Tina Marie Hartley
1961 – 2018

It is with great sadness that we note the passing of our beloved account manager, colleague and friend, Tina Hartley.

Tina was tragically involved in a motor accident on the afternoon of the 7th of August and passed away the following day.

Tina joined Wildy & Sons in 2008 as an account manager for the North of England. Having worked in a similar role previously for another bookselling organisation, her reputation of being brilliant in her job was already well known to us. At the time, our company was going through a rapid period of expansion and we were very keen to have someone of Tina's calibre to join us and as I later discovered, she was very keen to join us too!

Typically, Tina hit the ground running and quickly expanded her 'Northern Empire' to Scotland, Ireland and the Channel Islands. She did this with great skill and professionalism. She had the ability to make every customer a friend.

Tina's entire professional philosophy mirrored exactly that of Wildy, making the working relationship between her and the company totally and completely symbiotic.

Tina was loved respected and greatly admired by all of us within the company. She was very much part of the Wildy family and shall be greatly missed by us all.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Tina's daughter Abi and all of her family and friends at this difficult time.

A funeral service and celebration of Tina's life took place on Thursday 6th of September at All Saints Church, Heath, Derbyshire.

Studies in Russian & East European Law Series

RUSSIAN LAW AND LEGAL INSTITUTIONS Second Edition

William E Butler

Price: £75.00
ISBN: 9780854902620
Extent: 492pp
Binding: hardback

A thoroughly revised and updated introduction to the historical and contemporary foundations of the Russian legal system placed in the larger context of comparative legal studies, this volume addresses The Russian Legal System in Context (Russian Law in Comparative Legal Studies, Russian Law and Legal Translation); The Foundations of Russian Law (The Pre-Revolutionary Heritage; Russian Legal Theory; Sources of Law; Legal Professor and Legal Education); The Administration of Russian Legality (ministries of justice, judicial system, procuracy, notariat, registry for acts of legal status, administrative commissions, law enforcement agencies, investigative agencies, arbitration, and the role of non-State entities); and the State Structure of the Russian Federation (Presidency, Federal Assembly, Government, Local Self-Government). Recommendations are made for further reading. The 1993 Constitution of the Russian Federation as amended to date is appended.

REBALANCING INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT AGREEMENTS IN FAVOUR OF HOST STATES

Tom Mortimer and Chrispas Nyombi

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902613
Extent: 502pp
Binding: hardback

Investment is a critical source of economic growth – leading to improvements in job creation, infrastructure, international trade and innovation. The pivotal question is therefore: how to improve and enhance investment? To facilitate this, International Investment Agreements can be a key factor to support foreign direct investment creating an additional level of security for foreign investors. Are International Investment Agreements fit for purpose or is some re-balance required? If it is, then the question which follows from this is: in whose favour? Should it be the investing country or the host State?

This book provides analysis of International Investment Agreements and their relationship with society and the State in a rapidly changing social and commercial landscape. It also assesses the impact and feasibility of the reform models put forward by the United Nations Conference for Trade and Development (UNCTAD) including the creation of regional investment courts and the introduction of an appellate system in investor-state arbitration.

The book focusses primarily on twenty-first century developments that have contributed to what academics have termed a legitimacy crisis in international investment law. Theoretical conceptualisation, case studies and doctrinal analysis are employed through the book, in a bid to highlight the legitimacy crisis facing International Investment Law and the progressive reform models that have been proposed or bring instituted around the world. This research is both international and comparative, with a chapter dedicated on the challenges and reform models that are surfacing from around the world, covering Asia, Europe, Africa, South America, the Caribbean and the United States. In addition, three chapters are dedicated to the main reform proposals; namely, a world investment court, reducing the scope of substantive protection standards through innovative treaty drafting approaches and the introduction of an appeals mechanism.

This book contributes to a growing body of research on International Investment Law reform models by examining and providing empirical evidence on the regulatory approaches and treaty making practices in all six continental areas and the impact on the stability of the international investment protection architecture.

