Issue 6

Published Monthly

June/July 2012

The pictures this month are mainly from the annual BIALL conference held in Belfast. Several delegates and exhibitors remarked on the enjoyable time they had in Belfast. Particularly good and worth mentioning were the opening dinner at the Titanic Visitors Centre, sponsored by Thomson Reuters and the closing dinner at the Europa Hotel, sponsored by LexisNexis.

Congratulations to Emily Allbon, this year's winner of the Wildy-BIALL Law Librarian of the Year Award. Wildy & Sons began this award several years ago as a way of celebrating our 175 anniversary and acknowledging excellence in the profession of law librarianship. The award consists of an engraved glass book along with a cheque.

We would also like to congratulate 7 Side, this year's winner of the BIALL Supplier of the year award.

While we are in the congratulatory mode, we must point out that Anita, the spouse of Jason Crimp of Wildy's, has been awarded a MBE for her contribution to special education in the Queen's Birthday Honours List.

We are pleased to announce that you may now purchase LexisNexis webinars through us, either using the link on our website or by emailing or calling our shop.

The other event this month was the launch of Sweet & Maxwell's book Tax Avoidance at the Great Hall in Lincoln's Inn. As we were so close by, several of our staff attended to lend a hand. (see picture p 5)

Aubrey-Johnson, Kate; Curtis, Helen, Making Mediation Work For You, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £40.00, ISBN: 9781903307939

This book is a guide to how mediation works in practice. Covering civil, family, workplace and community mediation, it outlines the process and focus on strategies, techniques and negotiation skills to ensure the best possible outcome. It offers guidance to parties and legal advisers on how to set up and prepare for a mediation, highlighting the strategies, skills and techniques mediators can employ to achieve the best possible outcome for the parties involved. There is detailed coverage of civil, family, workplace and community mediation and information on professional standards, ethics and training.

Barnett, Katy, Accounting for Profit for Breach of Contract: Theory and Practice, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781849462518

This book defends the view that an award of an account of profits (or ‘disgorgement damages’) for breach of contract will sometimes be justifiable, and fits within the orthodox principles and cases in contract law. However there is some confusion as to when such an award should be made. This book will be of interest to contract and commercial lawyers, and will be especially valuable to anyone with an interest in contract remedies and restitution. It draws on case law in a number of common law jurisdictions, primarily England & Wales, and Australia.

Coldrick, David; Bradey, Lynne, Coldrick on Care Home Fees 2nd ed, Ark Group, Paperback, £345.00, ISBN: 9781907787997

Coldrick on Care Home Fees has long been regarded as the fundamental text for lawyers practising in this complex and rapidly changing area of the law. The original version of this work, entitled Protecting the Assets of Older People was published in November 2000 and revised in April 2002. Both editions focused upon the issue of protecting the existing capital of older people in the context of the increasing cost of long-term care. Apart from the inevitable bundle of legal changes it became apparent to the author that a much more in depth approach was now demanded by the reader. The first edition of Coldrick on Care Home Fees represented a total rewrite with those needs in mind. Now, some seven years later, the second edition of Coldrick on Care Home Fees has required yet further in depth exploration of this developing area.

Dabbah, Maher; Lasok, Paul, Merger Control Worldwide: 2 Volumes 2nd ed, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, 2 Volumes & Supplement, £450.00, ISBN: 9780521195096

Merger control has emerged as a growing area of competition law within the last decade. Merger operations can impact on a number of jurisdictions and may require regulatory notification and approval in more than one. Merger Control Worldwide provides practitioners and policy-makers with a clear point of reference that will prove invaluable when making decisions and delivering sound and accurate advice in merger cases. The chapters set out the details of every jurisdiction where a mechanism for merger control is in place and make use of flowcharts and diagrams to provide a concise and practical account of the relevant law in each jurisdiction.

FLBA; Family Law Bar Association Edited by:, At a Glance 2012-13: Essential Tables for Financial Remedies, Family Law Bar Association, Paperback, A4, £50.00, ISBN: 9781859593523

The 21st edition of the essential and hardy perennial At A Glance is available with a subtly revamped sub-title: Essential Tables for Financial Remedies. It includes all the usual favourites (such as Duxbury and Leading Cases) updated, and new material including a summary of the EU Maintenance Regulation and an outline of the IFLA Arbitration Scheme.

