WILDY'S BOOK NEWS

Volume 21 Issue 5 Published Monthly

May/June 2016

We are pleased to announce the publication of another 2 new titles in May: the long awaited and now bestselling Marshall Hall: A Law unto Himself by Sally Smith QC and Addressing Vulnerability in the Justice Systems edited by Prof Penny Cooper and Linda Hunting. Both these books are featured on pages 36 and 37 of this issue.

There has been an enormous amount of interest in the Marshall Hall book, especially after the appearance of the author at the Brighton Arts Festival.

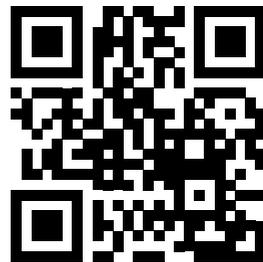

Pictures this month are of the CALL conference in Vancouver, BC and the annual charity Legal Walk 2016.

During June the team will be attending the annual BIALL conference in Dublin and looks forward to seeing all their friends and customers there.

NEW BOOKS PUBLISHED FROM WILDY, SIMMONDS & HILL

THE LAW OF RIGHTS OF LIGHT

Jonathan Karas QC

Price: £75.00
ISBN: 9780854901647
Extent: 318 pp + 6 colour plates
Binding: Hardback

The Law of Rights of Light is a new and comprehensive treatment of the controversial topic of rights of light. It considers how rights can be established, what constitutes an infringement of those rights and what remedies can be provided for the infringement of those rights. It explains how claims may be defended and rights overridden. By setting the law in its wider context, the book seeks to show that, despite the technicalities which arise, there are no legal problems with which a competent lawyer cannot grapple.

The book benefits from two technical appendices and colour illustrations provided by Point 2 Surveyors. The first explains how light is measured; the second how losses are valued. These appendices also explain the limits of current methodology. These limits leave current methods ripe for reconsideration by the Courts.

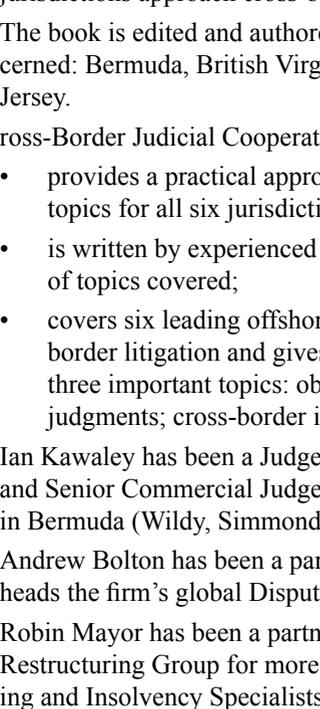

Jonathan Karas' practice embraces all aspects of land law, including rights of light and planning. Before taking silk he served on the 'A' Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown (2000–2006) and before that on the Supplementary Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown (Common Law) (now the 'B' Panel) (1995–2000). Jonathan is a subject editor of Hill and Redman's Law of Landlord and Tenant and author (with David Elvin QC) of Unlawful Interference with Land, second edition (2002). He has made a substantial contribution to Halsbury's Laws of England being a contributing editor to the Compulsory Acquisition title (1996), editor of the Distress title (2000, 2007 re-issues), the Forestry Title (2007 and 2009 re-issues) and editor of the Perpetuities and Accumulations volume.

