WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 18 Issue 3 Published Monthly

Mar/Apr 2013

Our cover this month is the open undercroft of the Chapel in Lincoln's Inn. In 1659 eighty men who had been Members of the 'Rump' of the Long Parliament, finally dissolved by Cromwell in 1653, met here to plot the restoration of Charles II. Built in 1620, the Chapel's foundation stone was laid by the poet John Donne who was preacher to the Inn from 1616 to 1622. Sometimes babies were abandoned here, and the Inn then took it on itself to bring them up, giving them the surname Lincoln.

Amongst the pictures this month:

I had the pleasure of attending the first John Toulmin Lecture in Law and Psychiatry given by Lord Judge at King's College in London. John Toulmin was the author of our publication Expanding the Horizons. The Dickson Poon School of Law were wonderful hosts and provided a very nice drinks reception afterwards.

Annemarie Sudlow has retired after 31 years with our friends at Hammicks Legal Bookshop. Many of our people went along with a gift to wish her well. A lot of old friends turned up and the party went on for a long time.

The BIALL Spring Social was held at the Punch Tavern and was a great success. It was partly sponsored by our friends at ICLR. We are already making preparations for our trip to the annual conference in June. This year the venue is Glasgow.

The launch of our book Saggerson on Travel Law and Litigation was very successful and continued well into the evening. We consider this to be one of our major publications and we are very proud of it. The authors are all at chambers around the corner from us at 1 Chancery Lane.

As this issue is about to go to the printers we have the annual circus known, in the shop, as The White Book Day. Everyone who orders a copy expects it on their desk during the morning of publication. This means our staff running all over the Inns and into the City delivering copies. It is our busiest day and this year coincided with “Silk” Day.

Our friend Paul McGrath of ICLR writes a very informative blog and recently brought a new book to our attention A Higher Duty by another friend of the company Judge Peter Murphy (author of Murphy on Evidence and was formerly an editor of Blackstones Criminal Practice). We highly recommend both the novel and Paul’s blog: <http://theiclr.blogspot.co.uk/2013/03/sex-lies-and-pink-tape-in-age-of.html>

As you can see, March has been a very busy month.

Bignell, Janet; The Hon Mr Justice Lewison, Lewison's Drafting Business Leases 8th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780414024984

Lewison's Drafting Business Leases is an ideal companion for all property practitioners whether drafting, negotiating, interpreting or litigating commercial lease clauses in the current market. If you're a lease draftsman, you'll find the new edition addresses the key issues during drafting and negotiation with a practical approach. Contentious issues that can arise, or that you should consider, are focused on, as well as examining drafting concerns from both landlords' and tenants' perspectives. For litigators on lease renewal and in contractual disputes, you'll have an adviser's guide to the considerations behind the drafting, and to the lessons the case law teaches on lease interpretation.

Callens, Pieter; Granata, Sam, Introduction to the Unitary Patent and the Unified Patent Court: The (Draft) Rules of Procedure of the Unified Patent Court, Kluwer Law International, Hardback & Flowcharts, £100.00, ISBN: 9789041147578

Everybody involved in European patenting will find enormously welcome guidance in this extraordinary book. Written by two outstanding intellectual property experts – one being a lawyer who had a hand in the development of the unitary patent and the other being a reputed Belgian intellectual property judge – it describes in detail all the provisions regarding the new patent and the new court, explaining their rationales and the processes that led to them.

Calvert, Tracey; Still, Bronwen, Regulation and In-House Lawyers, Law Society Publishing, Paperback, £69.95, ISBN: 9781907698545

The introduction of the Legal Services Act 2007 means that anyone who is regulated by the SRA, including those who work for non-solicitor employers, can provide legal services. This means that in-house lawyers will need to be more aware of the requirements of the new SRA Handbook and the opportunities the new regime will bring. This practical book outlines the compliance requirements for in-house lawyers and examines the practical changes in-house lawyers may need to make in order to comply with the Act.

