Jan/Feb 08

MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Anthony, Gordon, Judicial Review in Northern Ireland, Hart Publishing, HB, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841136172

This is the first book to be written on the principle and practice of judicial review in Northern Ireland. It collates and discusses the ever-burgeoning body of Northern Ireland case law and divides into eight chapters that consider the purposes of judicial review; the nature of the public-private divide in Northern Ireland law; the judicial review procedure; the grounds for review; and remedies. Much of the case law here is unique to Northern Ireland, and the book identifies actual and potential differences between Northern Ireland case law and that of England and Wales.

Arjomand, Said Amir, Constitutional Politics in the Middle East : With special reference to Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Afghanistan, Hart Publishing, PB, £25.00, ISBN: 9781841137735

This book is the first comparative and interdisciplinary study of constitutional politics and constitution-making in the Middle East.

Barak-Erez, Daphne and Gross, Aeyal, Exploring Social Rights: Between Theory and Practice, Hart Publishing, HB, £45.00, ISBN:

9781841136134

This book looks into the theoretical and practical implications of social rights. The book is organised in four parts. Part one considers theoretical aspects of social rights, and looks into their place within political and legal theory and within the human rights tradition; part two looks at the status of social rights in international law and various legal systems which are of special interest in this area (the European Human Rights system, Canada, South Africa, India and Israel); part three looks at the content of a few central social rights (such as the right to education and the right to health); and part four looks at the question of the relevance of social rights to distinct social groups (women and people with disabilities).

Benjamin, Joanna, Financial Law, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199282937

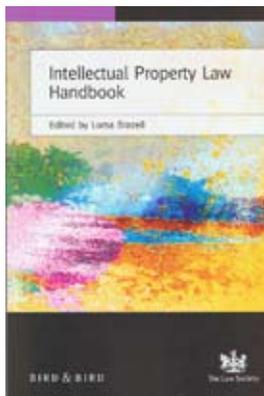

The traditional financial market sectors of insurance, commercial banking, derivatives, capital markets and asset management are converging in practice, but their analysis is still largely sector-based. This book offers a cross-sectoral, functional approach. It highlights anomalies in the different legal treatment of the respective sectors (suggesting law reform to sum, and arbitrage opportunities to others) and identifies key trends.

Bowen, Paul, Blackstone's

Guide to the Mental Health Act 2007, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £34.95, ISBN: 9780199217113

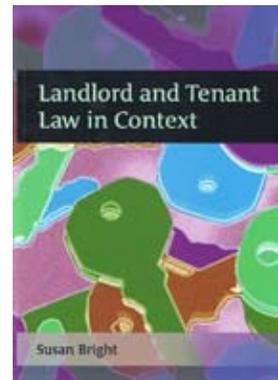

This new Blackstone's Guide provides the full text of the Mental Health Act, together with an expert chapter by chapter narrative clearly explaining the changes the Act makes to the Mental Health Act 1983.

Brazell, Lorna, Intellectual

Property Law Handbook, Law Society, PB, £69.95, ISBN: 9781853289965

This new handbook provides an authoritative overview of intellectual property issues facing commercial lawyers. Written by a team of experts from Bird & Bird, it sets out the principles behind the various IP rights, showing clearly how to apply the law in practice.

Bright, Susan, Landlord and Tenant Law in Context, Hart, PB, £35.00, ISBN: 9781841137223

This new work, a successor to the author's earlier book (co-written with Geoff Gilbert) Landlord and Tenant Law: The Nature of Tenancies (1995), though now the work of a single author and completely up-dated and rewritten, shares the same aim of setting leases in their wider context by weaving together matters of law and policy. The book provides a clear understanding of the main principles of landlord and tenant law in each sector.

Brundage, James A., Medieval Origins of the Legal Profession, Univ of Chicago Press, HB, £25.50, ISBN: 9780226077598

In the aftermath of sixth-century barbarian invasions, the legal profession that had grown and flourished during the Roman Empire vanished. Nonetheless, professional lawyers suddenly reappeared in Western Europe 700 years later during the 1230s when church councils and public authorities began to impose a body of ethical obligations on those who practiced law. This book traces the history of legal practice from its genesis in ancient Rome to its rebirth in the early Middle Ages and eventual resurgence in the courts of the medieval church.

Burrows, Andrew, English Private Law 2ed, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199227945

This work quickly established itself as a key point of reference on English private law for lawyers in the UK and throughout the world. The book acts as an accessible first point of reference for practitioners approaching a private law issue for the first time, whilst simultaneously providing a lucid, concise and authoritative overview of all the key areas of private law. Each section is written by an acknowledged expert, using their experience and understanding to provide a clear distillation and analysis of the subject.

Coggan, Philip, Economist Guide to Hedge Funds, Profile Books, HB, £16.99, ISBN: 9781846680557

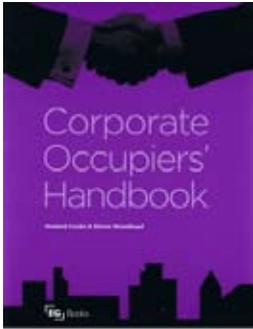

This book provides a succinct survey of the industry for all those who think they should know about hedge funds, but do not. It is aimed at all those who might want or have to deal with a hedge fund: private investors, trustees of a pension fund, directors of a listed company, and lawyers and accountants who may be interested in working in the industry. It is also aimed at those who happily criticise hedge funds without really knowing what they do.

