkson, H.M Keating and S.R Cunningham

Sweet and Maxwell, Paperback, ISBN 9781847039187, due July 2010, £33.95

This new edition examines the main principles and rules of criminal law and explores the theoretical bases upon which they are founded in an easily digestible text. It Combines the best features of a standard 'textbook' with those of a 'cases and materials' book to provide guidance and direction on the law, whilst presenting a substantial amount of key primary material selected from a diversity of sources. It Includes extracts from cases and academic articles, carefully edited to make them accessible to students and draws on non-legal contextual material to provide a social context to the law rather than a mere analysis of the rules. It examines the relationship between substantive criminal law and penology and highlights how criminal law is inextricably linked to fundamental issues of moral philosophy and penology. Included is analysis of leading case decisions including Kennedy (No 2) (2008) (manslaughter); Rahman (2008) (joint unlawful enterprise); R v G (2009) (rape of child under 13); Evans (2009) (omissions) and covers all key developments including Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007; Serious Crimes Act 2007 (encouraging and assisting crime); Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (self-defence); Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (abolishing provocation and introducing loss of control)

Hershman & McFarlane: Children Act Handbook 2010/2011

by David Hershman and Andrew McFarlane

Family Law, Paperback, ISBN 9781846612336, due July 2010, £49.00

Published annually, Hershman & McFarlane Children Act Handbook provides a single volume source of key children proceedings legislation and related guidance. It contains consolidated, fully amended and annotated texts of the Children Act 1989. This book meets the need for a reliable, up-to-date and yet still portable source and will be used in court by all child law practitioners, judges and social workers. Contents include Statutes and Statutory Instruments, Practice Directions and Guidance.

Clerk and Lindsell On Torts 20th edition

by Anthony Dugdale and Michael A. Jones
Sweet and Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9781847037961, due September 2010, £335.00

Clerk and Lindsell on Torts is the definitive work in this area. It supplies the most authoritative guidance available on all aspects of the law of tort and is widely referred to and cited by practitioners and the judiciary. This new edition covers all areas of tort, including negligence, defamation, nuisance and trespass, and statutory torts. It Deals with common law, statutory, individual and commercial torts individually, chapter by chapter and offers unequalled explanation of the general principles and shows how these apply in different situations through detailed analysis of case law. It gives detailed guidance on remedies, such as damages and injunctions, examines possible defences and arguments that can be used, covers the relevant human rights issues and considers Commonwealth law, making the work relevant throughout the common law world. The book will be kept fully up to date with regular supplements.

Defending Possession Proceedings 7th edition

by Nic Madge, Derek McConnell, Jon Gallagher and Jan Luba

Legal Action Group, Paperback, ISBN 9781903307755, due July 2010, £55.00

Dealing with the three principal types of occupier - social housing tenants, private tenants and mortgage borrowers - Defending Possession Proceedings focuses on practice and procedure and the relevant substantive law. It is written in a user-friendly way, so that it contains information which is of use to the most experienced legal practitioner, yet is still understandable to the least experienced housing adviser. The main text is supplemented with official forms and notices, statements of case and applications, an instructions checklist, the Rent Arrears Pre-Action Protocol and CPR Part 55. The seventh features new chapters on: Family Intervention Tenancies, Replacement tenancies under the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008, Public law defences, Human rights defences, Disability discrimination defences, Rent arrears and bankruptcy and Islamic home purchase. It takes full account of legislative changes in the Consumer Credit Act 2006; the Housing and Regeneration Act 2008 (notably the abolition of tolerated trespassers); the Equality Act 2010; and the Mortgage Repossessions (Protection of Tenants etc) Act 2010. The chapters on possession procedure incorporate all relevant changes in the Civil Procedure Rules, especially the new Mortgage Arrears Pre-action Protocol. This edition further considers the implications of the new regulatory framework affecting all registered providers of social housing, which has been established by the Tenant Services Authority (TSA), and the impact on possession proceedings of the statutory guidance and standards issued by the TSA. Defending Possession Proceedings is an essential purchase for all lawyers and advisers working with actual or prospective defendants in possession proceedings.

