MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Abbey, Robert; Richards, Mark, A Practical Approach to Commercial Conveyancing and Property 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £49.95, ISBN: 9780199551613

Now in its fourth edition, A Practical Approach to Commercial Conveyancing and Property serves as an accessible guide through the complex and diverse area of commercial conveyancing and property. Practical solutions are given to many of the more commonplace difficulties encountered, together with helpful diagrams explaining some of the intricacies involved. Checklists are provided as models of procedure, and easily followed precedent clauses and forms are supplied.

Alter, Karen, The European Court's Political Power: Selected Essays, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £40.00, ISBN: 9780199558353

Karen Alter's work on the European Court of Justice heralded a new level of sophistication in the political analysis of the controversial institution, through its combination of legal understanding and active engagement with theoretical questions. The European Court's Political Power assembles the most important of Alter's articles written over a fourteen year span, adding an original new introduction and conclusion taking an overview of the Court's development and current concerns.

Anker, Helle T; Olsen, Brigitte; Rønne, Anita, Legal Systems and Wind Energy: A Comparative Perspective, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £100.00, ISBN: 9789041128317

Wind energy as a renewable energy source attracts considerable interest in the climate change debate. The development of wind energy, however, faces a number of legal or regulatory challenges. This book provides an insight into the legal frameworks of selected countries – Denmark, New Zealand, Norway and the United States – relevant to the development of wind energy. It explores the legal traditions and systems as well as the more specific environmental and energy legislation. The book has been elaborated in an educational setting, but it is relevant to a much broader audience, including legislators, public and private decision-makers and other stakeholders involved in wind energy issues.

Bailey, Steven; Taylor, Nick, Bailey, Harris and Jones: Civil Liberties: Cases, Materials and Commentary 6th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £33.99, ISBN: 9780199218554

an indispensable text that facilitates a thorough understanding of this complex subject area. It supplies the reader with an unrivalled collection of materials and commentary on all major aspects of the law relating to civil liberties in England and Wales, and is firmly established as a superb resource for students on civil liberties and constitutional law courses.

Baloch, Tariq A, Unjust Enrichment and Contract, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841139081

This book examines the role of unjust enrichment in the contractual context, defined as contracts which are (a) terminated for breach, or (b) subsisting, or (c) unenforceable. It is a particular strength of the book that it is underpinned by detailed and original historical analysis which makes a novel and distinct contribution to the history of the laws of unjust enrichment and contract.

Barnard, Catherine; Odudu, Okeoghene, The Outer Limits of European Law, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841138602

A commonly expressed view is that the citizens and the Member States are destined to be overcome by the European Union. There is a sense that the Union of today is not what was intended to be created or acceded to by the Member States or its citizens. The Outer Limits of European Law brings together a diverse group of legal scholars to consider aspects of EU substantive, constitutional and procedural law in a manner highlighting the many senses in which the European Union is or can be limited and so demonstrating that the fear of being overcome is a false fear.

Barr, Alan; Biggar, John; Dalglish, Andrew; Stevens, Hugh, Drafting Wills in Scotland 2nd ed, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Hardback & CD-ROM, £161.55, ISBN: 9781845920401

The fully revised second edition of this highly regarded text provides coverage of all the practical and legislative changes that have occurred in the last ten years since the publication of the highly successful first edition. The new edition, written by expert team of authors from Bodies and Tods Murray, has been fully updated and revised.

Beaufort-Moore, Deborah,

Crime Scene Management and Evidence Recovery, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780199560455

This practical book deals with the subject of crime scene management and evidence recovery, offering step-by-step guidance on the techniques involved alongside clear scientific explanations for the non-specialist. This invaluable practical guide is a must-have for the first responder; whilst crime scene investigators are trained to undertake more detailed forensic examination, the actions of first responders make an important difference to the success of an examination.

Berglund, Mikael, Cross Border Enforcement of Claims in the EU: History,

Present Time and Future, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £104.00, ISBN: 9789041128614

In the legal areas of contractual claims and tax claims, various requirements exist in European Community law and in applicable conventions for the recognition and enforceability of foreign titles of execution, judgments and decisions. Besides the requirement that a foreign title of execution should fall under its particular scope of application, territorial scope, scope of claims, and scope in time, there are often additional requirements and limitations that give rise to both possibilities and restrictions, and play an important role in determining the enforceability or non-enforceability of claims. Consequently, an early analysis related to these provisions is a crucial step in assessing the possibility of success or risk of failure.

Bix, Brian, Jurisprudence: Theory and Context 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £22.95, ISBN: 9781847034458

This title explains the often complex and difficult ideas in legal philosophy clearly and concisely but without oversimplification. It introduces students to the fundamental themes in legal philosophy. It analyses and comments on the writing of the foremost legal theorists, and takes into account the most recent scholarly work.

Blair, Michael; Walker, George; Purves, Robert, Financial Services Law 2nd ed, Oxford University Press,

Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199564187

The new edition of Financial Services Law has been updated to incorporate recent legislative developments and case law. In addition to new areas of coverage, some key existing topics have also been expanded, such as coverage of MiFID since its implementation in 2007.

Blake, Susan, A Practical Approach to Effective Litiga- tion 7th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £44.95, ISBN: 9780199550302

This book analyses the key skills that a lawyer needs to handle a case effectively following the litigation process from beginning to end. It presents these skills in a practical way, and in the context of using law and the rules of procedure and evidence.

Bonner, David; Hooker, Ian; White, Robin, Social Security: Legislation: 2008/2009: Supplement to Volumes 1-4, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £65.00, ISBN: 9781847038067

Bradgate, Robert; White, Fidelma, LPC: Commercial Law 2009, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9780199561285 Commercial Law has been

written principally for students taking an elective in commercial law on the Legal Practice Course. It covers all the core areas of general commercial practice, including agency and distribution agreements; sale and supply of goods and services; international sales contracts; credit and security; bills of exchange; competition law; intellectual property law and commercial contracts including specimen sets of terms of sale and purchase.

Breau, Dr Susan, Questions and Answers: International Law 2009 and 2010, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £12.99, ISBN: 9780199556908

No matter how good your research and study skills, the ultimate test for the law student is the exam. This book explains how to tackle successfully the sort of problems and essay questions typically found in exam papers. The author clearly guides students through the process of planning and structuring answers, providing advice on what to include, and on what to leave out. The book contains 50 questions and model answers divided into chapters covering all major topics. Each chapter begins with an introduction focusing on important points and ends with suggestions for further reading. Each question is supported by clear commentary indicating exactly what examiners are looking for, followed by an answer plan listing the key points to cover.