Constable, Adam and Lamont, Calum, Construction Claims, RICS Books, PB, £27.50, ISBN: 9781842193464

Adam Constable &
Calum Lamont

Cooke, Howard and Woodhead, Simon, Corporate Occupiers' Handbook, Estates Gazette, PB, £49.99, ISBN: 9780728205116

This comprehensive book provides a practical guide to the issues faced by all those in corporate occupation. The variety of problems tenants may encounter during a corporate occupation range from service charges and lease renewals to dilapidations and repair. Often they become contentious and lead to court action, which can be timely and expensive. The authors want to avoid this and offer practical coherent solutions to help avert litigation. With a thorough understanding of the legal and practical implications of being a corporate tenant, Cooke and Woodhead outline exactly what is required to comply with new and existing legislation so that your corporate lease runs smoothly.

Coultsfield, The Hon Lord and MacQueen, Hector, Gloag and Henderson, The Law of Scotland, W. Green, HB, £185.00, ISBN: 9780414015913

First published in 1927 Gloag and Henderson is quite simply, the work of reference on the law of Scotland. It is unique in providing the complete Scots private law library in one volume, with no other single legal title in Scotland offering the same kind of coverage.

Craven, Matthew, Decolonization of International Law: State Succession and the Law of Treaties, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199217625

The issue of State Succession continues to be a vital, and complex, focal point for public international lawyers. The formative period of decolonization marked, for many, the time when international law 'came of age', when the promises of the UN Charter would be realised in an international community of sovereign peoples. Throughout the 1990s a series of territorial adjustments placed succession once again at the centre of international legal practice, in new contexts that went beyond the traditional model of decolonization: the disintegration of the Soviet Union, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia, and the unifications of Germany and Yemen brought to light the continued difficulties and inconsistencies in the core issues within the law of succession.

de Vareilles-Sommières, Pascal, Forum Shopping in the European Judicial Area, Hart Publishing, HB, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841137834

The time has come for an analysis, under both Community and comparative law, of the ramifications of the recent Gasser/Turner/Owusu cases. Readers will find in this book a collection of studies by some of the leading English and French experts, analysing the ins and outs of jurisdiction and forum shopping in Europe.

Delimatis, Panagiotis, International Trade in Services and Domestic Regulations, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199533152

This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the regulation of services under the WTO's GATS Agreement. Through a thorough examination of the GATS negotiation history, substantive provisions, judicial interpretation, and ongoing reform process, the book presents a clear picture of how the multilateral trading system justifies and tolerates regulatory diversity. In this respect, the book focuses on the core general principles of necessity and transparency, which would allow the assessment of the consistency with the GATS of domestic regulations in services at a horizontal, cross-sectoral level. In addition, the book reviews with a critical eye the ongoing GATS negotiations on the creation of rules on domestic regulations.

Ebbe, Obi N. I. and Das, Dilip K., Global Trafficking in Women and Children, CRC Press, HB, £54.99, ISBN: 9781420059434

War, poverty, and famine; political, social, and economic change; and the deep seated views and rituals rooted in a culture's history and traditions all contribute to the widespread and growing trafficking of women and children. The multilayered complexity, myriad contributing factors, enormous amount of money involved, and sheer magnitude of the problem render it impossible to solve with the fractured and isolated measures of individual organizations and countries. Only complete cooperation and collaboration at all levels can establish the most proactive and self-sustaining approach to reduce this global crime. Gathering knowledge and experience from more than 40 countries, this book clearly demonstrates the scale and spread of the problem, providing a powerful analysis of the circumstances that contribute to the abuse and victimization of women and children as well as the international policies and strategies used to combat this crime.

Ede, Roger and Edwards, Anthony, Criminal Defence: Good Practice in the Crimi- nal Courts 3ed, Law Society, PB, £49.95, ISBN: 9781853289248

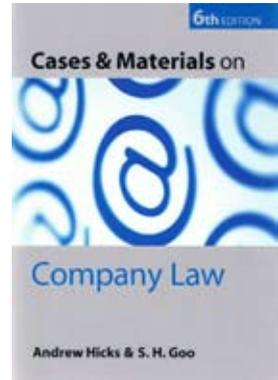

This book offers a step-by-step guide to practice and procedure in all of the criminal courts. The third edition of this established book has been completely updated and revised to focus on the needs of practitioners whilst taking account of developments in criminal law. Significant changes in this area of law include the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and the Courts Act 2003, the new Criminal Case Management Framework and the associated consolidated Criminal Procedure Rules.

Fennel, Phil, Mental Health, Jordans, PB, £39.00, ISBN: 9781846610745

This book provides a comprehensive, authoritative and practical guide to the new legislation and its implications for lawyers, psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, nurses and other mental health professionals.

Hicks, Andrew and Goo, Say H., Cases and Materials on Company Law 6ed, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £29.99, ISBN: 9780199289851

This book guides students through the complexities of company law with a broad selection of source materials that are placed in context through clear commentary. It covers all the principal areas of company law including the issue of securities and insolvency. The book concentrates on how the law facilitates and regulates the operation of companies, both large and small, reflecting the realities of current practice.

Hill, Henrietta and Kenyon, Richard, Promoting Equality and Diversity: A Practitioner's Guide, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £39.95, ISBN: 9780199235452

This book explains the fundamental changes in the approach to achieving equality and diversity that are occurring as a result of recent legislation. The work takes a task based approach to the subject, suggesting legal solutions to discrete practical problems, and providing clear, pragmatic guidance to enable practitioners to tackle the individual problems they might encounter.

