Volume 17 Issue 2 Published Monthly

Feb/Mar 2012

We have a winner! On the left hand side of our website home page there was a panel last month headed Books by Dave - the prize to the first person to tell us which Dave is being alluded to came from Canada where they have nothing better to do in the winter. The answer was David Bowman (the astronaut 'Dave' in the movie 2001: A Space Odyssey). Congratulations to John Eaton.

This year the White Book is published on March 15th. As in previous years, we will be supplying a free umbrella with every order. In addition we supply all supplementary materials throughout the year ourselves from our distribution centre.

Our photos this month come from the annual BIALL Cheese and Wine party which was held in the Old Hall, Lincoln's Inn. Everyone enjoyed themselves and we should like to thank Catherine McArdle for her work in organizing it.

The other photos were sent by John Pethick who is in Jamaica at the moment and attended a meeting of the Legal Information Association of Jamaica.

On a sad note, Roy Heywood, who spent most of his working life with Wildy's, passed away a few days ago after a long illness. He was a true bookman and master of the pun. He will be sadly missed. There is an obituary on page 4.

Roy Heywood

It is with great regret to note that Roy Heywood, my friend and colleague passed away on Saturday 25th of February aged 62. I had known him for more than forty years.

Roy joined Wildy's in 1967 and started to learn his trade as a junior sales assistant in our bookshop. Much in common with Law Librarians at the time, these were the days when a huge amount of information had to be retained in one's head; there were no electronic data bases for ease of reference and records were kept by card index or by updating catalogues. And so it was that the first chapter in what became Roy's vast book of bibliographic knowledge was written.

In 1970 Roy left Wildy's to join Butterworths in their legal bookshop, but returned in 1975 to take up the role of Manager of our New Books Department at Lincoln's Inn. Over the ensuing years, Roy worked in most departments throughout the company and became a Director in the early 1980's.

In more recent years, Roy's principal responsibilities were running our Antiquarian Department along with our Sets and Multi-volume Reports Department; by which time his knowledge of English law books ranged from the latest student textbooks, right back to fine antiquarian volumes, a truly remarkable achievement. (The company has records of books and documents going back to the year 1500).

In 2007 Roy moved to our warehouse and distribution centre in Leighton Buzzard which was closer to his home and where he could immerse himself amongst some of our more interesting legal tomes that he knew and loved so well.

Roy retired from the company in September 2009, but in recent months he had become seriously ill. Despite this, he was surprisingly upbeat and cheerful when I went to visit him a couple of weeks prior to his passing – he was clearly resigned to the fact that he didn't have too long to go and was busy sorting out his affairs. We sat chatting for several hours, recounting stories of our time together at Wildy's and laughing and joking about many amusing and bizarre events that we had shared over the years.

One of Roy's last requests was to have his wake held at his beloved MK Dons and he heard that his wish had been granted, just before he passed away.

Roy's quiet and thoughtful manner, coupled with a sharp sense of humour, endeared him to his colleagues and customers from all over the world, some of whom had known him for more than four decades. He will be sadly missed by us all.

Allen, Robin; Crasnow, Rachel, Family Rights at Work: A Guide to Employment Law, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £110.00, ISBN: 9781846611964

This practical book explains the family rights of employees, and the problems employers can face in accommodating them. Going beyond just maternity issues, it also covers adoption rights, part time and flexible working, parental leave rights, discrimination. Providing clear analysis of the case-law surrounding the highly regulated framework governing the rights of working parents, it gives guidance on applying rules and regulations in practice.

Andrews, Geraldine; Millett,

Richard, Law of Guarantees 6th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £235.00, ISBN: 9780414044715

Frequently cited in court, this text is the leading work on guarantees written by experts in their field. A practitioner focused text examining the law and practice of guarantees and surety, it covers everything required for work in this area.

Baxendale-Walker, Paul, Thornhill and Baxendale-Walker's Law and Taxation of Remuneration Trusts 2nd ed., Hardback, £150.00, ISBN: 9781901614466

The first edition of this book published in 1997 set out the key legal principles relating to the establishment, administration and taxation of these trusts. The Author draws on over a decade of experience - both as tax practitioner and researcher - to explain how the law and taxation of these trusts has developed. There have been important developments both in legislation and case law. What were grey areas in 1997 have now become legal certainties, which present both opportunities and pitfalls for Remuneration Trust planning.

