WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 17 Issue 4 Published Monthly

Apr/May 2012

We are pleased to see that Ian Kawaley has been appointed Chief Justice in Bermuda last week. Along with Andrew Bolton and Robin Mayor he wrote our very successful publication Cross-Border Judicial Cooperation in Offshore Litigation, and we will shortly be publishing his Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda.

John Pethick is in Hong Kong at the moment and has sent us a picture with Simon Chiu and Andy Hung. (p. 2) Some of the trips and exhibitions that Wildy staff are involved in are listed on p. 46

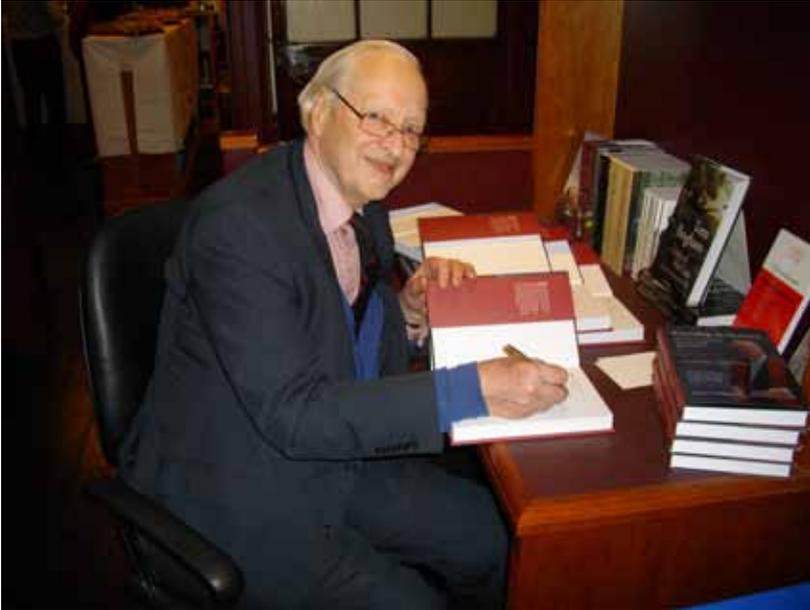

We have had two book launches at the shop this month and feature some pictures in the following pages. We published John Toulmin's Expanding the Horizons and had a crowded and very successful launch. The Lord Chancellor and Minister of Justice, Kenneth Clarke, took time from his busy schedule to attend. He wrote a very nice Foreword to the book. There were very many other eminent judiciary and friends of John there so it was a great evening.

The other launch was for Globe Publishing's book The Business of Law: Strategies for Success published in conjunction with the International Bar Association. This launch too was very successful.

Aplin, Tanya; Bently, Lionel; Johnson, Phillip; Malynicz, Simon, Gurry on Breach of Confidence: The Protection of Confidential Information 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199297665

Wildy's Book of the Month: April 2012

Francis Gurry's famous work Breach of Confidence, published in 1984, was groundbreaking and invaluable in the field of intellectual property as the first text to synthesise the then burgeoning case law of breach of confidence into a systematic form. A highly regarded book, it was first point of resort for practitioners and a key source for judges. Alpin, Bentley, Johnson and Malynicz bring us a new edition of this important work, fully updating it in light of the developments since the first edition and adding new material on the history and current relevance of the action, as well as on comparative legal protection of confidential information within Europe.

Bare, Martin; Benyounes, Leila; Copnall, Richard, APIL Model Pleadings and Applications, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Paperback & CD-ROM, £75.00, ISBN: 9781846612442

This guide provides all claimant personal injury lawyers with a comprehensive, time-saving collection of pleadings and applications for court orders. The new edition has been fully updated to include: new sections on skeleton arguments and holiday claims; PI claims in contract including pleural plaques; recent decisions on animals act and vicarious liability; mesothelioma; RTA claims process; Third Party Act 2010; Insolvency provisions of the Companies Act 2006 and new applications. The guide also comes with a CD-ROM.