Commodity Derivatives: Documenting and Understanding Commodity Derivative Products

edited by Edmund Parker and Marcin Perzanowski
Globe Law and Business, Hardcover, ISBN 9781905783373, due July 2010, £130.00

Commodity derivatives are financial instruments whose value is based on underlying commodities, such as oil, gas, metals, agricultural products and minerals. Other assets such as emissions trading credits, freight rates and even the weather can also underlie commodity derivatives. Although the market has been around for centuries, commodity derivatives remain a vital and increasingly sophisticated product today. Airlines continue to hedge themselves against volatility in fuel prices, mining corporations against declines in metal values and power companies against rises in the price of natural gas. Although the popularity of commodity derivatives has grown spectacularly in recent years, little has been written about the array of products or their documentation. Commodity Derivatives: Documenting and Understanding Commodity Derivative Products examines the full spectrum of commodity derivative transactions. This accessible title explains each type of transaction, together with the documentation involved. In particular, the book analyses and guides the reader through the full suite of over-the-counter, exchange-traded and structured commodity derivative documentation, and provides a detailed guide to International Swaps and Derivatives Association and other leading documentation platforms. The book further contains detailed analysis of the regulatory and tax issues affecting commodity derivative products in the United Kingdom and United States.

A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution

by Stuart Sime, Susan Blake and Julie Browne
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199591862, due August 2010, £34.99

A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution provides a comprehensive and easily digestible commentary on all the major areas of ADR. Designed to support teaching and learning on the new Bar Professional training Programme, it will also be of interest to practitioners who are looking for a clear exposition of the range of ADR processes. Written by an authoritative and highly respected author team, A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution contains a range of features designed to enhance the reader's understanding of the key points, including sample documentation, flow diagrams, tables and examples drawn from a range of different types of practice.

Commercial Agency Agreements: Law and Practice 3rd edition

by Susan Singleton
Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, ISBN 9781847665720, due August 2010, £125.00

Commercial Agency Agreements: Law and Practice 3rd edition is a comprehensive guide to the laws of commercial agency agreements and commercial agents' damages claims. Highly practical, the specialist information and reference material is simple to access and straight-forwardly presented. This new edition clearly demonstrates how commercial agents can successfully bring a claim for compensation; ensures commercial agency agreements comply with all necessary regulations; highlights the protection commercial agents now receive and covers the legal issues that relate to competition law and EU law in the agency.

Blackstone's Guide to the Bribery Act 2010

by Monty Raphael
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199579785, due July 2010, £39.95

The Blackstone's Guide Series delivers concise and accessible books covering the latest legislative changes and amendments. Published soon after enactment, they offer expert commentary by leading names on the scope, extent and effects of the legislation, plus a full copy of the Act itself. They offer a cost-effective solution to key information needs and are the perfect companion for any practitioner needing to get up to speed with the latest changes. The Bribery Act 2010 reforms the law of corruption, currently covered by the common law and a number of statutes dating to the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The Act modernizes the existing law and creates new offences and investigative powers - targeted at both individuals and businesses, particularly those operating in sectors most often associated with corruption of public officials (such as defence, construction, healthcare, and the extractive industries). It is also intended to enable increased prosecution of businesses operating overseas, whether through subsidiaries, joint ventures, or direct market access. It also simplifies and clarifies existing laws, and makes UK law compliant with international instruments. This new Blackstone's Guide combines the full text of the Act and extracts of related relevant legislation with an expert narrative. It brings practitioners up-to-date with this complex piece of drafting. Presented in a straightforward layout, it enables ease of use as a reference source.

A-Z of Computer Contracts: The Legal Aspects of IT Procurement

by Dai Davis
Gower Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9780566086939, due August 2010, £75.00

All companies buy computer systems. Most of them cannot afford lawyers to review their contracts and those that have in-house contract managers often lack detailed expertise on IT and computer procurement. Dai Davis, one of Europe's leading experts on IT procurement and the law, provides a down-to-earth guide to help you ensure a smooth and dispute free process of contracting. The book covers the acquisition process, intellectual property, software, hardware as well as specialist processes such as leasing, outsourcing, disaster recovery and so on. Use it to minimise supplier exclusions, secure robust service, delivery and performance warranties, define ownership of the system and protect your hardware, software, support service and the continued smooth running of your whole organization.

LAW OF FIELD SPORTS

Tim Russ and Jamie Foster

Price:	£35
ISBN:	9780854900695
Extent:	circa 160pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

Written by leading practitioners in the field, Law of Field Sports is the first book on the Game Act 1831 for the best part of a century during which time there has been considerable reform of the law. This book contains a detailed analysis of the civil and criminal law relating to shooting and hunting and offers a practical evaluation of the Hunting Act 2004. The authors look at the law of poaching and control of shooting and hunting in terms of closed seasons and provide up-to-date precedents on the Ground Game Act 1880. A useful overview of pertinent firearms law is also included.