ADVISORY OPINIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE

Khawar Qureshi

Price: £75.00
ISBN: 9780854902323
Extent: 320pp
Binding: hardback

This book provides a complete guide to the vital Advisory jurisdiction of the ICJ which is available to the UN General Assembly, Security Council and UN Specialised Agencies. Subjects such as Treaty interpretation, privileges and immunities, legality of nuclear weapons, the legality of the “Wall” built by Israel in respect of the Occupied Territories have featured in the ICJ’s Advisory Opinions. The author explains why the Advisory Jurisdiction is a vital and important means for the continuous clarification and development of Public International Law. The book analyses the key features of an Advisory Opinion, the process and procedure for invoking the ICJ’s jurisdiction, as well as the practice of the Court with reference to its leading Advisory Opinions. The reader will find a complete schedule of all requests and answers delivered by the ICJ and its predecessor the PCIJ since 1922, as well as the relevant Rules and Practice Directions of the ICJ.

“The author..[has] achieved the considerable feat of producing a book which manages to avoid the twin perils of technicality and over-simplification.” Sir Christopher Greenwood, GBE, CMG, QC (Judge, International Court of Justice, 2009-2018)

A VICTORIAN TRAGEDY The Extraordinary Case of Banks v Goodfellow

Martyn Frost

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854902538
Extent: 274pp
Binding: hardback with dustjacket

A Victorian Tragedy, for the first time, describes how the landmark court case of Banks v Goodfellow (1870) came about, what happened to the protagonists and how an enlightened judgment provided a practical definition of testamentary capacity that has since been used throughout the common law world. This fascinating story is set against the backdrop of the mid-Victorian world and how it affected the lives of those caught up in the case.

Set in the Lake District, around Keswick, the central issue was the mental illness of the testator, John Banks, and how he coped with living in a world that often derided his paranoia – “From the appearance of the man anyone would take him for a person out of his mind” as a local clergyman put it. The lives of John’s relatives were scarred, and often ended early, by other illnesses common at that time, but these lives also interweave with 19th century issues of emigration, marriage reform and early mortality.

Extensive use is made of original court papers and contemporary newspaper reports, both from the national and local press, to present the picture that was placed before the court of how John Banks was affected by his insane delusions. The conduct of the Assize court hearing is explained, together with how the court and jury dealt with the radically opposed evidence from either side.

A Victorian Tragedy covers this case in detail not previously dealt with before and offers a different approach to re-evaluate an important case in the context of its time and the treatment of the insane in the 19th century. While the book will undoubtedly appeal to lawyers, the book’s portrayal of a mid-Victorian family and the treatment of the insane will also be of interest to the more general reader.

THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE CANAL ISTANBUL IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Hatice Kubra Ecemis Yilmaz

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902569
Extent: 348pp
Binding: hardback

Canals are fascinating, whether domestic or international. Gouged into the firmament at great expense of capital and human labour, international canals transform the transit route of the oceans, linking that which nature did not. The Suez, Panama, and Kiel canals are likewise exercises in human imagination that confounded the sceptics of the day about what might be accomplished and what was deemed to be impossible.

Although each international canal is unique in so many ways, common principles at a certain level of generality have emerged in fashioning their respective legal regimes. The challenge is whether the major three international canals will be joined by a fourth. The Black Sea and the Mediterranean Sea are actually joined by nature in the personage of the Turkish Straits, recognized for centuries to be a key “chokepoint” in the arteries of maritime commerce. So heavy has maritime traffic become in the Straits than an alternative, or parallel, artificial route has been considered desirable since at least the sixteenth century. Half a millennium later plans are advanced to undertake and complete the construction of what is today known as the “Istanbul Canal”.

Dr. Ecemis-Yilmaz has produced what is believed to be the first analysis in any language of the potential implications of the Istanbul Canal for the convention regime of the Turkish Straits. She considers the history of the Straits regime, relevant aspects of the Suez and Panama canal regimes, and the sundry scenarios that may arise out of a reconsideration of the Montreux Convention provisions. Her book is intended to encourage discussion of the alternatives, and for the non-Turkish specialist will be all the more attractive and informative for its extensive use of Turkish doctrinal writings and Turkish State practice.