Hoffman, Scott L., Law and Business of International Project Finance 3ed, Cambridge Univ Press, PB, £45.00, ISBN: 9780521708784

This extensively updated

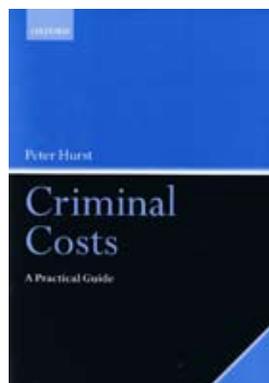

third edition continues to be the most comprehensive and authoritative guide to the business, practice, law, and practical use of project finance. It covers the complete project finance structure, from conception to negotiation to debt closing, and from project difficulties to successful restructuring. The book continues to be accessible to those with little experience in project finance, while maintaining the insight and detail of previous editions that has made it a valuable reference for the experienced lawyer, manager, banker, contractor, and government official.

Horn, Benjamin and Hopkins, Roger, Arbitration Law Handbook, Informa Publishing, HB, £180.00, ISBN: 9781843117087

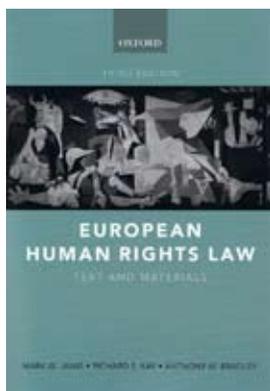

This book collects together in one volume the laws in force in more than twenty countries, with the main procedural rules used in each of those countries. Each section has a short introduction identifying relevant treaty obligations, the main arbitral bodies and the principal laws in force.

Hurst, Peter, Criminal Costs, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £49.95, ISBN: 9780199236244

This new work explains the criminal costs regime in a clear and accessible manner. It sets out the law and practice governing the award of costs, practitioners' fees; the principles on which fees are assessed as well as guidance on the assessment process and appeals. The book guides practitioners through applicable procedures in the Magistrates' Courts, the Crown Court, the Divisional Court and the Court of Appeal. It explains the criteria to be applied when the court is considering an award of costs in criminal proceedings, or when it is dealing with Criminal Defence Service funded work and Recovery of Defence Costs Orders.

Janis, Mark; Kay, Richard and Bradley, Anthony, European Human Rights Law: Text, Cases and Ma- terials 3ed, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £34.99, ISBN: 9780199277469

The third edition has been substantially expanded to provide a complete review of the wide range of rights the Convention protects, with new chapters on the right to life, property, discrimination, religious freedom, and education. The book introduces both the process and the substance of this increasingly important area of European law.

Kaplan, Steven M., English-Spanish and Spanish-English Legal Dictionary 3ed, Kluwer Law Int'l, HB, £65.00, ISBN: 9789041125392

This Dictionary provides over 100,000 entries and over 135,000 equivalents covering all areas of law, plus relevant terms in related spheres of expertise. This is the Dictionary that lawyers, translators, and those working in English and Spanish in law and associated fields have been trusting since the First Edition was published in 1993.

Keane, Adrian, The Modern Law of Evidence, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £26.99, ISBN: 9780199231669

This book is established and widely relied upon as a clear and comprehensive treatment of the contemporary law of evidence. Straightforward and practical in approach, the author also provides concise analysis of the theory behind the law, with an emphasis on recent discussion and modern aspects of the subject.

Kessler, James and Grattam, Sheema, Drafting Trusts and Will Trusts in Northern Ireland, Tottel, HB + CD, £138.00, ISBN:

9781847660671

This influential book, which explains in clear user-friendly language how to draft comprehensible and effective documents, covers all the general issues and mistakes that arise when drafting Northern Ireland trusts and will trusts. In addition to the main narrative, this book provides a comprehensive range of precedents. Written by eminent trusts law specialists, this book will prove invaluable for all practitioners with an interest in Northern Ireland trusts.

Kongolo, Tshimanga, Unsettled International Intellectual Property Issues, Kluwer Law Int'l, HB, £68.00, ISBN: 9789041126412

As a deeply informed analysis of how to integrate intellectual property rights into the international development process, this book takes some giant steps toward the general recognition of the real parameters of the most severe problems plaguing the developing world and offers reachable measures toward significant improvement of those problems. It will be of interest to all professionals, officials, and academics concerned with the equitable administration of intellectual property rights.

Laing, Sarah, Partnership Taxation 7ed, Tottel Publishing, PB, £78.00, ISBN: 9781845921736

The 7th edition of this popular book (originally written by Arnold Homer and Rita Burrows) offers a comprehensive guide to the law and practice relating to the taxation of partnerships in the UK. It contains a wealth of worked examples, and is up-to-date to Finance Act 2007.

Lees, Patricia and Laws, Eleanor, Sexual Offences Referencer: A Practitioner's Guide to Indictment and Sentencing, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £35.00, ISBN: 9780199213481

This book sets out the correct indictments and sentencing provisions for the different sexual offences dating back to 1943, to cover all cases which might be prosecuted. Anyone looking up a particular offence will find all the necessary technical information in one place. Each chapter sets out an offence (giving its historic and current description) and all that relates to it in terms of indictments and sentence, including current sentencing guidelines and relevant case law. The book also includes model indictments; timelines; the latest material from the Sentencing Guidelines Council; the Notification Requirements as they have been amended; and specified offences under the Criminal Justice Act 2003.

