MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Avi-Yonah, Reuven, International Tax as International Law: An Analysis of the International Tax Regime, Cambridge Univ Press, PB, £18.99, ISBN: 9780521618014

This book examines the coherent international tax regime that is embodied in both the tax treaty network and in domestic laws, and the way it forms a significant part of international law, both treaty based and customary. The practical implication is that countries are not free to adopt any international tax rules they please, but rather operate in the context of the regime, which changes in the same ways international law changes over time. Thus, unilateral action is possible, but is also restricted, and countries are generally reluctant to take unilateral actions that violate the basic norms that underlie the regime. The book explains the structure of the international tax regime and analyzes in detail how U.S. tax law embodies the underlying norms of the regime.

Bailey, Edward and Groves, Hugo, Corporate Insolvency Law and Practice 3ed, LexisNexis UK, HB, £200.00, ISBN: 9780406969705

The text combines an explanation of the substantive law with suggested solutions to the problems that are often encountered in practice. With many insolvencies now containing an international element, practitioners will find the comparison between UK/US law particularly useful. The book includes procedural checklists and an appendix containing forms of proxy and useful precedents. It provides a fully comprehensive reference source for solicitors and accountants specialising in insolvency. New for this edition: Commentary on the Enterprise Act 2002. New chapters on cross-border insolvency and on corporate insolvency and the Human Rights Act.

Baughen, Simon, International Law and the Protection of the Environment, Routledge Cavendish, PB, £31.99, ISBN: 9780415448109

Analyzing globalization and the increasing tension it has caused between the goals of free trade and environmental protection, this book provides a comprehensive and detailed legal analysis, both at the national and international level of what looks set to become the new legal order of the twenty-first century.

Beckwith, Francis, Defending Life: A Moral and Legal Case Against Abortion Choice, Cambridge Univ Press, PB, £14.99, ISBN:

9780521691352

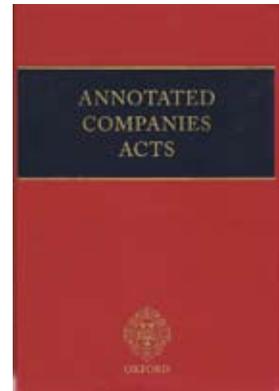

Defending Life is arguably the most comprehensive defense of the prolife position on abortion - morally, legally, and politically - that has ever been published in an academic monograph. It offers a detailed and critical analysis of Roe v. Wade and Planned Parenthood v. Casey as well as arguments by those who defend a Rawlsian case for abortion-choice, such as J. J. Thomson.

Bentley Jennison Financial Management Ltd, Personal Financial Planning Manual 2007-2008, Tottel Publishing, PB, £65.00, ISBN: 9781845924652

This comprehensively updated new edition of the Bentley Jennison Granville Limited Personal Financial Planning Manual is an invaluable reference guide to creating coherent tax-efficient personal financial plans. Offering unrivalled personal financial expertise and know-how, this key annual title will prove an essential source of reference and advice to both professional advisers and individuals keen to exercise greater control over their financial affairs.

Birds, John, Annotated Companies Act, Oxford Univ Press, LL, £399.00, ISBN: 9780199211746

This new looseleaf provides a detailed guide to the impact the Companies Act 2006 will have on company law and practice. The Act promises the most fundamental change to company law in the last 20 years, reforming many aspects of the legislation including much debated areas such as director's duties and financial assistance. This new looseleaf covers the new law and the surviving parts of the existing regime by way of a section-by-section commentary, which highlights the developments in the law and provides guidance on the impact of these changes.

Blackett-Ord, Mark, Partnership Law 3ed, Tottel Publishing, HB, £245.00, ISBN: 9781847660619

This authoritative text deals with the modern practical issues inherent in setting up, running and dissolving a partnership and provides the specialist practitioner with a definitive statement of the law using modern terminology relevant to current business practice. The new edition of this well-regarded book has been fully updated to cover all relevant case law, changes to principal subordinate legislation and new Rules of Court.

Boelle-Woelki, Katharina and Groscheide, William, Future of European Contract Law, Kluwer Law Int'l, HB, £102.00, ISBN: 9789041126993

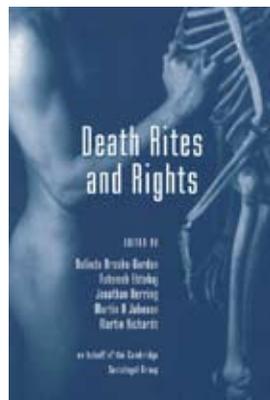

The wealth of material in this book contains a treasure of observations and visions of where contract law in Europe currently stands, as well as on how it should develop in the future. A collection of outstanding authors have contributed to this book

Bond, Catherine et al, Expert Witness: A Practical Guide 3ed, Shaw & Sons, PB, £29.50, ISBN:

9780721914428

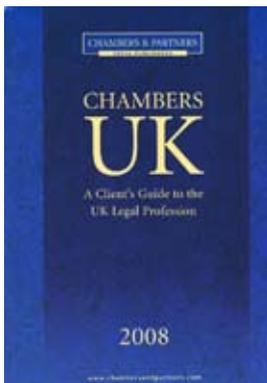

Expert advice and evidence can be crucial to the outcome of many legal disputes. Specialist opinion in cases about technical or scientific matters is used by the court to aid comprehension of the finer details and in the interpretation of the facts.

