MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Adams, Trevor; Longshaw, Alexis; Morris, Christopher, College of Law LPC: Business Law and Practice 2009/2010, College of Law Publishing, Paperback, A4, £28.95, ISBN: 9781905391752

Business Law and Practice provides a detailed guide to the forms of business organisation most commonly encountered in practice, examining their internal concerns, their relationships with outsiders and a broad overview of their possible tax liabilities. As such, the book provides a comprehensive and practical introduction to advising businesses, whatever their structure. This edition has been revised to take account of all the changes brought in by the Companies Act 2006 and reflects the law in force as at October 2009. An implementation timetable is included, as is a table indicating the destinations of the commonly used sections of the 1985 Act.

Armour, Douglas, The ICSA Company Secretary's Checklists 6th ed, ICSA Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £37.95, ISBN: 9781860723780

As with previous editions, the new edition of The ICSA Company Secretary's Checklists provides summary procedural details for the most common company secretarial tasks and transactions. The Checklists also includes a comprehensive directory of web resources. Practical and accessible, The ICSA Company Secretary's Checklists is an essential handy reference guide for anyone carrying out a range of company secretarial duties, and an invaluable companion to The ICSA Company Secretary's Handbook

Arnaldez, Jean-Jacques; Derains, Yves; Hascher, Dominique, Collection of ICC Arbitral Awards 2001-2007, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £200.00, ISBN: 9789041128775

The Collection of ICC Ar-

Arbitral Awards 2001 - 2007 contains extracts of cases handled by the ICC Court of Arbitration, one of the world's most respected arbitral institutions. This most recent collection supplements four previous and successful volumes containing awards from the periods 1974-1985, 1986-1990, 1991-1995 and 1996-2000. This compilation is a practical reference tool, containing three types of useful indexes incorporating information from all four previous volumes.

Arnold-Baker, Charles; Clayden, Paul, Local Council Administration 8th ed, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £67.00, ISBN: 9781405736886

Arnold-Baker: Local Council Administration is a complete statement of the law relating to parish and community councils, in the form of an extensive though succinct narrative accompanied by comprehensive statutory materials. Now in its eight edition, this work has been thoroughly revised and updated to take into account recent legislation since the previous edition, including the Planning Act 2008, the Commons Act 2006 and the Local Government and Public Involvement in Health Act 2007.

Barlow, Francis; Sherrin, Christopher; Wallington, Richard; Meadway, Susannah; Waterworth, Michael, Williams on Wills 9th ed: 1st Supplement, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £86.00, ISBN: 9781405726672

This new supplement brings your copy of Williams on Wills fully up-to-date with all the recent legislative changes in wills and probate.

Beale, Simon, Insolvency and Restructuring Manual, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781847661487

This new book is a comprehensive guide to the principles and procedures of corporate insolvency. It examines and explains a number of specialist topics, including antecedent transactions, position of directors, financial institutions and cross-border issues. For greater clarity and understanding, this practical new title uses flowcharts, diagrams and examples throughout.

Beggs, John; Davies, Hugh, Police Misconduct, Com-

plaints, and Public Regulation, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199546183

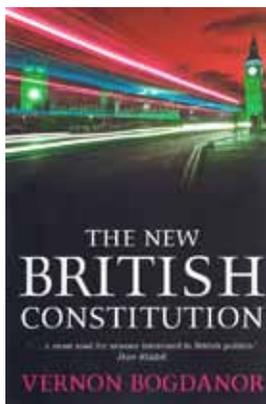

Police Misconduct, Complaints and Public Regulation covers the highly sensitive topic of who polices the police. It provides comprehensive coverage of the law and procedure relating to the regulation of the police - setting out comprehensive guidance on practice at complaints and misconduct hearings, as well as detailed analysis of the powers of the IPCC and of its statutory guidance.

Bercusson, Brian, Law in Context: European Labour Law 2nd ed, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £48.00, ISBN: 9780521613507

European Labour Law explores how individual European national legal systems, in symbiosis with the European Union, produce a transnational labour law system that is distinct and genuinely European in character. Professor Brian Bercusson describes the evolution of this system, its national, transnational and global contexts and its institutional and substantive structures.

Bogdanor, Vernon, The New British Constitution, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841131498

The British constitution, for so long considered entrenched by tradition and history has, since 1997, undergone a process unique in the democratic world - piecemeal transformation from uncodified to codified status.

This process, spear-headed by the Human Rights Act and devolution to the non-English parts of the United Kingdom (at present there exists neither the political will nor the consensus to go further) has created a new constitution, characterised by limitation of the powers of Parliament.

Bridge, David, Companies in Difficulty: A Guide for Directors

tors, ICSA Publishing Ltd, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9781860724275

Important issues can arise for the directors of companies which find themselves in financial difficulty. In such circumstances it can be difficult for company directors to arrive at the best strategy for safeguarding the interests of their companies whilst complying with their statutory and fiduciary duties, a breach of which can result in a fine, disqualification, liability to contribute to the company's assets or even a prison sentence. This book points out the early warning signs that a customer or supplier may be in difficulty and the action required, and covers the contractual and procedural safeguards for ensuring that your company gets paid or its goods returned.

Brooke, Nicolas, The French Code of Civil Procedure in English 2008, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £84.00, ISBN: 9780195378474

The French Code of Civil Procedure in English 2008 provides an expert translation of the complete Civil Code of France. The French Civil Code, a descendant of the Code Napoleon, provides a detailed description of the court system, including appeals and arbitration procedures, as well as the laws governing all aspects of French life, from public elections to marriage and divorce. The 2008 edition reflects changes made to the Code since June 2007. It also includes footnotes explaining hard-to-translate terms, an extensive glossary of French legal terms, and a practical topic index.

Brown, Alastair N., Brown: Money Laundering, W. Green, Hardback, £110.00, ISBN: 9780414014459

This new title provides a clear, comprehensive guide to a complex area of law which affects everyone who works in the financial services industry and everyone who opens a bank account.

The law is analysed and explained with reference to the Money Laundering Directive and the work of the Financial Action Task Force, as well as to the important guidance issued by the Joint Money Laundering Steering Group.

Browne, Kevin; Catlow, Margaret, College of Law LPC: Civil Litigation 2009/2010, College of Law Publishing, Paperback, A4, £28.95, ISBN: 9781905391769

Civil Litigation is a thorough, up to date and practical introduction to the Civil Procedure Rules and the principles and tactics used in pursuing a civil case. The civil process has been divided into five stages, starting with pre-action considerations, moving on to examine the issue and service of proceedings, before considering interim matters, trial and enforcement. The aim of the book is to equip readers with the necessary knowledge to enable them successfully to navigate their way through these stages.

Brudner, Alan, Punishment and Freedom: A Liberal Theory of Penal Justice, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199207251

This book sets out a new understanding of the penal law of a liberal legal order. The prevalent view today is that the penal law is best understood from the standpoint of a moral theory concerning when it is fair to blame and censure an individual character for engaging in proscribed conduct. By contrast, this book argues that the penal law is best understood by a political and constitutional theory about when it is permissible for the state to restrain and confine a free agent.

Burn, E. H. ; Cartwright, John, Maudsley & Burn's Land Law: Cases and Materials 9th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £35.99, ISBN: 9780199226177

Incorporating a fresh new text design, the ninth edition of Maudsley and Burn's Land Law Cases and Materials provides an authoritative account of land law. It includes important extracts from judgements of leading cases, which highlight the key issues for students to consider.

Chidgey, Peter; Nendick, Sarah, Implementing GAAS 2009 - 2010: A Practical Guide to Auditing and Reporting, CCH Editions, Paperback, £64.00, ISBN: 9781847981448

The only single source reference you need on the application of all the current International Standards on Auditing (UK & Ireland). Up-to-date with company law and other legislation, Implementing GAAS 2009-10 also provides Practice Notes and Bulletins issued by the APB and APC at 30 April 2009.

