WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 18 Issue 5 Published Monthly

May/June 2013

We had a fantastic time at CALL in Montreal last month. What started as a speculative visit has now gone on for 12 years. It was great to see so many of our old friends and humbling to hear the good things they had to say about our service. We look forward to attending next year in Winnipeg.

Our cover this month is a picture of a couple of participants in the Law Society's Walk for Legal Charities.

Our next trip is coming up in a couple of weeks time when BIALL will hold its annual conference in Glasgow. John Sinkins and Brian Hill will be attending, along with Alden Bowers, Jason Crimp, Tina Hartley and Vincent Silvester from our subscriptions department. We really look forward to this conference so please drop by the stand to say hello. On Friday lunchtime at the conference we will be launching the second edition of Legal Research. Peter Clinch will be attending to answer any questions.

Banks, Robert; Harris, Lyndon, Banks on Sentence 8th ed: Volumes 1 and 2, Robert Banks, Paperback, £108.00, ISBN: 9780957197732

Banks on Sentence is the definitive sentencing guide. Volume 1 is the essential book for understanding sentencing orders and procedures. Volume 2 is the essential book for determining the sentence for almost all prosecuted offences.

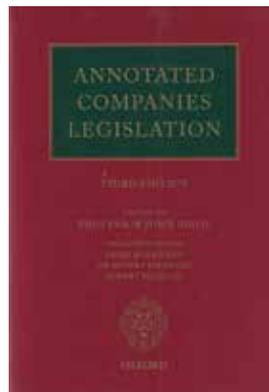

Bell, Stuart; McGillivray, Donald; Pedersen, Ole W., Environmental Law 8th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £36.99, ISBN: 9780199583805

Trusted by generations of students and academics alike, Donald McGillivray and Ole Pedersen provide a welcome update of this leading environmental law textbook. The 8th edition continues to provide broad and comprehensive coverage of the key topics taught on most environmental law courses, explaining the subject in its social and political context and considering both UK and international perspectives. Known for its clear structure and systematic approach, topics are considered by theme and by sector, allowing more experienced readers to explore the intricacies of the subject while also providing a logical introduction for those new to environmental law or without a legal background.

Blake, Susan; Browne, Julie; Sime, Stuart, The Jackson ADR Handbook, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £34.99, ISBN: 9780199676460

The first book to focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) post the Jackson reforms, this essential and practical guide follows recommendations by Lord Justice Jackson in his Review of Civil Litigation Costs that an authoritative handbook for ADR should be prepared. The book provides a practical resource for judges, litigators and others involved with ADR in a concise and user-friendly format. It includes an in-depth overview of the different options and principles of ADR, as well as sections on: the interplay between ADR, CPR and litigation; negotiation; mediation; recording and enforcing settlement; and other alternative dispute resolution options, as well as giving a summary of the international perspective. Additional materials such as mediation providers and specimen documents are available on a companion website.

Briggs, Adrian, The Conflict of Laws 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780199679287

Adrian Briggs' invaluable introduction to the study of the conflict of laws provides a survey and analysis of the rules of private international law as they apply in England. The volume covers general principles, jurisdiction, and the effect of foreign judgments; choice of law for contractual and non-contractual obligations, the private international law of property, of persons, and of corporations. It does so in a manner which explains and illuminates the principles which underpin the subject in a clear and coherent fashion, as the wealth of literature, case law, and legislation often obscures the architecture of the subject and unnecessarily complicates study.

restructuring of sovereign debt. It provides lessons for future credit events affecting the whole range of sovereign debt financial participants, transactions and instruments. Written by leading practitioners and renowned academics, this title provides in-depth analysis of aspects of the intersection between the recent financial crisis in Europe and the law, litigation and practice of selected key international jurisdictions - mainly the United States, Europe and certain international arbitration tribunals.