Brooks-Gordon, Belinda et al, Death Rites and Rights, Hart Publishing, PB, £35.00, ISBN: 9781841137322

Death has diverse religious, social, legal, and medical aspects and is one of the main areas in which medicine and the law intersect. We judge nations by how they deal with, or cause, death, and what meaning they attach to mourning rites. Mourning rites, in particular, have become a focus for national attention, whether the response to the sudden death of Diana, Princess of Wales, the quiet curiosity shown to the death of Elizabeth, the Queen Mother or the mass laying of ‘fields’ of flowers following the July 7 bombings in 2005.

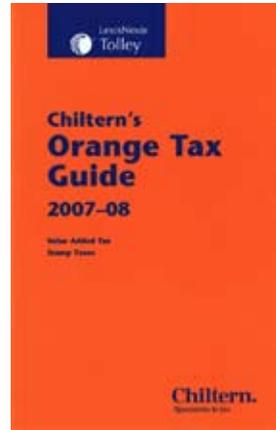

Chambers Student Guide 2008: From Choosing a Law School to Qualifying as a Barrister; Chambers, PB, £16.99, ISBN: 9780855143107
A guide to the LEGAL profession for students. It covers all stages of training for students wishing to go into the law, whether as solicitor or barrister. The guide contains in-depth profiles of the top 120 law firms in England and Wales, based on hundreds of confidential interviews with trainee solicitors. This year the book also profiles many of the leading barristers chambers, looking at the recruitment and training of pupils.

Chambers UK: A Client's Guide to the UK Legal Profession 2008, Chambers, HB, £80.00, ISBN: 9780855141172

First published in 1990, Chambers UK has established a reputation for its in-depth research. Based on thousands of interviews with lawyers and clients, Chambers UK ranks solicitors and barristers in over 60 specialist areas of law.

Chiltern, W.J.B., Chiltern's Orange Tax Guide 2007/08, LexisNexis UK, PB, £69.95, ISBN: 9781405725088

This book provides expert commentary on the tax legislation covered in the Orange Tax Handbook, dealing with stamp taxes and value added tax. For further research, references are given to De Voil Indirect Tax Service. The commentary refers to decided cases, as well as to HMRC extra-statutory concessions, statements of practice and press releases.

Chiltern, W.J.B., Chiltern's Yellow Tax Guide 2007/08, LexisNexis UK, PB, £94.95, ISBN: 9781405725095

This book provides expert commentary on the tax legislation contained in the Yellow Tax Handbook, dealing with income tax, corporation tax, national insurance contributions, inheritance tax and capital gains tax. The commentary refers to decided cases, as well as to HMRC extra-statutory concessions, statements of practice and press releases. For further research, references are given to Simon's Direct Tax Service and Foster's Inheritance Tax.

Chong, Wui Seung, Law and Practice of Mergers and Acquisitions in the PRC, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199277995

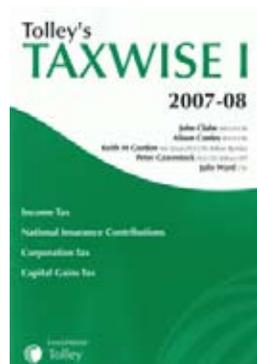

Mergers and acquisitions in China are becoming increasingly relevant to practitioners both in and outside of China as a secondary M&A market in China develops. The explosive growth of the PRC economy means that the Chinese market is viewed as a land of opportunities to businessmen. In this new book W. Seung Chong draws together overarching issues such as transaction structure and process, investment restrictions and merger control, before focusing on practical issues such as the representations and warranties that are typically given in an acquisition.

Clerk and Lindsell on Torts 2nd Supplement, Sweet & Maxwell, PB, £72, ISBN: 9781847031563

Clube, John; Gordon, Keith and Gravestock, Peter, Tolley's Taxwise I 2007/08, LexisNexis UK, PB, £70.00, ISBN: 9780754532927

Published as part of a two-volume set, this highly practical tax book provides expert guidance on how to approach real-life computations by detailing all the relevant points from current legislation, case law and other official material in the required format. Tolley's Taxwise I 2007-08 covers: Income Tax, National Insurance Contributions, Corporation Tax, Capital Gains Tax and Stamp Duty, and incorporates a variety of features for ease of use.

Crystal, Michael; Phillips, Mark and Davis, Glen, Butterworths Insolvency Law Handbook 9ed, LexisNexis UK, PB, £88.00, ISBN: 9781405725491

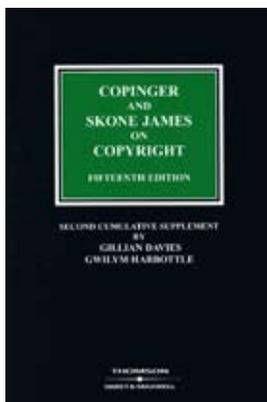

This book provides an invaluable collection of statutory source material and practical directions relating to insolvency law in England, Wales and Scotland. The new edition of this trusted and popular product is fully up-to-date with all the latest insolvency law changes since publication of the previous edition.

Davies, F.G., Anthony & Berryman's Magistrates' Court Guide 2008, LexisNexis UK, PB, £58.00, ISBN: 9781405725026

This popular annual publication provides a complete picture of the law. Practical and easy to use, it is the single most important guide to all the activities of the magistrates' court, whilst its straightforward and concise coverage of new case law represents excellent value for money.

Deech, Ruth and Smajdor, Anna, From IVF to Immortality: Controversy in the Era of Reproductive Technology, Oxford Univ

Press, PB, £16.99, ISBN: 9780199219797

Assisted reproductive technologies are unique in their capacity to challenge our assumptions and elicit passionate responses. Looking at the moral, philosophical, and legal issues surrounding cases of surrogacy, single or same-sex parenthood, retrieval of sperm from dead or dying patients, and the insemination of post-menopausal women, this book questions whether these rapidly-developing technologies are refashioning the nature of the family.

