Volume 21 Issue 7 Published Monthly

July/Aug 2016

There have been a couple of retirements in July with Marcel Nieuwenhuis retiring from Kluwer in The Hague and Guy Holborn retiring as law librarian at Lincoln's Inn. (pictures on pp. 15 and 22)

Jason Crimp and John Eaton had a wonderful time in Chicago at the AALL annual conference. They were able to speak to our many North American friends and customers and to also make some new acquaintances as we haven't attended the conference for a few years. (picture p. 2)

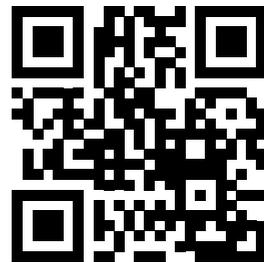

As I am writing this, Alden Bowers is attending the International Association of Law Libraries in Oxford and John Pethick and Matthew Regnard are returning from the Caribbean Association of Law Libraries in Jamaica. Hopefully we will have pictures for next month's Book News.

Later this month Alden and Graham Norfolk will be attending the Australian Law Librarians' Association in Melbourne.

NEW BOOKS PUBLISHED FROM WILDY, SIMMONDS & HILL

THE LAW OF RIGHTS OF LIGHT

Jonathan Karas QC

Price: £75.00
ISBN: 9780854901647
Extent: 318 pp + 6 colour plates
Binding: Hardback

The Law of Rights of Light is a new and comprehensive treatment of the controversial topic of rights of light. It considers how rights can be established, what constitutes an infringement of those rights and what remedies can be provided for the infringement of those rights. It explains how claims may be defended and rights overridden. By setting the law in its wider context, the book seeks to show that, despite the technicalities which arise, there are no legal problems with which a competent lawyer cannot grapple.

The book benefits from two technical appendices and colour illustrations provided by Point 2 Surveyors. The first explains how light is measured; the second how losses are valued. These appendices also explain the limits of current methodology. These limits leave current methods ripe for reconsideration by the Courts.

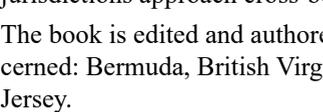

Jonathan Karas' practice embraces all aspects of land law, including rights of light and planning. Before taking silk he served on the 'A' Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown (2000–2006) and before that on the Supplementary Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown (Common Law) (now the 'B' Panel) (1995–2000). Jonathan is a subject editor of Hill and Redman's Law of Landlord and Tenant and author (with David Elvin QC) of Unlawful Interference with Land, second edition (2002). He has made a substantial contribution to Halsbury's Laws of England being a contributing editor to the Compulsory Acquisition title (1996), editor of the Distress title (2000, 2007 re-issues), the Forestry Title (2007 and 2009 re-issues) and editor of the Perpetuities and Accumulations volume.

A PRACTITIONER'S GUIDE TO PROBATE DISPUTES

Nasreen Pearce

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854901371
Extent: 294 pp
Binding: Hardback

Disputes over wills and other testamentary dispositions are on the increase. A Practitioner's Guide to Probate Disputes provides an invaluable guide to the relevant legal framework and the basis on which a will and other testamentary provisions may be challenged. With an ageing population, issues such as undue influence, fraud and forgery are increasingly becoming grounds for dispute. The book comprehensively covers issues relating to the form and content of a will and its execution, including testamentary capacity, knowledge and approval. The book also features the more usual lifetime testamentary dispositions and the claims and challenges that can be made in relation to them.

A Practitioner's Guide to Probate Disputes includes an overview of the claims that can be made under the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975. It provides guidance as to best practice and sets out examples from case law to illustrate the legal requirements and the problems which can arise from poor will drafting and a failure to investigate sufficiently all the circumstances relating to the testator/testatrix. A commentary on disputes which may arise over the burial of the body and the relevance of the rights under the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms is also covered.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge and was formerly a district judge of the Principal Registry of the Family Division. She is the General Editor of Emergency Remedies in the Family Courts, a contributor to the Family Court Practice, Butterworths Wills, Probate and Administration Service and Finance & Law for the Older Client. She has also written extensively on other areas of family law.

MARSHALL HALL A Law Unto Himself

Sally Smith

Price: £25.00
ISBN: 9780854901876
Extent: 318 pp + 15 plates
Binding: Hardback with dustjacket

ePub and Kindle versions available

Sir Edward Marshall Hall KC saved more people from the hangman's noose than any other known barrister. In an age of inadequate defence funding, minimal forensic evidence, a rigid moral code making little allowance for human passion and a reactionary judiciary, his only real weapons were his understanding of human psychology and the power of his personality.