Bridge, Michael, The Sale of Goods 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hard-back, £155.00, ISBN: 9780199559770

This new edition provides legal practitioners with a systematic analysis of the English law of domestic sale of goods, examining problem areas and offering practical solutions. It is fully updated to provide expanded commentary on significant new case law under the Sale of Goods Act and the European Directive on Guarantees in Consumer Sales.

Buck, Trevor, The Social Fund: Law and Practice 3rd ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £87.00, ISBN: 9780421881204

The Social Fund, introduced in 1988, plays a major part in the UK's welfare benefit system. This book, split into two sections – a narrative text and an annotation of – a narrative text and an annotation of provides a comprehensive analysis of the operation of the Social Fund and detailed clarification of its unique legal structure.

Bulterman, Mielle; Hancher, Leigh; McDonnell, Alison; Sevenster, Hanna, Views of European Law from the Mountain: Liber Amicorum for Piet Jan Slot, Kluwer Law International,

Hardback, £104.00, ISBN: 9789041128621

Piet Jan Slot is one of a notable group of innovators who have greatly elucidated the role of law in the construction of European integration. His retirement this year from the Law Faculty at Leiden University has occasioned this festschrift, in which forty-six colleagues, past and present, recognize his many sterling contributions and engage with issues central to his work.

Burnett, Rachel, Outsourcing IT: The Legal Aspects: Planning, Contracting, Managing and the Law 2nd ed, Gower Publishing Limited, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780566085970

Whether you are a supplier or a customer, it is vital to have a properly negotiated formal contract if you are entering into an outsourcing arrangement. A good contract needs careful planning and this book provides a comprehensive guide to the whole process. Well-planned and well-structured outsourcing arrangements, by well-informed and well-advised customers, are far more likely to work for both customer and supplier alike and Outsourcing IT: Planning, Contracting, Managing and the Law is the perfect place to start.

Butler, William, Russian Law 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9780199562220

When the first edition of Professor Butler's book was published in 1999 it was hailed as the first systematic account of Russian law and the Russian legal system since the demise of the Soviet Union. The second edition built on his examination of Russian law in the context of other legal systems and made a thorough examination of the country's legal institutions and procedural and substantive law. In this 3rd edition the author reviews the law reform of Putin's era, including the impact of decisions of the European Court of Human Rights as sources of Russian Law, a new chapter on insurance law and the essentials of local government law. The book has been updated throughout to include the latest legislation since the last edition, including reform of the law of intellectual property, competition, foreign investment, the legal status of foreigners, treaties, securities, pledge and mortgage, State corporations, the legal profession and the penal system, labour law, taxation, procedure, international arbitration, the judicial system and procuracy, justices of the peace, State structure, and environmental and natural resource law.

Buzbee, William, Pre-emption Choice: The Theory, Law, and Reality of Federalism's Core Question, Cambridge University Press,

Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9780521888059

This book examines the theory, law, and reality of pre-emption choice. The Constitution's federalist structures protect states' sovereignty but also create a powerful federal government that can pre-empt and thereby displace the authority of state and local governments and courts to respond to a social challenge. Despite this preemptive power, Congress and agencies have seldom pre-empted state power. Instead, they typically have embraced concurrent, overlapping power.

Carey, Peter, Data Protection: A Practical Guide to UK and EU Law 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780199563548

Now in its third edition, this invaluable handbook offers practical solutions to issues arising in relation to data protection law. It is fully updated and expanded to include coverage of all the significant developments in the practice of data protection, and takes account of the wealth of guidance published by the Information Commissioner since the last edition.

Chambers & Partners; Aitken, Jacob, Chambers Latin America 2009: Latin America's Leading Lawyers for Business: The Client's Guide, Chambers & Partners, Paperback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780855145705

Since 1999, we have been researching the legal profession in Latin America identifying the leading lawyers and law firms through interviews with thousands of lawyers and their clients. Our reputation is based on the independence and objectivity of our research. In addition to the 'country' listings, certain practice areas, such as international arbitration and capital markets, have 'Latin America-wide' listings which include those firms and lawyers with practices spanning the continent. There is also a 'Central America-wide' section.

Chambers & Partners; Kidd, Daniel; Chambers Asia 2009: Asia's Leading Lawyers for Business: A Client's Guide, Chambers & Partners, Paperback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780855145217

The Asia guide lists lawyers and law firms across Asia in over 20 specialist practice areas. Since 1999, we have been researching the legal profession in Asia, identifying the leading lawyers and law firms through interviews with thousands of lawyers and their clients. Our reputation is based on the independence and objectivity of our research. In addition to the 'country' listings, certain practice areas, such as arbitration and capital markets, have 'Asia-wide' listings which include those firms and lawyers with pan-Asian practices.

Chambers, Robert; Mitchell, Charles; Penner, James, Philosophical Foundations of the Law of Unjust Enrichment, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199567751

Wildy's Book of the Month - April 2009

This volume takes stock of the rapid changes to the law of unjust enrichment over the last decade. It offers a set of original contributions from leading private law theorists examining the philosophical foundations of the law. The essays consider the central questions raised by demarcating unjust enrichment as a separate area of private law - including how its normative foundations relate to those of other areas of private law, how the concept of enrichment relates to property theory, how the remedy of restitution relates to principles of corrective justice and what role mental elements should play in shaping the law.

The Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys, CIPA Guide to the Patents Acts 6th ed, Sweet & Maxwell, Hardback, £300, ISBN: 9780421957404

This book is the leading guide to patent legislation in the UK. Taking a clause-by-clause approach to all relevant patent legislation, it clearly explains the impact of each part of every Act. Case law is presented in detail to help the reader see easily whether there are precedents for or against the proposition they wish to contend. It includes references to hundreds of decisions of the European Patent Office, the UK courts and the Comptroller-General, many of which have not appeared in published law reports.

Cherry, Andrew, A Valuer's Guide to the RICS Red Book 2009 7th ed, RICS Books, Paperback, £27.95, ISBN: 9781842194560

Clayden, Michael, Law of Public Parks and Open Spaces, Shaw & Sons Ltd, Paperback, £24.95, ISBN: 9780721905525

This book is the successor to The Law of Parks and Recreation Grounds by Roland Roddis, first published by Shaw & Sons in 1953 and of which a fourth and final edition was published in 1974. Since then, the law has in many respects changed greatly and, therefore, an entirely new text has been produced by local government expert Paul Clayden. This new book is aimed as much at those responsible for the management of parks and open spaces as it is at local government lawyers and it is thus written in a clear and easily-assimilated style. Statutes of relevance date from the mid-nineteenth century to the early twenty-first century and these are explained and discussed under the topics to which they relate. A wealth of information for 'parks professionals' and lawyers is to be found in this modestly-sized (and priced) book, which will make it an invaluable reference for all concerned with this field.