Dennis, Vernon, Insolvency Law Handbook 2ed, Law Society, PB, £69.95, ISBN: 9781853286285

Reforms to insolvency law have been followed by record bankruptcy levels and an explosion in the use of voluntary arrangements and company administrations. The second edition of this handbook provides a comprehensive guide to the current insolvency law landscape and an assessment as to how far statutory reforms have resulted in permanent economic and social changes in attitudes towards credit and debt.

Dwyer, Richard; Marina, Olya and Bedworth, Georgia, Trust and Estate Practitioners Guide to Mental Capacity, LexisNexis UK, PB, £94.95, ISBN: 9781405718691

Aimed at the trust and estate practitioner, this book focuses on the issues arising out of and related to a lack of mental capacity. With the Mental Capacity Act 2005 being implemented, this title offers up-to-date content on the provisions of the new Act, also featuring commentary on other aspects of this area, including Court of Protection, Care and Treatment, and Life-Time Transactions.

Duff, Antony, Answering for Crime: responsibility and Liability in the Criminal Law, Hart Publishing, HB, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841137537

In this long-awaited book, Antony Duff offers a new perspective on the structures of criminal law and criminal liability. His starting point is a distinction between responsibility (understood as answerability) and liability, and a conception of responsibility as relational and practice-based.

Elliston, Sarah, Best Interests of the Child in Healthcare, Routledge Caven-

dish, PB, £25.99, ISBN: 9781844720422

Topical and compelling, this volume provides an excellent re-evaluation of the ‘best interests’ test in the healthcare arena; the ways in which it has developed, the inherent difficulties in its use and its interpretation in legal cases concerning the medical care of children. Comprehensively covering both the English and Scottish position within the context of the European Convention of human Rights and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the author examines a wide range of healthcare situations, from the commonly occurring to the unusual, offering a detailed analysis of legislation, case law, cases and their implications.

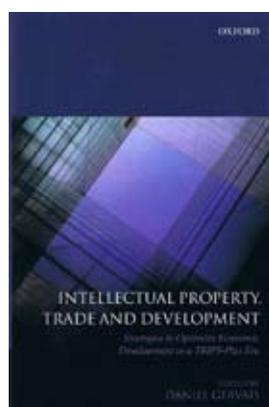

Expert Witness Directory 2008, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £165.00, ISBN: 9781847032539

Francioni, Francesco, Access to Justice as a Human Right, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £22.50, ISBN: 9780199233090

Gervais, Daniel, Intellectual Property, Trade and Development: Strategies to Opti- mize Economic Development in a TRIPS Plus Era, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £85.00, ISBN: 9780199216758

There is a fast-growing need in many countries, in particular in the developing world, to come to a greater understanding of the links between intellectual property, trade rules and economic and social development and to find new ways of implementing intellectual property rules and optimizing their effects. This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the latest legal, economic, political and social research and advanced current thinking on the relationship between intellectual property and trade and development.

Gessner, Volkmar and Nelken, David, European ways of Law: Towards a

European Sociology of Law, Hart Publishing, PB, £25.00, ISBN: 9781841137780

Can there be such a thing as a European sociology of law? The uncertainties which arise when attempting to answer that straightforward question are the subject of this book, which also overlaps into comparative law, legal history, and legal philosophy. The richness of approaches reflected in the essays (including comparisons with the US) makes this volume a courageous attempt to show the present state of socio-legal studies in Europe and map directions for its future development.

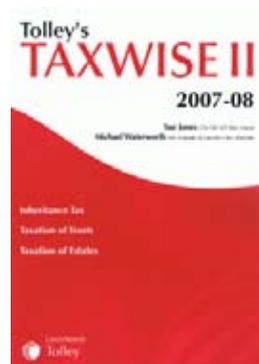

Goldsmith, Andrew and Sheptycki, James, Crafting Transnational Policing: Police Capacity-Building and Global Policing Reform,

Hart Publishing, PB, £25.00, ISBN: 9781841137766

The book examines the phenomenon of crafting transnational policing. By this term is meant the different forms of engagement in policing reform by international donors, national governments, foreign police and law enforcement agencies in the domestic policing agencies and programs of recipient countries. It includes, inter alia, peace-keeping in post-conflict situations, reconstruction and capacity-building as part of nation- or state-building exercises, and the provision of technical assistance in relation to certain aspects of law enforcement.

Gordon, Keith; Gravestock, Peter and Jones, Sue, Tolley's Taxwise II 2007/08, LexisN-

exis UK, PB, £65.00, ISBN: 9780754532934

Published as part of a two-volume set, this highly practical tax book provides expert guidance on how to approach real-life computations by detailing all the relevant points from current legislation, case law and other official material in the required format. Tolley's Taxwise II 2007-08 covers: Inheritance Tax, Taxation of Trusts and Taxation of Estates, incorporating a variety of features for ease of use.

Greenfield, Jeanette, Return of Cultural Treasures 3ed, Cambridge Univ Press, HB, £65.00, ISBN: 9780521802161

In recent years controversial cases such as the so-called Elgin Marbles have prompted public debate on the return of cultural treasures to their homelands. In this fully revised and expanded third edition of her seminal work, The Return of Cultural Treasures Jeanette Greenfield analyzes and discusses the historical, legal and political issues surrounding a wide cross-section of similar cases. Bringing the story up-to-date, this edition includes new chapters on wartime plunders, deliberately destroyed art and the return of ethnic art such as Australian aboriginal and Native American art.