LAND REGISTRATION MANUAL

Third Edition

David Rees

Price: £49.00
ISBN: 9780854902491
Extent: 660pp
Binding: paperback

Written by an author who has extensive experience in private practice, the Land Registry, and the academic sector, Land Registration Manual is an authoritative source of technical and practical advice on all matters relating to registered land and interests affecting it.

The book's alphabetical (A to Z) approach allows practitioners to zoom in on the specific topic they are dealing with, knowing that the book will provide useful background commentary, along with clear guidance on the form and content of relevant Land Registry applications specific to that topic. The topics are geared to aspects of day-to-day practice rather than academic areas of law – making the book more accessible and more relevant to the needs of busy practitioners.

Fully updated to take account of all the changes in land registration law and practice, including those introduced by the Land Registration (Amendment) Rules 2018, Land Registration Manual covers not only the usual subjects, but also many less frequently encountered topics which are often not covered elsewhere. Thus, its coverage extends not only from transfers to leases, but from bare trusts to franchises; options to powers of attorney; and chancel repair to embankments and sea walls. Each topic contains accurate commentary to aid understanding and clear guidance on the relevant applications which may need to be made to complete a transaction or protect a client's interests.

The book also contains all the current versions of the standard form restrictions and the prescribed lease clauses, along with a list of Land Registry forms and other useful information, making Land Registration an invaluable 'one-stop' source of guidance for busy practitioners of all levels of experience. It will enable them to research topics and deal with matters quickly, efficiently and effectively.

David Rees is a solicitor with 30 years' experience initially in private practice and latterly as an Assistant Land Registrar at HM Land Registry. He is also an External Examiner to the Solicitors Regulation Authority and the Bar Standards Board and a Chief Examiner to the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives. He is an experienced author of well-known texts on property law and conveyancing.

CORRUPTION IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Inan Uluc

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902460
Extent: 304pp
Binding: hardback

Corruption represents a great menace to national and international development. It jeopardizes democracy, human rights, and social justice. Consequently, corruption is vehemently abhorred and denounced by members of the international arbitration arena. Unfortunately, while these players purport repugnance towards corruption and do not condone corrupt acts, a misplaced distrust of the arbitral process, as a proper dispute resolution system, has arisen.

Indisputably, corruption's involvement in arbitration is far from novel. Nonetheless, there remains a lack of uniformity among arbitral tribunals on how to tackle corruption. The core issues causing said divergence include: (i) arbitrability and admissibility of corruption issues; (ii) the burden of proof and the standard of proof; (iii) sua sponte arbitrator investigation and inquiry into corruption; (iv) disclosing corruption to arbitral institutions and public authorities; (v) and proper judicial review of an arbitral award when the legality of the award is challenged on the basis of corruption.

This study delves into these controversial concerns and analyses practical solutions within the context of theory and practice. Further, this study scrutinizes commercial and investment-treaty arbitration cases, national and international court judgments, international conventions, national statutes, and other materials exploring corruption and arbitration.

Inan is currently Assistant Professor at the Social Sciences University of Ankara, School of Law.

A PRACTITIONER'S GUIDE TO PROBATE AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES

Fourth Edition

Keith Biggs and Samantha Edward

Price: £69.00
ISBN: 9780854902361
Extent: 628pp
Binding: hardback with CD

The fourth edition of A Practitioner's Guide to Probate and the Administration of Estates is a practical and comprehensive guide to all forms of non-contentious probate applications, completion of Inheritance Tax Accounts and the administration of estates. The book is packed with hints and tips and an accompanying CD-ROM contains a comprehensive set of precedent forms, enabling practitioners to adapt precedents for their own use.