Burling, Julian; Lazarus, Kevin, Research Handbook on International Insurance Law and Regulation, Edward Elgar Publishing Limited, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9781849807883

This detailed book provides much needed coverage of insurance law and regulation in its international context.

see www.wildy.com for further details

Produced in association with Lloyd's, it draws on the expertise both of academics and practising lawyers. Containing 30 comprehensive chapters, it provides in-depth studies on key areas, such as the role of international organisations, the judicial interpretation of insurance contract clauses and transnational regulatory recognition.

Crawford, James; Koskeniemi, Martti, The Cambridge Companion to International Law, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780521143080

This intellectually rigorous introduction to international law encourages readers to engage with multiple aspects of the topic: as 'law' directing and shaping its subjects; as a technique for governing the world of states and beyond statehood; and as a framework within which several critical and constructivist projects are articulated. The articles situate international law in its historical and ideological context and examine core concepts such as sovereignty, jurisdiction and the state. Attention is also given to its operation within international institutions and in dispute settlement, and a separate section is devoted to international law's 'projects': protecting human rights, eradicating poverty, the conservation of resources, the regulation of international trade and investment and the establishment of international order. The diverse group of contributors draws from disciplinary orientations ranging from positivism to postmodernism to ensure that this book is informed theoretically and politically, as well as grounded in practice.

Daele, Karel, Challenge and Disqualification of Arbitrators in International Arbitration, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £128.00, ISBN: 9789041137999

In this thoroughly researched study of the grounds and procedures involved in challenging an arbitrator, the author provides the first in-depth analysis of the pertinent rules, guidelines, and standards of all the major international arbitration tribunals, as well as relevant issues raised in national case law in the United States, France, England, Sweden and Switzerland.

dair, Foreign National Prisoners: Law and Practice, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781903307663

Foreign National Prisoners: Law and Practice brings together the relevant UK and European Court of Human Rights' case-law, legislation, practice, policies and procedure on foreign national prisoners. The book will be essential reading for all those working with foreign national prisoners, and for immigration and prison law practitioners in particular. It is the first book to provide an inter-disciplinary and practical guide to the immigration, prison law and false imprisonment aspects of legal challenges brought by foreign national prisoners and former prisoners (FNPs).

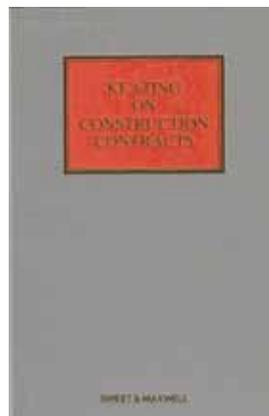

Freedman, Philip; Shapiro,

Eric; Slater, Brian, Service Charges: Law & Practice 5th ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781846612473

Service Charges: Law and Practice is a best-selling guide to the legal framework in which service charges operate. It is designed to be used by all those who deal with service charges, either as landlord, tenant, agent or professional adviser. This new edition has been substantially revised to take account of over 30 new LVT cases, the new RICS Code of Practice for Service Charges in Commercial Property, as well as new material on Energy Efficiency Certificates, Display Energy Certificates and green leases. The concise and easily understood commentary is supported by specimen service charge clauses, model accounts, notices and certificates making this book an invaluable and immensely practical guide to this difficult subject.

Furst, Stephen; The Hon. Sir Vivian Ramsey, Keating on Construction Contracts 9th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £395.00, ISBN: 9780414047921

A classic construction law text, Keating on Construction Contracts (previously On Building Contracts) is a first port of call for all research on the history and principles governing building contracts, their practical application and their interpretation by the courts. Renowned for its accessible style, it covers all relevant legislation and case law, EC law, and the JCT Forms of Contracts.

Giorgetti, Chiara, The Rules, Practice, and Jurisprudence of International Courts and Tribunals, Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Hardback, £165.00, ISBN: 9789004194823

This book examines existing international dispute resolution institutions, including those of general jurisdiction (ICJ, PCA), specialised jurisdiction (ITLOS, ICSID, WTO), as well as human rights courts, international criminal courts and tribunals, courts of regional integration agreements, claims commissions and tribunals, and administrative tribunals of international organizations. Uniquely, it assesses both procedural rules and essential case-law, making it relevant for both academics and practitioners in international law.

Heremans, Tinne, Professional Services in the EU Internal Market: Quality Regulation and Self-Regulation, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781849462402

This book looks at the manner in which both free movement and competition laws might apply to such self- and co-regulatory set-ups, and at the leeway given to quality considerations (apparently) conflicting with free movement or competition objectives. In addition, since court action will seldom suffice to genuinely integrate a market, the book also explores those instruments of EU secondary legislation that are likely to impact the most on the provision of professional services.