Bushell, Simon; Milner-Moore, Gary, Disclosure of Information: Norwich Pharmacal and Related Principles, Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9781780431093

Disclosure of Information: Norwich Pharmacal and Related Principles covers the origins of the jurisdiction and the key stages in its development. It also includes an overview of the current requirements for a successful application, which will highlight the interplay between this jurisdiction and other more familiar methods of obtaining information including: disclosure in aid of freezing injunctions; pre-action disclosure; disclosure in proceedings; witness summonses statutory and regulatory powers. There are worked examples of when and how the jurisdiction has been invoked in practice in order to give context to the requirements and an analysis of the extent of the information that can be obtained.

Craggs, Adam; Levy, Jonathan, A Practical Guide to Tax Appeals, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £94.95, ISBN: 9780754542254

A Practical Guide to Tax Appeals guides the tax practitioner through all the stages of taking a litigious dispute with the HMRC to court. This information is presented in a clear and straightforward style, while at the same time, remaining well grounded in intellectual rigour and authority. There has been considerable change to the tax tribunals system over the last two years. The changes/new processes that have come into force have been incredibly complex - and numerous practitioners still do not understand the new system or the way it works.

topher; Waincymer, Jeff, A Guide to the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £150.00, ISBN: 9780521195720

The first version of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules was endorsed by the General Assembly of the United Nations in December 1976. Now considered one of UNCITRAL's greatest successes, the rules have had an extraordinary impact on international arbitration as both instruments in their own right and as guides for others. The Iran-US Claims Tribunal, for example, employs a barely modified version of the rules for all claims, and many multilateral and bilateral foreign investment treaties adopt the UNCITRAL Rules as an arbitral procedure. The Rules are so pervasive and the consequences of the new version potentially so significant that they cannot be ignored. This commentary on the Rules brings the official documents together in one volume and includes the insights and experiences of the Working Group that are not included in the official reports.

Keith, Commercial Contract Law: Transatlantic Perspectives, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9781107028081

This book focuses on the law of commercial contracts as constructed by the US and UK legal systems. Leading scholars from both sides of the Atlantic provide works of original scholarship focusing on current debates and trends from the two dominant common law systems. The chapters approach the subject areas from a variety of perspectives – doctrinal analysis, law and economic analysis, and social-legal studies, as well as other theoretical perspectives.

Eduardo, Pereira; Talus, Kim, Upstream Law and Regulation: A Global Guide, Globe Law and Business, Hardback, £130.00, ISBN: 9781905783892

The book summarises the upstream regulation and the key concerns in over 30 important and emerging oil and gas jurisdictions. Issues featured include the key terms of the petroleum law, the types of legal arrangement in place (ie, concession agreement, production sharing contract or service agreement), the fiscal terms, how to qualify to acquire acreage, type of governing law, dispute resolution mechanisms and governmental control. The book therefore represents a comprehensive worldwide resource for upstream investments.

Edward, David; Lane, Robert, Edward and Lane on European Union Law, Edward Elgar Publishing Limited, Hardback, £250.00, ISBN: 9780857931047

Wildy's Book of the Month: May 2013

A comprehensively updated and expanded new edition of a classic text, this authoritative and wide-ranging volume provides expert analysis on the key issues across all areas of European Union law - including its constitutional, procedural and substantive aspects. In particular, coverage of the constitutional and procedural elements includes; historical background and development of the European Union; constitutional structure of the Union; 'The Treaties': interrelationship and fundamental (constitutional) rules; the institutional framework; jurisdiction of, and actions before, the Court of Justice; sources, principles and methods of Union law.

Elliott, Steven; Hacker, Birke; Mitchell Charles, Restitution of Overpaid Tax, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £100.00, ISBN: 9781849461733

In Woolwich v IRC [1993] AC 70 (HL), the House of Lords held that taxes unlawfully exacted by the Revenue are recoverable by the taxpayer as of right. However, the torrent of subsequent litigation and commentary demonstrates that many fundamental elements of the Woolwich principle still remain to be resolved. Colossal amounts of money hinge on these issues. The essays in this collection explore these issues of restitution of overpaid taxes from various perspectives including the tax background, various private law claims, alternative public law approaches, defences, and remedies, and in the light of leading cases from various jurisdictions, such as Australia, Canada, the EU, Germany, and Ireland, as well as the UK.