Focarelli, Carlo, International Law as Social Construct: The Global Struggle for Justice, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9780199584833

The book distils and articulates international law as a social construct. It does so by analysing its social foundations, essence, and roots in practical and socially workable (as opposed to ‘pure’) reason. In addition to well-known doctrines of jurisprudence and international law, it draws upon psycho-analytic insights into the origins and nature of law, as well as philosophical creasing role in the strategic branding and image building of companies. This poses the question of effective legal protection of new designs as valuable business assets. Design Protection in Europe offers a systematic survey, including latest key decisions from Austria, Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and OHIM (Volume 4 available now). According to the proven concept, 14 new decisions are reproduced in full text, with annotations by experienced specialists of national and European design law (in German or English).

Hudson, Alastair, The Law on Financial Derivatives 5th ed., Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £220.00, ISBN: 9781847038890
The Law on Financial Derivatives offers you an extensive analysis and explanation of the legal and regulatory principles underlying over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives in the UK. Drawing together concepts from many areas of law – including contract, tort, trusts and private international law – it shows how they relate to the day-to-day practice of financial derivatives markets and the completion of standard market contracts. This new edition covers all of the litigation which has arisen in the wake of the collapse of Lehman Brothers and the credit crunch explains the proposals for the regulation of derivatives in the EU and in the USA and provides a full analysis of the ISDA Master Agreement and the many recent cases which have cast doubt on its effectiveness.

Hutchinson, Allan C., Laughing at the Gods: Great Judges and How They Made the Common Law, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9781107662766

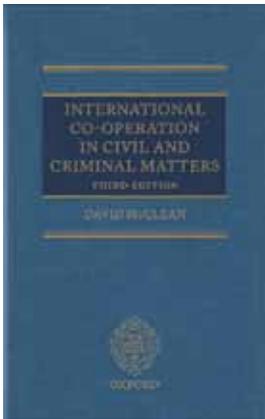

Wildy's Book of the Month
Any effort to understand how law works has to take seriously its main players - judges. Like any performance, judging should be evaluated by reference to those who are its best exponents. Not surprisingly, the debate about what makes a 'great judge' is as heated and inconclusive as the debate about the purpose and nature of law itself. History shows that those who are generally considered to be candidates for a judicial hall of fame are game changers who oblige us to rethink what it is to be a good judge. So the best of judges must tread a thin line between modesty and hubris; they must be neither mere umpires nor demigods. The eight judges showcased in this book demonstrate that, if the test of good judging is not about getting it right, but doing it well, then the measure of great judging is about setting new standards for what counts as judging well.

McClean, David, International Co-Operation in Civil and Criminal Matters 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199602063

This book sets out the law applicable to co-operation between states in these areas, and investigates the relevant practice and case law. It discusses both the civil and criminal dimensions of international co-operation. The new edition incorporates the vast number of developments that have taken place since the previous edition published in 2002, including the European Union's resolve to build an area of freedom, security, and justice, and the recent major update of the Commonwealth Scheme.

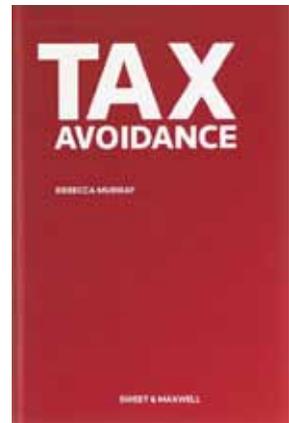

McCracken, Robert; Jones,

Gregory; Pereira, James, Statutory Nuisance 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £90.00, ISBN: 9781847667014

Guiding you through each step, this book takes you from initial assessment of a potential nuisance, through document drafting to the magistrates' court and beyond to the higher courts. Clear, readable and user friendly this book provides lucid explanation, practical guidance and the primary materials needed in court – all in one handy volume. Accessible to the layman, yet illuminating to the experienced practitioner, this title expresses a view on the issues not yet resolved by the courts.