Connery, Niamh; Hodnett, David, Regulatory Law in Ireland, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £110.00, ISBN: 9781847662545

The book sets out the features of economic regulation in Ireland in the following sectors: aviation, banking, broadcasting, communications including post, competition and energy. Separate chapters set out the legislative approach to economic regulation in each area and discuss the role of the main regulators.

Conte, Alex; Burchill, Richard, Defining Civil and Political Rights: The Jurisprudence of the United Nations Human Rights Committee 2nd ed, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £30.00, ISBN: 9780754676560
This book provides a comprehensive analysis and commentary on the decisions – technically known as views – of the United Nations Human Rights Committee, for use by human rights lawyers throughout the world. Each of the substantive rights and freedoms set out in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights is considered in detail, by analysis of final reviews and comments of the Human Rights Committee.

Cook, John; Kerse, Christopher, EC Merger Control 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9781847038074
Now in its 5th edition, this well-respected work provides a comprehensive analysis of the EC merger control regime. The book examines the impact of legislative and procedural changes made in 2004 on the subsequent casework and procedures of the Commission and the workings of the European Competition Network in the merger control context.

Cooper, Simon; Orme, Michael, Road Traffic Law 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780199559756

This practical guide to road traffic law covers all the principal aspects of roads policing and has been fully updated for this, the second edition. This new edition covers significant changes in road traffic law, such as the enforcement of the Road Safety Act 2006 and updates to the Road Traffic Act 1988. The authors discuss matters such as causing death by careless driving, causing death by careless driving when under the influence of drink or drugs, insurance and licensing, use of mobile telephones and control of a vehicle, and updates to construction and use rules.

Cottrell, Critical Issues in Environmental Taxation Vol 4, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £135.00, ISBN: 9780199566488

Dattani, Rita, ICSA Directors Handbook, ICSA Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £69.95, ISBN: 9781860724022

This handbook provides definitive and practical guidance to the rights and obligations of company directors. Written by experienced practitioners, the book provides a lucid interpretation and explanation of the law as it relates to company directors and offers expert advice on grey areas or those where the law remains silent.

Davies, Gillian; Harbottle, Gwilym, Copinger and Skone James on Copyright 15th ed: 3rd Supplement, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £130.00, ISBN: 9781847037527

Day Sclater, Shelley; Ebtehaj, Fatemeh; Jackson, Emily; Richards, Martin, Regulating

tion and Family, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9781841139463

These essays explore the nature and limits of individual autonomy in law, policy and the work of regulatory agencies. Authors ask searching questions about the nature and scope of the regulation of 'private' lives, from intimacies, personal relationships and domestic lives to reproduction. They question the extent to which the law does, or should, protect individual autonomy.

Dillon, Brian, Emergency Planning Officers' Handbook, Oxford University Press, Pocketbook, £29.99, ISBN: 9780199561360

This practical guide to the preparation and testing of emergency plans covers the requirements for the preparation and testing of emergency plans under the Civil Contingencies Act 2004, explaining each stage of the different exercises that can be performed. Intended for emergency planning managers in the police, emergency services, primary care trusts, local authorities and other large public, private or voluntary organizations, this book illustrates how having comprehensive and robust plans can mean the difference between organisational survival and failure.

District Judge Clive Million, Family Law: Tips and Traps - Hints, Help and Precedents, Family Law, Paperback, A4 & CD-ROM, £39.00, ISBN: 9781846610455

This portable ready reference guide provides clear guidance on everyday practical points that arise in district judges' work in the Principal Registry of the Family Division, thus helping to reduce common technical and practice errors. Many of the problems and points identified are familiar and relevant to other family law court centres.

Dolton, Alan, Tolley's VAT Cases 2009, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £129.95, ISBN: 9780754535966

Tolley's VAT Cases 2009 is a concise, portable single-volume publication which contains concise summaries of more than 3,500 essential court and VAT Tribunal decisions, from 1973 to 1 January 2009, relevant to current legislation. Cases are classified into chapters which are arranged alphabetically, making navigation quick and simple, and allowing case summaries from any year to be rapidly located.

Duggan, Michael, Equal Pay: Law and Practice, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £110.00, ISBN: 9781846610882

Written by a leading employ-

ment barrister, Equal Pay Handbook offers a clear and concise guide for practitioners involved in the complex and technical area of equal pay law and practice. With the latest developments in case law this practical guide places emphasis on commentary regarding relevant legislation, rather than simply reproducing legislation and guidelines. It highlights specific issues and areas of risk in relation to potential equal pay claims. Equal Pay Handbook includes everything a practitioner needs to know in one volume.

Eastaway, Nigel A; Eam-
er, Keith; Elliott, Diane; Kennedy, Shan, *Practical
Share Valuation 5th ed*, Tottel
Publishing Ltd, Paperback
+ eBook, £118.47, ISBN:
9781845922320

This in-depth user-friendly guide outlines the very latest accountancy procedures for assessing the worth of a company's shares. The key tax considerations, practical suggestions and tips, accountancy best practice guidelines – everything you need on this key subject is now available from this indispensable resource. Practical Share Valuation 5th edition is up-to-date with the latest legislative and tax developments including The Finance Act 2008, The Companies Act 2006, new case law affecting company law, coverage of the new Accounting Standards, plus essential information on fair value assurance.

Eggers, Peter MacDonald, Deceit: The Lie of the Law, Informa Publishing,
Hardback, £250.00, ISBN:
9781843117957

Deceit: The Lie of the Law will provide a complete and detailed account of the law of deceit as developed over the past two centuries. As the book takes account of the major body of case law dealing with deceit over the past 200 years, it will become an invaluable text for commercial and civil practitioners and a regular source of reference for academics.

Eijvoogel, Peter; van Hooijdonk, M, Litigation in the Netherlands: Civil Procedure, Arbitration and Administrative Litigation,
Kluwer Law International,
Hardback, £48.00, ISBN:
9789041128553

This book offers the ideal way for a foreign lawyer to get in touch with litigation practice and procedure in the Netherlands. Whether a lawyer comes to Dutch litigation in the normal course of business, or whether the brief and inexpensive kort geding (preliminary relief proceedings) is the main attraction, this concise guide provides a solid understanding of the practical implications of Dutch litigation.