Gilman, Jonathan; Merkin, Robert; Blanchard, Claire; Templeman, Mark, Arnould's Law of Marine Insurance and Average 18th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £375.00, ISBN: 9780414024281

Arnould's Law of Marine Insurance provides a complete and authoritative interpretation of the law and practice of marine insurance.

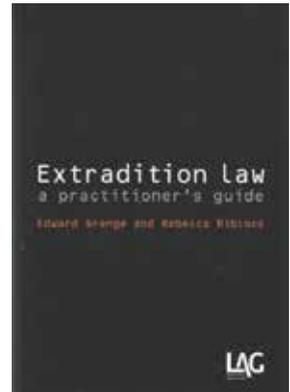

It includes in-depth analysis of the principles of marine insurance, together with a detailed examination of the marine insurance contract, the different types of losses, and the procedures and evidence required in bringing a case. The book offers in-depth commentary on the latest cases and codes, keeping the practitioner up-to-date on how the courts are applying the principles.

Glenn H., Patrick, The Cosmopolitan State, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9780199682423

This book outlines the subtlety of the law of cosmopolitan states, law which has survived through periods of nationalism and which provides the working methods for the reconciliation of diverse populations. Combining law, history, political science, political philosophy, international relations, and the new logics, it demonstrates that the idea of the nation-state has failed and should yield to an understanding of the state as necessarily cosmopolitan in character. This will be invaluable reading to all those interested in constitutional law, international law, and political theory.

Grange, Edward; Niblock, Rebecca, Extradition Law: a practitioner's guide, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9781908407337

Greaves, Ian, Disability Rights Handbook April 2013 - April 2014, Disability Rights UK, Paperback, A4, £29.99, ISBN: 9781903335604
A guide to benefits and services for all disabled people, their families, carers and advisors. The Disability Rights Handbook is written by benefits specialists and provides information and guidance on benefits and services to advisors, disability organisations and disabled people. The new The Disability Rights

Handbook for 2013-2014 explains the biggest changes to benefits since the introduction of the welfare state and is a must buy if you provide advice or need it. April 2013 saw the biggest changes to the benefit system since the introduction of the welfare state and will affect over 2 million disabled people.

Islam, M. Rafiqul; Bhuiyan, Jahid Hossain, An Introduction to International Refugee Law, Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Hardback, £137.00, ISBN: 9789004226159
The book is designed to provide an overview of the development, meaning, and nature of international refugee law. The jurisprudence on the status of refugees, loss and denial of the refugees status, non-refoulement, asylum, problems and challenges of refugee protection, the law of return and the right of return, critical refugees and immigration law, and the role of international organizations in protection of refugees is revisited in the context of contemporary realities. This lucidly written and timely book will be immensely helpful to anyone grappling with the demonstrated inadequacies of international refugee law in real life situations today and desirous of the reorientation of its meaning and scope to cater for the changing needs and shared expectation of the international community in the 21st century.

The A-Z of Civil Litigation provides an accessible reference guide to civil litigation and the Civil Procedure Rules. Organised A to Z by topic, it allows practitioners to go straight to an entry on a particular topic and find the relevant Rule and commentary.

Rabban, David M., Law's History: American Legal Thought and the Transatlantic Turn to History, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £59.00, ISBN: 9780521761918

9780521761918

This is a study of the central role of history in late nineteenth-century American legal thought. In the decades following the Civil War, the founding generation of professional legal scholars in the United States drew from the evolutionary social thought that pervaded Western intellectual life on both sides of the Atlantic. Their historical analysis of law as an inductive science rejected deductive theories and supported moderate legal reform, conclusions that challenge conventional accounts of legal formalism. Unprecedented in its coverage and its innovative conclusions about major American legal thinkers from the Civil War to the present, the book combines transatlantic intellectual history, legal history, the history of legal thought, historiography, jurisprudence, constitutional theory and the history of higher education.