Hall, Ananda, Related Family and Criminal Proceedings, Law Society, PB, £24.95, ISBN: 9781853286094

Harper, Mark et al, International Trust and Divorce Litigation, Jordans, PB, £55.00, ISBN: 9781846610189

This new work is an invaluable source of detailed information in respect of international trusts, viewed in a divorce law context and including an offshore perspective. It provides a readable, yet authoritative, analysis of such topics as forum shopping, taxation, conflicts of law, enforcement, and asset protection legislation.

Hay, David, Words and Phrases Legally Defined 4ed (2 volumes), LexisNexis UK, HB, £350.00, ISBN: 9781405725200

This work enables the practitioner to have at all times the precise meaning of a particular word or phrase. Definitions are taken from the Acts of Parliament, Halsbury's Laws of England, leading textbooks and verbatim judgments from all over the Commonwealth. Annual cumulative supplements, charged separately, ensure that the work is always up-to-date and include not only full coverage of English and Scottish cases and statutes but also extracts from Australian, Canadian and New Zealand cases. This new edition of Words and Phrases Legally

Hill, Judith; Smith, Julian and Holmes, Rachel, The Charities Act 2006 - A Practitioner's Guide, Legalease, PB, £50.00, ISBN: 9781903927489

The Charities Act 2006 will significantly reform the field of charity law and will impact heavily on law and practice in the not-for-profit sector. Written by recognised experts in the Legal 500 directory for their work in the field of charities, this book will explain the new law succinctly and will address the practical implications of all the fundamental reforms.

Hill, Mark, Ecclesiastical Law 3ed, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199217120

This work has established itself as the leading authority on the laws of the Church of England. Offering a uniquely detailed and scholarly exposition of the law, it has become an essential reference for anyone with a professional interest in ecclesiastical and canon law. The third edition has been fully revised and updated to take account of changes in the substantive law, specifically: the establishment of a completely new statutory tribunal for clergy discipline; a major review of the employment status of clergy; a series of cases in the House of Lords exploring the limits of the right of religious liberty under the Human Rights Act 1998; litigation on the status of the Church of England as a 'public authority'; a number of decisions in consistory courts and the Court of Arches.

Hubbard, Andrew, Tolley's Tax Planning for Owner-Managed Businesses, LexisNexis UK, PB, £84.95, ISBN: 9780754531418

This new title enables you to give expert guidance on every stage of the life-cycle of an owner-managed business - from its formation through to succession planning. Not only are all the key issues covered, but the interaction of different taxes in what is frequently a diverse and complicated area of tax planning are also considered. The practical and user-friendly format uses worked examples and case studies to explain tax liabilities, compliance and planning opportunities available for tax mitigation. Written by a leading practitioner in the field and comprehensive in its coverage, this new title is essential reading for anyone handling the affairs of owner-managed businesses.

Humphrey, Ann and Freedman, Philip, Stamp Duty Land Tax: A Practical Guide for Lawyers 2ed, Spiramus, PB, £75.00, ISBN: 9781904905240

This book takes a practical approach, looking at SDLT as it applies to particular transactions and dealing with issues which the property lawyer is likely to face when advising a client, whether acting in a straightforward purchase of freehold land, or negotiating the structure of a complex commercial sale or acquisition. The second edition of the book includes guidance on the many changes that have recently been made to the SDLT process, in particular to completing and filing the SDLT return itself, as well as dealing with the additions to SDLT law, such as HM Revenue & Customs' new powers to combat avoidance.

Hurst, Peter, Civil Costs 4ed, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £185.00, ISBN: 9781847031358

When it comes to dealing with all areas of civil costs, from the basic principles of entitlement to the practical details of how costs are actually assessed, you will find all the information you need in the fourth edition of Civil Costs. The new edition is a thorough and authoritative survey of the costs regime under the CPR covering all types of costs so that any areas of uncertainty are clarified for you.

Jay, Rosemary and Hamilton, Angus, Data Protection Law and Practice 3ed, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £165.00, ISBN: 9780421954700

This book gives you a comprehensive review of the full scope of data protection law in the UK through expert analysis of legislation and case law. You will find indispensable material spanning an explanation of the principles of data protection, the rules covering electronic marketing, governing monitoring and surveillance plus guidance on the intricacies of data protection.

Kearney, Michael, Prohibition of Propaganda for War in International Law, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £60.00,

ISBN: 9780199232451

Drawing on primary materials from the League of Nations to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, this book makes the case for the revitalisation of a provision of international law which can be fundamental to the prevention of war. The book examines international human rights law, the travaux préparatoires to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, communications between the Human Rights Committee and states parties to the Covenant, state practice, and international criminal law.

Kohi, Uta, Jurisdiction and the Internet: Regulatory Competence over Online Activity, Cambridge Univ Press, HB, £55.00, ISBN: 9780521843805

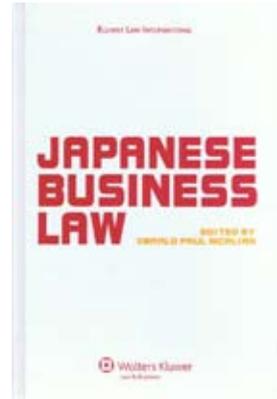

Does the future of online regulation lie in global legal harmonization or is it a cyberspace that increasingly mirrors the national borders of the offline world? This book offers some uncomfortable insights into one of the most important debates on Internet governance.

