WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 17

Issue 1

Published Monthly

Jan/Feb 2012

The Book News now enters its seventeenth year. It started life as a little monthly 4 page black & white folded A3 sheet in 1996 with a 3 month trial. 193 issues later we are still going.

The cover this month is the Harry C. Moore Law Library in Nassau, Bahamas. John Pethick visited there at the beginning of December. He is next off to Jamaica in February, see our list of trips on p. 30.

Our first notices to purchasers of the White Book have now gone out. As in previous years, we will be supplying a free umbrella with every order. In addition we supply all supplementary materials ourselves from our distribution centre.

On the left hand side of our website home page there is a panel headed Books by Dave - a prize to the first person to tell us which Dave is being alluded to. Email your guess to enquiries@wildy.com. It's pretty obscure and no-one here got it until our webmaster explained it.

While we are on the subject of the website home page there is another panel on it which allows you to take a virtual tour of the shop in Lincoln's Inn courtesy of Google

The new books to look out for in February are Keating on Construction Contracts and Megarry & Wade The Law of Real Property.

Brand, Paul; Getzler, Joshua, Judges and Judging in the History of the Common Law and Civil Law: From Antiquity to Modern Times, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9781107018976

In this collection of essays, leading legal historians address significant topics in the history of judges and judging, with comparisons not only between British, American and Commonwealth experience, but also with the judiciary in civil law countries. It is not the law itself, but the process of law-making in courts, that is the focus of inquiry. Contributors describe and analyse aspects of judicial activity, in the widest possible legal and social contexts, across two millennia. The essays cover English common law, continental customary law and ius commune, and aspects of the common law system in the British Empire. The volume is innovative in its approach to legal history. None of the essays offer straight doctrinal exegesis; none take refuge in old-fashioned judicial biography. The volume is a selection of the best papers from the 18th British Legal History Conference.

Human Trafficking Handbook

“This excellent Handbook will not only contribute to a better understanding of the challenges presented by human trafficking but it will become an indispensable resource for all concerned with combating this pernicious trade.”

Sir Nicolas Bratza, European Court of Human Rights

The Human Trafficking Handbook brings together for the first time expert perspectives from a wide range of key participants in the struggle against human trafficking in the United Kingdom.

Edited and collated by award-winning human rights barrister Parosha Chandran, this precedent-setting text assembles the views of specialist lawyers, local authorities, doctors, non-governmental organisations, police officers and prosecutors as it surveys the major themes of human trafficking.

This Handbook is an essential anthology of opinion and analysis written by experienced, passionate professionals who play a vital role in today’s fight against modern-day slavery.

Pensions on Divorce 2nd edition

By Edward Hess
Nova Law and Finance, Hardback, ISBN
9781908013194, due February 2012, £75.00

When a husband and wife decide to divorce it is frequently the case that one of them will own valuable pension rights and the other will not, or will own such rights of a smaller value. The interests of fairness may justify court intervention to redistribute these rights or make some other provision as compensation. This book attempts to explain and explore in an accessible fashion: What powers the court has to intervene and redistribute these rights? What are the procedural mechanisms which the court will follow in carrying out this intervention and redistribution? In what circumstances will the court consider it appropriate to intervene and redistribute these rights or make some other compensatory provision? What actuarial issues may arise from such considerations? Completely updated to cover new legislation, and with extensive notes on current regulations, this work also includes all of the standard forms required as well as a comprehensive series of tables and ready-reckoners to assist the reader in determining the best course for their clients.

The Law of Waiver, Variation and Estoppel 3rd edition

By Sean Wilken and Karim Ghaly

Oxford University

Press, Hardback, ISBN

9780199696833, due February 2012, £155.00

This book provides a complete practitioner guide to the complex but important doctrines of waiver, variation and estoppel, analysing their basic foundations and their relationship with other areas of law including contract, restitution, and equity.

As well as clarifying and explaining those doctrines in relation to other areas, it also considers their application in various aspects of commercial law. The new edition provides a thorough analysis of the increasing trend in commercial parties to insert "No Waiver" clauses into contracts and considers the behaviour adopted by the courts in relation to these and other matters. It also includes coverage of important cases such as the House of Lords decision in Yeoman v Cobbe, Dallah Real Estate v Pakistan Ministry of Religious Affairs and those such as the Scottish decision in City Inns which demonstrate an on-going confusion and uncertainty on the analysis and application of these doctrines.