Roberts, Peter, Petroleum Contracts: English Law and Practice, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199659784

In response to the primacy of English law as the lingua franca governing petroleum transactions, and the increased global demand for new sources of oil and gas, this work analyses the application of English law to contracts for project investment, financing, and development. This work is a stand-alone practical guide on the application of English law to petroleum contracts, and provides a detailed and scholarly level of analysis, with reference to all relevant contracts and case law.

The new 16th edition of Sealy & Milman: Annotated Guide to the Insolvency Legislation 2013 gives you full coverage, concise analysis and annotated interpretation of corporate and personal insolvency. Widely regarded as the key work for those advising in insolvency, this established legislation handbook provides expert commentary and clarification on the legal and practical implications of the insolvency legislation.

Taylor, James, Boardroom Scandal: The Criminalization of Company Fraud in Nineteenth-century Britain, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199695799

Based on an unparalleled sample of legal cases - many examined here for the first time - James Taylor presents a radical new interpretation of the relationship between capitalism and the law. Initially, there were no criminal sanctions against publishing false prospectuses, concealing losses in balance sheets, and even misappropriating company money. But parliament became convinced of the need to criminalize these practices to protect the culture of stock market investment on which mid-Victorian prosperity increasingly rested. The criminalization of fraud, therefore, has far-reaching implications for our understanding of nineteenth-century Britain. It also has relevance today in light of the on-going economic crisis and the issues it raises regarding business ethics and the role of the state.

European capital markets law has developed rapidly in recent years, in the form of four framework directives and numerous implementing directives aimed at improving the integrity and functioning of capital markets. The financial crisis has given further impetus to the development of a European supervisory structure. This book systematises the European directives and examines both the underlying concepts from a broadly interdisciplinary perspective. National differences in selected Member States – Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom – are also explored.

Weiler, Todd, The Interpretation of International Investment Law: Equality, Discrimination and Minimum Standards of Treatment in Historical Context, Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Hardback, £125.00, ISBN: 9789004232228

In The Interpretation of International Investment Law: Equality, Discrimination and Minimum Standards of Treatment in Historical Context, author Todd Weiler demonstrates how historiographical analysis should be adopted in the interpretation of international investment law obligations. Weiler subjects some of the most commonly held beliefs about the nature and development of international investment law to a critical re-appraisal, based upon meticulously assembled historical record. In the process, the book provides readers with a fresh perspective on some of the oldest obligations in international law. This stimulating contribution to the discourse on interpretation of international investment law standards sheds new light on the formation of such primary obligations as fair and equitable treatment, protection and security and the customary international law minimum standard of treatment for aliens.

The Jackson ADR Handbook

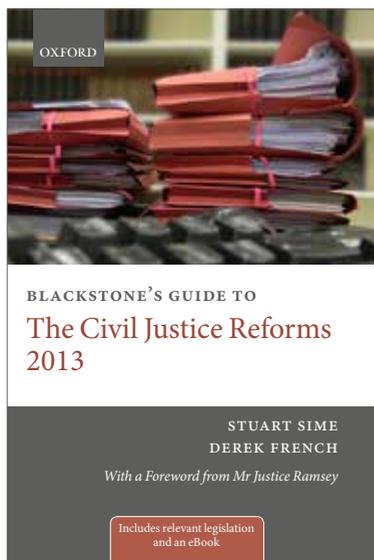

Susan Blake, Barrister and Associate Dean, City University London, Julie Browne, Barrister and Deputy Course Director of the Bar Professional Training Course, City University London, and Prof Stuart Sime, Barrister and Course Director of the Bar Professional Training Course, City University London

The first book to focus on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) post the Jackson reforms, this essential and practical guide follows recommendations by Lord Justice Jackson in his Review of Civil Litigation Costs that an authoritative handbook for ADR should be prepared.

"I congratulate the authors and editors on this excellent handbook. This is exactly what I envisaged when drafting chapter 36 of the Review of Civil Litigation Costs Final Report."