Land ownership of rural land is also covered so far as it relates to shooting and hunting, in particular the issue of how field sports rights are treated by the law of real property. The book also sets out the law appertaining to badgers, deer and other species managed in the countryside.

Law of Field Sports provides a comprehensive single source of reference that will prove invaluable for practitioners drafting game rights in sporting or farming leases, or defending those who might have fallen foul of the law and be facing prosecution in relation to game issues.

Tim Russ is a Partner with Clarke Willmott LLP. He specialises in agricultural property disputes including agricultural tenancy and related issues and has been recognised as an agricultural expert by the Chambers and Legal Experts directories. He is a member of the Agricultural Law Association, the Country Land & Business Association, and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Jamie Foster is a Senior Associate with Clarke Willmott LLP and specialises in regulatory law, advising and representing clients involved in environmental prosecutions, health and safety prosecutions and animal welfare cases.

This book examines the vocation of being a judge. It covers training, discipline and removal of judges as well as their position in the broader context as law-makers and servants of society.

The book is both comparative and practical while also examining the theory and jurisprudence of judging. It is full of practical examples drawn from the author's extensive experience and numerous contacts within the judiciary around the world. It examines their relationship to the societies they are representing and answerable to and their position and responsibilities as part of an international judicial brotherhood.

Although based in the Caribbean, the author is well known throughout the Commonwealth and in the United States as a writer on constitutional law and ethics.

Sir Fred Phillips is the former Governor, St. Kitts/Nevis/Anguilla and a Barrister-at-Law and member of the Middle Temple. He is the author of six books on constitutional law and ethics of the legal profession

LEGAL RESEARCH: A Practitioner's Handbook

Peter Clinch with contributions by James Mullan

Price:	£39
ISBN:	9780854900640
Extent:	450 pp
Size:	246 x 189mm
Binding:	Hardback

This comprehensive reference is specifically aimed at busy practitioners (solicitors, barristers and professional support lawyers), particularly those who do not have the benefit of access to a law librarian or information officer. Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook provides practical advice on every aspect of effective legal research: problem analysis, selecting and finding the best sources, and presenting results effectively.

Part A covers problem identification and analysis, followed by advice on how to select the best sources and formats (paper or electronic) for research. Part B deals with the information most frequently sought by practitioners, listing sources with analytical comments and, for a selection of the most complex, 'how to use' instructions developed to a standard template. Jurisdictional coverage includes England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and the European Union, with the addition of information on key sources in European human rights and international law. Part C details sources on how to make the presentation of the results of legal research more effective.

Peter Clinch is Senior Subject Librarian for Law at Cardiff University and has trained law students, practising solicitors and law librarians in legal research skills. He devised and runs the award-winning Cardiff Index to Legal Abbreviations.

James Mullan is Knowledge Management Systems Manager for Field Fisher Waterhouse LLP. Previously he was an Information Officer at CMS Cameron McKenna LLP. He is a member of the British & Irish Association of Law Librarians (BIALL) council.

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE
IN THE COUNTY COURT (5ed)
A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation

Patricia Pearl and Andrew Goodman

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854900527
Extent: 309pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Paperback

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The fifth edition of this popular title (formerly entitled Small Claims Procedure: A Practical Guide) will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available.

The mediation section of the book has special prominence in this edition. Litigants using the small claims track can now agree to have their cases diverted to a mediation service run by the Courts service and at no additional charge. The system has been in operation now for over a year and has proved popular with court users, especially litigants in person. This book sets out the scheme in detail together with practical tips on how to make the best use of this new service.

Updating material in this edition has been significant; of particular importance are the clarified rules on the date upon which court proceedings are served and the material which must be included in letters before action and other pre-action steps. Finally, the book has been made even more user friendly by improved cross-referencing, handy tables and an extensive glossary.

CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS
A Comparative Study

Andrew Harding & Peter Leyland

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854900633
Extent: 384 pp
Size: 152 x 229 mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains an outstanding set of essays on constitutional courts. In many nations constitutional justice can be identified as a central feature of contemporary constitutionalism. Moreover, viewed from a comparative global perspective it is clear that constitutional justice as well as providing a special kind of dispute resolution, also has been turned to as a means of safeguarding conditions of liberal democracy. What characteristics must such a court possess to undertake the tasks that confront them? These contributions by providing an analysis of features such as constitutional context, jurisdictional scope, organisational features and interpretative techniques to give a selective snapshot of the legal characteristics and the operation of constitutional courts across the world.