Murray, Rebecca, Tax Avoid-

ance, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £165.00, ISBN: 9781847037749

This new edition of Tax Avoidance explains key areas of tax avoidance legislation and case law from a UK perspective. It contains detailed discussion of current UK and EU tax avoidance legislation and case law and includes historic analysis of the case law defining the Ramsay principle, together with the Revenue's other litigation weapon, sham. Tax Avoidance draws together in one source all matters concerning UK tax avoidance, including detailed discussion of all UK and EU tax avoidance legislation and case law. Siekman, Robert C.R., Introduction to International and European Sports

Law, T.M.C. Asser Press, Hardback, £117.00, ISBN: 9789067048514

The book is an introduction to sports law, in particular International (worldwide) and European (EU) sports law. The chapters are all put in the perspective of the innovative sports law doctrine that is developed and presented in the opening chapter on what sports law is. After a general coverage of the core concept of «sport specificity» (that is whether private sporting rules and regulations can be justified notwithstanding they are not in conformity with public law), the book covers the following specific main themes of International and European Sports Law (capita selecta): comparative sports law; competition law and sport; the collective selling of TV rights; sports betting; Social Dialogue in sport; sport and nationality; professional football transfer rules; anti-doping law in sport; transnational football hooliganism in Europe; international sports boycotts. In this book association football («soccer») is the sport that is by far most on the agenda. It is the largest sport in the world and most popular all over the globe. The elite football in Europe is a day-to-day commercialized and professionalized industry, which makes it a perfect subject of study from an EU Law perspective.

Stokes, Paul; Thomas, Pat, Planning and the Localism Act 2011: A Guide o the New Law, Law Society Publishing, Paperback, £59.95, ISBN: 9781907698286

In this book, two leading planning lawyers lend their combined experience and insight to the task of bringing these reforms into focus for practitioners. They outline the context of the Act and, broadly, the political concept of localism. They also clarify the powers of local authorities, their liabilities and the opportunities for community involvement. The book provides an expert and detailed analysis of each planning related provision, summarising the non-planning matters, such as housing and council tax, and London planning matters. The authors conclude their commentary on the Act with a discussion of the key parts of the National Planning Policy Framework, which is central to the implementation and understanding of the Localism Act 2011. This book will be essential reading for planning and property lawyers, town planners, planning consultants, and local authorities.

The Rt Hon Lord Wilson of Culworth; His Honour Judge Anthony Cleary; The Rt Hon Lady Justice Black, The Family Court Practice 2012: The Red Book, Family Law, Hardback, £360.00, ISBN: 9781846613241

This annual major work remains the acknowledged authority on practice and procedure in family courts and is relied upon every day by the judiciary, barristers, solicitors and justices' clerks. Continuing to go from strength to strength, The Family Court Practice 2012 has been fully updated to include the new Family Procedure Rules and contains all essential materials and commentary to ensure practitioners are ready to apply this new comprehensive code. Now also including a new Autumn Supplement, the Red Book 2012 continues to set the standards for all court handbooks.

Thomas, David, and a team of contributing authors, Keating on NEC3, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £195.00,

ISBN: 9781847033314

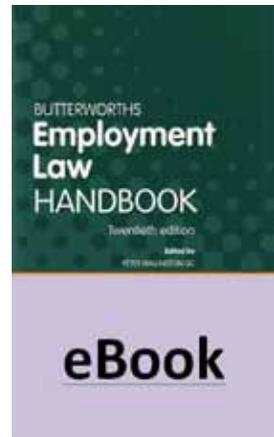

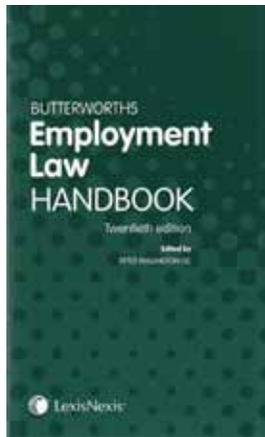

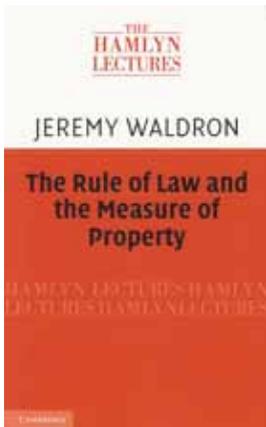

Keating on NEC3 provides detailed guidance on the three contracts that comprise the NEC3 suite of construction contracts. Reproducing the complete terms of the Engineering and Construction Contract (ECC), Sub-contract and Professional Services Contract, it sets out clause-by-clause commentary explaining how those contracts are intended to operate, highlighting any ambiguities or questions of interpretation that can arise. NEC is used across the construction sector, including BAA's Terminal 5, Channel Tunnel Rail Link and the Eden Project and has been adopted for use in construction work for London's 2012 Olympic Games.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution 2nd edition