Foster, Charles, Choosing Life, Choosing Death: The Tyranny of Autonomy in Medical Ethics and Law, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £22.50, ISBN: 9781841139296

Autonomy is a vital principle in medical law and ethics which occupies a prominent place in all medico-legal and ethical debate. But there is a dangerous presumption that it should have the only vote, or at least the casting vote. This book is an assault on that presumption, and an audit of autonomy's extraordinary status. This book surveys the main issues in medical law, noting in relation to each issue the power wielded by autonomy, asking whether that power can be justified, and suggesting how other principles can and should contribute to the law.

French, Derek, Model Articles of Association for Companies, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199206902

This handy new book provides a reference collection of all the texts of default articles of association which have applied to companies registered since 1856. As such it offers a reference source for lawyers giving advice to private companies on the text of the articles of association relevant the point of formation of the company.

Gallus, Nick, The Temporal Scope of Investment Protection Treaties, British Institute of International and Comparative Law, Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781905221332

This book addresses all aspects of investment protection treaty tribunals' temporal jurisdiction. Specifically, the book examines: the application of the temporal rule to investment protection treaties, including the aspect of the rule providing that a State cannot breach a treaty through acts occurring before the treaty comes into force; circumstances under which a State can breach a treaty through continuing or composite acts beginning before the treaty comes into force; the consequence of State acts after the treaty is signed but before it is ratified; time limits; and disputed arising before an investment protection treaty comes into force.

George, Carolyn; Wright, Stewart; Poynter, Richard; Findlay, Lorna; Stagg, Paul, CPAG: Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit Legislation 2008/2009, Child Poverty Action Group, Paperback, £77.00, ISBN: 9781906076153

Draws together all the legislation governing housing benefit and council tax benefit, with an expert commentary. This book is recognised as the authoritative guide to a particularly complex and continually changing area of law. For this reason it is supplied automatically to all Social Security & Child Support Appeals tribunals (the body dealing with appeals against social security decisions). Practitioners need to use the latest annual edition in order to keep abreast of developments affecting claimants throughout England, Wales and Scotland.

Golder, Ben; Fitzpatrick, Peter, Foucault's Law, Routledge-Cavendish, Paperback, £18.99, ISBN: 9780415424547

Provocative and unorthodox, this is the first book in twenty years to address Foucault's position on law. Engaging with neglected texts, as well as considering Foucault's relationship to other continental thinkers, the authors examine the claim that the law was expelled from Foucault's analysis of modernity. This is a valuable resource for undergraduates and postgraduates studying jurisprudence and social-legal theory.

Gough, Helen, Police and Constabulary Almanac: Official Register 2009, R. Hazell & Co/Shaw & Sons Ltd, Paperback, £32.00, ISBN: 9780721916644

First published in 1858, the Police and Constabulary Almanac is the official Register of Police Forces and the organisations in the United Kingdom. The Police and Constabulary Almanac contains the addresses, telephone numbers and personnel of Home Office and Police Organisations, of Police Forces in England, Wales, Scotland (with maps of Police areas), Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and the Irish Republic; of Ministry of Defence Police, the Services Police, British Transport Police, Airports, Harbours and Docks Police, HM Revenue and Customs, the Gambling Commission, Racecourse Security; Courts, Prisons, Young Offender Institutions, Remand Centres, Police Charities; Associations, etc.; addresses of Motor Licence Authorities; a Motor Index. Fire Brigades, the regional organisation of Ambulance Services in the United Kingdom (with addresses and telephone numbers) and the organisation of Civil Defence and Emergency Planning, together with an extensive Gazetteer of places and Police Stations in the United Kingdom, cross-referenced with Police Forces, and a detailed index complete this valuable work of reference.

Goyder, Joanna; Alborns-Llorens, Albertina, Goyder's EC Competition Law 5th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £39.99, ISBN: 9780199232307; Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199535316

This book provides a detailed analysis of the evolution of evolution of EC Competition Law and policy and of the main substantive and procedural rules that govern it. It covers all the main topics studied on under and postgraduate courses and examines the major recent developments that have taken place in this rapidly changing area of law.

Hadden, Tom, A Responsibility to Assist: Human Rights Policy and Practice in European Union Crisis Management Operations, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £30.00, ISBN: 9781841139340

Hare, Ivan; Weinstein, James, Extreme Speech and Democracy, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9780199548781

A fundamental precept of all liberal democracies is a commitment to free speech. However, democracies differ fundamentally when addressing the constitutionality of laws regulating certain kinds of speech. This book considers the constitutionality of hate speech regulation, and examines how liberal democracies have adopted fundamental differences in the way they respond to racist or extreme expressions.

Keen, Spencer; Oulton, Richard, Disability Discrimination in Employment, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £49.95, ISBN: 9780199232277

There have been sweeping changes to disability legislation in recent years.

Disability Discrimination in Employment considers the impact of the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 which gives disabled people greater employment rights and protection, and also requires public bodies to promote equality of opportunity for disabled people. The authors also analyse the additional guidance on the definition of disability which came into force in May 2006 to update the 1996 guideline, as well as the effects of the Equality Act 2006 and the Equality and Human Rights Commission. This book provides a comprehensive, practical and up to date overview of litigating discrimination claims in the employment tribunal, the Employment Appeal Tribunal, and the Higher Courts. The authors analyse the important cases which cover issues such as: general guidance on the approach to disability discrimination cases; mental impairments; compensation in disability claims; and reasonable adjustments and knowledge.

Kidd, Daniel; Higgins, Gabrielle, Landlords' Consents: A Practical Guide, RICS Books, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9781842194485

The subject of landlords' consents is confusing for many practitioners, and yet most leases contain restrictions on when and how a tenant may assign, sub-let, make alterations or change use. Dealing with these restrictions is a day-to-day part of property management, and therefore a crucial concern for surveyors who must interpret their meaning and either make or respond to applications for consent. Until now there has been no single source of practical guidance to this area. Landlords' Consents: A Practical Guide fills this gap. The first book to approach the area from the surveyor's perspective, it offers accessible advice for those acting on behalf of both landlords and tenants.