Caron, David D.; Caplan, Lee M., The UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules: A Commentary 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199696307

Reaching past the secrecy so often met in arbitration, the second edition of this commentary explains clearly and fully the workings of the UNCITRAL Rules of Arbitral Procedure recommended for use in 1976 by the United Nations. This new edition fully takes account of the revised Rules adopted in 2010 while maintaining coverage of the original Rules where these remain relevant. The differences between the old and the new Rules are clearly indicated and explained. Pulling together difficult to obtain sources from the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, arbitrations under Chapter 11 of the North American Free Trade Agreement, and ad hoc arbitrations, it illuminates the shape the UNCITRAL Rules take in practice.

Chapman, Matthew; Prager, Sarah; Harding, Jack, Saggerson on Travel Law and Litigation 5th ed, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Hardcover, £125.00, ISBN: 9780854901197

With a Foreword by His Honour Judge Saggerson and written by a new team of leading practitioners at the London travel law set, 1 Chancery Lane, this new edition of this well-known work comprehensively revises and updates classic topics.

Existing case law is placed in a practical context and the many new developments in the law are discussed in detail. Travel law and litigation is one of the most dynamic areas of practice and new law is constantly being made. The volume of new case law has increased significantly since the fourth edition was published and the busy practitioner needs to remain on top of this. The fifth edition provides full commentary on all topics of relevance to the travel lawyer

Fisher, Howard D., The German Legal System and Legal Language 5th ed, Clarus Press, Hardback, £139.00, ISBN: 9781905536511

Wildy's Book of the Month: March 2013

The German Legal System and Legal Language: A General Survey Together with Notes and German Vocabulary is an established, reliable and practical resource and learning tool designed to give native English speakers a clear and authoritative guide to the German legal system and its special language. The book, now in its 5th edition, previously published by Routledge, has been fully revised and updated. It includes a full suite of appendices as part of the published work, comprising a list of abbreviations, a vocabulary of selected German and Latin words and phrases, a table of cases and a paragraph register. The new, consolidated and revised 5th edition contains many pioneering explanations and continues to be a valuable source of reference for anyone interested in the German legal system and legal language or who, for professional or private reasons, becomes involved in legal affairs in that part of the world.

Francis, Andrew, Restrictive Covenants and Freehold Land: A Practitioner's Guide 4th ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9781846615054

This popular work has established itself as an essential guide for the practitioner requiring an understanding of the law of restrictive covenants affecting freehold land. In this book a complex topic is made intelligible by easily understood text, complemented by flowcharts and checklists. This enables the adviser to solve problems quickly and accurately. The author brings his extensive experience of cases involving covenants to the work, dealing with points that arise in practice both comprehensively and with authority.

Haley, Michael, Renewal of Business Tenancies: A Practical Guide 2nd ed, Law Society Publishing, Paperback, £69.95, ISBN: 9781907698415 limits, and the service of prescribed notices and forms. The second edition has been fully updated to include commentary on the developments brought about by case law since first publication in 2006. The authoritative guidance is supplemented by an appendix containing key extracts from the legislation and reproduction of prescribed forms and notices.

Hamer, Kenneth, Professional Conduct Casebook, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199656134

Kenneth Hamer's Professional Conduct Casebook is the only book to provide comprehensive coverage of the growing body of case law in this developing area. It analyses all the key professional conduct and competence cases in a single volume and distills the general principles from the legislative framework and relevant case decisions, offering lucid guidance to practitioners much in need of clarity. The book contains extensive summaries of the cases and the decisions reached in each case by the court. Structured alphabetically for logical, quick reference, the book contains over 60 chapters which cover every issue arising in the hearing of conduct and competence cases.

Hogarth, Peter, Insurance Law for the Construction Industry 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199662906

Providing a much-needed guide to the complex interface between insurance law and construction projects, this fully revised and updated second edition of Insurance Law for the Construction Industry will be of practical everyday use to both contentious and non-contentious lawyers. Written by an experienced team of practising solicitors from Reynolds Porter Chamberlain LLP, this work combines an overview of the relevant insurance law with the specific detail specialists will require. The book provides comprehensive coverage of the issues involving insurance encountered in the process of construction. It gives practical answers to all the problems likely to be encountered when negotiating construction contracts, insurance policies or insurance claims.