By Susan Blake, Julie Browne and Stuart Sime
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199644988, due August 2012, £37.99

A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution provides a comprehensive and easily digestible commentary on all the major areas of ADR. Designed to support teaching and learning on the Bar Professional Training Course, it will also be of interest to practitioners who are looking for a clear exposition of the range of ADR processes. Written by an authoritative and highly respected author team, A Practical Approach to Alternative Dispute Resolution contains a range of features designed to enhance the reader's understanding of the key points, including sample documentation, flow diagrams, tables, and examples drawn from a range of different types of practice. Numerous cross-references to relevant websites and further resources are also provided. This second edition has been brought fully up to date on current practice and issues affecting ADR, including the development of the role of the Civil Mediation Council, online ADR options, and the forthcoming implementation of the Jackson Review reforms. The book's expanded coverage also makes it a suitable text for LLM courses on ADR.

Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook 13th edition

Edited by Andrew Barton
LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, ISBN 9781405765770, due August 2012, £151.00
Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook provides lawyers and those involved in the insurance industry with an invaluable compilation of relevant statutes, statutory instruments, expanded FSA Handbook materials and European legislation applicable to this important area of law. Other useful information includes the rules relating to professional indemnity of solicitors, Association of British Insurers statements, guides and codes of practice and the Motor Insurers' Bureau agreements. The Handbook also covers Insurance Companies, Inurance Intermediaries, Insurance Premium Tax, with specialist insurance categories including Liability and Motor Insurance. The legislation is printed as currently in force (taking into account all amendments, repeals and revocations), with detailed technical annotations regarding commencement and cross-references to other legislation where necessary.

The Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook 19th edition

Edited by Frances Silverman et al
Law Society Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781907698354, due July 2012, £79.95

The Conveyancing Handbook provides an authoritative source of information, advice and good practice guidance to help practitioners quickly resolve queries arising from routine and less familiar matters in conveyancing transactions. The text follows the chronology of a typical transaction and incorporates detailed procedural checklists to remind conveyancers of the tasks undertaken at each stage. Throughout the book, reference is made at appropriate points to the duties in the SRA Handbook, the guidance in the Law Society Conveyancing Protocol, and the provisions of the Standard Conditions of Sale. The 19th edition has been fully updated to take account of recent changes including the Localism Act 2011, Finance Act 2011, EPC regulations and the transfer of private drains and sewers. Comprehensive appendix material includes all the relevant rules and guidance from the SRA and Law Society.

A Practitioner's Guide to Commodity Finance

Edited by Geoffrey Wynne Sweet and Maxwell, Paperback, ISBN 9780414045392, due July 2012, £150.00

A Practitioner's Guide to Commodity Finance guides the reader through all the steps involved in commodity financing operations. It examines all the possible financing structures, the risks and risk management techniques involved, and how the regulatory regime impacts on what banks, insurers, producers and manufacturers need to take into account. It is the first book to give guidance on all these topics in the post-credit crisis environment. It provides in-depth coverage of every stage of a commodity financing deal from pre-export finance to enforcement of security and insolvency and it covers the impact of post credit crisis reforms, including the latest Basel II revisions. Also; Gives expert guidance on the issues and pitfalls of dealing with commodity financing in emerging markets; Covers how to spot fraud, and how to avoid it; Offers detailed advice on risk management and due diligence; Deals with Islamic financing issues; Includes extensive use of diagrams and flow charts to explain complex structures; Written by one of the City's foremost trade/commodity finance teams.

Cheshire, Fifoot & Furmston's Law of Contract 16th edition

By Michael Furmston
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199568345, due August 2012, £36.99
Cheshire, Fifoot & Furmston's Law of Contract stands as one of the classic textbooks on contract law more than 50 years after the publication of the first edition. Michael Furmston combines an authoritative account of the principles of the law of contract with thought-provoking analysis and insights, and the clarity of the narrative brings understanding of complex contractual issues to a wider readership. Each topic is clearly signposted for ease of navigation, and the text contains numerous references to additional primary and secondary sources to take the reader even further into the subject. The text is invaluable to students reading courses in contract, the law of obligations, and common law and is often used as a first point of reference for practitioners.