The chapters by a team of leading international scholars include a general introduction and then focus on: Austria, Central and Eastern Europe, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Spain, Turkey, Egypt, Francophone Africa, South Africa, Latin America, East Asia, Indonesia and Thailand.

Andrew Harding is Director of the Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives and Chair of Asia-Pacific Relations at the University of Victoria, Canada.

Peter Leyland is Professor of Public Law at London Metropolitan University. Both have published extensively in the field of comparative public law and they are joint editors of the series: ‘Constitutional Systems of the World’.

MIXED LEGAL SYSTEMS AT NEW FRONTIERS

Esin Örucü

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900701
Extent: 338pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

The aim of this volume is to provide the reader with original views on and insight into mixed legal systems in general, and some mixed legal systems and ongoing mixes in particular. The hope is that the analyses to be found in the eleven contributions will be helpful for scholars, students and practitioners who have a general interest in comparative law and a special interest in mixed legal systems, and provide inspiration to pursue further inquiries.

The contributions are a selection of papers presented at the 2007 Second World Congress of the World Society of Mixed Jurisdiction Jurists, ‘The Boundaries of Unity: Mixed Systems in Action’. As can be gleaned from the title of the Congress, the emphasis has shifted from the closed family of ‘mixed jurisdictions’ towards a wider embrace, considering ‘mixed systems’, in addition to the classical ‘mixed jurisdictions’. Following the introduction, the first two pieces inform the reader of the multiplicity of approaches to mixed legal systems and widen the horizon, offering expansion, though retaining exclusivity. Then follow chapters throwing new light on Commonwealth Caribbean, United States Novojo law, Turkey, South Africa, Sri Lanka, England and Ireland, the European Union, and Public International Law and International Trade Law; all showing that we are entering an era of legal studies involving looking at all legal systems anew.

BUILDING THE CIVILIZATION OF ARBITRATION

Thomas E Carbonneau and Angelica M Sinopole

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900688
Extent: 390pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

This book brings together a group of distinguished academics and practitioners and codifies their discussion of cutting-edge topics in the contemporary law of arbitration. A number of the contributors are members of the American Law Institute’s drafting committee on the Restatement of the Law of International Arbitration, a document likely to have a significant impact on the development and evolution of law in the area. The subject matter of the chapters variously accesses the development of investment arbitration, the difficulties raised by adhesionary arbitration, the problems associated with the State regulation of the arbitral process, the role of courts in acclimatizing the legal system to arbitration, the continued power of contracting parties in establishing and operating arbitrations, and the significance of recent U.S. Supreme Court rulings. A number of the authors have substantial practical experience in the process; all are well-known and regarded in the field.

Originally published as a symposium issue of the Penn State Law Review, the volume is intended to provide meaningful insights and useful guidance to students and practitioners of the process alike. The perspective adopted in the considerations is both national and international. The Dean of Penn State Law, Philip J. McConaughay, himself an authority on arbitration, provided invaluable support for the symposium and book project.

MEDICAL LAW PRECEDENTS FOR LAWYERS

Charles Foster

Price: £79
ISBN: 9780854900374
Extent: 416 pp
Size: 246 x 189mm
Binding: Hardback

Written by eminent practitioners in their respective fields, Medical Law Precedents for Lawyers provides a comprehensive collection of fully annotated precedents. It is designed to be a procedural one-stop-shop for all lawyers, whether specialists or otherwise, conducting litigation in any area of medical law from clinical negligence to public law.

Each section of the book contains precedents – including draft letters, checklists, pleadings, court orders etc – which are designed to be easily adaptable to whatever factual situation the user faces. It is not assumed that the user will be familiar with the legal or procedural reasons for doing things in the way suggested by the precedent, and accordingly each precedent is annotated in detail. These annotations, which are inserted by way of footnote, mean that the book is a complete and very practical guide to most of the relevant procedural law and many important aspects of substantive law. It will be invaluable to any busy practitioner asked for advice on clinical negligence, inquests, consent to treatment, withdrawal of treatment, clinical confidentiality, complaining about a healthcare professional, disciplinary and regulatory law in the medical sphere, public law challenges to the decisions of healthcare bodies and – (of increasing importance) – mental capacity issues.