The Jackson ADR Handbook

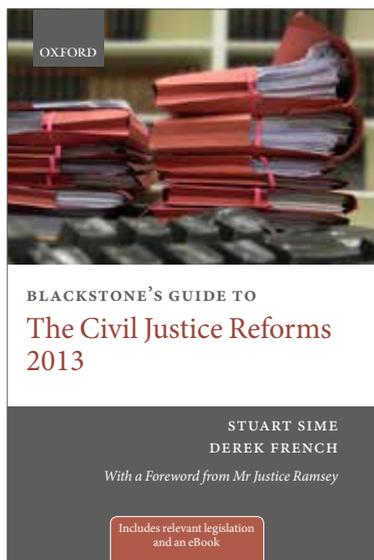

Susan Blake, Barrister and Associate Dean, City University London, Julie Browne, Barrister and Deputy Course Director of the Bar Professional Training Course, City University London, and Prof Stuart Sime, Barrister and Course Director of the Bar Professional Training Course, City University London

The first book to focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) post the Jackson reforms, this essential and practical guide follows recommendations by Lord Justice Jackson in his Review of Civil Litigation Costs that an authoritative handbook for ADR should be prepared.

"I congratulate the authors and editors on this excellent handbook. This is exactly what I envisaged when drafting chapter 36 of the Review of Civil Litigation Costs Final Report."

- The Right Honourable Sir Rupert Jackson

Blackstone's Guide to the Civil Justice Reforms 2013

by Stuart Sime and Derek French

Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199685158, £39.99, due April 2013

The first practical guide to the procedural reforms to be implemented in April 2013, this essential text explains the wide-ranging recommendations made by Sir Rupert Jackson in his Review of Civil Litigation Costs (MoJ, 2009) dealing with the costs of civil litigation. These changes have been described by Law Society president Lucy Scott-Moncrieff as representing 'the most significant change to the civil justice system since the Woolf reforms in 1999'. Following the recommendations in the Review, the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 was passed and other changes will be implemented through changes to the Civil Procedure Rules and Practice Directions. This is a clear and practical commentary on these extensive reforms, providing valuable guidance and detail on how the changes will operate in practice. It includes useful tables detailing the changes for ease of access and well as selected appendices with the relevant material practitioners will need.

Mental Health Tribunals: Law, Practice and Procedure 2nd edition

by Jonathan Butler

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846616020, £70.00, due April 2013

Mental Health Tribunals: Law Practice and Procedure is a highly practical reference work for all those appearing before the tribunal and for tribunal members themselves. Detailed explanatory commentary about the organisation, procedure and jurisdiction of the Tribunal is followed by an analysis of Tribunal powers in relation to both non-offender and offender patients. This new edition has been methodically revised to take into account the developing procedure of the Tribunal system, the ongoing development of the mental health and mental capacity acts, as well as noting all significant case-law since the previous edition. In addition to explanatory commentary, the work will be supplemented by a host of relevant materials including legislation and codes of practice, providing a one-stop-shop for tribunal members and those appearing before the Tribunal.

A Guide to the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules

by Clyde Croft, Christopher Kee, and Jeff Waincymer

Cambridge University Press, Hardback, ISBN 9780521195720, £150.00, due April 2013

The first version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules was endorsed by the General Assembly of the United Nations in December 1976. Now considered one of UNCITRAL's greatest successes, the rules have had an extraordinary impact on international arbitration as both instruments in their own right and as guides for others. The Iran-US Claims Tribunal, for example, employs a barely modified version of the rules for all claims, and many multilateral and bilateral foreign investment treaties adopt the UNCITRAL Rules as an arbitral procedure. The Rules are so pervasive and the consequences of the new version potentially so significant that they cannot be ignored. This commentary on the Rules brings the official documents together in one volume and includes the insights and experiences of the Working Group that are not included in the official reports.

The Law of Demurrage 5th edition

by Hugo Tiberg, Daniel Brand, Julian Cooke and Jeremy Harwood

Sweet & Maxwell, Hardback, ISBN 9781847031365, £255.00, due May 2013

Published within the British Shipping Law series, The Law of Demurrage presents a thorough and up-to-date treatment of all aspects of demurrage. It examines both the legal and commercial aspects of the subject, explaining what actually happens in port during laytime and how demurrage can arise, alongside detailed examination of legal principles and the contractual and liability issues involved.