Brilliant, Simon; Michell, Michael, Practical Guide to Land Registry Adjudication, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £79.00, ISBN: 9781405766593

A Practical Guide to Land Registry Adjudication expertly deals with the role of, and conduct of hearings, before the Adjudicator to the Land Registry. With more and more cases being heard by the Adjudicator, this practical guide will offer timely advice to litigants who find themselves involved in such proceedings. The Guide will allow them to find the information they need to know about the Adjudicator's jurisdiction, the procedural rules, and what to expect from the hearing, easily and quickly.

District Judge Robert Blomfield; Brooks, Helen; District Judge James Taylor; Buckley, Clive, A Practical Guide to Family Proceedings 5th ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £65.00, ISBN: 9781846612756

Established as a straightforward, easy-to-follow handbook of procedure this book is equally useful as an aide-memoire for the hard-pressed specialist or as an introduction for the less experienced.

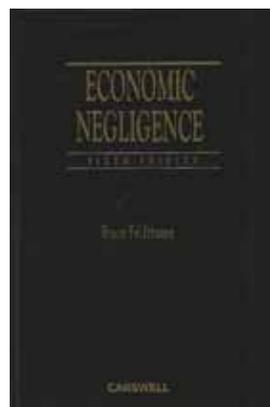

The book enables a busy practitioner to avoid the most common pitfalls encountered across the spectrum of family proceedings, thereby speeding up litigation and avoiding unnecessary work and wasted costs orders. Previous editions of the book have been widely used in the Principal Registry of the Family Division, other district registries and county courts.

Faber, Dennis; Vermunt, Niels; Kilborn, Jason; Richter, Tomas, Commencement of Insolvency Proceedings, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199644223

This is the first volume in the new Oxford International and Comparative Insolvency Law Series. The series will provide a comparative analysis of all important aspects of insolvency proceedings and domestic insolvency laws in the main economically developed and emerging countries, starting with the opening of proceedings. This volume addresses the commencement of insolvency proceedings over business debtors and the conditions in which they may arise. It explains the types of proceedings available and the participants involved. The book also analyses the effect of such action on the various players, assets and liabilities concerned.

Feldthusen, Bruce, Economic Negligence: The Recovery of Pure Economic Loss 6th ed, The Carswell Company Ltd., Hardback, £100.00, ISBN: 9780779849307

Economic Negligence: The Recovery of Pure Economic Loss 6th Edition draws upon the law of Canada, the United States, United Kingdom, Australia, and New Zealand to provide a comprehensive treatment of this area of tort law. The work includes chapters devoted to each major category of economic loss. The sixth edition updates the case law, legislation, and scholarly discourse on the policies surrounding the recovery of economic loss. The new edition provides a complete and up to date analysis of the area, analyzing the most recent cases and pointing toward future developments.

Fernandez, Angela; Dubber, Markus D, Law Books in Action: Essays on the Anglo-American Legal Treatise, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781849461412 history of the legal treatise in the common law world. Rather than looking at treatises as shortcuts from ‘law in books’ to ‘law in action,’ the essays in this collection ask what treatises can tell us about what troubled legal professionals at a given time, what motivated them to write what they did, and what they hoped to achieve.

Geradin, Damien; Padilla, Jorge; Petit, Nicolas, EC Competition Law and Economics, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199566563

This is the first EC Competition law treatise that fully integrates economic reasoning in its treatment of the decisional practice of the European Commission and the case-law of the European Court of Justice.

This integration has become increasingly important in competition law, as the European Commission and the national competition authorities are increasingly moving away from a legalistic analysis of a firms’ conduct to an effect-based analysis of such conduct. Most competition cases today involve teams composed of lawyers and industrial organisation economists.

Gibson, Eile, The Tax Schedule: A Guide to Tax Warranties and Indemnities, Spiramus Press Ltd, Hardback, £79.95, ISBN: 9781904905806

This book explains the underlying rationale of the key provisions of the tax schedule, and provides model long-form and short-form warranties and tax indemnity ties. These are also included on a disk, so that practitioners can download and adapt the model documents for their own transactions.