Landon, Peter, VAT and the City – Banking, Finance and Insurance 6ed, CCH, PB, £74.95, ISBN: 9781841408941

This is an essential book that describes how VAT affects transactions in banking, finance, securities, investment, insurance and commodities. It gives an insight into the problems and implications of these highly specialist areas and indicates how component parts of the industries are affected and how they should approach the handling of their VAT affairs.

McAlinn, Gerald Paul, Japanese Business Law, Kluwer Law Int'l, HB, £102.00, ISBN: 9789041126597

This deeply knowledgeable book provides a penetrating analysis and expert evaluation of matters of crucial concern to business lawyers including corporate governance, contract law, business liabilities, intellectual property, media, employment, taxation, investment, the legal profession, the judiciary, and much more as they are developing and intersecting in Japan today.

national Law, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199231942

This book aims to contribute to our understanding of one of the most pressing issues of modern international law: the relationship between the international legal order on the one hand and the domestic legal orders of over 190 sovereign states on the other hand

O’Cinneide, Colm and Holders, Jane, Current Legal Problems 2007 Volume 60, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £85.00, ISBN: 9780199237999

The Current Legal Problems lecture series and annual volume was established over fifty five years ago at the Faculty of Laws, University College London and has long been recognised as a major reference point for legal scholarship. The continuing strength of Current Legal Problems is its representation of a broad range of legal scholarship opinion, theory, methodology, and subject matter, with an emphasis upon contemporary developments of law.

Otterburn, Andrew, Profitability and Law Firm Management 2ed, Law Society, PB, £44.95, ISBN: 9781853285981

This text is designed to help managers identify new ways of making their practices more profitable. Rather than simply offer general suggestions, the book provides specific plans, which are practical, easy to implement and should help move businesses forward.

Paterson, Janet, Tolley’s Property Tax Planning, Lex-

isNexis UK, PB, £84.95, ISBN: 9780754531012

Property advice is often high-risk work due to the high transaction value and because all taxes are involved including SDLT and VAT. A key risk area is missing the interaction of one tax with another. This new title considers the interactions of different taxes, outlining all the angles in any transaction to ensure you give the best advice. Covering the whole range of property transactions, worked examples and case studies throughout replace pages of dense text, clearly illustrating the planning points and making this an essential purchase for anyone advising on property tax.

Primoratz, Igor, Civilian Im- munity in War; Oxford Univ Press, HB, £35.00, ISBN: 9780199290741

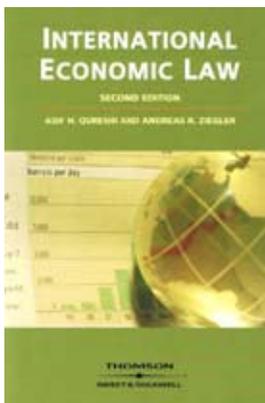

The protection of noncombatants from deadly violence is the centrepiece of any account of ethical and legal constraints on war. It was a major achievement of moral progress from early modern times to World War I. Yet it has been under constant attrition since - perhaps never more so than in our time, with its 'new wars', the spectre of weapons of mass destruction, and the global terrorism alert.

Quigley, John, Soviet Legal Innovation and the Western World, Cambridge Univ Press, HB, £45.00, ISBN: 9780521881746

The government of Soviet Russia wrote new laws for Russia that were as revolutionary as its political philosophy. These new laws challenged social relations as they had developed in Europe over centuries. These laws generated intense interest in the West. To some, they were the harbinger of what should be done in the West, hence a source for emulation. To others, they represented a threat to the existing order.

Qureshi, Asif and Ziegler,

Andreas, International Economic Law 2ed, Sweet & Maxwell, PB, £34.95, ISBN: 9780421947207

Reynolds, Kirk and Clarke, Wayne, Renewal of Business Tenancies 3ed, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £195.00, ISBN: 9780421932500

This book deals with the law and procedure of renewing business tenancies - both those under the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 and the amended procedures introduced in 2004. It takes readers systematically through each stage of the renewal process, including termination, serving notices and responding, applications for new tenancies, opposition on the part of the landlord, terms of new tenancy, carrying out the order, and preparing for hearings.

Roberts, Paul and Redmayne, Mike, Innovations in Evidence and Proof: Integrating Theory, Research and Teaching, Hart Publishing, HB, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841137063

This book brings together fifteen leading scholars and experienced law teachers based in Australia, Canada, Northern Ireland, Scotland, South Africa, the USA, and England and Wales to explore and debate the latest developments in Evidence & Proof scholarship. The essays comprising this volume range expansively over questions of disciplinary taxonomy, pedagogical method and computer-assisted learning, doctrinal analysis, fact-finding, techniques of adjudication, the ethics of cross-examination, the implications of behavioural science research for legal procedure, human rights, comparative law and international criminal trials. Communicating the breadth, dynamism and intensity of contemporary theoretical innovation in their diversity of subject-matter and approach, the authors nonetheless remain united by a common purpose: to indicate how the best interdisciplinary theorising and research might be integrated directly into degree-level Evidence teaching.

Silverman, F., Conveyancing Handbook Law Society, HB, £79.95, ISBN: 9781853286032

Home Information Packs, E-conveyancing, The new Solicitors' Code of Conduct - These important developments have implications for all conveyancers. Are you ready for them? The Conveyancing Handbook helps you keep up-to-date with these and other important changes and tackle everyday questions. Established and highly regarded, this book continues to be the most reliable, accurate and up-to-date source of information and guidance on all aspects of conveyancing practice.