In what is an inherently international area of law, it provides not only a UK common law perspective but also covers civil law principles, together with examination of case law from Scandinavia, China, Japan and other key maritime jurisdictions.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights: The Travaux Préparatoires

edited by William A. Schabas
Cambridge University Press,

Hardback, 3 Volumes, ISBN 9781107015500, £250.00, due April 2013

A collection of United Nations documents associated with the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, these volumes facilitate research into the scope of, meaning of and intent behind the instrument's provisions. It permits an examination of the various drafts of what became the thirty articles of the Declaration, including one of the earliest documents – a compilation of human rights provisions from national constitutions, organised thematically. The documents are organised chronologically and thorough thematic indexing facilitates research into the origins of specific rights and norms. It is also annotated in order to provide information relating to names, places, events and concepts that might have been familiar in the late 1940s but are today more obscure.

Electronic Media Law and Regulation 6th edition

by Kenneth C. Creech
Routledge, Paperback, ISBN 9780415518093, £59.99, due May 2013

Electronic Media Law and Regulation is a case-based law text that provides students with direct access to case law as well as the context in which to understand its meaning and impact. The text overviews the major legal and regulatory issues facing broadcasting, cable, and developing media in today's industry. Presenting information from major cases, rules, regulations, and legal documents in a concise and readable form, this book helps current and prospective media professionals understand the complex realm of law and regulation. Students will learn how to avoid common legal pitfalls and anticipate situations that may have potential legal consequences. This sixth edition provides annotated cases with margin notes, and new chapters address such timely issues as media ownership, freedom of information, entertainment rights, and cyber law. A companion website provides additional materials for students and instructors.

The Law of Liability Insurance

by Malcolm A. Clarke
Informa Law, Hardback, ISBN 9780415830560, £290.00, due July 2013

This book provides an authoritative and comprehensive review of all aspects of the law that relate to liability insurance contracts. Taking an international comparative perspective, The Law of Liability Insurance covers all the major types of liability insurance, not just professional indemnity insurance, presenting the issues according to the general principles of contract law. The book begins by concentrating on the fundamentals of the liability insurance contract before moving on to review cover and cover conditions, defence, exclusions, and finally claims against and non-payment by the insurer. This book will be an invaluable reference tool for practitioners and professionals working in the commercial liability insurance industry, including those who operate globally, as well as being a source for academics and post-graduate students. Malcolm A. Clarke is the Emeritus Professor of Commercial Contract Law at Cambridge University and is based at St John's College. Professor Clarke is a leading figure in the field of insurance and is currently working by invitation with the American Law Institute (Philadelphia) on a Restatement of the US Law of Liability Insurance.

Gas Price Arbitrations: A Practical Handbook

Consulting Editor: Mark Levy
Globe Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781905783779, £130.00, due May 2013
This practical new handbook covers the various aspects of international gas pricing disputes. It contains contributions from leading international arbitration practitioners and arbitrators in the field, in-house counsel and industry experts. It covers the various stages of a gas pricing dispute, from drafting the clause to triggering a review, all the way through the various stages of the arbitral process. It also contains insights into how pricing in Europe may develop in the future and the effect that this may have on dispute resolution. Despite the large number of high-value disputes in this area, this is one of the very few publications to draw together the various strands of gas pricing disputes into one book. It is therefore an invaluable guide for practitioners, in-house counsel and anyone else with an interest in this area.