Clarke, Kamari Maxine, Fictions of Justice: The In-

International Criminal Court and the Challenge of Legal Pluralism in Sub-Saharan Africa, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £17.99, ISBN: 9780521717793

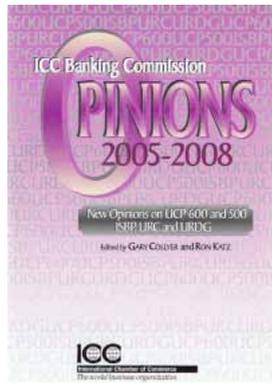

By taking up the challenge of documenting how human rights values are embedded in rule of law movements to produce a new language of international justice that competes with a range of other formations, this book explores how notions of justice are negotiated through everyday micropractices and grassroots contestations of those practices.

Clayden, Paul, The Councillor 13th ed, Shaw & Sons Ltd, Paperback, £14.95, ISBN: 9780721908540

Since it was first published in 1950, The Councillor has been the best available guide to the duties and responsibilities of the elected council member.

Collyer, Gary; Katz, Ron, ICC Banking Commission Opinions 2005 - 2008: New Opinions on UCP 600 and 500, ISBP, URC and URDG, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £92.00, ISBN: 9789041131898

UCP 600, ICC's newly revised rules on documentary credits gave rise to queries from banks, lawyers and shippers worldwide, and this latest Opinions book, the first in four years, provides precise answers to the key questions raised. The 79 Opinions in this book include the first Opinions rendered on UCP 600, ICC's universally used rules on documentary credits, which came into effect on 1 July 2007.

Cullet, Philippe, Water Law, Poverty and Development: Water Sector Reforms in India, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199546237

This monograph comprehensively examines water law regulations and reform in the present decade, going beyond a simple analysis of existing water law and regulations to encompass environmental, social, economic, and human rights aspects of water as a natural resource.

Daigneault, Edward W., Drafting International Agreements in Legal English: Pocket Guide 2nd ed, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, Pocket Size, £40.00, ISBN: 9789041131614

Any document leaving the desk of a lawyer, company officer or, for that matter, any other person may have legal consequences. This implies a tremendous range of documents. For simplicity and acknowledging the most practical use as employed by non-native speakers, the examples used in this manual focus on the contents of documents having a commercial impact, particularly those establishing a contractual relationship. Even so, practical guidelines presented in this pocket guide, should result in all legal writing, being brief, clear and precise.

Denbow, Claude, Life Insurance Law in the Caribbean Commonwealth 2nd ed, Tottel Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9781847663641

Providing a comprehensive study of the English law of life insurance as it applies in Trinidad and Tobago, this book deals with the relevance of the doctrines and terminologies it has absorbed and adopted from other jurisdictions and provides a detailed overview of the many crucial issues of modern life insurance.

Endicott, Timothy, Administrative Law, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9780199277285 Administrative Law aims to explain the constitutional principles that underlie the varieties of administrative law, and to give some unity to the diverse topics that students need to master in order to understand this complex branch of public law. The book uses the law of judicial review to identify and explain the constitutional principles, and then proceeds to show how those principles ought to be worked out in the private law of tort and contract, in the new Tribunals Service, and in non-judicial techniques such as investigations by ombudsmen, auditors, and other government agencies.

Family Law Bar Association; FLBA, At a Glance 2009/10: Essential Court Tables for Ancillary Relief, Family Law Bar Association, Paperback, £45.00, ISBN:

9781859592199

Now in its 18th annual edition. Over 100 pages of vital facts and figures, fully updated every year. Published by the Family Law Bar Association, and produced and distributed by leading family law software providers Class Legal. Truly essential for anyone working in ancillary relief.

Farrall, Jeremy, United Nations Sanctions and the Rule of Law, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £31.99, ISBN: 9780521141987

Farrall traces the evolution of the Security Council's sanctions powers and charts the contours of the UN sanctions system. He also evaluates the extent to which the Security Council's increasing commitment to strengthening the rule of law extends to its sanctions practice. The book identifies shortcomings in respect of key rule of law principles and advances pragmatic policy-reform proposals designed to ensure that UN sanctions promote, strengthen and reinforce the rule of law. In its appendices United Nations Sanctions and the Rule of Law contains summaries of all 25 UN sanctions regimes established to date by the Security Council.

Fleck, Dieter, The Handbook of International Humanitarian Law 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9780199573165

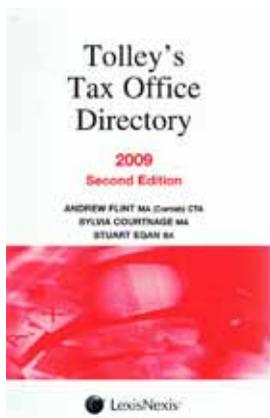

This second edition of this work sets out a comprehensive and analytical manual of international humanitarian law, accompanied by case analysis and extensive explanatory commentary by a team of distinguished and internationally renowned experts. This edition also incorporates new chapters covering the law of non-international armed conflicts and international peace operations. Highly topical issues including the role of the UN Security Council, the relevance of International Humanitarian Law in peacetime and post-conflict military operations, and war crimes trials in national and international courts are also discussed.

This complete guide brings together all the contact information needed by tax, financial and business advisers. It contains essential addresses, telephone numbers and fax numbers within Government revenue departments, all individually checked for accuracy. The Directory has been expanded to make the finding of information quick and easy, and to include added commentary.

Fox, William F., International Commercial Agreements: A Primer on Drafting, Negotiating and Resolving Disputes 4th ed, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £120.00, ISBN: 9789041126702

Reinforcing the book's concentration on the private dimensions of international trade, and more precisely on the contractual aspects of that trade, this new edition extends its coverage to the newest growing dimensions of the field, with new chapters on intellectual property, international electronic commerce, and online dispute resolution.

Gardner, Simon, An Introduction to Land Law 2nd ed, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £17.95, ISBN: 9781841139807

The rules of land law are numerous, complex, and in some cases baffling to students and the study of land law is also often portrayed as dull. This book tries to make a difference. It aims to tell the rules' story: to talk about them in terms of the work they do, in a way that will allow readers to understand and engage with them. And through the examples it offers, it aims also to give students the confidence, spur and tools to go on to develop such perspectives for themselves.

Garton, Jonathan, The Regulation of Organised Civil Society, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £47.00, ISBN: 9781841138008

Although much has been written on organised civil society - the loose collective of organisations that operate outside the public sector, the private market and the family unit - over the past thirty years, there has been little jurisprudential analysis. This is in spite of the fact that a number of jurisdictions, including England, New Zealand, Northern Ireland and Scotland, have recently implemented major reforms to the regulatory frameworks in which civil society organisations operate, with a particular emphasis on the charitable sectors. Redressing the balance, this monograph considers from first principles when it is appropriate to regulate organised civil society and how that regulation might best be accomplished.

Gerber, Kenneth, Commercial Leases in Scotland: A Practitioner's Guide, W. Green, Hardback & CD-ROM, £76.13, ISBN: 9780414017283

This new title deals with all the main aspects of Scottish commercial lease law and importantly will include a brief comparison with English lease law on a topic by topic basis. Commercial Leases in Scotland contains a comprehensive treatment of the principles of common law in relation to commercial leases.

SOFT SKILLS FOR LAWYERS

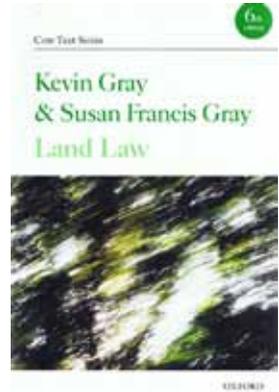

Giuseppe Giusti

Chelsea Publishing
— London —

Giusti, Giuseppe, Soft Skills for Lawyers, Chelsea Publishing, Paperback, £14.95, ISBN: 9780955892608

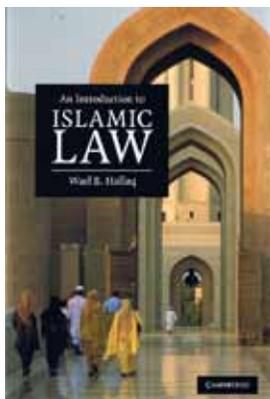

Every senior lawyer will tell you that the ability to deal with people effectively and politely (also known as “soft skills”) is just as important as, if not more important than, technical skills. Written by a practising City lawyer, Soft Skills for Lawyers contains practical suggestions for lawyers on how to deal with people in every different work situation and covers topics such as verbal and non-verbal communication, body language, business etiquette, marketing, public speaking and time and stress management.