The authors provide careful explanations of every step in the procedure for winding up the estate of a deceased person, from taking initial instructions to the final distribution of the estate and closing the file. The book opens with advice on meeting the client and taking proper instructions; moving on to tracking down the assets and liabilities which comprise the estate; completing inheritance tax forms and obtaining any available reliefs and allowances; questions concerning wills and intestacies; applying to the probate registries; discretionary orders; obtaining grants of representation; collecting in the paying debts and liabilities; identifying the beneficiaries and paying the legacies; finalising the tax situation; and distributing the residue of the estate.

This new edition has been completely revised with practice and procedure brought up-to-date, including changes to the rules, IHT and CGT and case law as it affects private client practice.

JUDICIAL PRECEDENT AND ARBITRATION

*Are Arbitrators Bound by Judicial Precedent?
A Comparative Study of UK, US and Brazilian
Law and Practice*
Second Edition

Guilherme Rizzo Amaral

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902576
Extent: 220pp
Binding: hardback

One of the cornerstones of arbitration is the finality of arbitral awards. Saving rare exceptions, arbitral awards cannot be subject to challenges based on the arbitrator's errors of law. Furthermore, there is no hierarchy between arbitral tribunals and judicial courts, nor are arbitrators part of any judicial system. Thus, if arbitrators are not part of any hierarchical scheme and if there is no challenge or appeal available against their errors of law, how could one say that arbitrators have a duty to follow judicial precedents? Besides, when individuals agree to solve their disputes outside the judicial arena, should they expect a private arbitrator to abide by the same standards of a system they have just avoided? Is the choice for arbitration not a choice for an entirely different legal system, unbound by the so-called judge-made law?

This book attempts to answer those questions by presenting a comprehensive guide to the relation between judicial precedents and arbitration in the United States, the United Kingdom and in Brazil, as well as in international arbitration as a whole. In its second edition, the book offers an Appendix on Chinese Guiding Cases and Arbitration.

Guilherme Rizzo Amaral holds a Master's degree from the Pontificia Universidade Católica do Rio Grande do Sul (Brazil), a Doctor's degree from the Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul (Brazil) and was a Visiting Scholar at Queen Mary, University of London (Centre for Commercial Law Studies – CCLS). He has authored books and various legal articles on procedural law and arbitration and has taught Procedural Law at the Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul (UFRGS) and at Fundação Escola Superior do Ministério Público (FMP), among other institutions. He was a member of a committee that assisted the Brazilian House of Representatives in the drafting of the bill of the new Brazilian Code of Civil Procedure (which entered into force in 2016). He is one of the founding partners of Souto Correa Cesa Lummertz & Amaral Advogados (Brazil), where he heads the Dispute Resolution practice. He also participated of the Scholar-In-Residence program at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr (WilmerHale) in London (2017).

UKRAINIAN LEGAL DOCTRINE

in five volumes

Volume 5(2): Judicial Law, Penal Law, and Forensic Legal Sciences

Edited by V. Ia. Tatsyi and V. I. Borysov

English Edition Edited and Translated by William E. Butler

Price: £125.00
ISBN: 9780854902439
Extent: 490pp
Binding: hardback

In this final volume the authors introduce and defend the concept of judicial law, the scientific foundations of penal, sometimes call penitentiary, law, and theoretical issues of the forensic legal sciences (criminalistics, forensic expert examination, and the role of legal psychology, with some consideration of foreign doctrines and legislation. Reference is made in some detail to the role of legal psychology and its links with other branches of the legal sciences. Reports on the results of empirical studies enrich the volume. Considerable attention is given to the predictive functions of criminalistics. The debates which accompanied changes in Ukrainian court organization and the administration of penal institutions are illuminating.

HOW JUDGES DECIDE CASES: Reading, Writing and Analysing Judgments

Andrew Goodman

2nd Edition

Price: £45.00
ISBN: 9780854902453
Extent: 268pp
Binding: paperback

How Judges Decide Cases is a unique and practical guide which looks at how cases are decided and judgments are written. It examines the style and language of judges expressing judicial opinion and considers the drive for rational justice, bias, linguistic, and other influences. The book is founded upon independent research in the form of interviews conducted with judges at every level, from deputy district judges to justices of the Supreme Court, and the practical application of academic material more usually devoted to the structure and analysis of wider prose writing.