- The Right Honourable Sir Rupert Jackson

Privilege 3rd edition

by Colin Passmore
Sweet & Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN 9781908013118, £185.00,
due July 2013

The new 3rd edition of Privilege by Colin Passmore guides practitioners through all aspects of legal professional privilege, from core principles to more complex matters such as joint and common interest and the crime-fraud exception. It explains a body of law which seems apparently simple and easy to grasp, but which is unclear in scope and uncertain in application. This new edition includes full analysis of wide-ranging recent case law, including the Supreme Court decision in R (on the application of Prudential PLC) v HMRC. All aspects of legal professional privilege, including both advice privilege and litigation privilege, are covered, and explanation given of the rights different types of privilege provide. The author identifies the situations where privilege occurs, and examines what needs to be established for a successful claim for privilege. The boundaries of privilege are discussed, and coverage given of the circumstances when privilege is deemed to be lost. How to claim and challenge privilege under the Civil Procedure Rules is explained, and coverage given of without prejudice privilege.

Civil Costs 5th edition

by Senior Master Peter Hurst
Sweet & Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN
9780414024489, £195.00,
due July 2013

Civil Costs provides a thorough and authoritative survey of the costs regime under the Civil Procedure Rules, helping practitioners understand the technicalities of the law. It deals with all areas of civil costs, from the basic principles of entitlement to the practical details of how costs – both contentious and non-contentious – are actually assessed. It clarifies the many areas of uncertainty so that points of law and procedures are fully understood, and explains all the new costs legislation and rules implementing the Jackson reforms of civil litigation funding. The author considers the overhaul of the Conditional Fee Agreements regime and the implications in libel, personal injury and other areas. The new edition includes chapters on costs in arbitration proceedings, proceedings before the Court of Protection and before other tribunals, and includes coverage of the award and assessment of costs in proceedings before the Supreme Court and European Court of Justice.

International Arbitration Law and Practice 3rd edition

by Mauro Rubino-Sammartano Juris Publishing, Hardback,
ISBN 9781937518158,
£140.00, due July 2013

This new edition has been largely enriched by covering international commercial arbitrations, investment treaty arbitrations, arbitrations between public bodies, between states and individuals, the UNCITRAL model law and Iran-US Tribunal proceedings as well as commodity arbitration, online arbitration and sports arbitral proceedings. The author elaborates new concepts such as a definition of international arbitration based on procedural law (different from transnational law) and a doctrine (the trunc commun doctrine) to identify the applicable substantive law on disputes between parties belonging to different countries. He further suggests that a law of international arbitration has arisen from the various conventions and laws. Besides dealing with all the aspects of arbitration on a topic by topic basis, Rubino-Sammartano presents a third generation arbitration which builds on analysis of major obstacles to a smooth running arbitration. International Arbitration Law and Practice is a work that anyone involved in arbitral proceedings will find to be absolutely indispensable. Previous editions of this book were published by Kluwer Law International.

Trade Mark Litigation: A Cross-Jurisdictional Guide 2nd edition

General Editors: Thierry Calame and Massimo Sterpi
Sweet & Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN 9780414027398, £210.00,
due August 2013

Published within the European Lawyer Reference series, this new edition explains the latest legislation and precedents involving trade mark litigation in over 25 jurisdictions. It adopts a country-by-country approach with content provided by expert practitioners from each jurisdiction, and follows a common format to allow straightforward comparisons. The book takes account of the enormous expansion of digital commerce and the growing roles of trade mark registration in fighting abuses on the internet, and answers such questions as ‘can I oppose or cancel this trade mark?’ and the basis for taking such actions – like national or supranational rights, and the procedures for doing so. It sets out each country’s courts and administrative system and looks at the available enforcement options. Trade mark enforcement against metatags and unjustified threats of trade mark infringement are examined, and analysis provided of conflicts between trade marks and domain names.