Gray, Kevin; Gray, Susan Francis, Core Text Series: Land Law 6th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £23.99, ISBN: 9780199565658

Gray and Gray's Land Law not only covers all the core topics covered on undergraduate courses in an appropriate level of detail, but brings the subject to life through critical analysis and a contextual approach that explores the social, political and economic significance of land law. The book adopts a user-friendly approach that makes use of self-test questions, diagrams and summaries to emphasise key issues and illuminate areas of difficulty or controversy. A broad range of further reading is also included at the end of each chapter to aid with further in-depth research.

Hallaq, Wael, An Introduction to Islamic Law, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9780521861465 Paperback, £17.99, ISBN: 9780521678735

The study of Islamic law can be a forbidding prospect for those entering the field for the first time. Wael Hallaq, a leading scholar and practitioner of Islamic law, guides students through the intricacies of the subject in this absorbing introduction. The book, which includes a chronology, a glossary of key terms, and lists of further reading, will be the first stop for those who wish to understand the fundamentals of Islamic law, its practices and history.

Halliday, Simon; Schmidt, Patrick, Conducting Law and

Society Research: Reflections on Methods and Practices, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780521720427

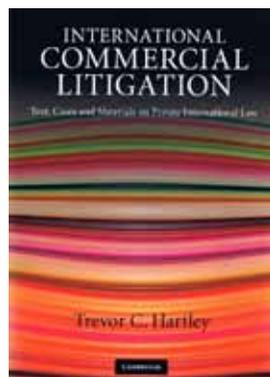

Through interviews with many of the most noteworthy authors in law and society, Conducting Law and Society Research takes students and scholars behind the scenes of empirical scholarship, showing the messy reality of research methods. The challenges and the uncertainties, so often missing from research methods textbooks, are revealed in candid detail.

Hartley, Hazel, Sport, Physical Recreation and the Law, Routledge, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780415321853

Sport, Physical Recreation and the Law is the first textbook on this difficult subject for students and practitioners in sport and physical recreation. Covering a wide range of legal principles and cases, this textbook introduces the reader to legal systems, terminology, databases and the use of case law.

Hartley, Trevor, International Commercial Litigation: Text, Cases and Materials on Private International Law, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £48.00, ISBN: 9780521687485

This carefully structured, practice-orientated textbook provides everything the law student needs to know about international commercial litigation. The strong comparative component provides a thought-provoking international perspective, while at the same time allowing readers to gain unique insights into litigation in English courts.

Havers, Patti, Havers' Companion to the Bar 2009 - 2010, Havers' Directories Ltd, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780954075286

Herring, Jonathan, Great Debates: Criminal Law, Palgrave Macmillan, Paperback, £18.99, ISBN: 9780230577237

This is an innovative and engaging account of the debates underpinning criminal law in England and Wales and how they have shaped legal events and policy. Ideal for the able student or interested reader. This title presents the key tensions and questions underlying the criminal law, thus setting legal developments in their philosophical and cultural context and enlivening the subject as an area of current debate.

Hindelang, Steffen, Free Movement of Capital and Foreign Direct Investment: The Scope of Protection in EU Law, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780199572656

Opening with a timely re-statement of the central features of the EU law of free movement of capital, the book then asks the central question: What rights does a private market participant, engaged in cross-border direct investment originating from or directed to a non-EU Member State, enjoy by virtue of the EC Treaty? The book argues that in principle, the provisions on free movement of capital apply the same liberal standards irrespective of whether intra Community or third country direct investment is involved.

Hollowell, Sara; Bruce, Martha, A Practical Guide to Memorandum and Articles of Association 2nd ed, ICSA Publishing Ltd, Paperback & CD-ROM, £39.95, ISBN: 9781860724312

This new edition will prove an invaluable resource for anyone seeking guidance on how to draft, amend or interpret their company's memorandum and articles of association in light of the changes of law brought into force by the Companies Act 2006.

As the basic constitutional documents of a company, the memorandum and articles of association provide the framework within which a company must operate, and practical guidance on the status and content of these is provided in the context of both the Companies Act 1985 and the Companies Act 2006 provisions, including those provisions to be implemented on 1 October 2009.

Honnold, John O.; Flechtner, Harry, Uniform Law for International Sales under the 1980 UN Convention 4th ed, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £128.00, ISBN: 9789041127532

Now ratified by 73 countries from every geographical region, representing every stage of economic development and every major legal and economic system, the United Nations Convention on Contracts of the International Sales of Goods (CISG) has changed the way international sales contracts are drafted and resulting disputes settled. In the decade since the Third Edition of Professor John Honnold's classic commentary, there has been vast growth in the number of decisions from tribunals around the world which have applied the CISG, an explosion of new scholarly analyses of the Convention, and remarkable developments in the research infrastructure that permits access to those materials. This Fourth Edition retains the original's incisive article-by-article commentary, as well as its insistence on how the parties' duties and the corresponding remedies need to work together ('like scissor-blades,' to quote Professor Honnold's vivid simile) and the many concrete examples that illustrate and test the Convention's response to problems that arise in international trade. It deals definitively with the crucial aspects of sales contracts, including the following, taking fully into account the myriad variations among distinct legal systems:

Hudson, Alastair, Equity and Trusts 6th ed, Routledge-Cavendish, Paperback, £32.99, ISBN: 9780415497718

Alastair Hudson's Equity and Trusts is an ideal textbook for undergraduate courses on the law of trusts and equitable remedies. It provides a clear, current and comprehensive account of the subject through which the author's enthusiasm and expertise shine through, helping to bring to life an area of the law which students often find difficult.

Jokela, Antti; Ervo, Laura; Gräns, Minna, Europeanization of Procedural Law and the New Challenges to Fair Trial, Europa Law Publishing, Paperback, £45.00, ISBN: 9789089520050

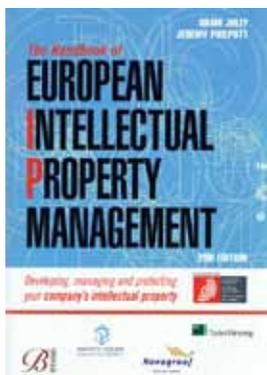

Despite European integration, judicial procedure has long remained autonomous,

i.e. a purely national regulatory object. In recent years, however, it has been possible to notice increasing traces of the Europeanization of procedural Law on multiple levels. The rapid internationalization development of procedural law advancing on multiple levels sets challenges to the research of procedural law as well as to the conduct of judicial procedure. The aim of this research project is to meet these requirements as fully as possible.

Jolly, Adam; Philpott, Jeremy, The Handbook of European Intellectual Property Management: Protecting, Developing and Exploiting Your IP Assets 2nd ed, Kogan Page Ltd, Hardback, £29.95, ISBN: 9780749455910 Produced in association with the European Patent Office, The Handbook of European Intellectual Property shows how enterprises can use the IP system within Europe to develop an effective commercial strategy, exploit an innovation, find a clear route to market and raise funds. Drawing on a wide range of commercial experience and professional expertise, it provides a practical account of how businesses can put IP at the heart of their business and manage it as an asset.

Keane, Ronan; O'Neill, Ailbhe, Corporate Governance and Regulation, Round Hall Press, Hardback, £151.00, ISBN: 9781858005195
Corporate Governance and Regulation: An Irish Perspective brings together contributions from practitioners and academics concerning issues in corporate governance in Ireland in the 21st Century. Covering such diverse topics such as auditors' duties, the role of the board in a takeover bid and the problems of enforcing company law, the collection is both of academic interest and practical use.

Kershaw, David, Company Law in Context: Text and Materials, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £33.99, ISBN: 9780199215942
Company Law in Context

is an ideal main text for company law and corporate governance courses at both undergraduate and postgraduate level. In this sophisticated book, David Kershaw combines commentary and explanation (55%) with the primary case and statutory materials (45%). The book places the study of company law in its economic, business, and social context in order to make more accessible and relevant the cases, statutes, and other forms of regulation that make up company law. One technique deployed by the book to contextualise company law is the use of a simple case study that tracks, through the different chapters of the book, the development and expansion of a business - from sole trader to listed company.