Pease and Chitty's Law of Markets and Fairs 6th edition

By Edward F. Cousins and Robert Anthony
Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, ISBN 9781847667427, due July 2012, £125.00

This edition contains complete coverage of case law over the last ten years since the previous edition. It includes coverage of the Land Registration Act 2002 which introduced a reduction on overriding interests affecting franchises. All chapters have been updated and a new list of appendices produced. Established since 1899 as the standard legal work of reference in this area. Pease and Chitty's Law of Markets and Fairs contains full coverage of UK and European case law and legislation.

Understanding the NEC3 ECC Contract: A Practical Handbook

By Kelvin Hughes

Spon Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780415614962, due July 2012, £29.99

The New Engineering Contracts have become recognised and widely used legal documents throughout the world. Currently in its third edition, this set of contracts is growing in importance as the international construction market becomes ever more integrated, and the “jurisdiction neutral approach” of the NEC comes into its own. Whether you are a project manager, architect, quantity surveyor, contractor or student a working knowledge of the NEC3 Engineering and Construction Contract is essential. Understanding the NEC3 ECC Contract uses plain English to lead the reader through the document’s key features, including: the use of early warnings, compensation events, termination provisions and preparing and assessing tenders. Written for construction professionals, by a practicing international construction contract consultant, this handbook is the most straightforward, balanced and practical guide to the NEC3 ECC available. Students of construction will also find this to be an invaluable reference.

The ICOSA Charity Trustee’s Guide 3rd edition

By Chris Priestley
ICSA Publishing Ltd,
Paperback, ISBN

9781860724909, due July 2012, £24.95

Charity trustees have wide-ranging legal responsibilities and carry overall accountability for their charity. It is essential that they are prepared and equipped with the appropriate information to fulfil this demanding role. This book provides quick and easy access to essential information on charities regulation and best practice including trustee recruitment and responsibilities, governance, board structure and functions, financial issues (including fundraising) and trustee-staff relations. The aim of the book is to support trustees of small- to medium-sized charities and covers the key aspects of the trustee function that are common to the majority of trustees. There are useful tips, sample documents and summary checklists are included throughout. Real-world examples help to put theory into practice and the only up-to-date and in-depth book in the market today.

Pensions on Divorce 2nd edition

Nova Law and Finance, Hardback, ISBN 9781908013194, due July 2012, £75.00

When a husband and wife decide to divorce it is frequently the case that one of them will own valuable pension rights and the other will not, or will own such rights of a smaller value. The interests of fairness may justify court intervention to redistribute these rights or make some other provision as compensation. This book attempts to explain and explore in an accessible fashion: What powers the court has to intervene and redistribute these rights? What are the procedural mechanisms which the court will follow in carrying out this intervention and redistribution? In what circumstances will the court consider it appropriate to intervene and redistribute these rights or make some other compensatory provision? What actuarial issues may arise from such considerations? Completely updated to cover new legislation, and with extensive notes on current regulations, this work also includes all of the standard forms required as well as a comprehensive series of tables and ready-reckoners to assist the reader in determining the best course for their clients.

Labour Law 6th edition

By Simon Deakin and Gillian S. Morris

Hart Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781849463416, due August 2012, £37.50

Labour law is a highly dynamic and complex field which can be properly understood only in its broader international and historical context. Deakin and Morris: Labour Law, a work increasingly cited as authoritative in the higher appellate courts, provides a comprehensive analysis of current British labour law which explains the role of different legal sources, as well as social and economic policy, in its development. It thus enables readers to obtain a deeper insight into likely future, as well as past, changes in the law. The new edition, while following the broad pattern of previous editions, highlights important new developments in the areas of the contract of employment, discipline and dismissal, equality law, EU law, employee representation, human rights, 'work-life balance' policies, trade union law and industrial action law. The book examines in detail the law governing individual employment relations, with chapters covering the definition of the employment relationship; the sources and regulation of terms and conditions of employment; discipline and termination of employment; and equality of treatment. This is followed by an analysis of the elements of collective labour law - the forms of collective organisation, freedom of association, employee representation, internal trade union government, and the law relating to industrial action. The sixth edition of Deakin and Morris: Labour Law is an essential text for students of law and of disciplines related to management and industrial relations, for barristers and solicitors working in the field of labour law, and for all those with a serious interest in the subject.