The Jackson ADR Handbook

by Susan Blake, Julie Browne and Stuart Sime
Oxford University Press, Paperback, ISBN 9780199676460, £34.99, due April 2013
The first book to focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) post the Jackson reforms, this essential and practical guide follows recommendations by Lord

Justice Jackson in his Review of Civil Litigation Costs that an authoritative handbook for ADR should be prepared. Lord Justice Jackson envisaged that this handbook would be on the desk or in the briefcase of every judge or lawyer dealing with mediation issues and should also be commonly used in Judicial College and Continuing Professional Development training sessions. With the assistance of an eminent Editorial Advisory Board, this work has been designed to assist practitioners and take account of the vital role ADR has to play in reducing the costs of civil disputes by fomenting the early settlement of cases. The book provides a practical resource for judges, litigators and others involved with ADR in a concise and user-friendly format. It includes an in-depth overview of the different options and principles of ADR, as well as sections on: the interplay between ADR, CPR and litigation; negotiation; mediation; recording and enforcing settlement; and other alternative dispute resolution options, as well as giving a summary of the international perspective. Additional materials such as mediation providers and specimen documents are available on a companion website.

Insurance and Re-insurance in the MENA Region: A Legal and Regulatory Guide

by Michael Kortbawi, Rima Mrad, Nadim Bardawil and Irshied Tayeb

Globe Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781905783588, £125.00, due May 2013

This new book aims to provide foreign insurers and intermediaries looking to enter the market with practical, up-to-date guidance on setting up in the region. The countries featured in the book are Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Morocco, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Tunisia and the United Arab Emirates. For each jurisdiction, the book provides an overview of the regulatory framework and background, the licensing requirements for insurers, reinsurers, intermediaries and takaful providers, and on-the-ground knowledge of local culture and practices that would give any business looking to enter the market a unique advantage over competitors. With a unique insight into the challenges of conducting insurance business in the region from both a business and a regulatory perspective, this book is essential for heads of business looking to expand their business. In-house and private practice lawyers practising in the region will also benefit from using this book as an invaluable tool which introduces the legal framework in each jurisdiction and the most significant regulatory requirements when advising on compliance in the region. Featuring concise and practical advice on various jurisdictions in one of the world's largest growing markets, this book serves as an essential guide for insurance professionals with an interest in the region.

Corporate Criminal Liability 3rd edition

by Amanda Pinto QC and Martin Evans

Sweet & Maxwell, Hardback, ISBN 9780414027589, £149.00, due May 2013

With the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007, the criminal liability of companies entered a new era. The third edition of this practical guide to corporate criminal liability updates its coverage in light of Supreme Court decisions on the 2007 act and wide-ranging other developments. It deals with all offences where corporations can have a criminal liability, from Companies Act 2006 offences and those under the Financial Services & Markets Act 2000 to fraudulent trading and corruption, as well as corporate manslaughter.

Intellectual Property Handbook 2nd edition

General Editor: Lorna Brazel
Law Society Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781907698620, £89.95, due May 2013

The new edition of the Intellectual Property Law Handbook provides an authoritative overview of intellectual property issues facing commercial lawyers. It sets out the principles behind the various IP rights, showing clearly how to apply the law in practice. The book explores the main types of IP right encountered in commercial practice including copyright, trademarks, patents, design rights and confidential information. New coverage includes an explanation of the new patent tax regime, effective from April 2013, the new Unified Patent system, and several decisions from the CJEU on the use of trade marks on the internet. Licensing and assignment in the context of transactions, competition and taxation aspects of IP, and digital media and the internet are also covered. Each chapter includes an overview and sets out the relevant law showing how it applies to the most common commercial transactions. The handbook also includes flowcharts to explain complex procedures.

Matthew Chapman, Sarah Prager
and Jack Harding

With a Foreword by His Honour Judge Saggerson

Price: £125.00
ISBN: 9780854901197
Extent: 892 pp
Binding: Hardback

Written by a new team of leading practitioners at the London travel law set, 1 Chancery Lane, this new edition of this well-known work comprehensively revises and updates classic topics. Existing case law is placed in a practical context and the many new developments in the law are discussed in detail.

Travel law and litigation is one of the most dynamic areas of practice and new law is constantly being made. The volume of new case law has increased significantly since the fourth edition was published and the busy practitioner needs to remain on top of this. The fifth edition provides full commentary on all topics of relevance to the travel lawyer.

Both a digest of the existing law and a lively guide to where the law may be heading, this new edition of this leading text is clear, concise and authoritative. It will be of interest to all those who deal with claims that have a cross-border elements and will prove an essential addition to the library of all barristers, solicitors and legal executives who practise in this expanding field.