King, Lesley; Tookey, Mike, College of Law LPC: Accounts for Solicitors 2009/2010, College of Law Publishing, Paperback, A4, £28.95, ISBN: 9781905391738

Accounts for Solicitors is a practical introduction to a subject that all practising solicitors need to understand. The text is divided into two parts: the first explains fundamental accounting concepts to allow students to read and interpret end of year accounts; the second deals with the accounts of solicitors and, in particular, the need to account for a client's money in accordance with the Solicitors' Accounts Rules. Written in simple, non-technical language, Accounts for Solicitors provides a clear and comprehensive introduction to this complex subject with worked examples, self-test sections and key learning points at the end of each chapter to help illustrate and reinforce the unfamiliar, and often difficult, concepts involved.

Kodilinye, Gilbert, Commonwealth Caribbean Tort Law 4th ed, Routledge-Cavendish, Paperback, £49.99, ISBN: 9780415492775

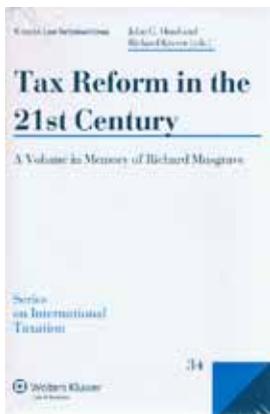

Tort law is a subject of primary importance in the study and practice of common law in the Caribbean. This work is now well established as the leading text on tort law in the region, and the fourth edition incorporates developments in law and legal thinking, including recent case law concerning defamation, privacy and vicarious liability.

Krever, Richard; Head, John, Tax Reform in the 21st Century: A Volume in Memory of Richard Musgrave, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £76.00, ISBN: 9789041128294

No government can be sustained without the ability to tax its citizens. The question then arises how can a nation do so in a way that's fair and equitable to taxpayers while simultaneously promoting economic growth and providing the state with the funds it needs to adequately address the needs of its citizens? This insightful work, featuring contributions from a stellar array of international tax experts and economists, addresses the crucial, relevant issues which developed countries will confront in the early decades of the 21st century.

Laird, Ian A.; Weiler, Todd J.; Mocheva, Nina P., Investment Treaty Arbitration and International Law: Volume 2, Juris Publishing, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9781933833262

This publication contains the papers and proceedings of Juris Conferences' Second Annual Conference on Investment Treaty Arbitration and reflects a trend that also exists in investment treaty arbitration: a coming together of the new and the familiar. The conference format included a group of eight “up and coming” members of the investment treaty arbitration bar, who drafted the papers that appear in the chapters of this book. The topics of their papers were discussed and debated amongst a group of investment arbitration veterans, many of whom are currently drafting the awards and treatises that have and will form the corpus of international investment law. Their contributions to this project can be found in the four-session transcripts also contained within this volume.

McGowan, Stephen J., Licensing and Gambling Law in Scotland: A Practical Guide, Avizandum Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781904968306

The law and practice surrounding the operation of licensed and gambling premises have been radically overhauled in recent years. The Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Gambling Act 2005 have introduced new forms of licence, increased supervisory powers and made approved training mandatory. This practical and accessible text is a guide to how the 2005 statutes work in practice. It uses real-life and colourful examples to illustrate how the licensing laws operate in the real world, addresses potential problems and pitfalls and offers solutions to them. It also examines how other regulatory regimes - planning, building standards, private security, environmental health and copyright - might impact on licenced premises.

McQueen, Rob, A Social History of Company Law: Great Britain and the Australian Colonies 1854-1920, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780754621683

The history of incorporations legislation and its administration is intimately tied to changes in social beliefs in respect to the role and purpose of the corporation. By studying the evolution of the corporate form in Britain and a number of its colonial possessions, the book illuminates debates on key concepts including the meanings of laissez faire, freedom of commerce, the notion of corporate responsibility and the role of the state in the regulation of business.

Mental Health Act Commission, Coercion and Consent: Monitoring the Mental Health Act 2007-2009, The Stationery Office, Paperback, A4, £25.00, ISBN: 9780113228362

On 1 April 2009, the functions and resources of the Mental Health Act Commission (MHAC) were merged into those of the Care Quality Commission and Health Inspectorate for Wales. Published posthumously, this is the MHAC's final report, which collates information on the use of powers in the Mental Health Act in England and Wales for the two-year period 2007/08 and 2008/09. The MHAC was established alongside the Mental Health Act 1983 to monitor, on behalf of the Secretary of State, the operation of its powers and discharge of its duties in respect of patients detained in hospital.

Mills, Alex, The Confluence of Public and Private International Law: Justice, Pluralism and Subsidiarity in the International Constitutional Ordering of Private Law, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £24.99, ISBN: 9780521731300

A sharp distinction is usually drawn between public international law, concerned with the rights and obligations of states with respect to other states and individuals, and private international law, concerned with issues of jurisdiction, applicable law and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in international private law disputes before national courts. Through the adoption of an international systemic perspective, Dr Alex Mills challenges this distinction by exploring the ways in which norms of public international law shape and are given effect through private international law. Based on an analysis of the history of private international law, its role in US, EU, Australian and Canadian federal constitutional law, and its relationship with international constitutional law, he rejects its conventional characterisation as purely national law. He argues instead that private international law effects an international ordering of regulatory authority in private law, structured by international principles of justice, pluralism and subsidiarity.

Mosey, David, Early Contractor Involvement in Building Procurement: Contracts, Partnering and Project Management, Wiley-Blackwell, Hardback, £59.50, ISBN: 9781405196451

Commentators from Banwell to Egan have recommended earlier contractor appointments, and this has also been linked to successful project partnering. How are the two related? Early Contractor Involvement in Building Procurement considers the case for a two stage procurement approach based on a system of agreed project processes during the preconstruction phase. It examines the ways in which a contract can describe and support this model throughout its procurement, partnering and project management, and is illustrated with case studies taken from projects and programmes across the construction and engineering industry.

Mozolin, V.P.; Masliaev, A.I.; Butler, William E. (Translator), Russian Civil and Commercial Law: General Provisions, Ownership, Wildy,

Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780854900473

The present volume is the first of five which collectively comprise one of the three major treatises in the Russian language devoted to civil and commercial law. Under the editorship of two of Russia's most distinguished civilists, this work originally appeared in 1997 and in a second edition in the year 2000, reissued in 2007. The authors have made substantial additions, corrections and emendations for this English-language version as late as February 2009. There has never been a comparable treatment of modern Russian civil law in the English language.

ford University Press, Paperback, £31.99, ISBN: 9780199561124

Murphy on Evidence is firmly established as a leading text for use on undergraduate law courses and in preparation for professional examinations. Frequently consulted by judges and practitioners, it has come to be regarded as a work of authority throughout the common law world. It bridges the gap between academic and practical treatments of the law of evidence, containing detailed academic analysis of the law alongside a wealth of practical information about how the law is applied in the courtroom.

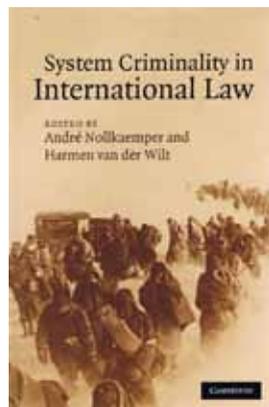

Niemi, Johanna; Ramsay, Iain; Whitford, William C., Consumer Credit, Debt and Bankruptcy: Comparative and International Per- spectives, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781841132587

This book, which is primarily about credit, debt and the trouble they have led to, is written by authors who have specialised in researching into over-indebtedness, that is, situations in which an individual's debt burden has become overwhelming. For these authors the plight of individuals is a primary concern, but the wider issue is how credit is used and how it changes societies. The essays in this volume, addressing topics which are fundamental to our understanding of the current crisis, range widely across the whole sector of consumer finance, including mortgages, 'credit-binges', the regulation of consumer lending, insolvency, repayment plans, debt counselling and much more besides.