Knowles, Roger, 200 Contractual Problems and their

Solutions 3rd ed, Wiley-Blackwell, Hardback, £69.00, ISBN: 9780470658314

This book examines 200 contractual problems which regularly arise on building and engineering projects and provides a detailed explanation of their solutions, citing standard contract conditions and key parts of legal judgements as authority. It deals with a broad range of construction contracts including JCT Standard Form and Design and Build, New Engineering Contract NEC3, ICE and GC/Works/1. This book was first published under the title of 100 Contractual Problems and Their Solutions, with a second edition entitled 150 Contractual Problems and their Solutions. This third edition adds 50 new problems and replaces 15 of those in the last edition. Of the remainder half have been the subject of revision.

Marshall, David; Kennedy, Jenny; Azib, Rehana, Litigating Psychiatric Injury Claims, Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781845921132

The litigation of psychiatric injury claims is a rapidly expanding area of legal interest. Written by experts in the field, this text describes and analyses the present law and practice on the recovery of compensation for mental harm in English law. It also includes comparative analysis of the approaches taken by other jurisdictions. It presents an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the law in terms of the medical profession's understanding of how psychiatric injury occurs. This is the only publication to be written from a UK perspective whilst drawing on comparative analysis of case law and development in countries outside the English jurisdiction.

Newton, Clive R.; Nagpal, Deepak, Jackson's Matrimonial Finance and Taxation, LexisNexis Butterworths, Hardback, £205.00, ISBN: 9781405764124

Jackson's Matrimonial Finance and Taxation is an authoritative specialist text covering all aspects of financial problems arising from the breakdown of a marriage. The publication of this authoritative title has been deferred to January 2012 to take in to account the important Supreme Court Decision of Kernott v Jones handed down on 9th November 2011. Jackson's matrimonial finance is the first title on the market to deal with this highly relevant case on constructive trusts. Providing family law practitioners with an in-depth treatment of the subject, this unique book explains the principles applied by the courts in considering matters of finance, examines those agreements reached by parties out of court, and deals in detail with cases affecting all sections of society.

Ramberg, Jan, International Commercial Transactions 4th ed, International Chamber of Commerce, Paperback, £140.00, ISBN: 9789284201044

Professor Jan Ramberg, renowned legal expert and writer, gives a concise and lucid presentation of the legal framework and the commercial principles, rules and practices surrounding transnational trade transactions. With a unique, a-national approach, he also explains the interrelations between common trade practice, national laws and international rules. Dealing with the unexpected is often required in complex operations. This book will help parties to a cross-border transaction to avoid pitfalls and costly consequences when transactions do not turn out as expected.

Roberts, Harry, Riley on Business Interruption Insurance 9th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780421925809

This book provides an international guide to business interruption insurance, containing detailed comparison of UK and US practice and procedure. It focuses on the wordings of policies in both the UK and US, but also offers coverage of activities and philosophies in Asia, Africa, the Americas, and Australasia. This new edition covers all the changes that have occurred since the publication of the 8th edition in 1999, including the increased emphasis on policy wordings, increased importance of risk analysis, and changes to the risk landscape.

Rylance, Paul, Writing and Drafting in Legal Practice, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780199589890

Writing and Drafting in Practice provides an up to date and comprehensive guide to writing and drafting - from the first stages of preparation to the final edit - for anyone starting out on a legal career. Unlike an English usage text or style guide or a specialised drafting or precedent book, Writing and Drafting in Practice condenses and combines the main principles, rules, techniques and conventions in one volume for newcomers to legal writing and drafting. It is designed to accompany readers from vocational study through to their qualification as solicitors, as well as throughout the early years of practice.

Schwenzer, Ingeborg; Hachem, Pascal; Kee, Christopher, Global Sales and Contract Law, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £225.00, ISBN: 9780199572984

The book reports on the real practice of sales law, taking into account present day problems. Complex questions on the obligations under a sales contract, the ways in which these are established, as well as the remedies following the breach of obligations, are all discussed. By addressing regional uniform projects, like OHADA, and comparing differences in domestic legal approach where the CISG would not apply, the work goes beyond existing commentaries which tend to focus only on the CISG. The analysis has been based on an unprecedented survey drawn from the world's top fifty companies as well as international traders, lawyers advising international traders, arbitral institutions, arbitrators, and law schools.