The authors are Barristers at 1 Chancery Lane, where they handle the full range of travel-related litigation. They serve on the Committee of the Travel & Tourism Lawyers' Association (respectively, as Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary). They have been involved in many of the most high profile travel law cases of the past decade.

OFFSHORE COMMERCIAL LAW IN BERMUDA

Edited by Ian Kawaley

Editorial Consultant: Karen Skiffington

Price: £145
ISBN: 9780854901074
Extent: 702 pp
Binding: Hardback

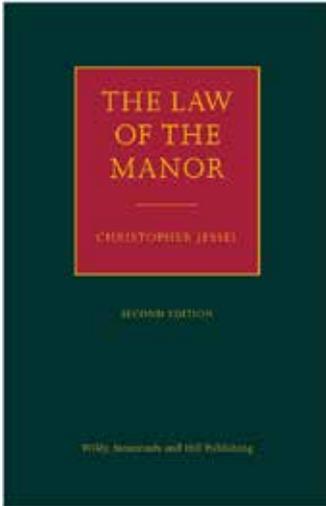

Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda is the first comprehensive practitioner's guide to offshore commercial practice in one of the world's leading offshore financial centres.

The book is divided into three main sections, Establishing Offshore Vehicles, Commercial Dispute Resolution and Relations with the Onshore World. Subjects covered include company law, insurance partnership law, trust law, litigation and insolvency law, regulatory law and cross-border cooperation. The book considers Bermuda Commercial Law as a broad topic and also addresses ethical and policy considerations.

Edited by a commercial judge and written by leading practitioners in the principal commercial law fields, this book provides an insight into the development and current operation of Bermuda's offshore legal framework. Each contributor describes the key legal rules and explains how the relevant legal principles are applied in practice. Reference is made to relevant statutory provisions and case law, while contributors also furnish practical observations which add flesh to the bare bones of the formal legal structures in question.

The depth of treatment will make the text an indispensable reference tool for the experienced practitioner, the clarity of the text ensures that the book is also accessible to those new to the topics covered. Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda is for international lawyers who whose work involves or potentially involves interaction with companies, partnerships, trusts or special purpose vehicles based in Bermuda. It will also be invaluable to offshore professionals based in Bermuda.

Ian R C Kawaley is a Judge of the Commercial Court, a division of the Supreme Court of Bermuda. In September 2010 his selection as the next Chief Justice of Bermuda, with effect from 1 April 2012, was announced.

THE LAW OF THE MANOR

2nd Edition

Christopher Jessel

Price:	£165
ISBN:	9780854901104
Extent:	582 pp
Binding:	Hardback

The Law of the Manor is the definitive work on the subject, providing detailed, up-to-date and comprehensive coverage for lawyers and also to those owning, managing, selling or buying historic houses and estates. It provides a modern description of the law associated with lordships of the manor. Principally concerned with the lands and rights of the lord, the book also considers rights that tenants of the manor can claim against him. These are put in context with a discussion of associated topics such as franchises and titles of nobility.

The second edition has been updated to cover numerous developments in the law since 1998, in particular the Land Registration Act 2002, the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 and the Commons Act 2006. The book includes changes made by the Hunting Act 2004, the House of Lords Act 1999, and the Legal Services Act 2007 as well as the relevant case law. New material has been included on escheat, rectorial manors and roadside verges. There is also greater coverage of legal authorities especially in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and a selection of useful precedents for the practitioner. Although the book is about the law of the manor in England and Wales, there is some reference to other jurisdictions, most notably the experimental extension of the manorial system to some American colonies.

The text is arranged in five parts. Part 1 describes the context, summarises the history and analyses custom which is the basis of manorial law. Part 2 describes the lands of tenants and lords and the relations between them. Part 3 discusses rights and comprises a detailed commentary on section 62(3) of the Law of Property Act 1925. It covers rights of common, mineral and sporting rights, courts and remaining revenues. Part 4 sets the manor in the context of other institutions, namely the village, the church, towns and feudal relationships. Part 5 summarises and looks at the modern manor, its documents, conveyancing (with particular reference to registered land) and taxation, concluding with suggestions for reform.