The Law of Yachts and Yachting

By Filippo Lorenzon and Richard Coles

Informa Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781843118886, due August 2012, £260.00

The past 20 years has seen steady growth in the numbers and size of pleasure yachts and other leisure craft coupled with an explosion in the numbers of professionally crewed superyachts and megayachts, many of which are operated on a commercial basis for charter by the wealthy. Many of these vessels rely upon cutting edge technology, innovative design and state of the art communications systems. Built by a growing number of specialist yacht builders, managed, crewed and operated by superyacht professionals, the superyacht industry has in recent years evolved as a distinct and separate industry alongside mainstream shipping, but with subtle differences of approach and traps for the non-specialist. Against this background, this book offers a comprehensive analysis of the many aspects of yachting law. Written by a team of leading yachting practitioners and researchers, this book covers the legal issues arising during the life of a yacht from conception to the scrapyard. It is a practitioners' book, to be used by lawyers and other professionals involved in all aspects of yachting, from design, construction, registration, financing and operation and many related issues.

DISSENTING JUDGMENTS IN THE LAW

Neal Geach and Chris Monaghan

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854900848
Extent: 432 pp
Size: 229x152mm
Binding: Hardback

In Dissenting Judgments in the Law a team of expert contributors reassess nineteen landmark cases from different areas of the law, each of which had the potential for the law to have developed in a markedly different direction. The cases have been selected on account of their continued relevance to the law today or the controversial nature of the majority's decision. A key feature of each case was a dissenting opinion from a judge who thought that the law should develop in a different direction.

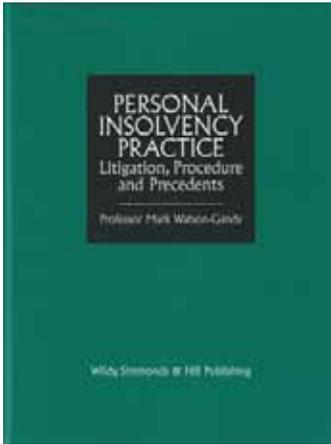

The aim of the contributors is to re-evaluate important cases, such as YL v Birmingham City Council [2007] UKHL 27, Scruttons Ltd v Midland Silicones Ltd [1962] AC 446 and R v Hinks [2000] UKHL 53 by assessing the merits of the judgements given, before deciding whether the law would, in fact, have been better served by following the dissenting opinion rather than that of the majority of judges in the case. The judicial reasoning in each case is explored in depth and is contrasted with differing approaches in other jurisdictions. Where relevant, a comparative analysis is employed in order to show how the law, by not following the dissenting opinion, has developed out of step with other common law jurisdictions. Each contributor then sets out what impact the dissenting judgment might have had on the law if it had decided the case and assess where the law in that particular field would be today.

Neal Geach is a senior lecturer at the University of Hertfordshire specialising in Tort and Property law. He also has research interests in electronic and mobile commerce. Christopher Monaghan is a lecturer at BPP University College. He also has extensive research interest in criminal law and legal-history.

“a highly stimulating book” From the foreword by Lord Nicholls of Birkenhead

PERSONAL INSOLVENCY
Litigation, Procedure and Precedents

Mark Watson-Gandy

Price: £79.00
ISBN: 9780854900824
Extent: 409 pp
Binding: Hardback

Personal Insolvency Practice is an ideal starting point for all practitioners, whether solicitors or barristers. Up-to-date and practical, this book provides an easy to follow, ‘how to do it’ guide for all the common court applications in personal insolvency.

Covering areas as diverse as statutory demands, bankruptcy petitions, interim orders, permission to act as a director, setting aside preferences and transactions at an under-value and appeals, Personal Insolvency Practice gives the inside track on what the court will expect both in terms of practice and evidence. It provides the busy practitioner with a range of useful precedents and checklists, and sets out the key statutory and practice material for each application.

Fully incorporating the recent amendments to the Insolvency Rules 1986, Personal Insolvency Practice will prove an invaluable reference for insolvency practitioners along with its companion text Corporate Insolvency Practice.

Professor Mark Watson-Gandy is a practising barrister at Thirteen Old Square Chambers and a Visiting Professor at the University of Westminster. He is a member of R3 and is an Editor of Butterworths Corporate Law Service. He was shortlisted in Credit Today magazine’s Insolvency & Rescue Awards both in 2009 and 2010 as “Barrister of the Year”.