Sheldon, Richard, Cross-Border Insolvency 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9781845921040

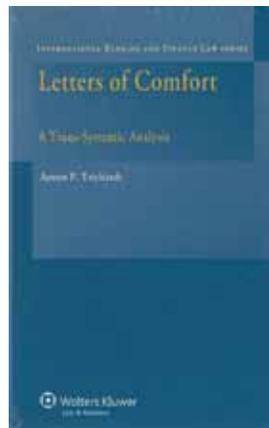

The new 3rd edition of this acclaimed book has been extensively revised and updated to provide a practical analysis of the fundamental changes to cross-border insolvency law and practice in England as result of the European Insolvency Regulation, as well as the Cross Border Insolvency Regulations 2006 which implemented the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency. With illustrations at the end of each chapter showing how to avoid practical problems, this thoroughly researched text gives an insight into the impact and potential difficulties of the law, enabling the practitioner to anticipate problems before they arise.

Stamp, Mark, Practical Company Law and Corporate Transactions 3rd ed,

Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £125.00, ISBN: 9780414043121

A complete guide to the principles, practice and procedure for all aspects of corporate transactions. It has been fully updated to cover all aspects of the Companies Act 2006, FSA and City Code-related developments, the new UK Corporate Governance Code and the Stewardship Code. This book provides a user-friendly single volume company law resource as well as an in-depth analysis of takeovers and mergers, private company and business sales, acquisitions and demergers. It includes a wealth of worked examples, case studies and flow charts, all cross-referenced to the main text.

Trichardt, Anton, Letters of

see www.wildy.com for further details

Comfort: A Trans-Systemic Analysis, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £112.00, ISBN: 9789041136008

This book presents the first thoroughgoing analysis of the contractual effect of letters of comfort as it appears in both common law and civil law systems. The commentary draws on cases from a wide variety of jurisdictions and on the full range of legal scholarship on the subject in several languages. Clearly evoking the tension between business needs, the law, and judicial application, the book analyses what happens when the relationship between a lender and a creditor breaks down, or the latter becomes insolvent, and courts or arbitrators are asked to determine the legal status of a comfort letter.

Wild, Alexander, CAS and Football: Landmark Cases, T.M.C. Asser Press, Hardback, £90.00, ISBN: 9789067048071

Since 11 November 2002 FIFA recognized the jurisdiction of the CAS. This date does not mark the beginning of the arbitration of the CAS in football matters, however it has to be stated, that from this date on football disputes in front of the CAS increased enormously. This book is dedicated to the most important decisions of the CAS in football disputes. These awards are analyzed by experts, practicing all over the world. Most of the authors have been directly involved in the proceedings before the CAS. The commentaries cover a broad spectrum of disputes, inter alia, disputes concerning the contractual stability, protection of young football players, doping, football hooliganism, match fixing, players release, multiple club ownership, player agents and the stays of execution.

Wilken, Sean; Ghaly, Karim, The Law of Waiver, Variation and Estoppel 3rd ed, Oxford University Press,

Hardback, £155.00, ISBN: 9780199696833

This book provides a complete practitioner guide to the complex but important doctrines of waiver, variation and estoppel, analysing their basic foundations and their relationship with other areas of law including contract, restitution, and equity. As well as clarifying and explaining those doctrines in relation to other areas, it also considers their application in various aspects of commercial law. The new edition provides a thorough analysis of the increasing trend in commercial parties to insert “No Waiver” clauses into contracts and considers the behaviour adopted by the courts in relation to these and other matters.

Wolfrum, Rüdiger, The Max-Planck Encyclopaedia of Public International Law, Oxford University Press, Hardcover, 10 volumes, £1995.00, ISBN: 9780199291687

Written by over 800 of the world's leading authorities and edited at the premier research institution for international law, this new edition of the definitive reference work on international law contains over 1,619 articles covering the full breadth of the subject. Articles address the history and theory of international law; all subfields such as international criminal law, environmental law, and economic law; leading cases; and significant treaties, organizations, armed conflicts, and geographical issues. Each article contains cross-references to related articles, and includes a carefully selected bibliography of the most important writings and primary materials as a guide to further reading. Every article has been thoroughly peer reviewed and all references have been checked over by the editorial staff giving readers total confidence in the quality and accuracy of the content.