This new edition has been revised to take into account modern scientific thinking on bias in decision-making and is generic to all areas of contentious law. Newly appointed recorders, deputy judges, tribunal chairman, lay magistrates and arbitrators as well as experienced practitioners will find it invaluable as a guide to the deconstruction of judgments for the purpose of appeal.

Andrew is a practising Barrister, international mediator, mediation advocate and trainer, broadcaster and author of over forty books, including Effective Written Advocacy (Wildy, Simmons & Hill Publishing). He lives in Essex but works in twenty jurisdictions world-wide from the Caribbean to China (HKSAR and PRC).

OFFSHORE COMMERCIAL LAW IN BERMUDA

Second Edition

Edited by Ian R. C. Kawaley, Chief Justice of Bermuda

Editorial Consultant: Karen Skiffington

Price: £165.00
ISBN: 9780854902422
Extent: 760pp
Binding: Hardback

The publication of the so-called ‘Paradise Papers’ in early November 2017 placed Bermuda in the international spotlight as an offshore financial centre. The new edition of Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda, written before these sensationalised disclosures, provides an insider’s professional view of how Bermuda’s legal and regulatory framework actually works in practice.

The first edition of Offshore Commercial Law in Bermuda was the first comprehensive practitioner’s guide to offshore commercial practice in one of the world’s leading offshore financial centres. The second edition retains the original structure of three main sections, ‘Establishing Offshore Vehicles’, ‘Commercial Dispute Resolution’ and ‘Relations with the Onshore World’. Subjects covered include company law, insurance partnership law, trust law, litigation and insolvency law, regulatory law and cross-border cooperation. The book also contends for the novel concept of ‘offshore commercial law’ as a special sub-set of commercial law.

Edited by a commercial judge and Law Librarian and written by leading practitioners in the principal commercial law fields, this book provides an insight into the historical development and current operation of Bermuda’s offshore legal framework. Each contributor describes the key legal rules and explains how the relevant legal principles are applied in practice. Reference is made to relevant statutory provisions and case law, while contributors also furnish practical observations which add flesh to the bare bones of the formal legal structures in question.

Ian Kawaley has been Chief Justice of Bermuda and Senior Commercial Judge since April 2012. He has been a judge of Bermuda’s Supreme Court since July 2003. In October 2017 he was appointed a Master of the Bench (Overseas) of Middle Temple.

Karen Skiffington is a Law Librarian and founded the Bermuda Law Reports in 2002. She became Head of Knowledge Services at Cox Hallett Wilkinson Limited in 2009 where she currently serves as Firm Administrator.

PARTNERSHIP AND LLP LAW

Second Edition

by
Elspeth Berry

Price: £39.00
ISBN: 9780854902415
Extent: 290pp
Binding: paperback

This book provides a comprehensive and comparative explanation of the law relating to all three types of business partnership available under English law; general partnerships, limited partnerships (including private fund limited partnerships) and LLPs. It explains the applicable law from formation of the business to termination, including chapters on the availability or otherwise of legal personality, duties of partners and members, management issues, property and finance, taxation, litigation and insolvency.

This new edition of Partnership and LLP Law is fully updated and includes coverage of the Legislative Reform (Private Fund Limited Partnerships) Order 2017 which introduces a new form of limited partnership, the private fund limited partnership, and the new provisions requiring certain partnerships and LLPs to maintain a register of persons with significant control over the business. It also includes a discussion of the impact of v Clyde & Co v Bates van Winkelhof on employment and worker status of partners and LLP members. Other recent cases such as Flanagan v Liontrust Investment Partners and Inversiones Frieira SL and another v Colyzeo Investors are also discussed.

The law relating to each of the three types of partnership is set out clearly and concisely to enable the busy practitioner to understand, or refresh their understanding of, partnership and LLP law. It will also enable those with knowledge or experience of one type of partnership to understand the similarities and differences of the other types.

