We had a very glamorous weekend as Downton Abbey came to film in the bookshop. Lincoln's Inn and Wildy's are often used in period film and TV. See pictures p. 3.

Other pictures include a "selfie" with a well known comedian and pictures from the BIALL Quiz Night. pp 2 & 4.

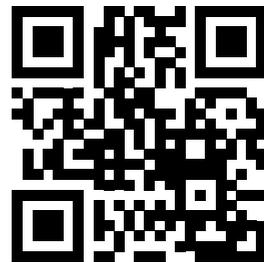

Don't forget our quiz: This year is our 185th anniversary so our bookshop manager thought it would be interesting to see whether the staff's combined years of experience in law bookselling and publishing would equal the number of years we have been established in Lincoln's Inn Archway. You could win signed Paul Hollywood or Tom Kerridge cookbooks, amongst other prizes. For a starting point on making an educated estimate, see our website. All guesses should be sent to charlie.alpera@wildy.com and the winners will be announced at the annual BIALL conference in Brighton.

Finally we are sad to note the passing of Gordon Graham, a former chief executive of Butterworths and author of our publication From Trust to Takeover which traced the latter history of Butterworths. John Sinkins comments: "Gordon was Chairman and Chief Executive of Butterworths from 1975 - 1990. A giant and avuncular man who was loved by his staff and was a huge supporter of the trade too. The dedication in From Trust to Takeover reads "Dedicated to the unsung and often undervalued employees of Butterworths whose skills and devotion were its greatest assets" which rather sums him up quite well I think."

Coulson on Construction Adjudication 3rd ed

Painstakingly revised, the new edition considers in detail over 50 new adjudications, including the first ever to be featured in the mainstream law reports (Westfields Construction Lt v Lewis [2013] 1 WLR 3377). It also includes full consideration of the impact of the coming into force of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009.

Known for being 'learned and lucid' this work is the definitive text for both legal practitioners and construction professional looking for a clear analysis of the law and practice of adjudication.

A Practical Approach to Family Law 10th ed

With additional advice on library, information, and professional development resources, A Practical Approach to Family Law provides real assistance in dealing with this dynamic area of law.

Applications to Wind UP Companies 3rd ed

The third edition is completely updated to cover new legislation and new procedures. It includes new coverage of winding up through administrations, winding up insolvent partnerships other than as unregistered companies, and considers the practice and procedure issues of industry-specific administration regimes (from water companies to energy supply companies) and their interaction with winding up. Though focused on the procedure in the courts of England and Wales, the work also considers the jurisprudence of the many Commonwealth jurisdictions which have adopted the English procedure.

Data Protection: A Practical Guide to UK and EU Law 4th ed

Since the previous edition significant updates have been made to the CCTV chapter, as well as new information on social media, and the Leveson Report. Each chapter contains considerations of the likely impact of the proposed European General Data Protection Regulation through analysis of the draft regulation published by the European Commission in 2012, and the proposed amendments published by the European Parliament in 2014.

NEW IN THE WILDY CLASSICS SERIES

THE OLD MUNSTER CIRCUIT

Maurice Healy

Price: £14.95
ISBN: 9780854901579
Extent: 280 pp
Binding: Paperback

The Old Munster Circuit, the legal memoirs of Maurice Healy, was first published in 1939 by Michael Joseph, and has reappeared in several editions over the last 75 years. It has been out of print in recent times and much sought after. These amusing memoirs affectionately describe the workings and people of the Munster Circuit, where Healy practised from 1910 to 1914. Healy goes to some length in trying to describe and explain his countrymen to an English audience:

“The difference of atmosphere between the two countries was exemplified in a case of my father’s which came to be tried in London before Mr Justice Darling. The point at issue was the identity of a valuable picture, and hosts of witnesses, many of them humble Irish folk, were examined on either side. One of these Irishmen who had tuned his harp to the romantic air of his own County Court was a shock to a judge of pedestrian imagination. Darling at last turned to him sternly and said ‘Tell me, in your country, what happens to a witness who does not tell the truth?’ ‘Begor, me Lord,’ replied the Irishman, with a candour that disarmed all criticism, ‘I think his side usually wins.’”