Wonnacott, Mark, The History of the Law of Landlord and Tenant in England and Wales, The Lawbook Exchange Ltd, Hardback, £49.95, ISBN: 9781616192235

Wildy's Book of the Month: February 2012

Who has not been a landlord or a tenant? It is one of the most common legal relationships between people, and has been since the medieval period. But there is very little academic interest in the law of landlord and tenant. Nobody before has attempted to write its history. This book shows how the rules on each point of importance have developed. Sometimes it demonstrates how a wrong turn has been taken, or an important principle forgotten. But its practical use is to provide the material for understanding the old cases, and to put those cases in their proper context; for it is hard for any lawyer, advising on a doubtful point, to say where exactly we are now, without a thorough understanding of what the law once was and how and when it might have changed.

PROFESSIONAL LAW FROM OXFORD

EU Competition Law and Economics

Damien Geradin, Dr Anne Layne-Farrar, and Nicholas Petit

EU Competition Law and Economics is the first EC competition law treatise that fully integrates economic reasoning in its treatment of the decisional practice of the European Commission and the case-law of the European Court of Justice. Ensuring a genuinely integrated approach to legal and economic analysis, this major new work is written by a team combining the widely recognised expertise of two competition law practitioners and a prominent economic consultant.

LEGALEASE

EST. 1987

The Legalease law journal series covers a wide range of practice areas, providing pragmatic, business-focused advice on key legislative and case law changes. The articles are written for lawyers by lawyers from leading law firms and chambers, while the journal editors have many years of practical experience between them. The journals are widely regarded as providing valuable reporting, analysis and advice in a cost-effective manner.

The Practical Lawyer and The In-House Lawyer also feature hugely popular and cost-effective CPD programmes, through which legal professionals can gain up to 75% of their yearly requirement.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Privacy Injunctions and the Media: A Practice Manual

By Iain Goldrein QC

Hart Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781849462846, £95.00, due April 2012

A string of high profile law suits has drawn attention to a rapidly developing and controversial branch of media law – the use of privacy injunctions to restrain publication of information relating to the private lives of individuals. The purpose of this book is to set out the law relating to privacy injunctions, and best practice in relation to seeking or opposing this form of relief. Such best practice is targeted not just at litigators. This book is aimed also at journalists who are the watchdogs of the freedoms of our society, and other organs of the media. The text is broken down into easily manageable sections, with numerous check-lists and quality control protocols. Applications in the Queen's Bench Division (including personal injury), Family Division (including the President's "Media guidance" and "Reporting Restriction Orders") and "harassment" are covered, together with a "journalists' check-list". The book reflects the agenda (included in the foreword to the book) set by Lord Neuberger's Report of 2011 ("Report of the Committee on Super-Injunctions").

Shipping Law 5th edition

By Simon Baughen

Routledge, Paperback, ISBN 9780415664813, £36.99, due April 2012

Shipping Law covers the whole spectrum of English shipping law and is the only student text to address both wet and dry shipping law matters. It takes a structured and integrated approach to the highly specialised rules of shipping, which are placed in their commercial context and related to the general principles of English contract and tort law. This fifth edition offers a brand new section on arbitration, as well as detailed consideration of recent developments in law from the LOF 2011 and the 2010 Protocol to the HNS Convention. With in-depth commentary and analysis on recent important judicial decisions of the Supreme Court in The Cendor Mopu, and of the Court of Appeal in The Eternity, The Wadi Sudr, The Kos, and The Eagle Valencia, this textbook presents fully-to-date and well-balanced coverage of key cases and is an essential reference source for both students and those in practice.

RICS Valuation - Professional Standards (the Red Book) Global and UK 8th edition

By Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors

RICS Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781842197622, £200.00, due March 2012

This edition of the RICS Valuation - Professional Standards (The Red Book) - Global and UK has been revised to reflect the new International Valuation Standards that came into effect 1st January 2012. Effective from 30th March 2012, the RICS Valuation - Professional Standards replaces all previous issues of the Red Book and is completely compliant with the International Valuation Standards published by the International Valuation Standards Council in July 2011. The new edition contains: a new appendix that provides a detailed cross reference between the new IVS and the relevant Red Book standard; a new UK standard, and appendix, relating to the provision of market rent in connection with the calculation of affordable rent; reinstated standards on valuations for specific applications, such as financial statements, secured lending and public sector- each of which now incorporates a summary of the relevant IVS.