Charles Foster (editor) is a barrister at Outer Temple Chambers, specialising in medical law. He has written, edited or contributed to over thirty books, many of them concerned with medical law, and is a regular speaker at medico-legal conferences.

Contributors: Susan Bartfield, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Jamie Carpenter, Hailsham Chambers; Cara Guthrie, Outer Temple Chambers; Nick Peacock, Hailsham Chambers; Susan Freeborn, Outer Temple Chambers; Alan Jenkins, Outer Temple Chambers; Fiona Borrill, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Andrew Allen, Outer Temple Chambers.

THE SNAIL AND THE GINGER BEER
The Story of Donoghue v Stevenson

Matthew Chapman

Price: £14.99
ISBN: 9780854900497
Extent: 200 pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Hardback

On an August evening in 1928 May Donoghue, a shop assistant, entered a café in Paisley. The circumstances of her visit made legal history. A ginger beer was ordered for Mrs Donoghue who famously complained that, to her surprise and shock, a decomposed snail had tumbled from the bottle into her glass. Mrs Donoghue sued for the nervous shock she claimed to have suffered as a result. The question whether she had a case in law against the manufacturer of the ginger beer was argued as far as the House of Lords. It is hard to overstate the importance of the decision in Donoghue v Stevenson. It represents, perhaps, the greatest contribution made by English and Scottish lawyers to the development of the common law.

Donoghue v Stevenson made it clear that, even without a contract between the parties, a duty of care is owed by ‘A’ to take reasonable care to avoid acts or omissions which could reasonably be foreseen as likely to cause injury to his neighbour: ‘B’. This concept, developed by the great jurist Lord Atkin, has become known by the universal shorthand, ‘the neighbour principle’. Who, Lord Atkin asked rhetorically, is ‘in law’ my neighbour? Donoghue v Stevenson provides the answer.

The Snail and the Ginger Beer tells the full story of this remarkable case. It provides vivid biographical sketches of the protagonists and of the great lawyers who were involved in the case. It sets Donoghue v Stevenson in its historical context and re-evaluates the evidence. The roots of the neighbour principle are excavated in the parable of the Good Samaritan and the case law of the United States. The constitutional importance of the case is also dealt with; the blow it struck for a moral approach to the law which departed from a rigid doctrine of precedent. Finally, the book investigates the influence of Donoghue v Stevenson across the common law world: from the USA to the countries of what is now the Commonwealth.

WEIRD CASES
Comic and bizarre cases from courtrooms around the world

Gary Slapper

Price: £9.99
ISBN: 9780854900619
Extent: 160 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

Based on the author's popular Times Online column 'Weird Cases', this book draws on extraordinary cases from many countries, including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Romania, and China. The result is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys reading about the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century.

Courts have seen judges do things like try to turn off a musical tie playing "We wish you a merry Christmas" while sentencing a defendant to prison, fall fast asleep in the middle of trials, flip a coin to decide a case, demand a foot massage from a clerk, and get sentenced for judicial racketeering. Courts have listened to the defences like that of a bogus dentist caught using DIY tools on his patients, a man who based his defence on being as hapless as Homer Simpson, and a woman who was running a brothel from an office in the criminal courts. Courts have seen a litigant sue for becoming pregnant by a stray sperm in a swimming pool, and a litigant suddenly strip naked before the judges.

The cases featured in Weird Cases are those that truly stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts. The chapters are: Compensation and Punishment, Love and Sex, Food, Drink, and Drugs, Judges, Death and Violence, Pets and Animals, On the Road, Lawyers, and Jurors, Friends, and Neighbours.

Gary Slapper is an established writer in bringing law to a wide audience. He is a columnist with The Times, for which he has written since 1998, and Professor of Law at The Open University. He also acts as a Legal Consultant to BBC drama and documentaries.

PARTNERSHIP AND LLP LAW

Elspeth Berry

Price:	£29
ISBN:	9780854900602
Extent:	183 pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

This book contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format. It provides a comprehensive and comparative explanation of the law relating to all three types of business partnership available under English law; general partnerships, limited partnerships and LLPs. Partnership and LLP Law explains the applicable law from formation of the business to termination, including chapters on the availability or otherwise of legal personality, duties of partners and members, management issues, property and finance, taxation, litigation and insolvency. It includes coverage of the Limited Liability Partnerships (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2009, which adapt and apply the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 to LLPs; and the Legislative Reform (Limited Partnerships) Order 2009, which introduces key reforms to limited partnership law.