A PRACTITIONER'S GUIDE TO PROBATE AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES

3rd edn

Emma Gaudern and Keith Biggs

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901067
Extent: 584 pp
Binding: Hardback with CD

The third edition of A Practitioner's Guide to Probate and the Administration of Estates (previously published as Probate and the Administration of Estates: The Law and Practice) is a practical and comprehensive guide to all forms of non-contentious probate and applications and the administration of estates. It provides careful explanations of every step in the procedure for winding up the estate of a deceased person, from taking initial instructions to the final distribution of the estate and closing the file. Written by practitioners for practitioners, it is packed with hints and tips, covering procedural complexities, tricky tax points, avoiding delay and more.

The book opens with advice on meeting the client and taking proper instructions, moving on to tracking down the assets and liabilities which comprise the estate; completing inheritance tax forms and obtaining any available reliefs and allowances; questions concerning wills and intestacies, applying to the probate registries discretionary orders, obtaining grants of representation, collecting in the paying debts and liabilities, identifying the beneficiaries and paying the legacies, finalising the tax situation; and distributing the residue of the estate. The book contains a comprehensive set of precedent forms covering all applications to the registries for discretionary orders and grants of representation.

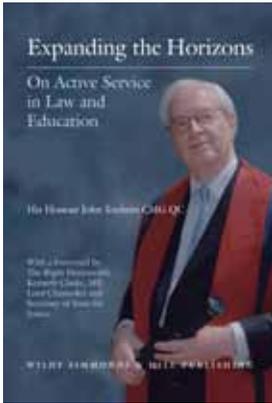

This new edition has been completely revised and updated and contains a comprehensive guide to the completion of the current forms relating to Inheritance Tax and applications to the probate registries for discretionary orders and grants of representation.

“clear and concise with explanations of sometimes complex matters cleverly done”

EXPANDING THE HORIZONS: On Active Service in Law and Education

With a Foreword by The Right Honourable Kenneth Clarke, MP, Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice

In Expanding the Horizons: On Active Service in Law and Education John Toulmin reflects on his varied contributions both nationally and internationally in stimulating the development of the seven organisations in which he has been involved. He tells the story through speeches and articles by him and in his honour and looks at future developments.

The book begins with Valedictory speeches on his retirement as a Judge, and with a tribute by the Director of the European Law Academy (ERA), of which he was Chairman of Trustees from 1997-2010. It continues with developments in civil procedure, access to justice, dispute resolution and the author's proposals for reform. Expanding the Horizons contains the last liability judgment in "Factortame", one of the most famous European and UK cases, and it deals with one other case illustrative of construction litigation and of the changes proposed earlier in the work. The story continues with the author's 1993 Presidency of the CCBE (European Bar Council) starting with "Our Worldwide Legal Profession", a keynote lecture at the University of Michigan in 1993, and a 2001 lecture describing his negotiation of the GATT/Uruguay Round, on behalf of the legal profession, and leading role in the Lawyers' Establishment Directive, both of which expanded legal horizons. This section includes an article in Fordham International Law Journal 1992 arguing for a worldwide code of professional ethics, and a chapter entitled "Professional Rules and Ethical Ideologies", based on a 1997 seminar tracing the transformation of legal practice over 30 years, and arguing against multi-disciplinary practices. The book goes on to set out the development of the European Court of Justice and the Court of First Instance (now the general court), particularly relevant to the current scrutiny of the European Court of Justice, indicating possible areas of reform and that the current debate should take place in an atmosphere "more of light than heat". The remarkable story of ERA is set out, with suggestions for the future.

There is a history of the Institute of Psychiatry (IOP) from 1979 - 2003 when the author was closely involved, latterly as Chairman of its Advisory Committee, and an article about interdisciplinary collaboration at King's College London, particularly law and medicine. The author's 2008 "Reading" in the Middle Temple which proposed further international links is included and, after membership from 1990-2010 of the Temple Church committee (as Chairman in 2003), he addresses its development as the Mother Church of the Common Law, the Inns of Court being the cradles. Finally, Sir Konrad Schiemann's end piece encompasses European law, ERA and the modest vineyard of the Toulmin family in Burgundy.

RUSSIAN CIVIL AND ARBITRAZH PROCEDURE