Elspeth Berry is a non-practising solicitor, member of the Association of Partnership Practitioners and Reader in Law at Nottingham Law School. Elspeth has over twenty years' experience in researching and publishing in partnership and LLP law and is co-author of Law of Insolvent Partnerships and LLPs.

GHANAIAAN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

International and National Perspectives

by
G. A. Sarpong

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902507
Extent: 514pp
Binding: paperback

As a subject, Ghanaian Environmental Law has been influenced by Ghana's participation in several treaty arrangements aimed at addressing contemporary international challenges such as climate change, marine pollution and conservation of biodiversity. The approach adopted in this book is to ascertain the extent to which Ghanaian environmental jurisprudence has been influenced by Ghana's participation in the various fora or treaty arrangements on the subject. In that regard, using examples from the marine environment, wetlands and biotechnology, an attempt is made to provide an insight into Ghanaian implementation of treaty norms and draws lessons for legislators and policymakers.

The book has been structured to deal with basic doctrinal issues such as the nature, sources and development of Environmental Law; as well as other core aspects of the subject such as environmental justice. The role of regulatory bodies in environmental management and protection and the regulatory frameworks for the conservation, management and utilisation of natural resources are also discussed.

George Agyemang Sarpong is the Managing Partner of G. A Sarpong & Co., Legal Practitioners and Consultants, Accra. A retired military officer and a former Director of the Ghana School of Law, he is an alumnus of the Universities of Ghana, British Columbia and London (SOAS). He has published widely on environmental and public international Laws.

CHANGE OF NAME

The Law and Practice

Fourth Edition

by

Nasreen Pearce

Price: £35.00
ISBN: 9780854902408
Extent: 140pp
Binding: paperback

This fully updated fourth edition like its predecessors provides a simple straightforward guide on why and how person's acquires a name and how that name may be changed so that it is given legal recognition to identify the person concerned for all purposes.

The traditional or typical family no longer exists due to the changes in the way families are formed, how households are structured and how conception of a child is achieved. There are also increasing number of single parent families or 'reconstituted' families. This pattern is forever evolving. It is therefore not surprising that it gives rise to questions about how and who can register the birth of a child and give the child its first name, who decides the surname the child should take and whether the names given can be changed by re-registration or otherwise.

This edition provides up-to-date provisions of all the relevant statutory material and case law which in particular applies to the issue of changing a child's name when conflict arises between the parents or those with parental responsibility for the child, the biological parents and others.

Change of Name: The Law and Practice is an accessible guide to this sometimes tricky area of law and includes a range of precedents that will prove invaluable to the busy practitioner.

Nasreen Pearce is a retired circuit judge and former district judge in the Principal Registry of the Family Division and currently an Associate Member of 2-3 Hind Court. She has written widely on family law and is a contributor to the Family Court Practice and Butterworths Wills Probate and Administration Service and is Editor and major contributor to Emergency Remedies in the Family Courts and author of A Practitioner's Guide to Probate Disputes and Inheritance Act Claims (Wildy, Simmonds & Hill).

AGRICULTURAL TENANCIES

Third Edition

by
Nigel Davis

Price: £45.00
ISBN: 9780854902354
Extent: 296pp
Binding: paperback

WILBY, SIMMONDS & HILL PUBLISHING

This revised and expanded new edition contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format to provide a concise introduction to the law relating to agricultural tenancies.

Fully updated to cover all legal developments, the text is supported by an array of procedural checklists and deals with the problems most commonly encountered in practice. The sections on the two major statutes - the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 and Agricultural Tenancies Act 1995 have been updated and expanded. The precedents section now also includes more notices and also succession application forms accompanied by helpful practical notes on each of them.

Practical and affordable, Agricultural Tenancies will prove to be an invaluable guide for the busy practitioner.

Agricultural Tenancies:

- Assumes no existing knowledge of agricultural tenancies law
- Adopts a very practical approach to the subject matter
- Includes a very useful raft of precedents
- Provides guidance on using the precedents and completion of the succession forms

Nigel has specialised in agricultural law for more than 40 years particularly in the areas of landlord and tenant, arbitrations and tribunals, partnerships and CAP reforms. He is an accredited mediator.