Tolley, Tolley's Health and Safety at Work Handbook 2008 20ed, LexisNexis UK, PB, £91.00, ISBN: 9780754533184

Written by a team of experts on health and safety, this popular handbook provides an authoritative reference source covering key aspects of health and safety law and practice, as well as related environmental and employment information, in an easy-to-use A-Z format. Providing clear interpretation of legislation and regulations, on a range of subjects from accident reporting to workplaces and welfare facilities, the handbook is fully updated to include new legislation since the previous edition.

White, Robin M. and Willcock, Ian D., Scottish Legal System 4ed, Tottel Publishing, PB, £42.00, ISBN: 9781845927783

This is a popular introductory text aimed at the Scottish law undergraduate. The book sets out to present the “legal system and law of Scotland as a unique and constantly changing human enterprise” and places the Scottish Legal System in its broader political and social context. This new edition is thoroughly updated to reflect recent legislative and case law developments.

STUDIES IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Yihdego, Zeray, Arms Trade and International Law, Hart Publishing, HB, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841137469

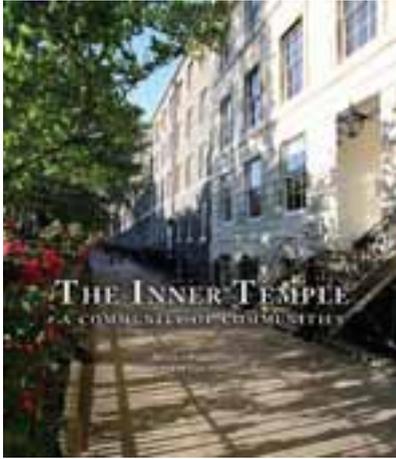

The book tackles the core and most divisive legal problem of whether or not the laws relating to arms control and relevant norms of international law provide substantive restrictions upon the transfer of small arms by states. The application of the norms of international peace and security, non-intervention, humanitarian and human rights laws, and evolved relevant customary rules of arms control relating to these norms are considered particularly carefully.

Young, Robert, Medically Assisted Death, Cambridge Univ Press, PB, £15.99, ISBN: 9780521706162

This is a wide-ranging discussion of both the morality of medically assisted death and the justifiability of making certain instances legal. A case is offered in support of the moral and legal permissibility of specified instances of medically assisted death, along with responses to the main objections that have been levelled against it. The philosophical argument is bolstered by empirical evidence from The Netherlands and Oregon where voluntary euthanasia and physician-assisted suicide are already legal.

The Inner Temple: A community of communities

Foreword by Master HRH The Princess Royal

Editors: Clare Rider and Val Horsler

Third Millennium Publishing

ISBN: 978 1 903942 66 6

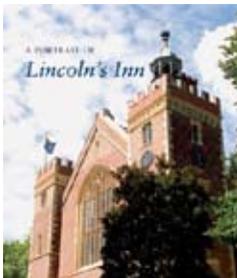

Hardback £45

The Inner Temple: A Community of Communities is a richly illustrated celebratory volume, which is published on the occasion of the institution's 400th anniversary and provides a fascinating panorama of life, law and learning in the Inn over seven centuries.

This unique portrait reflects the distinctively collegiate life of the Inner Temple through stimulating and entertaining memories, writings and archive material of members of the Society, both living and long since dead.

The beautifully designed and produced volume covers the history, architecture, treasures and estate of the Inn and the Inner Temple Church from the coming of the lawyers in the fourteenth century to the bustling realities of the twenty-first century. Along the way, readers will encounter not just insightful accounts of the teaching and learning of law down the centuries, but also masques, revels, feasting, poets and playwrights, Dr Johnson (a former resident), Bram Stoker (of Dracula fame) and a distinguished literary heritage extending from Geoffrey Chaucer to the creator of the immortal Rumpole of the Bailey.

From the Knights Templar who built the Church through to the modern sightseers who come to follow the trail laid out in The Da Vinci Code, the story of the inhabitants and users of the Temple is laid out in all its variety and splendour.

AccessToLaw: Inner Temple Library Legal Gateway Site

AccessToLaw is a legal gateway service, started in 2000, which is compiled by Inner Temple Library staff. At the moment there are links to over 1,000 sites.

The main aims of the service are:

-  to provide annotated links to selected UK, Commonwealth and worldwide legal web sites.
-  to concentrate on free resources.
-  to select sites which will be of relevance primarily to lawyers practising in the UK, for example, legal, government and parliamentary sites.
-  to draw particular attention to sites which contain substantive law (legislation, case reports, or treaties) or related materials (reports, codes of practice, official guidance).
-  to add new sites regularly and to check and update existing content every 3 months.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

English Private Law 2nd edition

Edited by Andrew Burrows
Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199227945, £195.00, due December 2007

Following its publication in 2000, this work quickly established itself as a key point of reference on English private law for lawyers in the UK and throughout the world. The book acts as an accessible first point of reference for practitioners approaching a private law issue for the first time, whilst simultaneously providing a lucid, concise and authoritative overview of all the key areas of private law. Each section is written by an acknowledged expert, using their experience and understanding to provide a clear distillation and analysis of the subject. This new edition includes all the recent developments since the publication of the first edition and the two supplements, the last of which published in 2003. It has also been expanded to include coverage of a number of key areas that were previously not addressed, including insurance, banking, carriage of goods by land and air and equitable wrongs. In addition, the chapters on general property law and civil procedure have been restructured as to make the underlying principles more readily accessible. No other single text provides such wide-ranging and lucid coverage of English Private Law as this one. It has come to be regarded as an essential item for every law library, reflecting its appeal to both English practitioners and those working in other jurisdictions. At the same time the book's depth of analysis, combined with its ease of reference, make it a favourite among academics and students worldwide.