His charismatic oratory and film star profile made him an Edwardian celebrity. Jurors collapsed and judges wept at the overwhelming power of his performances. Thousands congregated to await the verdicts in the trials in which he appeared for the defence. Curtains were brought down in West End theatres to announce the acquittals he secured.

His famous trials included the Camden Town murder, Seddon the Poisoner, the Brides in the Bath, the Green Bicycle Murder and the Murder at the Savoy. As a result of his oratory in these he was adulated as an entertainer, his performances greeted with the same relish as those by the great actors; but he was also loved as a champion of the underdog, who almost single-handedly introduced compassion in to the Edwardian legal system. No other barrister in any age can claim such celebrity, nor such public adoration and affection.

Meticulously researched, Marshall Hall: A Law unto Himself is the first modern biography of a complex and influential man and, as a result of access to new material:

- Sets the legendary barrister in his social, historical and political context.
- Reveals the sensational private life of the man behind the public figure, the two turbulent marriages, the probable illegitimate son, and the mistresses.
- Tells the full story of the murder of his first wife.
- Examines his magnetic oratory and extraordinary fame from a modern perspective.

Sally Smith has been a barrister since 1977 and a QC since 1997. She practised in crime for ten years before specialising in medical law.

Children Panel solicitors, local authority lawyers, children's social care workers and CAFCASS may help to locate, or provide resources for children and young people. Social and mental health professionals, specialist lawyers, counselling services, government and voluntary organisations such as the Victim Support Service, Citizens Advice Witness Service and MIND may help with the needs of adult clients. Children and Vulnerable Witnesses in Court Proceedings is a practical and concise handbook, written to aid practitioners in understanding the psychology of stress, to know the rights of victims and vulnerable witnesses, and to access appropriate support and help for them.

The book addresses the nature and impact of psychological stress, anxiety, panic attacks and general stress, and explores ways to alleviate psychological stress in the court process, describing the law, guidance and special measures available to support children and vulnerable witnesses. It proceeds to set out the present guidance regarding pre-trial psychological support for adult and child witnesses respectively and explores the current provisions for victim support. It explains how, where necessary, to continue to establish physical and psychological safety for vulnerable clients, victims and witnesses after the court proceedings are over. Case law and legislation; references and further reading and useful resources are also included.

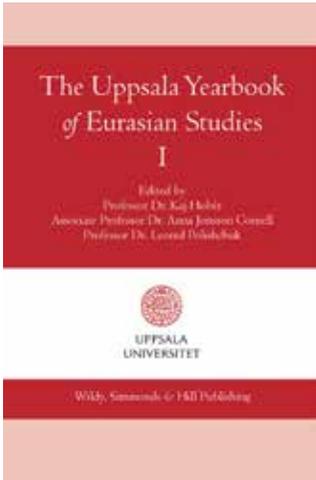

A former Children Panel Solicitor, Dr Barbara Mitchels, PhD, LL.B, BACP Registered (Snr Accred), is a Fellow of BACP and the Director of Watershed Counselling Services in Devon. Barbara is also a retired solicitor, providing a web-based on-line consultancy for therapists at www.therapylaw.co.uk, writing and running CPD workshops around the UK on law, therapy and mediation. Barbara is author of several books, including Child Care and Protection: Law and Practice, 5th edition (Wildy, Simmonds & Hill 2012).

During the years 2003 - 2006 Uppsala University and WSH published the Uppsala Yearbook of East European Law. For a number of reasons publication of the Yearbook was discontinued after the 2006 issue.

We are happy and proud to be able to resume publication of the Yearbook, now with a broadened perspective. As the title, Uppsala Yearbook of Eurasian Studies, indicates the Yearbook now covers also other disciplines than law, in particular political science and economics. Given recent developments in the Eurasian region this enlarged focus is increasingly relevant and important.

In this first issue of the relaunched Yearbook we publish presentations made at a symposium devoted to Russia's membership in the WTO, a development of potentially great significance both to Russia and the rest of the world. The first issue also contains many other interesting contributions, including articles and notes dealing with Ukraine and the situation there. The developing relationship between Russia and Ukraine is an area that we will continue to monitor and analyze.