Law and the Regulation of Medicines

By Emily Jackson

Hart Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781849461795, £30.00, due March 2012

The principal purpose of this book is to tell the story of a medicine's journey through the regulatory system in the UK, from defining what counts as a medicine, through clinical trials, licensing, pharmacovigilance, marketing and funding. While the UK's regulatory regime is the principal focus, the question of global access to medicines is addressed not only because of its political importance, but also because it is an issue which places the question of whether medicines are a private or a public good in particularly stark focus. Two further specific challenges to the future of medicines regulation are examined separately: first, pharmacogenetics, or the genetic targeting of medicines to subgroups of patients, and second, the possibility of using medicines to enhance wellbeing or performance, rather than treat disease. Throughout, the emphasis is upon the role of regulation in shaping and influencing the operation of the medicines industry, an issue which is of central importance to the promotion of public health and the fair and equitable distribution of healthcare resources.

Children and Same Sex Families: A Legal Handbook

By Anthony Hayden QC, HH Judge Jai Penna, Marisa Allman, Sarah Greenan and Elina Latvio

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846613197, £55.00, due March 2012

This portable single volume handbook brings together the up-to-date statutory and jurisprudential position in family law appertaining to same-sex couples, with an emphasis on children (where the law is at its most complex). The text clarifies the effect of the law of England and Wales as it relates to people with or wanting children who are in same-sex relationships, in particular giving guidance as to complex issues such as: gender and what constitutes a same-sex relationship; same-sex relationships for the international family; the effect on parentage of the timing, location and manner of a child's conception; issues of legality, illegality and status surrounding surrogacy and adoption; the family and financial consequences of the breakdown of same-sex relationships and co-parent relationships; the law relating to property ownership and succession for couples in a same-sex relationship. Children and Same-Sex Families: A Legal Handbook is an invaluable guide to this rapidly evolving area of law written for all family lawyers and related who provide advice and support to same sex families.

Civil Costs: Law and Practice 2nd edition

By Dr Mark Friston

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846613128, £85.00, due March 2012

Civil Costs: Law and Practice is now well established as an authoritative and comprehensive work covering all aspects of civil costs, coupled with practical applications, detailed references and precedents. In addition the work is supported by the text of relevant statutes, rules and cases, as well as references to many authorities difficult to find elsewhere. The result is a valuable reference work which provides a one-stop-shop for the law governing civil costs. The second edition includes extensive revisions and updates including: new material on Costs issues arising out of the new SRA

Code of Conduct 2011; a new section on human rights and the law of costs; a new section on damages-based agreements; a new section on litigation involving public bodies and the Crown; a new precedent conditional fee agreement for use by barristers; a significantly revised chapter concerning CPR Pt 36, dealing with C v D [2011] EWCA Civ 646 and the new Pt 36. Civil Costs: Law and Practice is essential reading for all civil litigators, costs draftsmen, solicitors with management responsibilities and the judiciary.

Practitioner's Guide to Inside Information 2nd edition

By Brian McDonnell
Sweet & Maxwell, Paperback, ISBN 9780414048584, £135.00, due March 2012
A Practitioner's Guide to Inside Information presents comprehensive guidance on the UK regulatory environment relating to inside information. It draws together all the strands of what is a complex legislative and regulatory maze, advising on effective risk management and explaining how to build appropriate systems and controls. This new edition has been significantly revised to deal with the recent corporate governance code, the takeover directive, the review of the market abuse directive and the FSA's more aggressive stance on enforcement. The new edition gives practitioners detailed guidance on the establishment and maintenance of appropriate systems and controls and the steps to take to ensure effective risk management, and includes important guidance on US securities laws and how they impact on UK listed companies.

EU State Aids 4th edition

By Leigh Hancher, Tom Ottervanger and Piet Jan Slot
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9780414046566, £235.00, due April 2012

This authoritative text provides practitioners with a detailed examination of the substantive and procedural aspects of state aid law and policy, analysing the underlying rules and how they have been applied by the Commission and the Courts. It explains the European Commission's considerable powers to monitor, control and restrict the forms and levels of aid given by all EU member states to their industries, and covers specific issues such as public sector aid, guarantees and taxation. State aid in specific sectors, including the financial sector, agriculture, large investment projects, transport and broadcasting, is examined, as well as horizontal aid, including aid for SMEs, employment and training, regional aid and aid for research, development and innovation. The authors set out the procedures for illegal state aid complaints, and include summaries of all cases by the General Court and the Court of Justice. The new edition also lists all relevant rules, regulations, notices and guidance notes, with references to full texts. The book considers the impact of the Lisbon Treaty and provides a full up-date on WTO law.