Levaggi, Peter, et al, Enforce- ment and Debt Recovery, Law Society, PB, £59.95, ISBN: 9781853286537

Lindsay, David, International Domain Name Law, Hart, HB, £95.00, ISBN: 9781841135847

The Domain Name System (DNS), which matches computer addresses to human-friendly domain names, has given rise to many legal issues. Two important issues are the institutional arrangements for governing the DNS and the use of trade marks as domain names. This book is the first complete statement of this rapidly-evolving area of the law. In particular, the book includes a comprehensive statement of decisions under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP), the international system for resolving disputes between trade mark owners and domain name registrants. In this path-breaking work the author examines the extent to which principles of national trade mark law have been used in UDRP decisions. It will be essential reading for anyone, whether academic or practitioner, interested in internet law, intellectual property, and e-commerce law.

Maclean, Mavis, Parenting after Partnering, Hart, PB, £22.00, ISBN: 9781841137827

Relationships between adult partners following divorce or separation can be fragile, and the issues which have divided the parents are often hard to disentangle from the ongoing relationships between parents and children. There is a small group who have ongoing difficulty and who need professional help and legal intervention to make arrangements for ongoing parenting. This volume brings together a wealth of new empirical research from the USA, Central, North Western and Southern Europe, and Australia on the nature and importance of children's relationships with parents after parental separation, on the kinds of conflicts which develop, and on the range of professional interventions which support parents and children through these difficult times.

McClean, Daniel, The Trials of Art, Ridinghouse Editions, PB, £25.00, ISBN: 9781905464036

Inspired by important trials during the modern period in which artists and art works have acted as protagonists, this anthology of essays from fourteen leading academics and lawyers examines the ambivalent encounter between art and the law. In considering these issues, the book illuminates how the art trial has been instrumental in the development of art and the shaping of the law, and reflects upon wider issues; the position of the artist in relation to society, the power to determine how images are created and viewed and the struggle between individual expression and collective beliefs.

Mehigan, Simon; Phillips, Jeremy and Saunders, Judge John, Paterson's Licensing Acts 2008 (incl CD), LexisNexis Butterworths, HB, £267.05, ISBN: 9781405725040

This is the definitive work of reference dealing comprehensively with licensing law in England and Wales. It provides a detailed and clear analysis of new and forthcoming changes in licensing law and incorporates all relevant legislation, regulations, orders, standard forms and precedents to provide a fully comprehensive and up-to-date reference source for practitioners.

Monks, David, Practical Elections Administration: Advice and Best Practice for Election Managers and Staff, Shaw & Sons, PB, £50.00, ISBN: 9780721917405

This new book, written by one of our most experienced election officers, David Monks, Chief Executive (and therefore Returning Officer) of Huntingdonshire District Council – who was responsible for former Prime Minister John Major's constituency – looks at all aspects of the administration of elections with a view to suggesting best practice in each area and giving practical advice to overcome the sorts of awkward problems that occur at every type of election. The author has not only called upon his own vast experience but has also consulted widely with colleagues around the country to obtain ideas, suggestions and anecdotes which will help any Electoral Administrator, whether new to the job or long-standing, to resolve virtually any issue that might arise in the days leading up to the poll, as well as on the day itself. The book provides best practice examples of, and solutions to, real issues facing election officers.

Moore, Victor, A Practical Approach to Planning Law, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £34.95, ISBN:

Despite repeated attempts in recent years to simplify the planning system, planning law has continued to be so complex that practitioners and students alike have found it difficult to disentangle the complicated issues and principles involved. The tenth edition of Victor Moore's popular and accessible book aims to remove the mystery and difficulty which planning law presents to so many people.

Mugasha, Agasha, Law of Multi-Bank Financing: Syndicated Loans and the Secondary Loan Market, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £145.00, ISBN: 9780199289127

This new work provides analysis of the legal and regulatory facets of syndicated loans, secondary loan market practice and other related financial practices. Acknowledging the dynamic growth in the secondary loan market Mugasha covers loan trading, credit derivatives, collateralised debt obligations, loan trading, mezzanine and hybrid debt solutions - all topical issues for structured finance lawyers.

Noonan, Chris, Emerging Principle of International Competition Law, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £80.00, ISBN: 9780199207527

Noonan analyses the legal and policy issues associated with the control of restrictive business practices and anticompetitive mergers in international markets. The book discusses international cartels, dumping, private market access barriers, and mergers between international firms subject to multi-agency review.

O'Sullivan, Dominic; Zakrzwewski, Rafel and Elliott, Stephen, Law of Rescission, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £125.00, ISBN: 9780199250110

This new work offers a comprehensive treatment of the law of rescission in England, with reference to the law of Australia, New Zealand and Canada. The authors set out the grounds permitting rescission, such as fraud, misrepresentation, or undue influence, covering the ways that rescission occurs at common law and in equity, in the case of both executory and completed transactions.

PWC, Manual of Accounting UK GAAP 2008, CCH, HB, £85.00, ISBN: 9781841409788

The new edition of this popular manual provides a single source of expert interpretation and practical guidance on the UK accounting standards issued by the Accounting Standards Board (ASB) and the accounting requirements of UK law, as well as the other elements that make up UK GAAP. It is a practical and thorough publication and offers a clear explanation of today's UK reporting requirements in straight forward language.

PWC, Manual of Accounting IFRS for the UK 2008, CCH, HB £85.00, ISBN: 9781841409887

This practical guide to IFRS and UK company law, incorporates a wealth of best practice examples and updates resulting from PricewaterhouseCoopers' practical experience implementing IFRS. It provides expert interpretation and practical guidance on the IFRSs issued by the IASB and the accounting requirements of UK law applicable to UK users of IFRS, as well as the other elements that make up IFRS for the UK.