Phillips, Douglas, E., The Software License Unveiled: How Legislation by License Controls Software Access, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £78.00, ISBN: 9780195341874

Nearly every use of a computer is subject not only to public intellectual property law, but also to the privately-written law of the software license. Although the United States has only one Copyright Act and one set of patent laws, there exist thousands of different licenses - to which millions of computer users legally bind themselves by the click of a mouse, usually without reading anything but the word “agree.” How do these proliferating but largely unread licenses affect access to software, one of the economy’s most valuable resources? In The Software License Unveiled, visionary practitioner Doug Phillips aims to illuminate the unseen law of software to which the software license gives rise.

Prest, Wilfrid, Blackstone and his Commentaries: Biography, Law, History, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841137964

One of the most celebrated works in the Anglo-American legal tradition, William Blackstone’s Commentaries on the Laws of England (1765-9) has recently begun to attract renewed interest from legal and other scholars. The Commentaries no longer dominate legal education as they once did, especially in North America during the century after their first publication. But they continue to be regularly cited in the judgments of superior courts of review on both sides of the Atlantic, and elsewhere throughout the common-law world. The life and character of Blackstone himself, the nature and sources of his jurisprudence as expounded in the Commentaries, and the impact of his great book, both

Probert, Rebecca, Marriage Law and Practice in the Long Eighteenth Century: A Reassessment, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9780521516150

This book uses a wide range of primary sources – legal, literary and demographic – to provide a radical reassessment of eighteenth-century marriage. It disproves the widespread assumption that couples married simply by exchanging consent, demonstrating that such exchanges were regarded merely as contracts to marry and that marriage in church was almost universal outside London.

Radevsky, Anthony; Greenish, Damian, Hague on Leasehold Enfranchisement 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, £185.00, ISBN: 9781847031341

Hague on Leasehold Enfranchisement gives you comprehensive, detailed guidance on each stage of the leasehold enfranchisement process. Hague sets out the rights and responsibilities of the landlord and tenant, deals with the intricacies of qualification and valuation, and also covers the related areas of mortgages, sub-tenants and trusts. Hague includes full interpretation of relevant legislation, with all applicable statutes and statutory instruments reproduced, to help you to see precisely what the law requires and to take the necessary action.

Somma, Alessandro, The Politics of the Draft Com- mon Frame of Reference, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £79.00, ISBN: 9789041131416

The Social Justice Study Group law founded in 2003 has fore fronted critical perspectives based on normative policy. The group focuses on the 'democratic deficit' that characterizes the Commission's approach to European private law. This collection of essays reflects both the diversity of the group's work and the common thread that runs through it. The core claim here is that the DCFR, despite the Commission's characterization of its proposals as purely technical, cannot escape politics. The intent is to critically identify and evaluate the model of social justice underlying the DCFR. Although each essay stresses the author's particular political and cultural views on the topic, the demand for an involvement of democratic institutions and civil society in the construction of a European private law is common to all.

Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9789067043052

This book examines whether international criminal courts enable defence counsels to conduct effective defences. When the ad hoc tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda were set up in the mid-nineties to prosecute those responsible for serious violations of international humanitarian law, little thought had been given as to how to organise the defence. Simply assigning one counsel per accused was deemed sufficient. This book examines the position of the defence at international criminal courts given the sui generis character of international criminal proceedings and analyses important issues concerning the defence, such as legal aid, equality of arms, professional ethics and disciplinary law and the right to self-representation.

Watt, Gary, Equity Stirring: The Story of Justice Beyond Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841138466

This book is an exploration of the meaning of equity

as artists and thinkers have portrayed it within the law and without. Watt finds in law and literature an equity that is necessary to good life and good law but which does not require us to attain a moral or “natural law” ideal. The project is an educational one in the true etymological sense of leading the reader out into new territory. The legal reader (including the law student who is looking for summer reading before he or she studies the technical law of equity) is invited to undertake a close literary study of the works of such authorities as Aristotle, Shakespeare and Dickens. Scholars and students of humanities disciplines including literature, classics, history, theology, theatre and rhetoric will discover new insights into the art of equity in the law and beyond. Along the way, Watt offers a new theory on the origin of Dickens’ chancery case Jarndyce and Jarndyce and suggests a new connection between Shakespeare and the origin of equity in modern law.

Offshore Company Law

by Dr. E. Edward Siemens

Professor Siemens' book will be a handy source of information for those working in both the onshore and offshore world and who need to really understand the differences between jurisdictions competing in the provision of offshore companies. Through his coverage of the specifics in each country, including corporate legislation, issues relevant to stakeholders, tax and related matters, Professor Siemens has provided an up-to-date book of real importance to the users of offshore companies and their advisers.

All too often, offshore companies are formed with very little thought about the pros and cons of different jurisdictions and, in particular, what may turn out to be very important differences in the duties and liabilities of directors. A number of legal and tax issues are also forgotten as advisors reach for the fastest and cheapest solution to the needs of their clients. Professor Siemens has addressed many of these issues, providing a good reminder to those using offshore companies of the importance of a careful review in advance which can minimise a costly and unhappy end to the use of offshore companies.

Jurisdictions covered: The Bahamas; Belize; Bermuda; British Virgin Islands; Cayman Islands; Guernsey; Isle of Man; Jersey; Gibraltar; Cook Islands; Samoa; Vanuatu; Mauritius; Seychelles; Panama; Uruguay; Liechtenstein; Switzerland; Dubai; Labuan; Delaware; Hong Kong.

WAMS – Wildy Account Management System

After months of planning and development Wildy's online Account Management System (WAMS) is up and running and ready to use.

WAMS will allow you to view all aspects of your account online. You will be able to look at invoices issued on your account, outstanding book orders, standing orders and subscriptions, and view full details for each. You can also use the Quick Orders tab to place orders using ISBNs – particularly useful if you are ordering a large number of books at once. Also included are various reports that you can either view on-screen or download to your desktop.

To start using WAMS you will need to register yourself first. Go to <https://accounts.wildy.com> and click on the New User link and enter the details requested. The field for username and password are for you to enter a username and password of your own choice to use when accessing WAMS.

Once you have completed the registration form you will get an automated e-mail to verify your e-mail address, and once we have authenticated your details you will be able to log-in and start using the service.

WAMS supports multiple registrations for each account, so your colleagues can also register themselves as users in the same way.

We have designed WAMS to be easy to use and intuitive, and we hope you will like the look and feel of the site as much as the functionality.

THE ZURICH OPENWORK FOUNDATION CARES 4 KIDS CYCLE CHALLENGE 2009

Cuba – The last of the Mojitos?

Having missed last year's challenge in Kerala due to a clash of dates with the IBA Conference, I am delighted to announce that I shall once again be climbing aboard my trusty bicycle in a sponsored cycle challenge to raise money for poor children throughout the world.

It was originally planned that we would be riding along the Rift Valley in Kenya this year, but this was pulled for health and security reasons. Then Mexico was selected so that we could ride along the Yucatán Peninsula, but unfortunately a little matter of swine flu intervened, therefore at short notice we are off to Cuba for a 5 day 348km cycle challenge. Some readers may remember that this was the venue of my very first ride back in 2004, but as a much more experienced cyclist than I was then, I am really looking forward to attacking some of those hills again with a new vigour and confidence!

Thanks to my sponsors, I have personally raised more than £28,000 for the benefit of poor children throughout the world and my group of happy cyclists over £750,000 since I first became involved with these cycle challenges, which makes all the effort of training and 5 continuous days of cycling in often hot and difficult conditions really worthwhile.