CHANCE, CHEEK AND SOME HEROICS

by
Frederic Reynold QC

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854902446
Extent: 254pp
Binding: hardback

These memoirs show the wit and acuity of a highly-trained legal mind while being a real pleasure read at the same time. They also provide a brief and entertaining account of what it was like to grow up with a refugee background in both wartime and immediate post-war Britain.

Freddy Reynold has had an exceptionally long career, during which he appeared in many landmark cases in different areas of law and engaged with most of the leading advocates and judges of the times. Although his descriptions of the past are illuminating, they are always written with the present and future of advocacy in mind. His comments on the present state of the Bar and Judiciary are based on years of experience and well worth considering.

Freddy Reynold specialises in employment law and related areas, commercial/contract law and public law. He has appeared in several landmark House of Lords cases concerning employment law issues and contracts of employment. In the course of his career he has advised the Equal Opportunity Commission, the BMA (on contractual and disciplinary issues concerning consultants and doctors), and the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (in respect of professional standards and practice).

PERSONAL INSOLVENCY PRACTICE

Litigation, Procedure and Precedents

Second Edition

Professor Mark Watson-Gandy

Price: £95.00
ISBN: 9780854902330
Extent: 472pp
Binding: hardback

The Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 introduced comprehensive changes to the practice, precedents and procedures – the biggest change to insolvency for over 20 years.

This new edition of Personal Insolvency Practice is a comprehensive starting point for all practitioners, whether solicitors or barristers. Up-to-date and practical, this book provides an easy to follow, ‘how to do it’ guide for all the common court applications in personal insolvency.

Covering areas as diverse as statutory demands, bankruptcy petitions, interim orders, permission to act as a director, setting aside preferences and transactions at an under-value and appeals, and challenging Debt Relief Orders, Personal Insolvency Practice gives the inside track on what the court will expect both in terms of practice and evidence.

Packed with precedents, forms, checklists and statutory extracts, Personal Insolvency Practice ensures the busy practitioner has everything they need to prepare and present the most common insolvency applications.

Now fully updated, this book will prove an invaluable reference for insolvency practitioners along with its companion text Corporate Insolvency Practice, now in its second edition.

New for the second edition

- New law – deals with the new Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016
- Provides the latest precedents, court forms, checklists and relevant statutory and practice direction extracts

Professor Mark Watson-Gandy is a practising barrister, specialising in insolvency law, at Three Stone Chambers. He is a Visiting Professor at the University of Westminster and a Visiting Lecturer at Cass Business School. He was appointed to the Court of the University of Essex in 2015. Mark gave evidence to the Commons Select Committee on Business Innovation and Skills’ Inquiry into the “Insolvency Service”, to the All Party Small Business Group’s Inquiry into “Breaking down the barriers to entrepreneurship” and the Treasury Committee’s Inquiry on “SME Lending”.

CHINESE CONFLICTS OF LAW
A Restatement and Legisprudence Proposal

JCL Studies in Comparative Law No 17

Shaoming Zhu

Price: £65.00
ISBN: 9780854902477
Extent: 326pp
Binding: hardback

A pioneering systematization of Chinese legislation, regulations, judicial instructions and directives, doctrinal materials, and selected judicial practice relating to private international law, set out in the form of a Restatement, with commentary, followed by a draft Code which distils the best of the material and makes suggestions for improvements or offers a rationale for retaining the existing rules – drawing upon leading worldwide experience and trends.

Dr. Zhu offers a learned, insightful, and informed illumination of a singularly obscure and complex domain of Chinese law, offering reasoned solutions or approaches that legal practitioners, academic lawyers, and policymakers will find instructive.

Shaoming Zhu received her LL.B. from Chang’An University; her LL.M. from Beijing Normal University, and her SJD degree from the Dickinson School of Law, Pennsylvania State University.