Conditional Fees: A Guide to CFA's and Other Funding Options, 3rd Edition

Edited by Gordon Wignall
Law Society Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781853289927, £39.95, due December 2007
The fully updated third edition of this successful book provides thorough coverage of funding arrangements in litigation cases. This timely book is written with the new Regulations in mind, offering up-to-date and practical guidance. It takes the reader through key background issues with a clear explanation of how to run a case under the new Regulations. It includes real life case material, guides to funding and other regulatory frameworks that are essential for practitioners to be familiar with. The book also provides: a new chapter on commercial CFAs; the key Regulations; Codes of Conduct; court rules; and model agreements. It is an ideal source of information for all those involved in litigation practice.

Professional Indemnity Insurance Law 2nd edition

by Ian Enright and Dr Digby Jess

Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9780421966604, £185.00, due December 2007

Forming part of the Insurance Practitioners' Library this book takes a comprehensive look at all the aspects of professional indemnity insurance law. It analyses all relevant areas of law, from the nature and extent of the legal relationship between a professional and client, through to the detailed discussion of insuring clauses to be found in modern professional indemnity policies. The new edition offers a detailed exposition required to assist those seeking to find solutions to the various problems faced in this complicated area of law, whether acting for the insured professional or the insurer. The authors outline key principles for professional conduct, insurance and indemnity law and professional indemnity insurance so practitioners understand the foundations upon which contracts are drawn up and cases are disputed, and covers making the contract, preliminary clauses and clauses on risk. It also discusses insolvency in the professional indemnity insurance context, and provides fully up to date reference to case law.

Criminal Costs: A Practical Guide

by Peter Hurst and Andrew Keogh

Oxford University Press, Softcover, £49.95, due December 2007

The provisions relating to costs in criminal cases are extensive and complex. Recent legislation - notably the Access to Justice Act 1999 and the regulations made under it - has brought about a fundamental change in the way criminal costs and legal aid funding work. There has been a continuing stream of statutory provisions covering all aspects of Criminal Defence Service funding, recovery of defence costs orders, and contribution orders. Lord Carter's proposals for reform promise continuing developments in this field. Practitioners need to have access to and an understanding of the disparate array of materials relating to these matters as well as costs out of Central Funds (defendants' costs orders) and the award of costs in criminal cases. This new work explains the criminal costs regime in a clear and accessible manner. It sets out the law and practice governing the award of costs, practitioners' fees; the principles on which fees are assessed as well as guidance on the assessment process and appeals. The book guides practitioners through applicable procedures in the Magistrates' Courts, the Crown Court, the Divisional Court and the Court of Appeal. It explains the criteria to be applied when the court is considering an award of costs in criminal proceedings, or when it is dealing with Criminal Defence Service funded work and Recovery of Defence Costs Orders.

Tax Planning for Farm and Land Diversification 3rd edition

by Julie Butler

Tottel Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781845924850, £95.00, due February 2008

Tax Planning for Farm and Land Diversification offers practical help and guidance to ensure that farmers and landowners take full advantage of tax planning opportunities. It is a pragmatic and strategic guide, written in an accessible and user-friendly style. This edition provides valuable guidance on the tax consequences of pursuing alternative types of farming and land use rather than traditional methods. There are many tax issues relating to the diversification of farmland and this book is a comprehensive guide to the tax benefits and pitfalls applicable to farmers.

Intellectual Property Law Handbook

Edited by Lorna Brazell

Law Society Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781853289965, £69.95, due December 2007
This new handbook provides an authoritative overview of intellectual property issues facing commercial lawyers. Written by a team of experts from Bird & Bird, it sets out the principles behind the various IP rights, showing clearly how to apply the law in practice. The book explores the main types of IP right encountered in commercial practice: copyright; designs; patents; trade marks; and confidentiality. It outlines the relevant law and demonstrates how to apply it in common commercial transactions. A discrete chapter covers the assignment of rights, covering both licensing and the transfer of rights on the sale or disposal of a business. Further chapters cover IP in a digital context, and competition and taxation issues.

The Gambling Act 2005: A Practical Guide

by Roger Butterfield and Michael O'Brien
Shaw & Sons, Softcover, ISBN 9780721917207, £25.00, due January 2008

The Gambling Act 2005 has brought about the biggest change in the law relating to gaming and betting for nearly 40 years. The changes affect casinos, betting shops, bingo halls, amusement arcades, pubs and clubs with gaming machines, and small lotteries. This important new book provides a practical explanation of the legislation to help people understand the changes to the law, what licences are needed for what activities, how applications have to be made and who will issue them. The text explains the purpose of the legislation, how to apply for operating licences, premises licences and personal licences, the conditions attached to licences, objectives of the licensing and the enforcement of the law as it relates to gambling. Roger Butterfield and Michael O'Brien have used their vast experience in licensing training and consulting to produce this essential guide, which will be of great use to applicants for licences, solicitors, local authority officers and members, police officers and everyone who operates premises affected by the changes or is employed in the industry.