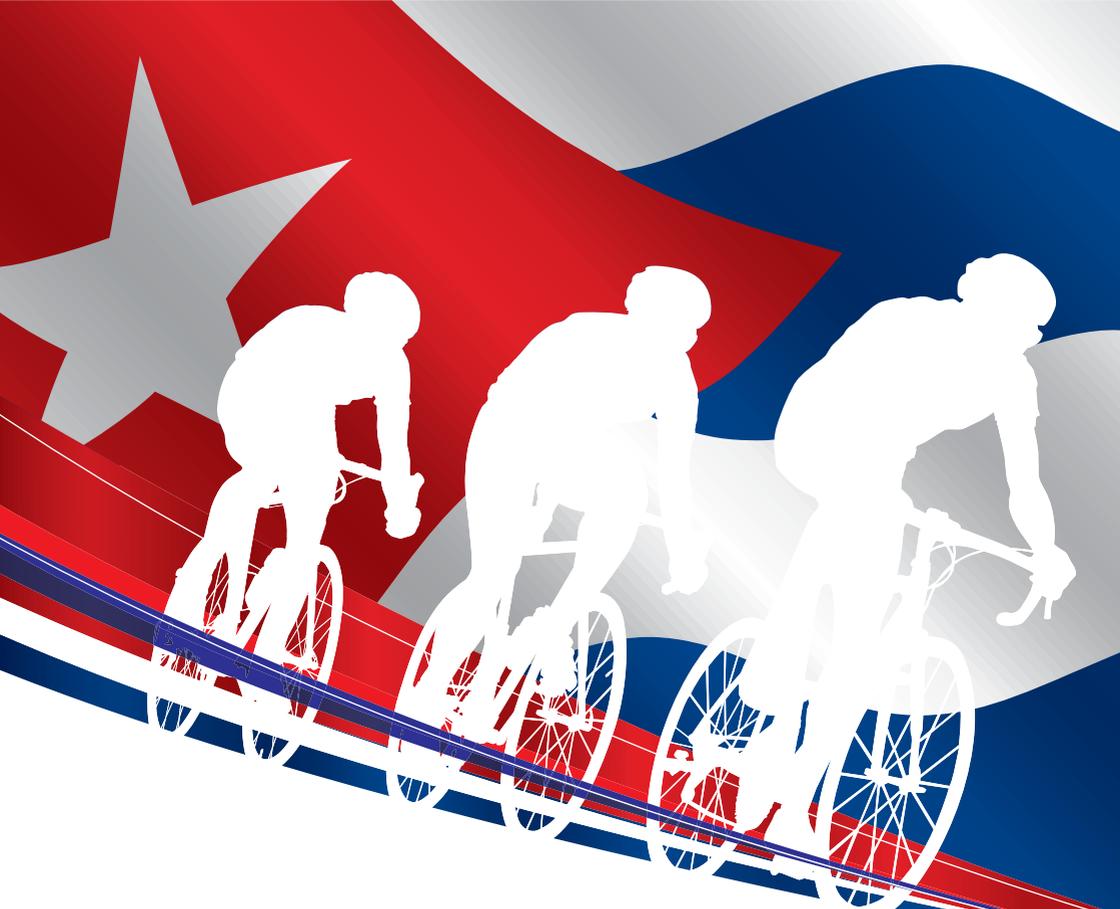

This year my kind sponsors include Kluwer Law International, Jordan Publishing, Lexis Nexis Butterworths, Oxford University Press, Bloomsbury Professional (Tottel) and of course Wildy & Sons and their advertisements are included within these pages. Upon my return from the challenge, there will be a full pictorial account of the epic challenge and further opportunities for sponsorship within the Wildy's Book News.

If you are a company that would like to place a sponsorship advertisement, please contact Brian Hill at enquiries@wildy.com. If you would like to make a personal donation, then please go to my just giving site www.justgiving.com/John-Sinkins.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Blackstone's Civil Practice 2010

Edited by Stuart Sime, Derek French, and Sir Maurice Kay
Oxford University Press,
Hardback + CD, ISBN 9780199569021, £195.00,
due September 2009

Blackstone's Civil Practice 2010 provides authoritative coverage and expert analysis of the process of civil litigation in both the county courts and in the High Court. It combines a unique narrative commentary with the full text of the Civil Procedure Rules, Practice Directions and Pre-Action Protocols and Practice Guides and is the only civil court text to explain and analyse civil procedure in narrative chapters. Written by a team of expert practitioners and academics, the text follows the course of proceedings from funding litigation and commencement of a claim through to enforcement of judgments. The text offers lucid, practical guidance to the effective conduct of litigation - providing detailed guidance on both the general conduct of litigation and more specialist areas such as judicial review, landlord and tenant and possession proceedings, sale of goods, and consumer credit.

The narrative is supported by procedural checklists, giving quick access to details of required actions, time limits and applicable Rules and Practice Directions. The text is also cross-referenced to comprehensive appendices containing scrupulously edited and up-to-date texts of the Civil Procedure Rules, Practice Directions, Pre-Action Protocols and selected procedural legislation. All copies of Blackstone's Civil Practice 2010 will be comprehensively updated by a paper supplement, included in the price, containing updates to the CPR and case law. The book is also accompanied by a regularly updated companion web site. The 39 Procedural Checklists in Blackstone's Civil Practice 2010 are available from IRIS Laserform. These step-by-step guides will save you valuable time, reduce risk and ensure successful case management. Practices will also benefit from the embedded hyperlinks to the MoJ website, for the Civil Procedure Rules and Practice Directions, and other websites for instant access to additional information and know-how.

Wilkinson's Road Traffic Offences 24th edition

General Editor: Kevin McCormac
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover (2 Volumes), ISBN 9781847035714, £319.00,
due September 2009

Wilkinson's Road Traffic Offences is widely regarded as the definitive authority on road traffic offences in England and Wales. Providing everything needed for both prosecuting and defending a case, it covers every facet of road traffic law a practitioner is likely to encounter. With Wilkinson everything required is to hand, from general definitions to legislation and case law. Its straightforward approach allows the user to access the information needed quickly and easily, with flow charts, checklists and tabular summaries to clarify complex areas. The 24th edition has been fully updated to include the ongoing impact of the Road Safety Act 2006 and Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005, statutory instruments relating to driving licences and seat belts, the latest Recording Equipment Regulations for passenger and goods vehicles, as well as extensive recent case law.

International Trade Mark and Signs Protection: A Handbook

Edited by Paul Lange

Hart Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781841139005m £266.00, due August 2009

This Handbook is concerned with the law of trademarks and related signs - company names, domain names, indications of geographical origin, work names and other names. It consists of a series of comprehensive and practical reports from 14 of the world's most important economies - Austria, Belgium, Canada, China, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Portugal, Russia, Switzerland and the United Kingdom - each detailing the present state of the law in that jurisdiction. Each country report is between 40 and 120 pages long. (The law of trademarks in the US will be dealt with in a future second edition). Besides being organised by jurisdiction, the book deals with all types of trademark or sign using the same analytical method (formation, cancellation, proprietorship, transfer, licence, conflicts between signs, scope of protection, opposition to registration, types of claims and procedures) and in respect of each jurisdiction the authors set out the best strategy for safeguarding the goodwill related to trademarks and signs. The second and third parts of the handbook offer an overview of modern approaches to the marketing of trademarks and signs, as well as accepted market valuation methods. Within each country report the authors focus on potential conflicts between signs and trademarks, thus adding to the practical value of the book. The authors are all experienced and well-known experts in their own countries, whose collective approach to writing emphasises making the content clear, coherent, concise and practically-oriented.

Costs: Law and Practice

by Dr Mark Friston

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846611803, £75.00, due September 2009

The law of costs has undergone something of a transformation over the last 10 years following the abolishment of legal aid in many areas of civil law and the introduction of the CPR, which has a major impact on the assessment of costs. Costs have become a battleground between claimants and defendants and, while the law in this area has begun to settle down in the last year or so, it appears that the well-publicised 'costs war' is not over yet. With costs continuing to be a contentious, complicated and fast-moving area of law, Costs: Law and Practice will provide you with a thorough and rigorous analysis of all aspects of civil costs with practical applications, detailed references and precedents.