Gledhill, Kris, Defending Mentally Disordered Persons, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £48.00, ISBN: 9781903307281

Lawyers representing potentially vulnerable clients need to consider what special needs their clients may have and apply the relevant legal provisions with that in mind. This book provides the bridge between mental health law and criminal law and provides criminal practitioners with the necessary tools to navigate the appropriate route through the criminal justice system if the client may have a mental disorder.

Goldrein, Iain, Privacy In-

junctions and the Media: A Practice Manual, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £125.00, ISBN: 9781849462846

The purpose of this book is to set out the law relating to privacy injunctions, and best practice in relation to seeking or opposing this form of relief. Such best practice is targeted not just at litigators. This book is aimed also at journalists who are the watchdogs of the freedoms of our society, and other organs of the media. The book reflects the agenda (included in the foreword to the book) set by Lord Neuberger's Report of 2011 Report of the Committee on Super-Injunctions.

Goode, Roy; Kronke, Herbert; McKendrick, Ewan; Wool, Jeffrey, Transnational Commercial Law: International Instruments

and Commentary 2nd ed., Oxford University Press, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199582860

This new edition contains a fully updated collection of all the major transnational commercial law instruments relating to commercial contracts, interspersed with explanatory linking text identifying key issues covered by the instruments. This unique work provides an indispensable guide to the primary transnational commercial law instruments and brings together the major instruments in the field, dividing them into twelve groups: Treaty Law, Contracts, Electronic Commerce, International Sales, Agency and Distribution, International Credit Transfers and Bank Payment Undertakings, International Secured Transactions, Cross-

Grant, David; Mason, Stephen, Holiday Law: The Law Relating to Travel and Tourism 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £39.95, ISBN: 9780414046122

Holiday Law provides a comprehensive guide to the law relating to all forms of holiday. Its broad coverage of the subject includes the nature of the contractual relationship between customer, travel agent and tour operator, the legal status of travel agents, the criminal liability of tour operators, civil liability and the effects of insolvency.

Hatzopoulos, Vassilis, Regulating Services in the European Union, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780199572663

This book looks back on the historical development of services law, discusses the nature of impediments to trade in services in the EU, and explains the basic rules and principles applicable to such trade. It also examines the recent development of alternative regulatory methods, such as networking, the use of common standards, private regulation, self-regulation, open methods of coordination, and administrative cooperation. Taking a broad perspective and placing services regulation within its economic context, the author offers a thorough evaluation of current regulatory methods alongside the alternative methods which could be deployed. The book is the first to provide an overview of the regulation of services in the EU.

His Honour Judge John Mitchell, Children Act Private Law Proceedings: A Handbook 3rd ed, Family Law, Paperback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781846612381

An invaluable companion for all practitioners involved in private law proceedings under the Children Act 1989. It provides both a detailed, widely researched analysis of substantive law and a clear guide to the relevant procedure. This new edition has been thoroughly revised throughout and takes account of all recent case-law and important procedural developments, such as the introduction of the revised Private Law Programme. The extensive text is supplemented by fully updated appendices containing essential statutory and other materials.

Lewis, Charles; Buchan, Andrew, Lewis and Buchan's Clinical Negligence: A Practical Guide 7th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £120.00, ISBN: 9781847666734

Written in a clear and concise style, this new 7th edition of this popular and highly respected title has been fully updated to take account of the various important developments in legislation and case law that have occurred since the previous edition. Practical and accessible, it provides practitioners with a structured background to the law. This information is supported by numerous case illustrations, plus a large amount of highly valuable practical guidance on procedures. A 'must-have' title for all practitioners specialising in this complex area of the law.

Loose, Peter; Griffiths, Michael, Loose on Liquidators 7th ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9781846612893

Loose on Liquidators is a guide to the law relating to company liquidations and the important role of the liquidator in a winding up – their powers, duties and relationship to creditors, members, receivers and the court. It provides in a convenient single volume invaluable specialist advice and essential time-saving reference materials.