Kilkelly, Ursula, ECHR and Irish Law 2nd ed, Jordan Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £120.00, ISBN: 9781846611247

Following the incorporation of the European Convention on Human Rights Act 2003 into Irish Law, a raft of new legislation in areas such as criminal, family and immigration law have raised serious questions of compatibility with the ECHR. Recent legal developments have highlighted that there is now greater potential for using ECHR to positive effect in Irish law. This second edition of ECHR and Irish Law examines the impact of the Act on Irish law and what the effects in case law have been. The work begins with research on the impact of the Act. It includes discussion on the relationship between the ECHR and the Constitution post-incorporation, considering case law in which the Convention has been an issue. It also analyses the latest developments on the Charter

Trade in Hazardous Goods at the Intersection of Sovereignty, Free Trade and Environmental Protection, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £88.00, ISBN: 9789041128218

This ground-breaking study is the first book to take a comprehensive approach to the subject of transboundary shipments of hazardous substances and the instruments employed for regulating such shipments. It fully explains which types of trade regulating instruments are employed by which agreements, and then goes on to evaluate the pros and cons of these instruments with respect to their compatibility with international legal norms, especially WTO law.

Letsas, George, Theory of Interpretation of the European Convention on Human Rights, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780199563883

This book looks at both how the European Convention on Human Rights has been interpreted and how it ought to be interpreted. Unlike a purely doctrinal approach, it aims at proposing an evaluative theory of interpretation for the European Convention on Human Rights. And unlike a purely normative account, it seeks to locate interpretive values within the history of the ECHR by surveying and analysing all the relevant judgements of the European Court of Human Rights. Consequently, the book discusses cases as much as it discusses philosophical theories, seeking to strike the appropriate balance between the two.

Mallat, Chibli, Introduction to Middle Eastern Law, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780199563876

This book provides an introduction to the laws of the Middle East, defining the contours of a field of study that deserves to be called 'Middle Eastern law'. It introduces Middle Eastern law as a reflection of legal styles, many of which are shared by Islamic law and the laws of Christian and Jewish Near Eastern communities. It offers a detailed survey of the foundations of Middle Eastern Law, using court archives and an array of legal sources from the earliest records of Hammurabi to the massive compendia of law in the Islamic classical age through to the latest decisions of Middle Eastern high courts. It focuses on the way legislators and courts conceive of law and apply it in the Middle East. It builds on the author's extensive legal practice, with the aim of introducing the Middle Eastern law's main sources and concepts in a manner accessible to non-specialist legal scholars and practitioners alike.

O'Hara, Erin; Ribstein, Larry E., The Law Market, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £18.99, ISBN: 9780195312898

This book explores a new way of looking at law, not as something that can be changed only through cumbersome political and legislative processes or avoided by physical movement, but as something that can be shopped for in a market. To a significant extent this perspective on the law is already a reality. Wherever they may be located, corporations are free to choose in which state to incorporate (often Delaware) and online shoppers from one state or country who buy from a company located in another state or country usually agree to provisions that dictate the law governing the transaction from yet another state or country. Disconnecting the choice of law from the location of activities creates a market for law that allows the involved parties to choose which jurisdiction will apply to their relationship, contract, or dispute.

The LCIA Arbitration Rules are among the most modern and forward-looking of the various sets of institutional arbitration rules but until now have not been the subject of in-depth study. This is the first full length and comprehensive commentary on the rules, written by two well-known and experienced arbitration practitioners. Portable and functional, this book acts as a guide and provides an indispensable resource for all involved in international arbitration under the LCIA rules.

Waite, Andrew; Jewell, Tim; Jones, Gregory; Fogleman, Valerie, Environmental Law in Property Transactions 3rd

ed, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £70.00, ISBN: 9781845921064

This important book takes the property lawyer or professional through all the environmental issues which arise in day-to-day property transactions, whether for conveyancers or in dealings with landlords and tenants. The third edition is fully updated and includes detailed coverage of all the recent legislative changes.

Warne, Jonathan, International Commercial Dispute Resolution, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9781847661340

This new work reflects the many changes in the litigation arena over recent years, covering the new Civil Procedure Rules in England, the revision of the Brussels

Convention with the Judgment Regulations, and the increased use of ADR and Arbitration as alternatives to litigation. With contributions from leading practitioners, this book covers approximately 20 jurisdictions which represent the major international trade centres and developing legal systems

Waterworth, Michael, Parker's Modern Wills Precedents 6th ed, Tottel Publishing, Hardback + CD-ROM, £91.55, ISBN: 9781847662958

This well-established and highly-regarded publication is renowned above all for its clarity of drafting and is recommended by the Institute of Professional Willwriters. A comprehensive collection of precedents aimed at anyone who needs to draft wills. In addition to the precedents, the book provides notes and guidance on drafting and additional materials, eg letters, support materials and extracts from relevant legislation (eg Inheritance Tax Act). The nil rate band carry forward provisions announced in the pre-budget report will have a significant impact and will be fully covered.

Watson, Philippa, EU Social and Employment Law: Policy and Practice in an Enlarged Europe, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781904501534

This timely book traces the development of EU employment law and social policy. It provides a detailed overview of legislation and case law in the areas of collective and individual employment rights, including redundancies, transfers of undertakings, working time, part-time, fixed term and temporary employment. The author further considers the important provisions concerning equality of treatment on the basis of gender, race, age, disability and religion.

Weber, Dennis, European Direct Taxation: Case Law and Regulations, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, 2 Volumes, £79.00, ISBN: 9789041128232

The key features of this highly useful work are designed to address many of the most common research needs of professionals involved in the field of European direct taxation. Includes summaries of all judgments – and pending cases – of the European Court of Justice covering direction taxation, organized in a thematic fashion. Also features chronological, alphabetical, and case number lists as well as a subject index. Provides consolidated, up-to-date versions of all pertinent regulations as well as relevant working papers and communications of the European Commission.

White, Mark, Theoretical Foundations of Law and Economics, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9780521889551

The economic approach to law, or ‘law and economics’, is by far the most successful application of basic economic principles to another scholarly field, but most of the critical appraisal of the field has been scattered among law reviews and economics journals. Theoretical Foundations of Law and Economics is the first original, book-length examination of the methodology and philosophy of law and economics, featuring new essays written by leading legal scholars, philosophers, and economists.