Boundaries, Walls and Fences 10th edition

by Trevor Aldridge QC

Sweet & Maxwell, Paperback, ISBN 9781847037916, £70.00, due September 2009

This authoritative book is a practical and comprehensive guide to the law surrounding the determination and contesting of boundaries. Now in its tenth edition, it is the only work available to cover all the legislative and statutory developments in this area. The often technical but important regulations are explained in detail and guidance is given on the regime governing construction and repair of walls on the junction of properties; rules on excavation; compensation; and rights of entry. The author explains the regime of notices and counter notices involved in boundary disputes, ensuring the correct steps are followed, and offers solutions to the problems and pitfalls which often arise in practice. The new edition covers the latest legislative developments including the Commons Act 2006 and case law on high hedges arising from the Anti-Social Behaviour Act, and also contains a new chapter offering comprehensive cross-references to websites, including available maps. Relevant legislation and documentation is reproduced in full, bringing together all the material in one handy volume.

Loose on Liquidators 6th edition

by Peter Loose and Michael Griffiths

Jordan Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781846611612, £95.00, due September 2009

Loose on Liquidators is a guide to the law relating to company liquidations and the important role of the liquidator in a winding up – their powers, duties and relationship to creditors, members, receivers and the court. It provides in a convenient single volume invaluable specialist advice and essential time-saving reference materials. Now in its 6th edition this definitive work on successful liquidations has been completely updated and expanded to include all the latest developments in liquidation practice and procedure. It includes new material on Creditor Schemes under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006; procedures governing insol-venty meetings affected by Companies Act 2006; SIP 16 governing the pre-packaged administration procedure; and Important new case law developments.

European Food Regulation EC 178/2002: A Commentary 3rd edition

by Alfred H Meyer, Barbara Klaus and Fausto Capelli
Hart Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781841130798, £127.50, due October 2009

The Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 of the European Parliament and the Council of 28 January 2002 lays down the general principles and requirements of food law, establishes the European Food Safety Authority and lays down procedures in matters of food safety, also known as “General Food Law Regulation”. It contains the basic principles of the food law in all the 26 member states of the European Community. In addition, the Regulation is important for all companies exporting food from third countries into the European Union. The “General Food Law Regulation” is directly applicable in all Member States. It contains binding definitions, especially of “food”, it defines general principles and requirements of food law and food trade, and it establishes the European Food Safety Authority, based in Parma/Italy. The milk powder scandal, spilling over from China, exemplifies the importance of common food standards for Europe. This book will be of interest to food experts in legal practice, and to those in the food industry, trade organisations and public authorities.

Shares and Share Capital under the Companies Act 2006

by Andrew McGee

Jordan Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781846611575, £105.00, due September 2009

The 2006 Act makes a number of significant changes to the law on shares and share capital, though many provisions of the old law are retained. Some changes are simplifications to the law for private companies (notably on financial assistance, share capital reduction and company buy-back of own shares, as well as the abolition of authorised capital). Other provisions are entirely new, such as treasury shares. The whole structure is informed and constrained by the provisions of the Company Law Directives, which are principally applicable to public companies. This book will be based on Parts 17, 18, 20, 21 and 22 of the 2006 Act, together with the provisions of the new Table A and Table

C. However, even these extensive legislative provisions do not deal with all the issues which can arise, and case law doctrines, such as improper purposes for issuing shares, will also be considered. In addition, case law on those provisions which have not changed will continue to be relevant.

Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook 16th edition

General Editor: Frances Silverman

Law Society Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781853287398, £85.00, due October 2009

Every year thousands of practitioners turn to this annual handbook as their trusted first port of call to resolve conveyancing queries. During these turbulent times, when new procedures may cause unforeseen difficulties and disputes begin to surface, conveyancers can continue to rely on the up-to-date, authoritative guidance it contains. The 16th edition is fully updated to take account of recent developments, including changes to the Solicitors' Code of Conduct; the Land Registry's requirements for evidence of identity and proposals for an 'early completion' policy; the changes to the regulations for Home Information Packs; and the latest Practice Notes and TransAction forms from the Law Society. The comprehensive appendix materials include all the updated rules and guidance relevant to conveyancing as well as standard forms, addresses and the latest fees information.

Law of Limited Liability Partnerships 3rd edition

by John Whittaker and John Machell

Tottel Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781847663221, £120.00, due September 2009

The Law of Limited Liability Partnerships is a leading legal text relating to this particular type of corporate vehicle, which combines a degree of protection from personal liability with the traditional flexibility of a partnership. The new edition has been substantially updated to include: the application of the new Companies Act 2006 provisions to LLPs including the new accounts and audit provisions; the new Accounting by Limited Liability Partnerships Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) (issued March 2006); A new chapter covering Financial Service; and new developments in the light of increased use of LLPs. For legal practitioners and accountants alike the new edition of the Law of Limited Liability Partnerships is a 'must have' purchase.

Treaty Interpretation by the WTO Appellate Body

by Isabelle Van Damme

Oxford University Press, Hardback, ISBN 9780199562237, £70.00, due August 2009

This book analyses how the Appellate Body uses particular principles of general international law in interpreting the WTO covered agreements. It deals equally with general international law and WTO law. The aim is to explain how the Appellate Body interprets and applies customary international law on treaty interpretation in dealing with the WTO covered agreements. The main concern is to analyse the judicial reasoning and ways of justifying judicial decision-making. In particular, it answers the question of how the Appellate Body explains its reading of WTO treaty language.

WTO law is primarily treaty law, but increasingly soft law and broader themes and values from other disciplines, such as governance, variable geometry and legitimacy, are introduced and discussed. Customary international law - with the exception of the principles of treaty interpretation - and general principles of law are often seen as excluded entirely. An ancillary theme of this proposed monograph is the extent to which customary international law and general principles of law have penetrated WTO law through the technique of treaty interpretation.

Child Care and Protection: Law and Practice (Wildy Practice Guide)

Barbara Mitchels with Helen James
ISBN: 9780854900381 Paperback £29

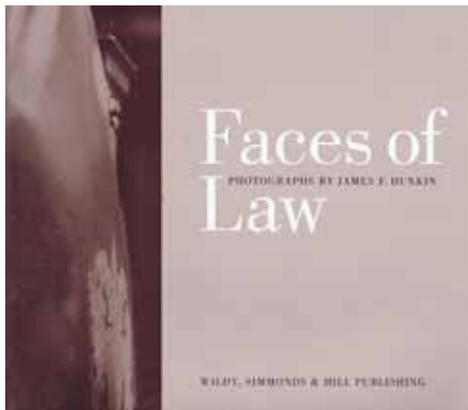

Formerly published as part of the popular Practice Notes series and written by experienced practitioners, the fourth edition provides a practical and concise guide to the Children Act 1989, subsequent legislation, guidance and case law. The new material covered in this edition includes: Every Child Matters, the Children Act 2004, the new edition of Working Together to Safeguard Children (2006), the new Children Act 1989 Guidance Volume 1 Court Orders, the content and impact of the new Public Law Outline (PLO) and important recent cases. This book does not include the separate field of adoption law, but selected relevant provisions of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 and the Children and Adoption Act 2006 are included.

In addition to explaining the general principles of the law relating to child care and protection, the authors provide valuable insights into assessments, care planning, expert evidence, taking instructions, case preparation and courtroom skills. Presented in a compact, user-friendly format, the book also contains checklists and flowcharts which will prove invaluable to the busy practitioner.

Barbara Mitchels is a Children Panel solicitor and also a practising psychotherapist. She combines these disciplines in providing mediation, consultancy and training with Working with Children and Watershed Counselling Service.

Helen James has wide experience in social work and as a children's guardian. She is an independent social work consultant, trainer, and a Director of Family Practice UK Ltd (an Independent Social Work Agency).

FACES OF LAW

Photographs by James F. Hunkin

£45 ISBN: 9780854900275 Hardback

'Faces of Law' is a unique photographic chronicle of 100 people working in the legal profession at the turn of the twenty-first century. It forms part of an on-going chronicle - 'Faces of Britain'.

The collection covers a broad spectrum of activities including some of the country's most respected judges, solicitors and barristers as well as support staff and others.

Each portrait is accompanied by a personal testimony providing a fascinating insight into the working lives and ideas of the men and women who help shape our society. Alongside this, there is a short factual piece about some aspect of each person's work.