Practical Approach to Planning Law 12th edition

By Victor Moore and Michael Purdue
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199640072, £54.95, due March 2012.

Despite repeated attempts in recent years to simplify the planning system, planning law has continued to be so complex that practitioners and students alike have found it difficult to disentangle the issues and principles involved. The twelfth edition of this popular and accessible book aims to remove the mystery which planning law has for so many people. Clearly written and accessible, this book provides a step-by-step guide to planning law and practice, following a planning application through the various stages, making it easy for practitioners to locate key information. The previous edition has been extensively revised and updated to include full coverage of recent legislative changes and case law, and provide a revised treatment of more specialized areas of planning law, such as ancient monuments and areas of archaeological importance.

Thomas on Powers 2nd edition

By Geraint Thomas
Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199539697, £235.00, due March 2012

Highly regarded, and cited in a number of judgments, Thomas on Powers is concerned with the general principles and doctrines governing or affecting the creation, exercise, and operation of powers in private law, and provides a discursive, intellectual analysis of the principles underlying the problems commonly encountered by practitioners. The first edition of Thomas on Powers was published in 1998 as part of Sweet & Maxwell's Property and Conveyancing Library. This new edition both updates the original work and expands the scope of the book significantly to include coverage of offshore trusts and current trusts issues such as fiduciary powers, protectors, and "shams". Thomas on Powers provides extensive coverage of recent statutes dealing with trustee delegation; developments to the law relating to pension schemes; and cases relating to the rule in Hastings-Bass, which has had a series of contentious recent decisions. This edition includes expanded discussion of case law from Commonwealth countries and focuses more on the numerous judgments from offshore jurisdictions, some of which raise novel questions and issues. The book also includes an increased emphasis on the specific legislation of offshore trusts, where practical problems centred on the creation and exercise of trustee powers has become very important. This edition covers the problematic interaction of powers of revocation and sham trusts; the scope and effects of powers of amendment; the powers and role of protectors of offshore trusts; and the powers of directors of companies; and the relationship between fiduciary powers in private law and powers exercised by public bodies.

Compulsory Purchase and Compensation Service in Ireland, 2nd edition

By Eamon Galligan and Michael McGrath
Bloomsbury Professional, Hardcover, ISBN 9781845922306, £145.00, due March 2012

Divided into two highly practical sections, the second edition of this key title provides the busy practitioner with a comprehensive guide to the complex subject of compulsory purchase and compensation in Ireland. Drawing on a wealth of learning and experience, the authors unravel the intricacies of the present law and practice, and clearly presents the advice and guidance legal practitioners working in this area will require. Part one deals with the voluminous statute law governing compulsory purchase powers and procedures. Part two covers the equally important topic of assessment of compensation. A must-have book for all practitioners specialising in property and land law.

DISSENTING JUDGMENTS IN THE LAW

Neal Geach and Chris Monaghan

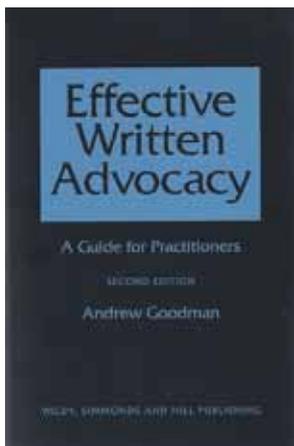

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854900848
Extent: 432 pp
Size: 229x152mm
Binding: Hardback

In Dissenting Judgments in the Law a team of expert contributors reassess nineteen landmark cases from different areas of the law, each of which had the potential for the law to have developed in a markedly different direction. The cases have been selected on account of their continued relevance to the law today or the controversial nature of the majority's decision. A key feature of each case was a dissenting opinion from a judge who thought that the law should develop in a different direction.

The aim of the contributors is to re-evaluate important cases, such as YL v Birmingham City Council [2007] UKHL 27, Scruttons Ltd v Midland Silicones Ltd [1962] AC 446 and R v Hinks [2000] UKHL 53 by assessing the merits of the judgements given, before deciding whether the law would, in fact, have been better served by following the dissenting opinion rather than that of the majority of judges in the case. The judicial reasoning in each case is explored in depth and is contrasted with differing approaches in other jurisdictions. Where relevant, a comparative analysis is employed in order to show how the law, by not following the dissenting opinion, has developed out of step with other common law jurisdictions. Each contributor then sets out what impact the dissenting judgment might have had on the law if it had decided the case and assess where the law in that particular field would be today.