Insolvency Law Handbook 3rd edition

by Vernon Dennis Law Society Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781907698439, £79.95,
due July 2013

Company insolvencies are a subject of continuing importance to practitioners as economic growth remains elusive. In addition, company and individual voluntary arrangements continue to be popular alternatives to liquidation and bankruptcy. More importantly for the practitioner, there have been recent changes in the law relating to insolvency. The Insolvency (Amendment) Rules 2010 alone bring more than 500 changes to the legislation, including extensive amendment of the Insolvency Act 1986. Key developments that are covered in the new edition of this invaluable handbook include the introduction of remote meetings over the internet in the conduct of administrations; insolvency practitioners allowed to inform creditors by email when a firm enters administration; more information and transparency on IPs’ fees; Companies House replaces courts as the repository of insolvency documents; abolition of annual creditor meetings for voluntary winding up; and gender neutral language introduced in drafting insolvency documents. This comprehensive book covers all the main areas of both corporate and personal insolvency law including bankruptcy, individual and company voluntary arrangements, administration, administrative receivership and liquidation.

Understanding NEC3:
Professional Services Contract - A Practical Handbook

by Kelvin Hughes
Routledge, Paperback,
ISBN 9780415657129,

£34.99, due July 2013

As usage of the NEC (formerly the New Engineering Contract) family of contracts continues to grow worldwide, so does the importance of understanding its clauses and nuances to everyone working in the built environment. Currently in its third edition, this set of contracts is different to others in concept as well as format, so users may well find themselves needing a helping hand along the way. Understanding the NEC3 Professional Services Contract uses plain English to lead the reader through the NEC3 Professional Services Contract's key features, including Main and Secondary Options; the use of early warnings; programme provisions; payment; compensation events; and preparing and assessing tenders. Common problems experienced when using the Professional Services Contract are signalled to the reader throughout, and the correct way of reading each clause explained. The way the contract affects procurement processes, dispute resolution, project management and risk management are all addressed in order to direct the user to best practice. Written for construction professionals, by a practising international construction contract consultant, this handbook is the most straightforward, balanced and practical guide to the NEC3 PSC available. It is an ideal companion for Employers, Consultants, Contractors, Engineers, Architects, Quantity Surveyors, Subcontractors and anyone else interested in working successfully with the NEC3 PSC.

Limitation of Actions in England and Wales

by Martin Canny
Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, ISBN 9781780433356, £175.00, due July

Limitation of Actions in England and Wales provides the most comprehensive, insightful and up-to-date commentary on the limitation provisions and time limits that apply to all civil causes of action. It deals with all amendments to the 1980 Act, including those dealing with Latent Damage, Defective Products, Defamation and Arbitration, the Land Registration Act 2002 and the criminalisation of squatting by s.144 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012. Also covered are the Foreign Limitation Periods Act, the Rome I & II Regulations, and time limits relating to claims in the areas of Human Rights law, Employment law, Competition law, Judicial Review and Public Procurement challenges. The book includes an analysis of recent decisions of the Supreme Court, recent important decisions of the Court of Appeal and of the High Court.

Consumer and Trading Standards: Law and Practice 3rd edition

by Bryan Lewis and Jonathan Kirk QC
Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846617140, £75.00, due June 2013

Consumer and Trading Standards: Law and Practice is an authoritative and comprehensive guide for everyone involved in consumer and trading standards law. The new edition covers the full range of the work undertaken by consumer lawyers and trading standards officers in local authorities. This user friendly text provides a clear and exhaustive analysis of the law including case law and its application, wording of the statutory provision, plus authoritative commentary and analysis of the practical issues. This new edition covers all recent developments in consumer and trading standards law with informed commentary on new legislation and case law. It contains additional chapters on European consumer law and its interpretation, and on unfair terms, dealing with the Unfair Terms Directive and Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations. Also included are new chapters on consumer credit covering civil enforcement, and on fraud and money laundering. Extended coverage to include Northern Ireland is also provided.