Wilkie, Margaret; Luxton, Peter; Malcolm, Rosalind, Questions & Answers: Land Law 2009 and 2010, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £12.99, ISBN: 9780199559534

No matter how good your research and study skills, the ultimate test for the law student is the exam. This book explains how to tackle successfully the sort of problems and essay questions typically found in exam papers. The authors clearly guide students through the process of planning and structuring answers, providing advice on what to include, and on what

Wills, Siobhan, Protecting Civilians: Obligations of Troops in International Law, Oxford University Press, hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199533879

This book examines the obligations of troops to prevent serious abuses of human rights towards civilians under international humanitarian law and international human rights law. It analyses the duty to intervene to stop the commission of serious abuses of human rights by analysing the meaning and practical consequences for troops, in terms of civilian protection, of the Article 1 duty to respect and ensure respect for the Geneva Conventions; of the duty to secure human rights (found in most international human rights treaties); and of the duty to restore law and order in an occupation. The book also analyzes the extent of troops' obligations to provide protection in light of various different operational and legal contexts in and discusses 'grey areas' and lacuna of coverage. A discussion of whether new approaches are needed, for example where operations are undertaken explicitly to protect people from serious violations of their human rights follows; and the book concludes by offering some guidelines for troops faced with such violations.

Wilson, Sarah, Todd and Wilson's Textbook on Trusts 9th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9780199553082

Now in its 9th edition Todd & Wilson's Textbook on Trusts continues to strike the balance between introductory texts and the high level challenging texts. Sarah Wilson writes in a clear and enthusiastic way very much with the student in mind to enlighten the more complex issues of trusts law without oversimplification. The book is structured to reflect the content of a typical LLB course and offers in-depth coverage of trusts law. Students are encouraged to engage critically with the material through the real-life examples, key scholarship and consideration of current theoretical perspectives. One of the few trusts and equity textbooks to publish every 2 years, this book can be relied upon as one of the most up-to-date trusts texts available.

Woodley, Mick, Osborn's Concise Law Dictionary 11th

ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £11.95, ISBN: 9781847033086

For over 80 years, Osborn's has been the dictionary of choice for law students. With over 4,700 references from the obscure to the everyday it contains everything needed for the study of law. No matter what the subject, Osborn will cover it with references on Criminal Law, Company Law, International Law through to EU and Constitutional Law. Osborn's also includes an extensive citations list, a useful tool for finding and understanding journal and law report abbreviations.

von Hirsch, Andrew; Ashworth, Andrew; Roberts, Julian, Principled Sentencing: Readings on Theory and Policy 3rd ed, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £25.00, ISBN: 9781841137179

This new, third edition of Principled Sentencing offers students of law, legal philosophy, criminology and criminal justice a comprehensive selection of the leading scholarship on contemporary sentencing. The volume offers readers a wide range of critical readings relating to the key moral, philosophical and policy issues in sentencing today.

To our best knowledge, all particulars are correct at the time of going to press. However, we regret that we cannot accept responsibility for any errors, and wish to advise readers that price and date of publication may be subject to change by the publishers concerned

WAMS – Wildy Account Management System

After months of planning and development Wildy's online Account Management System (WAMS) is up and running and ready to use.

WAMS will allow you to view all aspects of your account online. You will be able to look at invoices issued on your account, outstanding book orders, standing orders and subscriptions, and view full details for each. You can also use the Quick Orders tab to place orders using ISBNs – particularly useful if you are ordering a large number of books at once. Also included are various reports that you can either view on-screen or download to your desktop.

To start using WAMS you will need to register yourself first. Go to <https://accounts.wildy.com> and click on the New User link and enter the details requested. The field for username and password are for you to enter a username and password of your own choice to use when accessing WAMS.

Once you have completed the registration form you will get an automated e-mail to verify your e-mail address, and once we have authenticated your details you will be able to log-in and start using the service.

WAMS supports multiple registrations for each account, so your colleagues can also register themselves as users in the same way.

We have designed WAMS to be easy to use and intuitive, and we hope you will like the look and feel of the site as much as the functionality.

Colour isn't the only thing that sets us apart.

Lester, Pannick & Herberg: Human Rights Law and Practice

Third Edition

Written by three leading experts on human rights, together with a notable team of contributors, this renowned textbook examines the law and practice in the United Kingdom and under the European Convention on Human Rights. It refers to relevant international and comparative human rights law elsewhere in the Commonwealth, Ireland and the United States. The third edition also places the Human Rights Act in context, recalling its history and explaining the roles of Parliament in scrutinising legislation to ensure compatibility with human rights laws.

Practical and accessible for judges, lawyers and students, the third edition includes many new cases and all the information needed to interpret and apply a complicated area of law.

“Now accepted as one of the most authoritative works on human rights in the context of United Kingdom law.”

Accidents Abroad

Edited by Bernard Doherty, Katharine Scott, Colin Thomann, James Burton and Robert Lazarus
Sweet and Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN:
9781847035592, £125.00,
due May 2009

'Accidents Abroad' applies conflict of laws principles specifically to personal injury claims with an international element, so that practitioners are provided with all the information needed when approaching cases about accidents overseas. The book presents concise, accurate analysis on this emerging and complex area of law that no practitioner should be without. It comes at a time when new legislation is radically altering the conflict of laws landscape. Rome II will create an entirely new set of rules for choice of law in tort claims from January 2009, and it seems increasingly certain that the United Kingdom will opt in to Rome I which will likewise provide a new set of rules for choice of law in contract. In addition to detailed coverage of the general principles applicable to personal injury litigation, the book will provide chapter-by-chapter coverage on the special legal regimes governing air, sea, and rail travel, each with its own liability rules and limitation period. Also included are further chapters on cases arising from foreign road traffic accidents and holidays abroad, the most common source of injuries abroad. This essential book highlights the respective conflict rules relating to jurisdiction (whether governed by Brussels I or common law rules) and the law applicable to any given case. It contains specific chapters on limitation, contribution claims, claims arising from death, and the problematic substance/procedure distinction.

Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook 10th edition

Edited by Andrew Barton
LexisNexis Butterworths,
Softcover, ISBN:
9781405744515, £140.00,
due April 2009
'Butterworths Insurance Law Handbook' provides lawyers and those involved in the insurance industry with an invaluable compilation of relevant statutes, statutory instruments, expanded FSA Handbook materials and European legislation applicable to this important area of law. Other useful information includes the rules relating to professional indemnity of solicitors, Association of British Insurers statements, guides and codes of practice and the Motor Insurers' Bureau agreements. The Handbook also covers Insurance Companies, Insurance Intermediaries, Insurance Premium Tax, with specialist insurance categories including Liability and Motor Insurance. The legislation is printed as currently in force (taking into account all amendments, repeals and revocations), with detailed technical annotations regarding commencement, cross-references to other legislation where necessary).