A PRACTITIONER'S GUIDE TO PROBATE DISPUTES

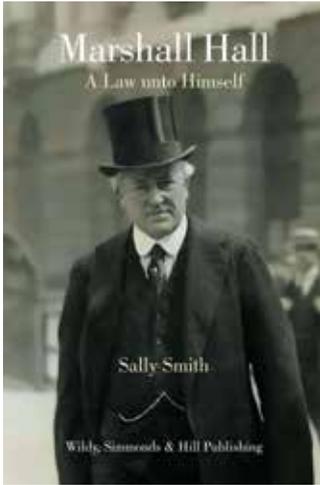

Nasreen Pearce

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854901371
Extent: 294 pp
Binding: Hardback

Disputes over wills and other testamentary dispositions are on the increase. A Practitioner's Guide to Probate Disputes provides an invaluable guide to the relevant legal framework and the basis on which a will and other testamentary provisions may be challenged. With an ageing population, issues such as undue influence, fraud and forgery are increasingly becoming grounds for dispute. The book comprehensively covers issues relating to the form and content of a will and its execution, including testamentary capacity, knowledge and approval. The book also features the more usual lifetime testamentary dispositions and the claims and challenges that can be made in relation to them.

A Practitioner's Guide to Probate Disputes includes an overview of the claims that can be made under the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975. It provides guidance as to best practice and sets out examples from case law to illustrate the legal requirements and the problems which can arise from poor will drafting and a failure to investigate sufficiently all the circumstances relating to the testator/testatrix. A commentary on disputes which may arise over the burial of the body and the relevance of the rights under the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms is also covered.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge and was formerly a district judge of the Principal Registry of the Family Division. She is the General Editor of Emergency Remedies in the Family Courts, a contributor to the Family Court Practice, Butterworths Wills, Probate and Administration Service and Finance & Law for the Older Client. She has also written extensively on other areas of family law.

MARSHALL HALL A Law Unto Himself

Sally Smith

Price: £25.00
ISBN: 9780854901876
Extent: 318 pp + 15 plates
Binding: Hardback with dustjacket

Sir Edward Marshall Hall KC saved more people from the hangman's noose than any other known barrister. In an age of inadequate defence funding, minimal forensic evidence, a rigid moral code making little allowance for human passion and a reactionary judiciary, his only real weapons were his understanding of human psychology and the power of his personality.

His charismatic oratory and film star profile made him an Edwardian celebrity. Jurors collapsed and judges wept at the overwhelming power of his performances. Thousands congregated to await the verdicts in the trials in which he appeared for the defence. Curtains were brought down in West End theatres to announce the acquittals he secured.

His famous trials included the Camden Town murder, Seddon the Poisoner, the Brides in the Bath, the Green Bicycle Murder and the Murder at the Savoy. As a result of his oratory in these he was adulated as an entertainer, his performances greeted with the same relish as those by the great actors; but he was also loved as a champion of the underdog, who almost single-handedly introduced compassion in to the Edwardian legal system. No other barrister in any age can claim such celebrity, nor such public adoration and affection.

Meticulously researched, Marshall Hall: A Law unto Himself is the first modern biography of a complex and influential man and, as a result of access to new material:

- Sets the legendary barrister in his social, historical and political context.
- Reveals the sensational private life of the man behind the public figure, the two turbulent marriages, the probable illegitimate son, and the mistresses.
- Tells the full story of the murder of his first wife.
- Examines his magnetic oratory and extraordinary fame from a modern perspective.

Sally Smith has been a barrister since 1977 and a QC since 1997. She practised in crime for ten years before specialising in medical law.

Professor Penny Cooper and Linda Hunting

Edited by Professor Penny Cooper
and Linda Hunting

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854901968
Extent: 170pp

“The authors of the chapters in this textbook are leaders in their fields. Their experience and research should help equip legal practitioners, researchers and policy makers alike with the most up to date information about the treatment of vulnerable witnesses and parties in legal proceedings.

The challenge for all of us is to ensure that vulnerable people are treated appropriately and helped through the trial process, without adversely affecting the right to a fair trial. I am confident that with the help of the Advocates Gateway Toolkits and experts such as the contributors to this book, we can succeed. I wholeheartedly commend their work to you.”

The Rt Hon Lady Justice Hallett

This publication, arising out of The Advocate’s Gateway inaugural conference in June 2015, represents not only the current state of knowledge from experts in the field, but more importantly evidence of a seismic shift in the justice system.