The Law and Economics of Article 102 TFEU 2nd edition

by Robert O'Donoghue and A. Jorge Padilla

Hart Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781849461399, £145.00, due July 2013

This new edition is a comprehensive, integrated treatment of the legal and economic principles that underpin the application of Article 102 TFEU to the behaviour of dominant firms. Traditional concerns of monopoly behaviour, such as predatory pricing, refusals to deal, excessive pricing, tying and bundling, discount practices and unlawful discrimination are treated in detail through a review of the applicable economic principles, the case law and decisional practice and more recent economic and legal writings. In addition, the major constituent elements of Article 102 TFEU, such as market definition, dominance, effect on trade and applicable remedies are considered at length. Jointly authored by a lawyer and an economist, The Law and Economics of Article 102 TFEU provides an integrated approach to the legal and economic principles that frame policy in this major area of competition law. Although written primarily with practitioners and in-house lawyers in mind, it is essential reading for anyone with an interest in competition law enforcement against monopoly behaviour.

Cyber Crime, Security and Digital Intelligence

by Mark Johnson
Gower Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781409454496, £65.00, due August 2013

Today's digital economy is uniquely dependent on the Internet, yet few users or decision makers have more than a rudimentary understanding of the myriad of online risks that threaten us. Cyber crime is one of the main threats to the integrity and availability of data and systems. From insiders to complex external attacks and industrial worms, modern business faces unprecedented challenges; and while cyber security and digital intelligence are the necessary responses to this challenge, they are understood by only a tiny minority. In his second book on high-tech risks, Mark Johnson goes far beyond enumerating past cases and summarising legal or regulatory requirements. He describes in plain, non-technical language how cyber crime has evolved and the nature of the very latest threats. He confronts issues that are not addressed by codified rules and practice guidelines, supporting this with over 30 valuable illustrations and tables. Written for the non-technical layman and the high tech risk manager alike, the book also explores countermeasures, penetration testing, best practice principles, cyber conflict and future challenges. A discussion of Web 2.0 risks delves into the very real questions facing policy makers, along with the pros and cons of open source data. In a chapter on Digital Intelligence readers are provided with an exhaustive guide to practical, effective and ethical online investigations. Cyber Crime, Security and Digital Intelligence is an important work of great relevance in today's interconnected world and one that nobody with an interest in either risk or technology should be without.

SAGGERSON ON TRAVEL LAW AND LITIGATION

Fifth Edition

Matthew Chapman, Sarah Prager and Jack Harding

With a Foreword by His Honour Judge Saggerson

Price: £125.00
ISBN: 9780854901197
Extent: 892 pp
Binding: Hardback

Written by a new team of leading practitioners at the London travel law set, 1 Chancery Lane, this new edition of this well-known work comprehensively revises and updates classic topics. Existing case law is placed in a practical context and the many new developments in the law are discussed in detail.

Travel law and litigation is one of the most dynamic areas of practice and new law is constantly being made. The volume of new case law has increased significantly since the fourth edition was published and the busy practitioner needs to remain on top of this. The fifth edition provides full commentary on all topics of relevance to the travel lawyer.

Both a digest of the existing law and a lively guide to where the law may be heading, this new edition of this leading text is clear, concise and authoritative. It will be of interest to all those who deal with claims that have a cross-border elements and will prove an essential addition to the library of all barristers, solicitors and legal executives who practise in this expanding field.

The authors are Barristers at 1 Chancery Lane, where they handle the full range of travel-related litigation. They serve on the Committee of the Travel & Tourism Lawyers' Association (respectively, as Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary). They have been involved in many of the most high profile travel law cases of the past decade.

LEGAL RESEARCH
A Practitioner's Handbook

Second edition

Peter Clinch with Jon Beaumont

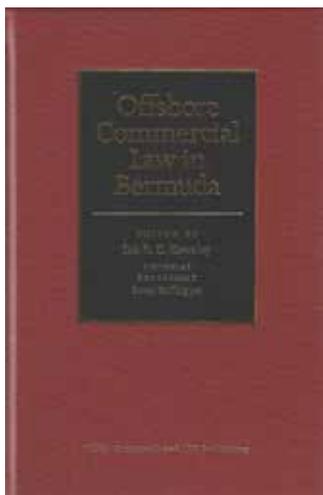

Price: £45.00
Edition: 2nd edition
ISBN: 9780854901234
Binding: Hardback

This comprehensive reference work is specifically aimed at busy practitioners (solicitors, barristers and professional support lawyers). Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook provides practical advice on every aspect of effective legal research: problem analysis, selecting and finding the best sources, and presenting results effectively.