Cross-Border Insolvency: A Commentary on the UNCITRAL Model Law 2nd edition

Edited by Look Chan Ho
Globe Law and Business,
Hardback, ISBN:
9781095783243, £120.00,
due April 2009
Given the current financial market crisis and economic uncertainty, cross-border insolvency is more topical than ever. 'Cross-Border Insolvency: A Commentary on the UNCITRAL Model Law' is an updated, enhanced edition covering the national implementation of the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency. Written by specialists from each jurisdiction, this forthcoming new edition provides an in-depth, article-by-article analysis of the local enactment and application of the model law in each of the jurisdictions concerned, alongside consideration of the relationship between the model law and any existing cross-border insolvency jurisprudence. Each chapter adopts the same format for ease of reference, addressing key concepts such as the centre of main interests, court-to-court communication, enforcement of security interests and the protection of debtors and creditors. New to the second edition are chapters on Australia, the Cayman Islands, New Zealand and South Korea, and an in-depth analysis of recent case law such as the landmark US decisions in Bear Stearns. This major new edition provides an invaluable guide to the local application and comparative analysis of the model law for anyone dealing with cross-border insolvency issues. Lawyers in private practice or in-house, insolvency practitioners, government authorities, academics and students will find this expanded edition an essential addition to their library.

Compulsory Purchase and Compensation 9th edition

Estates Gazette, Softcover,
ISBN: 9780728205741,
£39.99, due June 2009

This popular book is now in its ninth edition and is an established work on the subject. The new edition covers: the powers to compulsorily acquire land, the exercise of those powers, the rules for the assessment of compensation, statutory planning assumptions, disturbance and other losses and claims, compensation where no land is taken, the acquisition of wayleaves by statutory utilities, special compensation procedures, and includes a description of the new powers under the Planning Act 2008.

Making Legal Aid Work: A Handbook for Practitioners

by Vicky Ling and Simon Pugh
Legal Action Group,
Softcover, ISBN:
9781903307687, £40.00,
due April 2009

'Making Legal Aid Work:

a handbook for practitioners' is the ultimate quick reference guide to legal aid and provides key information about all the types of public funding, dealing with common queries which crop up frequently in practice. Adopting a practical, hands-on approach, it is an indispensable purchase for new caseworkers and trainees as well as experienced practitioners. Signposting relevant Legal Services Commission (LSC) material and sources of further information it illustrates how to get and keep LSC contracts, as well as providing invaluable insight into the quality standards required: Specialist Quality Mark, Peer Review and Key Performance Indicators. The authors also provide a policy round-up and consider policy developments including Community Legal Advice Centres and Networks.

Law of Reinsurance in England and Bermuda 3rd edition

by Terry O'Neill and Jan Woloniecki
Sweet and Maxwell,
Hardback, ISBN:
9781847035554, £295.00,
due May 2009

'The Law of Reinsurance in England and Bermuda' offers a comprehensive guide to the law and practice of this complex area of law. A definitive reference source for practitioners, it provides a comprehensive analysis of the law and practice of reinsurance and outlines the nature and purpose of reinsurance. It provides an introduction to the Lloyd's and London market and the Bermuda market. It also looks at the formation of the reinsurance contract and considers the relationship between the reinsurance contract and original insurance contract and discusses the interpretation of clauses in reinsurance contracts. There is an examination of the different types of reinsurance contracts, including marine reinsurance contracts, proportional reinsurance contracts and non-proportional reinsurance contracts while also examining other ways of providing protection including financial reinsurance and alternative risk transfer. This edition Investigates the legal nature and duties of an intermediary and discusses the problems that can arise as a result of conflict of laws issues. It covers procedural issues in reinsurance litigation and arbitration, looks at the regulation of reinsurance and includes coverage of the prospect of insolvency and reinsurance liquidations.

A combined and specialist reference source on the sale and management of flats, the 3rd edition of this practical book provides guidance on all areas of flat conveyancing from the points of view of the developer, landlord and flat buyer. It contains 40 precedents including leases, memorandum and articles of association of tenants' management company, agreements between developers and tenants' management company.

Human Rights: Law and Practice 3rd edition

Edited by Lord Lester of Herne Hill QC, Lord
Pannick QC and Javan
Herberg
LexisNexis Butterworths,
Hardback, ISBN:
9781405736862, £230.00,
due April 2009

This new edition of Lester, 'Pannick and Herberg: Human Rights Law and Practice' has been substantially re-written to take account of the major changes which have occurred in this area of the law. It includes not only an up-to-date summary of European and UK human rights law but also wider international and comparative case law. It places this subject within its wider parliamentary context and connects with other jurisdictions. Issues arising under the Human Rights Act, such as freedom of expression, conscience and belief, freedom of assembly and fair trial receive comprehensive treatment within the text. International Human Rights codes and comparative human rights law elsewhere in the Commonwealth, Ireland and the United States are also discussed. With specific chapters analysing the political history and the role of parliament in its conception and enforcement, this practical book covers all the information you need to interpret the Human Rights Act 1998 and this complicated area of law. It Includes coverage on the UK government's latest Green Paper, Rights and Responsibilities: Developing Our Constitutional Framework.

EC Competition and Telecommunications Law 2nd edition

by Christian Koenig, Andreas Bartosch, Jens-Daniel Braun and Marion

Romes
Kluwer Law International,
Hardback, ISBN:
9789041125644, £159.00,
due April 2009

This new volume updates the groundbreaking analysis of its first edition in 2002, when the EC common regulatory framework for electronic communications networks and services had just entered into force. So much has changed in the intervening years that that this new edition bears little resemblance to its predecessor, with every chapter either extensively altered or entirely new. It remains, however, the most detailed and comprehensive overview available of the application of the EC Treaty's competition rules in the markets for telecommunications and audiovisual media, and of the applicable regulatory framework. In thirteen chapters, each contributed by one or more noted legal authorities in the field, the second edition of EC Competition and Telecommunications Law covers the full range of EC telecommunications law across all major areas of both institutional and substantive law, both on the international and EC levels. Relevant EC media and communications law and relevant aspects of EC competition law are dealt with in detail. While some chapters focus on competition law, others deal primarily with sector-specific regulation. There is practical guidance throughout on procedural matters, alongside analysis of the substantive provisions. Well-known in its first edition, this thoroughly revised and updated version continue to be vital reading for practitioners, in particular those specializing in European competition law and for company and in-house lawyers who are seeking advice on how European law affects their business. As a detailed analysis of the basic legislative and regulatory framework of European telecommunications law, it will be an invaluable reference work for lawyers, judges, regulators, and policymakers in all the EC Member States, as well as for students and teachers of European law.