Quint, Peter, Civil Disobedience and the German

Courts: The Pershing Missile Protests in Comparative Perspective, Routledge Cavendish, HB, £56.00, ISBN: 9780415442855

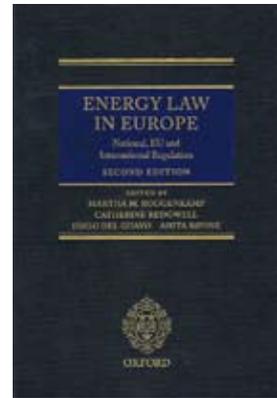

In the 1980s the West German Peace Movement - fearing that the stationing of NATO nuclear missiles in Germany threatened an imminent nuclear war in Europe - engaged in massive protests, including sustained civil disobedience in the form of sit-down demonstrations. This book traces the historical and philosophical background of this movement and follows a group of demonstrators through their trials in the German criminal courts up to the German Constitutional Court - in which their fate was determined in two important constitutional cases. In this context, the volume also analyses the German Constitutional Court, as a crucial institution of government, in comparative perspective.

Ray, Ralph and McLaughlin, Mark, Ray and McLaughlin's Practical Inheritance Tax Planning 7ed, Tottel Publishing, PB, £105.00, ISBN: 9781845920722, previous ISBN 1405701544 Widely recognised as one of the leading titles in the field, this latest edition outlines topical planning points and possible pitfalls in mainstream areas of IHT planning (e.g. the family home), together with illustrations, precedents and practical solutions, where appropriate. A new chapter on the crucial subject of pre-owned assets has been added, and the most recent developments are addressed including the Civil Partnership Act 2004, Finance Act 2006 and high profile cases such as Melville and Eversden.

Roggenkamp, Martha; Redgwel, Catherine and Rønne, Anita, Energy Law in Europe 2ed, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £225.00, ISBN: 9780199217199
The energy sector in Europe has changed rapidly over the last few years under the influence of trends towards globalization, liberalization, competition, de-monopolization, and strengthening of regulation in the field. The new edition of this book builds on the success of the first in providing an updated overview of these important developments at both international and European levels, covering the most important principles of international law of relevance to the energy sector.

Roth, Peter and Rose, Vivien, Bellamy and Child: European Community Law of Competition 6th ed, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £320.00, ISBN: 9780199286447
Formerly published by Sweet & Maxwell, the new edition of this eminent and authoritative work has been fully updated to encompass the major changes in substantive law, enforcement procedures and case law since the last edition. It examines the impact of modernisation on enforcement by national authorities and courts, while coverage of national decisions post-modernisation is integrated in the book, using information collated from a network of key correspondents in the Member States. Increased coverage of the new system has been introduced in particular within the chapter on the Community Context and the Role of Member States.

Rowley, Peter and Mainwaring, Mark, Pension Schemes: An Industry Accounting and Auditing Guide, CCH, PB + CD, £87.00 inc VAT, ISBN:

Delivering invaluable guidance, this practical and comprehensive guide is designed to assist all professionals involved in the pensions industry. This edition has been fully updated to reflect all the latest industry developments and their impact upon tax, accounting, and audit requirements, incorporating in-depth coverage of the revised SORP.

Sara, Colin, Boundaries and Easements, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £175.00, ISBN: 9780421955301

Containing all that you need to conduct an action involving a boundary dispute or easement claim, in one practical volume, Boundaries and Easements addresses not only the legal problems which may arise, but also the practical problems of case preparation, procedural steps and likely and uncommon remedies that are peculiar to these types of litigation. Written by Colin Sara, the work provides an increasingly authoritative examination of the two related subject areas, which often occur in the same practice litigation claim.

Scott, Rosamund, Choosing Between Possible Lives,

Hart, HB, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841137186

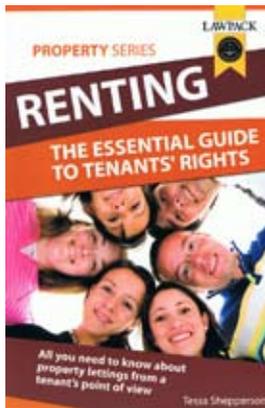

The book examines ethical, legal and public policy issues in prenatal screening, prenatal diagnosis (PND), selective abortion and preimplantation genetic diagnosis (PGD). It explores the ethics of these selection practices and the ability of current ethical guidelines and legal mechanisms, including the law on selective abortion and wrongful birth, to deal with advances in genetic and other knowledge in these areas. Unlike in the United States, in England the relevant law is not inherently rights-based, but the impact of the Human Rights Act 1998 inevitably raises questions about the proper scope of reproductive autonomy in this context.

Shepherd, Eric, Investigative Interviewing, Oxford Univ Press, PB, £29.95, ISBN:

This unique text provides police officers with practical guidance on what to do prior to, during, and following investigative interviews of all kinds of witnesses, from vulnerable adults and children to suspects. It explains the psychological underpinning of the Conversation Management technique which lies at the heart of the PEACE interviewing model.

Shepperson, Tessa, Renting: The Essential Guide to Tenants' Rights, Lawpack, PB, £9.99, ISBN: 9781905261260

Written by a specialist in tenancy law, this book has been written totally from a tenant's point of view. In a practical and easy-to-understand manner, this guide tells you all your rights (and responsibilities).

Spencer, Philip, Tottel's Property Tax Planning 7ed, Tottel Publishing, PB, £95.00, ISBN: 9781847660602, previous ISBN 9781845926762

This is the indispensable property guide for tax practitioners, property lawyers, surveyors and property owners. With worked examples throughout it clearly highlights the tax planning opportunities and potential pitfalls that may arise during property transactions.

