Bright, Susan, Landlord and Tenant Law in Context, Hart Publishing, PB, £35.00, ISBN: 9781841137223

The style of this book is distinctive. First of all, it explains the law of landlord and tenant law by showing how the statutory and common law rules have been shaped by wider commercial, social, economic and policy considerations, by the growth in human rights law and by changing concepts of community and justice. The other innovative feature of the book is that the law is explained by reference to the different stages of the relationship; entering a lease, regulating leases, managing leasehold property, and so on.

*John Pethick's trip to The Bahamas and The Cayman Islands
November 2007*

Bahamas

Firstly I would like to thank Branvile Mc Cartney, previously at Halsbury Chambers, but now the Minister of Tourism. He assisted me with clearing books through customs as well as storing them for my arrival back in Nassau to attend the 3rd bi-annual conference of the Bahamas Association of Law Librarians. Thanks to Raynold Cartwright's assistance this was held at the College of The Bahamas and there was a good turn out of familiar faces from previous visits as well as many new customers.

It was good to meet up with Zella Sturup, Carman Moss and Janice Modeste this year as they were not able to attend the earlier Caribbean Association of Law Librarians Conference. I was also lucky enough to have been able to pop over to Exuma and Freeport on this trip but sadly only for day trips. I tried my hardest to see as many people as possible in the time provided. The only person that was not in when I made my surprise visit was Harvey O Tynes of Tynes & Co. but I managed to bump into him at the airport on the way back to Nassau.

Cayman Islands.

Once again many thanks to Beverley Speirs and Mitchell Davies for allowing me to exhibit in the library of the Cayman Islands Law School. Their library has grown over the years since its devastation by hurricane Ivan, which destroyed the entire building not just the library!

A big personal thank you to Tara Thompson of Appleby's for organising a special boat trip over to Rum Point with her friends which was a very pleasant day out.

AccessToLaw: Inner Temple Library Legal Gateway Site

AccessToLaw is a legal gateway service, started in 2000, which is compiled by Inner Temple Library staff. At the moment there are links to over 1,000 sites.

The main aims of the service are:

to provide annotated links to selected UK, Commonwealth and worldwide legal web sites.

to concentrate on free resources.

to select sites which will be of relevance primarily to lawyers practising in the UK, for example, legal, government and parliamentary sites.

to draw particular attention to sites which contain substantive law (legislation, case reports, or treaties) or related materials (reports, codes of practice, official guidance).

to add new sites regularly and to check and update existing content every 3 months.

Entries are arranged in 5 sections – UK, Commonwealth, Other Jurisdictions (including the Channel Islands, Europe and the United States), Legal Subject Areas and General Resources. The section covering the UK includes links to sources of case law, legislation and to information on court procedure and tribunals. The many subject areas covered include criminal law, employment law, human rights, international law, immigration and asylum, and regulatory law.

Here is what some users have said:

“The site is well presented... each link is thoroughly described, so that you know what you’re getting before you click.” - Academic Library

“Excellent collection of links, chosen with the practising lawyer in mind.....All links are accurately and succinctly annotated.” - Advocate

“Your site is an excellent resource and well-maintained and designed.” - Bar Council Staff Member

“An extremely useful research tool.” - Barrister

We hope this service helps members of the legal profession who do not have direct access to subscription-based databases, to be more aware of free legal sources available via the internet.

The site can be accessed at www.accesstolaw.com

TRUE TALES OF TRYING TIMES

Legal Fables for Today

Bob Rains

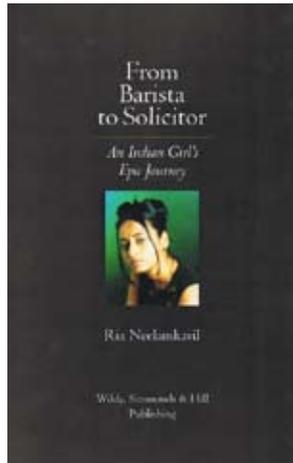

ISBN: 9781898029908

Hardback £12.50

Professor Rains provides a humorous collection of modern-day fables based on actual law cases. These tales are for everyone: not just lawyers, but people too. The fables and their accompanying morals offer us ironic views of the illusive quest for justice in the American legal system.

As noted by Justice Eakin in his Foreword, these stories all have value, if only as examples of what not to do. The professor's reporting makes them come alive, giving us a collection reflecting the wide range of predicaments created by the human species and other nonrational creatures. We throw our self-made problems into the judicial cauldron, which often just mixes them up and throws them right back at us.

These follies of the legal system, and of those who use and abuse it, are cleverly illustrated by the charming drawings of the creative team of E.A. Jacobsen.

FROM BARISTA TO SOLICITOR
An Indian Girl's Epic Journey

Ria Neelamkavil

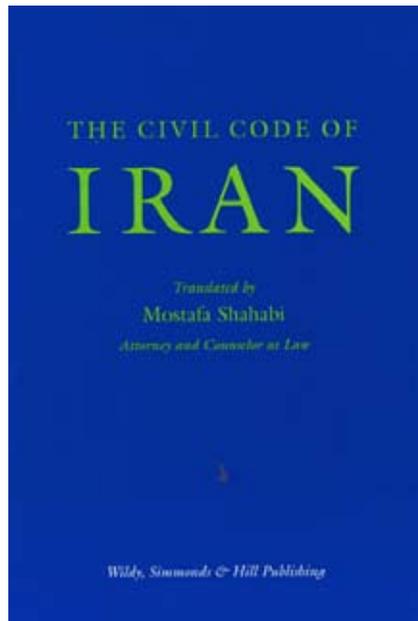

ISBN: 9781898029939

Paperback 100pp
£5.99

Ria Neelamkavil read Classical Studies with English at King's College, London before embarking on her legal career. She knew early on at Law School that if she was to work as a solicitor, employment law was the only field she would be interested in.

Her passion and enthusiasm for employment law is particularly apparent given that she worked in Lille with employment lawyers shortly after qualifying as a solicitor.

This book is a fictionalized account of a young Indian girl's struggles to become a lawyer. It is a lighthearted but very real account of the problems encountered.