NATURAL LAW AND COMPARATIVE LAW

Russell Wilcox and Anthony Carty (editors)

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 12

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901548
Extent: 414 pp
Binding: Hardback

It has been a major contention of classical natural law theory that the arguments it makes, because rooted in a robust account of human nature, are of universal applicability. A somewhat less well explored dimension is the extent to which it can admit of, and indeed support, the great variations in human cultures, life-ways and patterns of social ordering. Despite this fact, however, there is much to suggest that it is possessed of theoretical resources uniquely well adapted to maintaining a balance between unity and diversity in each of these areas. In consequence, although the disciplines of natural law and comparative law have long tended to be treated as essentially immiscible, there is much to suggest that this may not be the whole story and that an exploration of how they can be brought together holds out the promise of making real theoretical advances in each. It is in this spirit that the present volume collects together essays from a variety of scholars with interests in various aspects of classical natural law theory and comparative legal studies as a way of beginning what the editors hope will become a fruitful and, in time, much wider conversation.

THE INTERACTION OF LEGAL SYSTEMS Post-Soviet Approaches

William E. Butler and Oleksiy V. Kresin (editors)

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 13

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901616
Extent: 538 pp
Binding: Hardback

Thirty-four comparatists from Ukraine, Belarus, Moldova, Russia, and the United States address the philosophy and methodology of analyzing the interaction of national legal systems, the theory of such interaction, the interaction of national legal systems in practice, the interaction of international law, integration law, and national law, and the interaction of secular and religious law. Special attention is given to national legislation implementing the Convention and to judicial practice applying Convention and legislative provisions. The Convention continues to attract ratifications, and lawyers from many countries will find the thoughtful articles contained in this volume helpful in understanding comparative approaches to this increasingly important domain of international legal cooperation.

THE LEGAL REGIME OF CHINESE OVERSEAS INVESTMENT

by

Chenyang XIE

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No. 11

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854901531
Extent: 290 pp
Binding: Hardback

China has become the first socialist legal system to acquire an interest and the capacity to invest significantly beyond its own borders and abandon the policies of economic autarchy that approaches to socialist economic planning seemed to impose upon predecessor socialist legal systems. In this pathbreaking study, Dr. Chenyang XIE examines how the Chinese legal system regulates – usually by default rather than design – Chinese investor behavior with respect to outward investment opportunities and/or priorities. He offers intelligent and perceptive critiques of legal rules, institutions, systems, and administrative practices, providing suggestions for potential reform or adjustments of these.

Drawing upon the Chinese tradition of codification, the author has prepared a draft Code of Overseas Investment Law, together with Commentary to explain why each formulation is desirable and necessary. In his view, Chinese overseas investment relations are a “legal laboratory” for shaping a constructive legal regime to encourage and regulate such investment. His bold, subtle, and nuanced strategy embodies reservations about the extent to which in a planned economy the State should assume investment risks rather than the non-State sector.

Subjects covered include the Chinese macro policies and concepts of overseas investment, information services, investment promotion, approvals, authorizations, and filings, financial support, foreign exchange regulation, insurance, taxation, and supervision State-owned assets abroad. The draft Code of Overseas Investment Law is the first of its kind for any legal system.

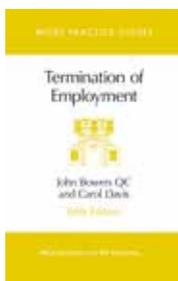

Chenyang XIE received his LL.M. and S.J.D. degrees at the Pennsylvania State University. He has many years of experience with legal aspects of inward and outward Chinese investment flows as a senior legal advisor employed by The Tiens Group in China.