Steel, Gill, Trust Practitioners Handbook, Law Society, PB, £59.95, ISBN: 9781853286483

This invaluable guide to the creation, administration and taxation of trusts has been comprehensively revised and updated to take account of the wide-ranging impact of the Finance Act 2006 on the Inheritance Tax treatment of trusts.

Tarnvakis, Michael, Commodity Trade and Finance, Informa Publishing, HB, £130.00, ISBN: 9781843117049

This book looks at the economics of key commodity groups, including energy, agriculture and metals. It examines the supply/demand fundamentals of several major and minor commodities, physical characteristics, production and consumption patterns, trade flows and pricing mechanisms. It also covers, in brief, the main tools used to hedge price risk, such as futures, options and swaps.

Tolley, Tolley's Tax Office Directory 2008 1ed, LexisNexis Tolley, PB, £36.95, ISBN: 9780754532866

This complete guide brings together all the contact information needed by tax, financial and business advisers. It contains essential addresses, telephone numbers and fax numbers within Government revenue departments, all individually checked for accuracy. The Directory has been expanded to make the finding of information quick and easy, and to include added commentary.

Tritton, Guy, Intellectual Property in Europe, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £225.00, ISBN: 9780421908505

The third edition of this established and successful main work covers the wide range of laws regulating intellectual property in Europe. First published in 1995, it has become recognised as the leading guide to all aspects of IP law in Europe, including both Community law and the international conventions affecting protection of IP rights.

Tromans, Stephen and Turrall-Clarke, Robert, Contaminated Land, Sweet & Maxwell, HB, £179.00, ISBN: 9780421966208

This work makes available a complete analysis of the complex law relating to contaminated land in one well-organised source. It deals in depth with liability for contamination, but also systematically covers issues such as the assessment of contamination, redevelopment and clean-up, and the impact of contaminated land on property and corporate transactions.

Welham, Michael G., Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide: Guide to Legal Compliance 2ed, Totel Publishing, PB, £65.00, ISBN: 9781845922597

A practical guide to the laws surrounding manslaughter at work, and the implications of the new corporate manslaughter legislation. This new second edition of this popular book outlines exactly how the new corporate manslaughter legislation will affect large corporations, and provides the advice that ensures these organisations fully understand their newly created legal responsibilities. Its essential new coverage includes The Hampton Review, recent major corporate manslaughter cases and disasters, key information on The Corporate Manslaughter Bill 2005, plus much more.

Weller, Marc, Universal Minority Rights: A Commentary on the Jurisprudence

of International Courts and Treaty Bodies, Oxford Univ Press, HB, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199208517

The development of international standards for the protection of minorities has been slow and fragmented. In the absence of a comprehensive and universal binding set of rules, the development of minority protection has been left to regional agreements and judicial interpretation of wider human rights treaties. Universal Minority Rights brings together, for the first time, the full set of all regional and international jurisprudence from courts and treaty bodies concerned with issues of minority rights.

To our best knowledge, all particulars are correct at the time of going to press. However, we regret that we cannot accept responsibility for any errors, and wish to advise readers that price and date of publication may be subject to change by the publishers concerned

Butterworths Financial Services Law Handbook 9th edition

Consultant editor: Deborah A Sabalot

LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, ISBN 9781405728812, £112.00, due February 2008

Butterworths Financial Services Law Handbook is published annually and brings together in a single volume the primary, secondary and European legislation which forms the regulatory framework for the financial services industry. All of the relevant statutory instruments made under FSMA 2000 are set out as amended in Sections A and B of Part III. There is an Appendix listing every UK statutory instrument made under FSMA 2000 with a brief summary of its effect. This edition now includes the UK legislation fully implementing the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive, the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, the Control of Cash (Penalties) Regulations 2007, the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007, the Electronic Commerce Directive (Terrorism Act 2006) Regulations 2007 and the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Ombudsman Scheme) (Consumer Credit Jurisdiction) Order 2007, all essential pieces of legislation for the financial services industry. Part IV (European material) has been greatly expanded in the last two editions. To complete this comprehensive work, lists or tables of all amending enactments are included at the beginning of each Act, statutory instrument and European Directive and Regulation. All lawyers, compliance officers and regulators working in the financial services field will find that Butterworths Financial Services Law Handbook provides a portable, up-to-date and indispensable reference source.

Fiduciary Duties: Directors and Employees
By Andrew Stafford QC

and Stuart Ritchie
Jordan Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781846610912, £155.00, due March 2008

The law relating to the fiduciary duties owed by directors and employees to companies is complex and involves several overlapping areas of law. It is, however, a relatively commonplace cause of action; individuals in positions of trust within a company are often tempted to abuse their position in order to steal company secrets, set up in competition, and poach staff and customers. Fiduciary Duties: Directors and Employees draws together, in one volume, the law relating to fiduciary duties and its modern application by the Courts and Tribunals. Whilst the treatment of this subject is intended to be fairly high level, there will also be consideration of the practical application of the law in this area.

Securities Law
By Professor Alastair

Hudson
Sweet & Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN
9781847033291, £170.00,
due April 2008

This new book offers comprehensive coverage of the law dealing with securities markets in the UK. The book gives practical guidance on the procedures, and covers the formal regulation of securities markets by the FSA, the general law of England and Wales as it applies to securities law and the various financial services directives that shape UK law. The issue of securities on both a private basis and by means of an offer to the public are covered, as is the marketing of securities to the public and its regulation under the Financial Services Markets Act 2000. The author looks at both civil and criminal liability connected to the issue of securities, provides in depth discussion of the allotment of shares, and covers membership and dealings with shares.