Neal Geach is a senior lecturer at the University of Hertfordshire specialising in Tort and Property law. He also has research interests in electronic and mobile commerce. Christopher Monaghan is a lecturer at BPP University College. He also has extensive research interest in criminal law and legal-history.

EFFECTIVE WRITTEN ADVOCACY
A Guide for Practitioners
2nd edition

Andrew Goodman

Price: £35.00
ISBN: 9780854900954
Extent: 384 pp
Size: 229x152mm
Binding: Paperback

Is it possible to win your case before arriving at court? The author, a practising barrister for over thirty years, believes a highly focused approach to your written advocacy – correspondence, written negotiation, Part 36 offers and skeleton arguments, written opening notes for trial, closing submissions and costs submissions – will put you in the best possible position to do just that.

The importance of oral advocacy in deciding cases is not in dispute, but increasingly judges form pre-trial opinions of the likely outcome from written material, notably the skeleton or opening note. The application, trial or appeal then becomes a process to measure the judge's pre-formed view. The effective written closing submission will become part of the judgment.

This book not only offers a practical and comprehensive guide to effective written advocacy, but provides worked examples drawn from real cases contributed from leading advocates such as Sue Carr QC, David Etherington QC, Lord Faulks QC, Andrew Hochhauser QC, Richard Lissock QC, Lord Pannick QC, and Lord Sumption.

Of particular interest to both practitioners and students of litigation practice, the second edition offers 17 new examples together with a discussion on written advocacy in family and criminal cases.

Invaluable to the practising lawyer, this book will also be compelling reading for anyone with an interest in using the legal process.

WILLS

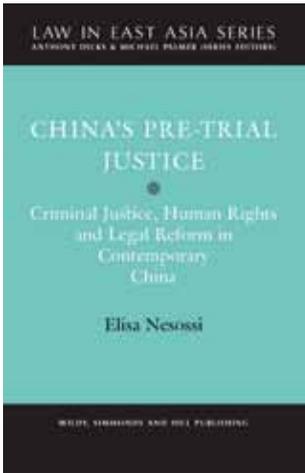

A Practical Guide

Lesley King and Peter Gausden

Price: £29.00
ISBN: 9780854900909
Extent: 278 pp
Size: 216 x 138mm
Binding: Paperback

Wills: A Practical Guide explains what is involved in making a will, with particular reference to avoiding those issues which often give rise to litigation. The book contains a concise description of the content of a will and the mechanics of signing and witnessing and is written by two experienced practitioners in a clear and user-friendly style.

It provides a guide to not only what can be disposed of by will but to property which is subject to its own rules. Information is provided on the formalities for making a will, including the testator's capacity and related issues, particularly those involving the elderly, which may affect the validity of the will. The appointment of executors, trustees and guardians is considered along with the dispositive provisions typically contained in a will, including the use of trusts, creation of residuaries, gifts to children and so on. There are also sections on less common aspects of will-making but which often cause problems for practitioners including gifts for the benefit of pets, gifts to employees, gifts of business interest, mutual (as distinguished from mirror) wills, testamentary options, burial and other requests and dealing with property overseas. The importance of providing executors and trustees with appropriate powers and the need to modify what is implied by statute is dealt with, including the importance of making adequate provision for the application of income and capital when required.

CHINA'S PRE-TRIAL JUSTICE

Criminal Justice, Human Rights and Legal Reforms in Contemporary China

Elisa Nesossi

Price:	£65.00
Series:	Law in East Asia
ISBN:	9780854901036
Extent:	384 pp
Size:	229 x 152mm
Binding:	Hardback

This book examines the relationship between international human rights standards and local legal norms in the People's Republic of China (PRC). Focussing on the realm of criminal justice in post-Deng China, Criminal Procedure Law reforms and their impact on the PRC's ratification of and future accession to the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, this book examines the limits to the protection of criminal suspects rights during pre-trial proceedings.

Notwithstanding the significance of pre-trial proceedings in the Chinese criminal justice system, to date no other publication in a Western language has systematically focussed on this important issue. This book thus fills a serious gap in the literature by offering a detailed discussion of this aspect of criminal justice and human rights in contemporary China. The book is intended as a contribution to the study of Chinese law, human rights law and comparative criminal justice, and by considering developments in Chinese local legal culture, it also explores issues of broader interest to comparativists and legal sociologists.