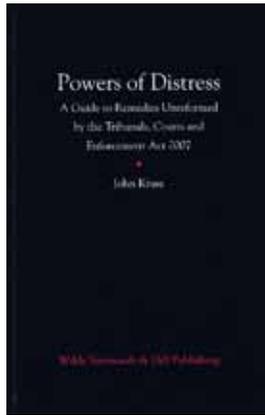

'Hunkin's quiet yet powerful portraits provide an honest document of individuals working within the legal sector'.

Clare Freestone, Assistant Curator of Photographs, National Portrait Gallery

'This remarkable collection of photographs shows the faces of lawyers from all over the legal landscape. It shows the variety of what lawyers do and the variety of lawyers who do it. The words they have chosen, tell us something of how they think or feel about what they do but the photographs tell us even more about them. It all adds up to an intriguing picture of the British legal system as it is today'.

POWERS OF DISTRESS
A Guide to Remedies Unreformed by the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007

ISBN: 9780854900459

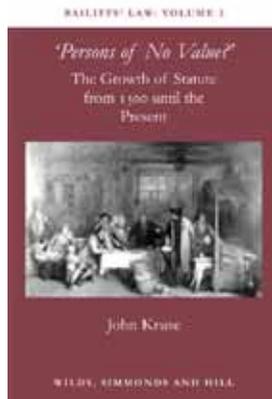

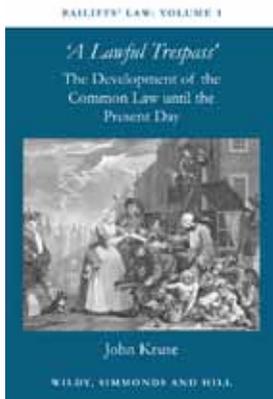

256 pp Hardback £49

JOHN KRUSE

The Tribunals Courts & Enforcement Act 2007 will, for many debts, sweep away the old procedures and principles of enforcement and introduce a new code of law. However, some debts have been deliberately excluded from these changes. Among the liabilities in question are a wide range of shipping liabilities including harbour dues and fines, market tolls and stallages, distress damage feasant for trespassing chattels and powers of seizure of trespassing animals under the Animals Act 1971, arrests of aircraft and ecclesiastical executions. For them, the old common law procedures and principles will continue to operate unaltered.

In a single volume this timely book offers a detailed examination of arrears which have in many respects been neglected and which thereby have been allowed to become obscure and poorly understood. The new Act may cause further difficulties by creating two parallel systems of enforcement- one for the most common debts and one for the remainder. This text aims to restore some balance to this dichotomy by, for the first time, uniting these less common forms of recovery in a clear and structured work. It provides a thorough analysis of the case law developed over the centuries along with discussion of the relevant statutory provisions.

Volume 2 'Persons of No Value?': The Growth of Statute from 1500 until the Present

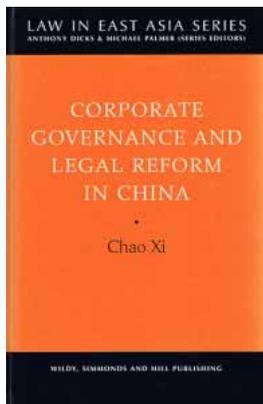

ISBN: 9780854900329 £45.00

JOHN KRUSE

The law relating to distress and execution is a much neglected area of study, despite the fact that bailiffs regularly appear in literary works and their activities are a constant feature of court rolls. This two-volume work aims to provide a detailed and comprehensive history of both the development of the law and the profession of bailiff. The work chronicles the growth of enforcement law from Anglo-Saxon times, tracing the continuity in the common law and examining the intervention of statute. The seizure of goods by bailiffs was a familiar aspect of life in earlier times and this work sets their legal powers into their legal, social and economic context. Key themes are explored throughout both volumes: the protection given to certain essential goods, the efforts to regulate the conduct of bailiffs and the gradual shift of emphasis from promoting the rights of creditors to enhancing the protection of debtors.

Working within the field of social welfare, John Kruse has specialised in the law of enforcement for the last twenty years, and has written numerous books and articles on the subject. He has also acted as a consultant inter alia to the Ministry of Justice and the Council of Europe.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND LEGAL REFORM IN CHINA

Chao Xi

Law in East Asia Series

ISBN: 9780854900367

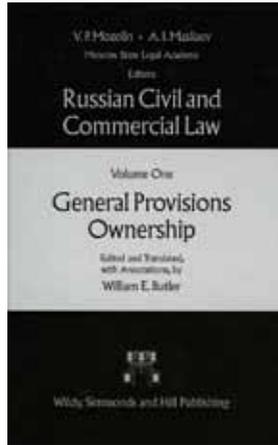

306pp. Hardback £65

State-owned enterprise (SOE) reform has been at the heart of China's post-Mao economic reforms. Since early 1990s, a large number of Chinese SOEs have been transformed into joint stock companies, and many of them are now listed on China's domestic stock exchanges. The corporatisation and listing of the SOEs did not, however, bring about significant improvement in their performance or in the manner in which they are governed.

This book examines the effectiveness of the key legal reforms that have been put in place for addressing the governance issues facing Chinese listed companies. The focus is on three important – but understudied – aspects of corporate governance reform in China: regulation of the private sales of corporate control, institutional shareholder activism, and board level monitoring and control. In addition, this book attempts to explore a political economy understanding of formal legal changes in China with particular reference to China's corporate board reform.

Chao Xi is in the Faculty of Law, Chinese University of Hong Kong, and previously taught at the University of London as a Visiting Lecturer in Law. He is the co-author of Doing Business in China (Routledge, 2008) and has contributed articles to a range of journals, including the Journal of Comparative Law and the Journal of Chinese Economic and Business Studies.

RUSSIAN CIVIL AND COMMERCIAL LAW

1. General Provisions, Ownership

V. P. Mozolin and A. I. Masliaev (editors), trans and edited by William E. Butler

ISBN: 9780854900473
Hardback £65.00 532 pp

The present volume is the first of five which collectively comprise one of the three major treatises in the Russian language devoted to civil and commercial law. Under the editorship of two of Russia's most distinguished civilists, this work originally appeared in 1997 and in a second edition in the year 2000, reissued in 2007. The authors have made substantial additions, corrections and emendations for this English-language version as late as February 2009.

There has never been a comparable treatment of modern Russian civil law in the English language.

Eric Stockdale

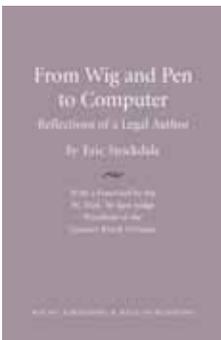

ISBN: 9780854900411
Hardback £14.95 118pp

The third volume of Eric's popular reminisces.

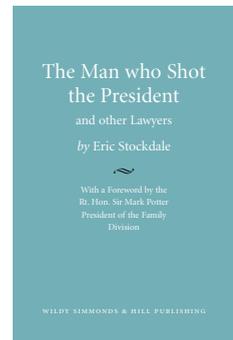

Eric Stockdale left school at fourteen and went to work in wartime London. After two years in the post-war Army he was called to the Bar at the age of twenty-one and appointed a Circuit judge shortly after his 43rd birthday. He took early retirement at sixty-five and then heard Criminal Injuries Compensation appeals for ten years.

Introducing

THE BRITISH MANUAL OF INTERNATIONAL AIR CARRIAGE

The British Manual of International Air Carriage is a practical guide to the law of international air carriage, particularly as it applies in the United Kingdom under the Carriage by Air Act 1961, Regulations of European Parliament and of the Council, and British and international judicial authorities. It provides a clear guide to the choice of law and jurisdiction in any specific carriage and explains the legal provisions and principles applicable to a contract of air carriage in given circumstances. The book draws together the numerous and disparate provisions of the treaties governing air carriage into a coherent, organized, and easily accessible framework for the analysis of legal claims and the conduct of international air carriage litigation in the UK.

Specialists in aviation law will find this a useful book for easy reference. The book will also serve as a practical guide to practitioners without extensive experience in this field when they are advising clients and handling litigation. Finally, jurists, arbitrators, mediators, and members of the aviation and insurance communities will find it helpful when dealing with claims and losses arising from international air carriage.