Purpose Trusts 2nd edition

By Paul Baxendale-

Walker
Tottel Publishing,
Paperback, ISBN
9781845924843, £150.00,
due April 2008

The new second edition of this book starts with a thorough examination of the old authorities supporting non-charitable purpose trusts, followed by a demolition of the supposed objections to them, and ends by taking the reader on a world-wide tour of those jurisdictions where the legislature, assuming there to be a common law rule against purpose trusts, has passed statutes to permit them. After reading this book it can no longer be asserted that we have a rule against purpose trusts, based on the highest authority. Practitioners and academics alike will learn much from this thought-provoking book.

Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook 9th edition

Editor: Michael Brown
LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, ISBN 9781405734974, £130.00,
due March 2008

Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook provides lawyers and those involved in the insurance industry with an invaluable compilation of relevant statutes, statutory instruments, expanded FSA Handbook materials and European legislation applicable to this important area of law. Other useful information includes the rules relating to professional indemnity of solicitors, Association of British Insurers statements, guides and codes of practice and the Motor Insurers' Bureau agreements. The Handbook also covers Insurance Companies, Insurance Intermediaries, Insurance Premium Tax, with specialist insurance categories including Liability and Motor Insurance. The legislation is printed as currently in force (taking into account all amendments, repeals and revocations), with detailed technical annotations regarding commencement, cross-references to other legislation where necessary). This new edition takes account of the relevant provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and supporting statutory instruments, excerpts from the Companies Act 2006 and the latest FSA Handbooks in part or whole relevant to those operating in the insurance industry, including the new Insurance Conduct of Business handbook which is reproduced in full. Other materials include the Solicitors' Indemnity Insurance Rules 2007 and some of the latest statements of practice and guidelines from the Association of British Insurers. The European materials have been updated to take account of changes at EU level and reordered for ease of use. This incorporates the Reinsurance Directive 2005/68/EC and the draft Solvency II Framework Directive.

Mason's Forensic Medicine for Lawyers 5th edition

By Dr Sharon Cowan and Bill Hunt

Tottel Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781845922412, £85.00, due February 2008

The new, 5th edition of this well-respected book provides a broad overview of the medico-legal issues arising in both criminal and civil proceedings. Written by a highly respected academic, the new edition ensures the text is brought fully up to date with new material on wounds, explosions, head injury, transplantation, asphyxia, marriage and pregnancy, and the legal aspects of medical practice.

Brands: Law, Practice and Precedents

By Clive Lawrence

Jordan Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781846611025, £120.00, due March 2008

This new book brings together the principal bodies of law affecting the creation, management, exploitation and protection of brands, and considers them with particular emphasis on the way in which they are used best to fulfill the branding objectives of organizations today. The author discusses the legal aspects of brands, as well as the valuation and taxation, goodwill and intellectual property aspects. With eight detailed precedents each with full explanatory material - plus case studies - Brands: Law, Practice and Precedents is a highly practical and unique publication. The book includes a CD-ROM containing the precedents.

Equal Pay

By Michael Duggan

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846610882, £95.00, due March 2008

Written by a leading employment barrister, Equal Pay offers a clear and concise guide for practitioners involved in the complex and technical area of equal pay law and practice. With the latest developments in case law this practical guide places emphasis on commentary regarding relevant legislation, rather than simply reproducing legislation and guidelines. It highlights specific issues and areas of risk in relation to potential equal pay claims. Equal Pay includes everything a practitioner needs to know in one volume.

Efficiency and Justice in European Antitrust Enforcement

By Wouter PJ Wils

Hart Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781841130170,

£60.00, due March 2008

In the last few years, the public enforcement of Articles 81 and 82 EC has been thoroughly transformed: the competition authorities of the EU Member States have become active enforcers within the European Competition Network, the European Commission has imposed more and higher fines than ever before, leniency has become a major instrument of cartel detection, and some Member States have introduced criminal penalties. The overall trend towards more and stronger enforcement of Articles 81 and 82 EC has also rekindled discussion on the old question of how to strike the right balance between efficient enforcement and adequate protection of the rights of the defence. This book brings together six essays which analyse from both a legal and an economic perspective the powers of investigation of the European Commission and the competition authorities of the Member States, and the corresponding procedural rights and guarantees, the use of settlements, the theory and practice of fines and of leniency, and the criminalization of European antitrust enforcement.

Terrorism and the Limitation of Rights: The ECHR and the US Constitution

By Stefan Sottiaux
Hart Publishing, Hardback,
ISBN 9781841137636,
£55.00, due March 2008

Taking as a starting point the widely accepted view that states confronted with terrorism must find a proper equilibrium between their respective obligations of preserving fundamental rights and fighting terrorism effectively, this book seeks to demonstrate how the design and enforcement of a human rights instrument may influence the result of that exercise. An attempt is made to answer the question how a legal order's approach to the limitation of rights may shape decision-making trade-offs between the demands of liberty and the need to guarantee individual and collective security. In doing so, special attention is given to the difference between the adjudicative methods of balancing and categorisation. The book challenges the conventional wisdom that individual rights, in times of crisis, are better served by the application of categorical rather than flexible models of limitation. In addition, the work considers the impact of a variety of other factors, including the discrepancies in enforcing an international convention as opposed to a national constitution and the use of emergency provisions permitting derogations from human rights obligations in time of war or a public emergency. The research questions are addressed through a comparative study of the terrorism-related restrictions on five fundamental rights protected under the European Convention on Human Rights and the United States Constitution: the right to freedom of expression, the right to freedom of association, the right to personal liberty, the right to privacy, and the right to a fair trial. The book offers both a theoretical account of the paradoxical relationship between terrorism and human rights and a comprehensive comparative survey of the major decisions of the highest courts on both sides of the Atlantic.