Morrell, John; His Honour Judge Richard Foster, Local Authority Liability 5th

ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781846613210

This well-established and popular work provides a comprehensive survey of the legal liabilities of local authorities, written by a team of specialists in local authority liability claims. It comprises an invaluable overview of the nature and extent of the liability of local authorities, together with specialist chapters on the core areas of activity including education, social services, occupier's liability, employer's liability, highways, environmental damage and trees.

Nethercott, Craig; Eisenberg, David, Islamic Finance: Law and Practice, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £155.00, ISBN:

This work is a practical and commercial guide to the fundamental principles of Islamic finance and their application to Islamic finance transactions. Islamic finance is a rapidly expanding, global industry and this book is designed to provide a practical treatment of the subject. It includes discussion and analysis of the negotiation and structure involved in Islamic finance transactions, with relevant case studies, structure diagrams and precedent material supporting the commentary throughout.

Paschalidis, Paschalis, Freedom of Establishment and Private International Law for Corporations, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199698042

This book examines the way in which EU law has influenced how national courts in Europe assert jurisdiction in cross-border corporate disputes and insolvencies, and the mechanism which allows them to decide which national law should apply to the substance of the dispute. The book also considers the potential for EU Member States to compete for devising national corporate and insolvency legislation that will attract incorporations or insolvencies. Central to the book is the concept of national choice of law. In considering the impact of freedom of establishment on private international law for corporations, the book uniquely analyses both corporate and insolvency law together, presenting the topic in the broadest possible sense.

Ritchie, Andrew, APIL Guide to RTA Liability 2nd ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781846613234

Why open an account at Wildy's?

One Contact - You will have one dedicated, friendly and knowledgeable Subscription Team to contact – no various email addresses and call centres to deal with. Just one easy management point for all your subscription supplies.

One Invoice – Choose from weekly, fortnightly, or monthly consolidated invoicing in paper or electronic formats.

One delivery - Our consolidation service means loose-leaves, journals as well as any book orders can be sent by courier on a weekly or monthly basis, or any other frequency required. Any replacement issues will be claimed in advance before customers realise there has been a problem.

By providing a bespoke service we are able to meet individual customer's requirements

Transparent Pricing - There are No Hidden Mark-Ups or consolidation fees.

Total Subscription Management - Over the years Wildy's have retained key personnel. We have built-up a wealth of knowledge and experience and excellent contacts with all the major publishers. Our key account status means that all enquiries, claims and orders are dealt with swiftly.

WAMS - Wildy's Account Management System will allow you to view all aspects of your account online. You will be able to look at invoices issued on your account, outstanding book orders, standing orders and subscriptions. You can also use the Quick Orders tab to place orders using ISBNs- useful if you are ordering a large number of books at once. Also included are various reports that you can either view on-screen or download to your desktop.

Venables on Non-Resident Trusts 9th edition

By Robert Venables
Key Haven Publications, Hardback, ISBN 9781901614350, due July 2012, £199.00

Venables on Non-Resident Trusts is firmly established as a seminal and leading work on the UK taxation of non-UK resident trusts and settlements, their trustees, settlors and beneficiaries. To mark the 20th anniversary of the appearance of the 1st edition of this Report, Robert Venables is preparing a new edition which will be no mere updating of the 8th edition but will involve a substantial re-writing of the text to take into account the many important changes in this area in recent years and particularly the changes planned to be effected by Finance Act 2008. This Report will not simply be an academic account of the new law but will offer pragmatic tax planning advice. It will build on the author's considerable experience as a tax barrister over a period of almost thirty years, eighteen of them as one of Her Majesty's Counsel, in advising on the UK taxation of UK and foreign trusts, companies and foreign institutions and persons connected with them. This Intelligence Report is intended primarily for barristers, solicitors, advocates and other lawyers, accountants, chartered tax advisers, professional trustees, officers of trust corporations, financial advisers and other professionals.