This second edition has been thoroughly updated throughout, taking into account the increasing popularity of the PLC database aimed at UK law practitioners, the overhaul of a number of government and other official sites (national and international), and significant changes to directions by UK courts relating to the conduct and presentation of legal research. New material on the use of social media in legal research has also been added.

Part A covers problem identification and analysis, followed by advice on how to select the best sources and formats (paper or electronic) for research. Part B deals with the information most frequently sought by practitioners, listing sources with analytical comments and, for a selection of the most complex, 'how to use' instructions developed to a standard template. Jurisdictional coverage includes England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and the European Union, with the addition of information on key sources in European human rights and international law. Part C details sources on how to make the presentation of the results of legal research more effective. These three parts are supplemented by Part D, which describes in non-technical language how a practitioner might get the best value for money when buying information, whether print or online, from commercial law publishers.

Peter Clinch has 35 years' experience in law information work, including training law students, practising solicitors and law librarians in legal research skills. Jon Beaumont is Head of Knowledge Management at Shakespeares. He is Chair of the British & Irish Association of Law Librarians (BIALL) Publications Committee.

OFFSHORE COMMERCIAL LAW IN BERMUDA

Edited by Ian Kawaley

Editorial Consultant: Karen Skiffington

Price: £145
ISBN: 9780854901074
Extent: 702 pp
Binding: Hardback

Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda is the first comprehensive practitioner's guide to offshore commercial practice in one of the world's leading offshore financial centres.

The book is divided into three main sections, Establishing Offshore Vehicles, Commercial Dispute Resolution and Relations with the Onshore World. Subjects covered include company law, insurance partnership law, trust law, litigation and insolvency law, regulatory law and cross-border cooperation. The book considers Bermuda Commercial Law as a broad topic and also addresses ethical and policy considerations.

Edited by a commercial judge and written by leading practitioners in the principal commercial law fields, this book provides an insight into the development and current operation of Bermuda's offshore legal framework. Each contributor describes the key legal rules and explains how the relevant legal principles are applied in practice. Reference is made to relevant statutory provisions and case law, while contributors also furnish practical observations which add flesh to the bare bones of the formal legal structures in question.

The depth of treatment will make the text an indispensable reference tool for the experienced practitioner, the clarity of the text ensures that the book is also accessible to those new to the topics covered. Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda is for international lawyers whose work involves or potentially involves interaction with companies, partnerships, trusts or special purpose vehicles based in Bermuda. It will also be invaluable to offshore professionals based in Bermuda.

Ian R C Kawaley is a Judge of the Commercial Court, a division of the Supreme Court of Bermuda. In September 2010 his selection as the next Chief Justice of Bermuda, with effect from 1 April 2012, was announced.

ADVISING AND REPRESENTING CLIENTS AT MEDIATION

Wildy Practice Guide

Stephen Walker and David Smith

Price: £35
ISBN: 9780854901210
Extent: 228 pp
Binding: Paperback

Advising and Representing Clients at Mediation is an invaluable guide for lawyers, surveyors and other professionals. It will assist at every stage of the mediation process from persuading the other party to mediate, to preparing for and taking part in the mediation itself, and advising clients on what to expect and how to conduct themselves at a mediation.

The book also offers extensive checklists and precedents, practical advice from experienced mediators, and a clear explanation of the law as it currently stands.

Stephen Walker is a consultant at Follett Stock and an accredited moderator and Fellow of the Institute of Arbitrators. David Smith is a solicitor and Head of Compliance at Anthony Gold. He is an accredited mediator with Regents School of Psychotherapy and ADR Group and a former trustee of Portsmouth Mediation Service.