The law relating to each of the three types of partnership is set out clearly and concisely to enable the reader to understand, or refresh their understanding of partnership and LLP law. This approach will also enable those with knowledge or experience of one type of partnership to understand the similarities and differences of the other types. A sample partnership/ LLP agreement is included within the book.

Elspeth Berry is a Senior Lecturer in Law at Nottingham Law School, with over fifteen years of experience in researching partnership and LLP law and teaching undergraduate and postgraduate students the law of business organisations and other commercial and international subjects. She is the co-author of European Union Law (2007) and Partnership Law (1999).

DEBT RECOVERY IN THE COURTS

John Kruse

Price:	£29
ISBN:	9780854900732
Extent:	152pp.
Size:	218mm x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

Debt Recovery in the Courts contains a wealth of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format. It provides a concise introduction to the use of the courts for the recovery of debts, such as trade debts owed to companies, firms and sole traders; personal debts owed between individuals; rent arrears due from former tenants and rent unpaid under a money judgment made in conjunction with a possession order; and Employment Tribunal awards. Awards of damages granted by the courts in other proceedings may also be enforced by following the procedures laid down in this book.

Debt Recovery in the Courts guides practitioners through the entire process of litigation, from the issue of claims through to the enforcement of judgment debts, outlining the procedure to be followed and giving practical tips at each stage. It evaluates the pros and cons of different remedies and is realistic about potential outcomes. The text is supported throughout by the provision of checklists, flow-charts and precedents.

Working within the field of social welfare, John Kruse has specialised in the law of enforcement for the last twenty years, and has written numerous books and articles on the subject, including Powers of Distress: A Guide to Remedies Unreformed by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 and Bailiffs' Law. He has also acted as a consultant inter alia to the Ministry of Justice and the Council of Europe.

Extent: 255 pp.
Size: 216 x 138mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format, providing a concise introduction to the law relating to termination of employment. Written by experienced practitioners, Termination of Employment is an invaluable aide-memoire for the busy practitioner, providing practical advice on all stages of an unfair dismissal case, from considering the merits (or demerits) of the claim to presenting the case before an employment tribunal and appealing (or defending an appeal) to the EAT. The text is supported throughout by an array of helpful checklists. Fully up-to-date, the book provides coverage of important developments in the field since the last edition, such as the 2009 ACAS Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures.

John Bowers QC is one of the leading employment barristers in the UK, practising from Littleton Chambers. He has written over fifteen books, and is a frequent contributor to the Law Society Gazette, New Law Journal and Industrial Law Journal. He is a Recorder on the Midland Circuit and a former Chair of the Employment Law Bar Association.

Carol Davis is an employment and commercial law specialist at Littleton Chambers. She has co-authored numerous articles on aspects of employment law and has lectured on a number of topics, including whistle blowing, discrimination law, disciplinary and grievance matters.

CHANGE OF NAME
The Law and Practice (3rd ed.)

Nasreen Pearce

Price:	£29.00
ISBN:	9780854900442
Extent:	120 pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

There are many reasons why a person may wish to be known by a different name – on marriage breakdown, or to be relieved of an embarrassment, for example. An adult is free to use any name that he or she chooses, provided that the objective is lawful. For many purposes, however, it is wise to have some formal evidence of a change of name, by deed poll or statutory declaration, or by some other procedure. This can usually be done quickly, cheaply and effectively.

The change in the concept and nature of a family unit, which now includes not only single parents and step-parents but also same sex parents and biological and non biological parents, raises complex issues and gives rise to many questions about the names by which children may be registered, how and on what basis a child's name may be changed and the factors which the courts take into account when deciding any dispute relating to a change of a child's name, between the parents or persons having parental responsibility for the child.

Formerly published by Callow Publishing, Change of Name provides a practical and straightforward guide to this sometimes tricky area of law. Fully up-to-date, the third edition deals with the provisions of the Adoption and Children Act 2002, particularly in relation to Special Guardians, the impact of the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008 and the Civil Partnership Act 2004 and recent case law, clearly explaining the procedures to be followed. The range of specimen forms and precedents provided by Her Honour Judge Pearce will prove invaluable to the busy practitioner.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge, and was formerly a district judge in the Principal Registry of the Family Division. She has written widely on family law and is a contributor to the Family Court Practice.