International Finance: Law and Regulation 3rd edition

By Hal S. Scott
Sweet and Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, ISBN 9780414024205, due May 2012, £200.00

This essential reference work provides you with a detailed overview of the law and regulation of international finance, including banking, securities, derivatives and foreign exchange. The book provides an overview of the key international finance centres, with in-depth commentary analysis of the global and Euro financial crises. It covers regulatory developments since the economic crisis of 2008, helping you to stay on top of the regulatory changes and it also considers the impact of rapidly emerging economies such as China. This book provides an authoritative introduction to international finance, transactions, policy, and regulations and looks in detail at the continuing evolution of banking and capital market regulation in the major markets. It is divided into 5 clear sections for ease of reference: The international aspects of major domestic markets; Infrastructure for financial markets; Instruments and offshore markets; Emerging markets; The fighting of terrorism. This book introduces you to financial concepts and transactions and goes on to deal with the complexities of international finance, approaching the topic from the perspective of government policy and regulation and it covers the impact of international finance events such as the collapse of Enron and Lehman Brothers.

Reinsurance: The Nuts and Bolts 3rd edition

By Keith Riley

Witherby and Co.

Ltd, Paperback, ISBN

9781856095365, due May

2012, £50.00

It has been almost 12 years since the last revision of this title and a great deal has happened in the London market in that period. Regulation of both banking and insurance is now under the control of the Financial Services Authority and this has led to tighter controls over how insurance institutions in the UK conduct their business. In tandem with these changes, the London market has reformed itself considerably and the three organisations that formerly handled many back-office functions on behalf of their members, LPSO (Lloyd's), LIRMA (London Non-Marine market) and ILU (London Marine market) have been brought together under the umbrella of XChanging-Insure Services. This has led to the introduction of the Market Reform Contract; a document that replaces the traditional broker's slip with a standard form of contract, designed to incorporate the entire terms and thereby provide contract-certainty at the inception of the insurance or reinsurance. This has had an enormous impact on the working practices of reinsurance brokers. The traditional slip that could, in the past have been just a few pages, is now a full contract including the contract wording (a document that was previously signed after the contract came into force; sometimes, in fact, so long after inception that it may already have expired before it was signed!).

Keating on NEC3

By David Thomas with Keating Chambers

Sweet and Maxwell

Ltd, Hardback, ISBN

9781847033314, due May

2012, £179.00

Keating on NEC3 provides detailed guidance on the three contracts that comprise the NEC3 suite of construction contracts. Reproducing the complete terms of the Engineering and Construction Contract (ECC), Sub-contract and Professional Services Contract, it sets out clause-by-clause commentary explaining how those contracts are intended to operate, highlighting any ambiguities or questions of interpretation that can arise. NEC is used across the construction sector, including BAA's Terminal 5, Channel Tunnel Rail Link and the Eden Project and has been adopted for use in construction work for London's 2012 Olympic Games. Reproduces the three NEC3 contracts in full – with clause-by-clause commentary explaining how they are intended to operate; Highlights questions of interpretation that arise, with reference to relevant case law ; Provides a first port of call in advance of litigation, with detailed commentary on interpretation of clauses; Gives invaluable assistance for drafting, with practical discussion on why particular clauses are used and possible amendments; Supplies the know-how of leading barristers experienced in advising on NEC3 contracts; Explains the topic in a clear, practical style; Uses diagrams and flow charts to illustrate the range of choices that arise from combining core clauses with the various options clauses contained in the ECC and other contracts.

DISSENTING JUDGMENTS IN THE LAW

Neal Geach and Chris Monaghan

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854900848
Extent: 432 pp
Size: 229x152mm
Binding: Hardback

In Dissenting Judgments in the Law a team of expert contributors reassess nineteen landmark cases from different areas of the law, each of which had the potential for the law to have developed in a markedly different direction. The cases have been selected on account of their continued relevance to the law today or the controversial nature of the majority's decision. A key feature of each case was a dissenting opinion from a judge who thought that the law should develop in a different direction.