Disqualification Undertakings: Law and Practice

by Richard Williams
Jordan Publishing,
Hardback, ISBN:
9781846611346, £105.00,
due May 2009

Company directors found to have committed unfit conduct are subject to disqualification from directorships. Where a director offers a disqualification undertaking themselves, they avoid a full hearing of the matter and also typically receive a discounted period of disqualification from the court. 'Disqualification Undertakings: Law and Practice' provides authoritative and practical guidance on navigating the undertakings system and the procedures for applying for leave of an undertaking. This is combined with empirical research on reasons cited in schedules of unfit conduct and periods of disqualification, enabling practitioners to advise clients on the most effective strategies when negotiating terms of undertakings. 'Disqualification Undertakings: Law and Practice' is the only book focusing solely on undertakings; with the number of corporate insolvencies likely to rise over the next few years, this is an ideal volume for those advising the increasing number of people disqualified from directorships.

Digital Copyright 3rd edition

by Simon Stokes
Hart Publishing, Paperback,
ISBN: 9781841139326,
£35.00, due April 2009

The first edition of this book was the first UK text to examine digital copyright together with related areas such as performers' rights, moral rights, database rights and competition law as a subject in its own right, and the second edition dealt with the UK implementation of the 2001 Copyright Directive. Now in its third edition, the book has been updated to address developments in copyright law, database law and moral rights and expanded to cover copyright law and user-generated content, and the development of Web 2.0 and beyond. Important recent UK, EU and US cases are discussed. As the UK Government and the European Commission explore possible changes to copyright law and as both the public and private sectors rely more and more on digital content and services, copyright law continues to be a hotly debated topic. This book helps to put the ongoing copyright debate into perspective and provides practical guidance for those creating or exploiting digital content or technology, whether in academia, the software, information and creative industries, and other areas of the economy. The focus is on the specifics of the law in this area together with the practical aspects, including precedents and precedent checklists dealing with common digital copyright transactions. Both academics and practitioners will find the book an invaluable guide to this rapidly developing field of law.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND LEGAL REFORM IN CHINA

Chao Xi

Law in East Asia Series

ISBN: 9780854900367

306pp. Hardback £65

State-owned enterprise (SOE) reform has been at the heart of China's post-Mao economic reforms. Since early 1990s, a large number of Chinese SOEs have been transformed into joint stock companies, and many of them are now listed on China's domestic stock exchanges. The corporatisation and listing of the SOEs did not, however, bring about significant improvement in their performance or in the manner in which they are governed.

This book examines the effectiveness of the key legal reforms that have been put in place for addressing the governance issues facing Chinese listed companies. The focus is on three important – but understudied – aspects of corporate governance reform in China: regulation of the private sales of corporate control, institutional shareholder activism, and board level monitoring and control. In addition, this book attempts to explore a political economy understanding of formal legal changes in China with particular reference to China's corporate board reform.

Chao Xi is in the Faculty of Law, Chinese University of Hong Kong, and previously taught at the University of London as a Visiting Lecturer in Law. He is the co-author of Doing Business in China (Routledge, 2008) and has contributed articles to a range of journals, including the Journal of Comparative Law and the Journal of Chinese Economic and Business Studies.

INTOLERANCE: DIVIDED SOCIETIES ON TRIAL

Brian Harris OBE, QC

ISBN: 9780854900251

Hardback 300pp.

£19.99

Most of us are intolerant of something, whether it is our neighbour's dog, his politics or the colour of his skin, but we may not always recognize our lack of tolerance. By making extensive use of surviving court documentation from famous - and not so famous - trials, Brian Harris is able to explore several issues that have given rise to deep-rooted divisions within Western society, such as slavery, religion and homosexuality. The result is a highly readable narrative, which often challenges traditional interpretations of the cases concerned, punctuated throughout by the author's pertinent insights into the personalities, events and legal processes of the day.

The cases include the 'witches' of Salem whose tragic story was plundered by Arthur Miller in his play, The Crucible, the execution of a seventy-year-old woman for giving shelter to a man on the run from England's last rebellion, the prosecution of a schoolteacher for teaching evolution, the persecution of Oscar Wilde and the prosecution of Penguin Books for publishing Lady Chatterley's Lover. Intolerance: Divided Societies on Trial provides an engaging and thought-provoking account of man's intolerance to man through the ages.

THE MAN WHO SHOT THE PRESIDENT AND OTHER LAWYERS

By
Eric Stockdale

ISBN: 9780854900299
Hardback 118pp
£14.95

In From Wig and Pen to Computer the author made brief references to his practice and wrote about his experience as a writer of articles and books on legal and allied topics. In the present book he gives an amusing account of some of his more entertaining and interesting cases while at the Bar and on the Bench, coupled with revealing stories about some of his contemporaries in the law. It is likely to prove an acceptable gift for law students, lawyers and laymen alike.

Sir Mark Potter, in his Foreword, comments: 'This book is a treasure house of anecdote and reminiscence.' He goes on to describe it as 'a fascinating patchwork assembled from the varied fabric of a career at the Bar of a kind which has all but disappeared in the age of increased specialisation, followed by 22 years as a humane and humorous Circuit Judge before whom advocates and litigants alike were treated with fairness, courtesy and consideration.'

For a limited period and when purchased together, The Man Who Shot the President and From Wig and Pen to Computer is being offered for the special price of £25

FROM WIG AND PEN TO COMPUTER REFLECTIONS OF A LEGAL AUTHOR

By
Eric Stockdale

ISBN: 9780854900220

Hardback 152pp

Eric Stockdale left school at 14 and went to work in wartime London. After two years in the post-war Army he was called to the Bar at the age of 21 and appointed a Circuit judge shortly after his 43rd. birthday. He took early retirement at 65 and then heard Criminal Injuries Compensation appeals for ten years.

When he became a barrister in 1950 he was a young man with an unusual background, which included 'a pathetic attempt' (his words) to follow several relatives into journalism. After his failure to break into Fleet Street, Eric Stockdale decided to earn his living from chambers in the adjoining Temple. His ability to write led to the publication of many articles, followed by books on criminal justice and historical topics, culminating with two works inspired by the links of many leaders of the American Revolution with his own Inn of Court, the Middle Temple. As this book is about his experiences as a legal author, it also deals briefly with his life in the law and describes how he became interested in the different subjects about which he wrote.

Sir Igor Judge, in his Foreword, comments: 'This is a remarkable story by any standards,' and adds, 'much is written humorously.' The reader, whether lawyer or layman, is likely to concur with that judgment.