Applications to Wind Up Companies 2nd edition

By Derek French, Catherine Newman QC, Rebecca Stubbs, and Stuart Sime

Oxford University Press, Hardback, ISBN 9780199206896, £95.00, due February 2008

The second edition of Applications to Wind Up Companies provides practitioners with an up to date and in-depth treatment of the law relating to applications to wind up companies. As such it is the only work to focus specifically on this aspect of corporate and insolvency law. This long-awaited new edition deals with the procedure for obtaining a winding-up order chronologically from presentation of a petition through to making the order. It also looks at the application process as it applies to various classes of petitioner, such as creditors, contributories (shareholders) and public officials. The book covers companies registered under the Companies

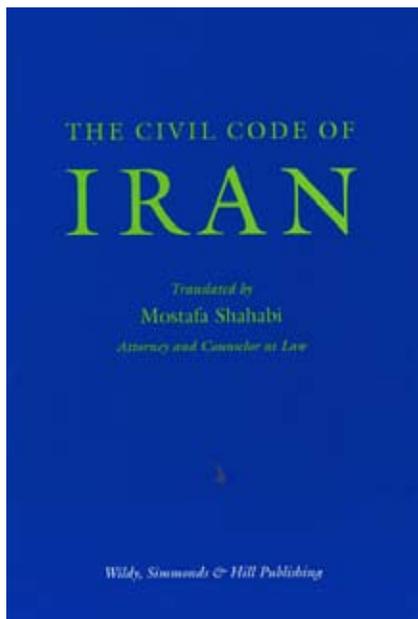

Acts and all other entities, including insolvent partnerships and foreign companies, which may be wound up under the Insolvency Act 1986. It also deals with administration applications. Though focused on the procedure in the courts of England and Wales, the work also considers the jurisprudence of the many Commonwealth jurisdictions which have adopted the English procedure. A particular feature of the book is its analysis of the matters which are taken into account in the exercise of discretion, an aspect of the equitable jurisdiction applied to winding-up applications.

International Copyright Law and Policy

By Silke von Lewinski
Oxford University Press, Hardback, ISBN 9780199207206, £75.00, due February 2008

This book deals comprehensively with the major treaties and conventions covering the law of international copyright and neighbouring rights. It explains the complex legal, economic and political background to the treaties and their contents, and how they inter-relate.

There is also practical commercial discussion of how copyright and neighbouring rights are treated in international trade measures such as GATT, WTO, NAFTA, and bilateral and unilateral treaties, with a section devoted to how unilateral trade measures are applied by the USA in particular. There is also some discussion of how international copyright law and neighbouring rights may develop in the future. The book is intended to be a definitive account of the law of international copyright and neighbouring rights, but it is also intended to be accessible to non-specialist practitioners. It is fully cross-referenced to a forthcoming companion volume, European Copyright Law and Policy (expected to publish later in 2008), offering readers a comprehensive approach to the subject. The author has been consulted on copyright policy on numerous occasions by various governmental and non-governmental organisations within and outside the EC, and therefore is ideally placed to give an inside view on how policy is formed.

CIVIL CODE OF IRAN

Mostafa Shahabi

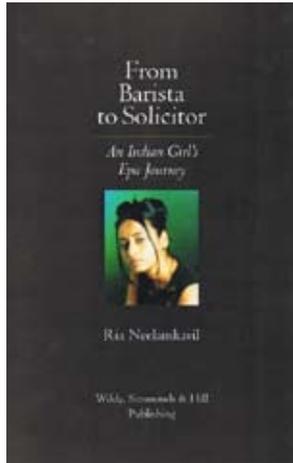

ISBN13: 9781898029922

Hardback 195 pp

£45.00

There have been at least five translations of the Civil Code of Iran since its adoption at the beginning of the twentieth century. This translation by Mostafa Shahabi is the most up to date and includes amendments made to the civil code in 2007.

In this translation, Mostafa Shahbabi has attempted to provide a translation which is as faithful as possible to the original Persian, to ensure that readers will be able to discern for themselves the true meaning of the text.

FROM BARISTA TO SOLICITOR
An Indian Girl's Epic Journey

Ria Neelamkavil

ISBN: 9781898029939

Paperback 100pp

£5.99

Ria Neelamkavil read Classical Studies with English at King's College, London before embarking on her legal career. She knew early on at Law School that if she was to work as a solicitor, employment law was the only field she would be interested in.

Her passion and enthusiasm for employment law is particularly apparent given that she worked in Lille with employment lawyers shortly after qualifying as a solicitor.

This book is a fictionalized account of a young Indian girl's struggles to become a lawyer. It is a lighthearted but very real account of the problems encountered.

THE JOURNAL OF COMPARATIVE LAW
Edited by Nicholas Foster & Camilla Baasch Andersen
ISSN 1477-0814
2 issues per annum
Subscription Rates: £95 Institutions and £45 Individuals

We have pleasure in announcing publication of The Journal of Comparative Law. The journal provides a forum for comparative law scholarship and analysis. It will be an invaluable tool for practitioners and scholars working across international borders and with harmonised law. The journal, which is refereed, publishes materials on all aspects of comparative law, covering all geographical areas, and encourages analytical work with a contextual, theoretical and interdisciplinary approach. Due weight is accorded to practical aspects. The journal should appeal to a wide range of readers, including academics, students and international practitioners. Significant features include the publication of assessments and translations of important documents and comparative law bibliographies, as well as reviews of current and classic treatises and texts.