The aim of the contributors is to re-evaluate important cases, such as YL v Birmingham City Council [2007] UKHL 27, Scruttons Ltd v Midland Silicones Ltd [1962] AC 446 and R v Hinks [2000] UKHL 53 by assessing the merits of the judgements given, before deciding whether the law would, in fact, have been better served by following the dissenting opinion rather than that of the majority of judges in the case. The judicial reasoning in each case is explored in depth and is contrasted with differing approaches in other jurisdictions. Where relevant, a comparative analysis is employed in order to show how the law, by not following the dissenting opinion, has developed out of step with other common law jurisdictions. Each contributor then sets out what impact the dissenting judgment might have had on the law if it had decided the case and assess where the law in that particular field would be today.

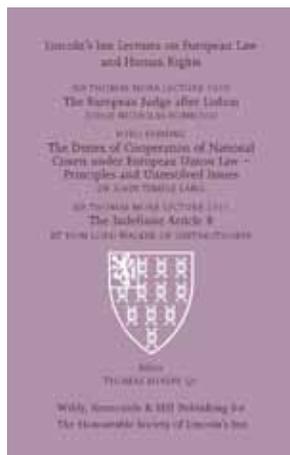

Neal Geach is a senior lecturer at the University of Hertfordshire specialising in Tort and Property law. He also has research interests in electronic and mobile commerce. Christopher Monaghan is a lecturer at BPP University College. He also has extensive research interest in criminal law and legal-history.

EXPANDING THE HORIZONS: On Active Service in Law and Education

His Honour John Toulmin CMG QC

Price:	£25.00
ISBN:	9780854901081
Extent:	384 pp
Size:	229 x 152mm
Binding:	Hardback

With a Foreword by The Right Honourable Kenneth Clarke, MP, Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice

In Expanding the Horizons: On Active Service in Law and Education John Toulmin reflects on his varied contributions both nationally and internationally in stimulating the development of the seven organisations in which he has been involved. He tells the story through speeches and articles by him and in his honour and looks at future developments.

The book begins with Valedictory speeches on his retirement as a Judge, and with a tribute by the Director of the European Law Academy (ERA), of which he was Chairman of Trustees from 1997-2010. It continues with developments in civil procedure, access to justice, dispute resolution and the author's proposals for reform. Expanding the Horizons contains the last liability judgment in "Factortame", one of the most famous European and UK cases, and it deals with one other case illustrative of construction litigation and of the changes proposed earlier in the work. The story continues with the author's 1993 Presidency of the CCBE (European Bar Council) starting with "Our Worldwide Legal Profession", a keynote lecture at the University of Michigan in 1993, and a 2001 lecture describing his negotiation of the GATT/Uruguay Round, on behalf of the legal profession, and leading role in the Lawyers' Establishment Directive, both of which expanded legal horizons. This section includes an article in Fordham International Law Journal 1992 arguing for a worldwide code of professional ethics, and a chapter entitled "Professional Rules and Ethical Ideologies", based on a 1997 seminar tracing the transformation of legal practice over 30 years, and arguing against multi-disciplinary practices. The book goes on to set out the development of the European Court of Justice and the Court of First Instance (now the general court), particularly relevant to the current scrutiny of the European Court of Justice, indicating possible areas of reform and that the current debate should take place in an atmosphere "more of light than heat". The remarkable story of ERA is set out, with suggestions for the future.

There is a history of the Institute of Psychiatry (IOP) from 1979 - 2003 when the author was closely involved, latterly as Chairman of its Advisory Committee, and an article about interdisciplinary collaboration at King's College London, particularly law and medicine. The author's 2008 "Reading" in the Middle Temple which proposed further international links is included and, after membership from 1990-2010 of the Temple Church committee (as Chairman in 2003), he addresses its development as the Mother Church of the Common Law, the Inns of Court being the cradles. Finally, Sir Konrad Schiemann's end piece encompasses European law, ERA and the modest vineyard of the Toulmin family in Burgundy.