A Practical Guide to Digital Copyright Law

by Patricia Akester
Sweet & Maxwell, Softcover, ISBN 9781847033345, £79.00, due December 2007
A Practical Guide to Digital Copyright Law examines the challenges raised in the copyright field by three new potential modes of infringement, including: peer-to-peer, linking and digital read/search, giving you a complete look into the new problem areas of digital copyright. The book also probes the Digital Rights Management field - a potential solution to the problems raised by digital technology. The book offers a clear introductory path to approach the complex and changing area of digital copyright law. It provides an analysis of legislation and jurisprudence in conjunction with technology. For each topic discussed in the book the following is covered: an investigation of the technology at stake; an analyses of the most relevant legal provisions; an encapsulation of the most significant judicial responses; and a final appraisal. This new book will help you protect digital copyright for your clients by explaining how copyright law has been applied in the digital context. The subject is examined from an international perspective helping you to deal with the borderless nature of this multi-faceted topic. Included are boxes with key legal provisions and summaries of cases so you can quickly refer to these allowing you to easily check what the law says. It also includes boxes of concepts and technological terms so you can look up anything that is unfamiliar to you. Patricia Akester is a Leverhulme Fellow at Cambridge University where she does research and teaches. She is an IP Visiting Professor at the Catholic University of Lisbon, and is also a member of the Portuguese Bar Association, an Executive Committee Member of the Portuguese Group of Association, Littéraire et Artistique Internationale, and a Member of the British Literary and Artistic Copyright Association.

A Practical Guide to Intellectual Property Issues in the Pharmaceutical Industry

by Kelly Gill, Jane Steinberg and Adrienne Blanchard

Sweet & Maxwell, Softcover, ISBN 9781847033956, £79.00, due December 2007

This book is a practical guide to the major IP issues pharmaceutical companies encounter when bringing new products to the market as well as issues they need to deal with post-commercialisation. It discusses the value of the pharmaceutical industry and the role of IP within it. It gives you an overview of the regulatory environment from a national and international perspective. This new book explains how patents and other IP protection can be used for new and innovative products enabling you to see what can be done to protect your new products, and discusses branding issues, including the inter-relationship of trade marks and brand regulation. The authors take a look at the EU competition and US and Canadian antitrust regimes, giving you an international look at this topic, and also reference compulsory licensing and government use issues. It explains how international treaty obligations impact upon national and global markets, and looks at cross-border issues including parallel importing, counterfeiting and cross-border trade in pharmaceuticals. Clear and concise summaries with checklists are provided so you can make sure you have everything covered. The book also includes case studies and examples so you can see how the issues you may be dealing with have been dealt with in similar cases. Kelly Gill is a partner with Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP. Jane Steinberg is a partner with Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, and is head of the Firm's Life Sciences Industry Group. Adrienne Blanchard is an associate with Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP.

Ambush Marketing: A Practical Guide to Protecting the Brand of a Sporting Event

by Phillip Johnson

Sweet & Maxwell, Softcover, ISBN 9781847033949, £79.00, due December 2007

This new book includes an analysis of the law relating to ambush marketing. It provides guidance for those involved with major sporting events on how the law and other strategies can be used to limit ambush marketing, and provides IP and other brand management strategies as well as general information relating to the law surrounding sports events. It assists those wishing to advise on marketing or advertising campaigns in and around sporting events providing practical advice on how to go about marketing these big events, covering all major IP issues that might arise. The author discusses the importance of sponsorship, the concept of ambush marketing and how it can be prevented, giving you a clear introduction and understanding of ambush marketing. It considers the advantages and disadvantages of ambush marketing so you can reach informed decisions for your client. This is the first book to properly analyse Olympic association right and London Olympics association right, and also outlines information on the legislation in place to protect events in some countries, for example the Grand Prix in Australia and specific ambush marketing protection in South Africa. It presents a clear view of the legislation to organisers of sporting events or those bidding to host such events making sure nothing is overlooked. Phillip Johnson is a barrister at 7 New Square. He was the legal adviser to the United Kingdom Intellectual Property Office from 2003 to 2007.

True Tales of Trying Times
Legal Fables for Today

PROFESSOR BOB RAINS

Wildy, Genovese & Hill Publishing / Willow Crossing Press

New:

True Tales of Trying Times
Legal Fables for Today
Bob Rains

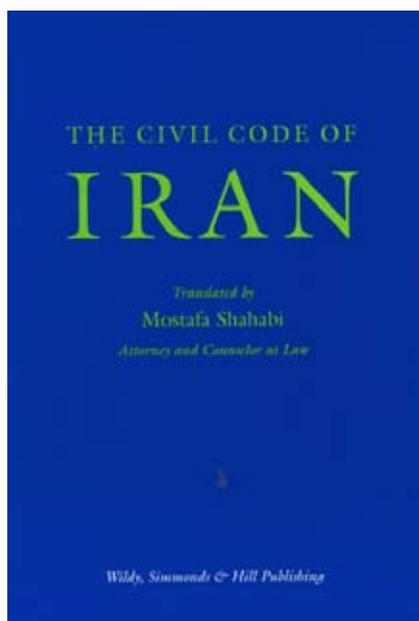

ISBN: 9781898029908

Hardback £12.50

Professor Rains provides a humorous collection of modern-day fables based on actual law cases. These tales are for everyone: not just lawyers, but people too. The fables and their accompanying morals offer us ironic views of the illusive quest for justice in the American legal system.

As noted by Justice Eakin in his Foreword, these stories all have value, if only as examples of what not to do. The professor's reporting makes them come alive, giving us a collection reflecting the wide range of predicaments created by the human species and other nonrational creatures. We throw our self-made problems into the judicial cauldron, which often just mixes them up and throws them right back at us.

These follies of the legal system, and of those who use and abuse it, are cleverly illustrated by the charming drawings of the creative team of E.A. Jacobsen.