The Law and Practice of Arbitration 4th edition

By Thomas E. Carbonneau
Juris Publishing, Hardback,
ISBN 9781933833989, due
March 2012, £110.00

This publication is a comprehensive treatise about the development and practice of arbitration law in the United States. It addresses in detail the recourse to arbitration in domestic matters. That is employment, labor, consumer transactions, and business. Its use in the resolution of international commercial claims. It covers all of the major subject areas in the field and provides practical advice as well as an easy-to-read, clear discussion of the relevant case law. It represents a masterful synthesis of the entire body of arbitration law. It discusses basic concepts and doctrines, the FAA, freedom of contract in arbitration, arbitrability, the enforcement of awards, the use of arbitration in consumer and employment matters, institutional arbitration, and the drafting of arbitration agreements. It speaks of the federalization of the law and growing judicial objections to the use of adhesion arbitration agreements in the consumer context. The new 4th Edition is thoroughly updated. It includes extensive coverage and analysis of the four most recent United States Supreme Court cases: Stolt-Nielsen, Rent-A-Center, AT&T Mobility, and Granite Rock. The doctrine from the holding in these cases are integrated throughout the work. References in footnotes are more substantial and of greater utility to the researcher and reader. Several chapters have been completely rewritten to better convey the significance of the case discussion and analysis. The book includes new chapters on maritime arbitration, labor arbitration, and the California decisional position on arbitration. The volume represents the author's continuing in-depth reflection on the practical and systemic consequences of United States Supreme Court's decisional law on arbitration -- a process that is instrumental to the operation of the United States legal system as well as international business. The work continues its tradition of being the best statement on U.S. arbitration law and practice. The Law and Practice of Arbitration is a handy reference for all that have an interest in arbitration law and practice.

MORE WEIRD CASES Comic and Bizarre Cases from Courtrooms around the World

Gary Slapper

Price: £9.99
Edition: 1st
ISBN: 9780854901005
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

The first book in this series, Weird Cases, was published in 2009 and contained cases which had been dealt with by the courts in the previous two years. The parade of extraordinary human disputes and irregularities that are heard in law courts has, however, run on unabated since then. More Weird Cases provides a further instalment of extraordinary cases from around the world that have featured in the author's popular column in The Times Online.

The cases featured in More Weird Cases are those that truly stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts: the case of the man caught with a substantial quantity of marijuana who said in his defence that he only possessed the drug for the purposes of de-worming his ducks; a case where the court authorities didn't accept that 'being a cat' was a proper excuse not to serve on a jury; and one where a man was granted a divorce because his wife thought about having sex with another man.

This book is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys reading about the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century.

Gary Slapper is Global Professor, New York University, and Director of New York University, London. He is also a Visiting Professor of Law at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and The Open University, UK. A Law columnist for The Times Online, and Door Tenant at 36 Bedford Row, Professor Slapper is also a legal consultant to BBC drama and documentaries.

WILLSA Practical Guide

Lesley King and Peter Gausden

Price: £29.00
 ISBN: 9780854900909
 Extent: 278 pp
 Size: 216 x 138mm
 Binding: Paperback

Wills: A Practical Guide explains what is involved in making a will, with particular reference to avoiding those issues which often give rise to litigation. The book contains a concise description of the content of a will and the mechanics of signing and witnessing and is written by two experienced practitioners in a clear and user-friendly style.

It provides a guide to not only what can be disposed of by will but to property which is subject to its own rules. Information is provided on the formalities for making a will, including the testator's capacity and related issues, particularly those involving the elderly, which may affect the validity of the will. The appointment of executors, trustees and guardians is considered along with the dispositive provisions typically contained in a will, including the use of trusts, creation of residuaries, gifts to children and so on. There are also sections on less common aspects of will-making but which often cause problems for practitioners including gifts for the benefit of pets, gifts to employees, gifts of business interest, mutual (as distinguished from mirror) wills, testamentary options, burial and other requests and dealing with property overseas. The importance of providing executors and trustees with appropriate powers and the need to modify what is implied by statute is dealt with, including the importance of making adequate provision for the application of income and capital when required.

CHINA'S PRE-TRIAL JUSTICE

Criminal Justice, Human Rights and Legal Reforms in Contemporary China

Elisa Nesossi

|----------|------------------|
| Price: | £65.00 |
| Series: | Law in East Asia |
| ISBN: | 9780854901036 |
| Extent: | 384 pp |
| Size: | 229 x 152mm |
| Binding: | Hardback |

This book examines the relationship between international human rights standards and local legal norms in the People's Republic of China (PRC). Focussing on the realm of criminal justice in post-Deng China, Criminal Procedure Law reforms and their impact on the PRC's ratification of and future accession to the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, this book examines the limits to the protection of criminal suspects rights during pre-trial proceedings.

Notwithstanding the significance of pre-trial proceedings in the Chinese criminal justice system, to date no other publication in a Western language has systematically focussed on this important issue. This book thus fills a serious gap in the literature by offering a detailed discussion of this aspect of criminal justice and human rights in contemporary China. The book is intended as a contribution to the study of Chinese law, human rights law and comparative criminal justice, and by considering developments in Chinese local legal culture, it also explores issues of broader interest to comparativists and legal sociologists.
