MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Adams, Rob; Grant Thornton UK LLP, Capital Gains Tax Planning 2009/10, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781847663429
Capital Gains Tax Planning 2009/10 offers a complete analysis of the capital gains tax regime. Covering both personal and corporate capital gains tax, it deals with the numerous techniques tax professionals can use to reduce or defer tax. It shows how tax on imminent transactions, or gains which have already arisen, can be saved. It also includes essential information on how best to structure a client's affairs well in advance of any sale to ensure maximum savings.

Arnold, Mike, Tolley's Property Taxation 2009 - 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £99.95, ISBN: 9780754537137 Tolley's Property Taxation is the essential reference book on property taxation in the UK - providing an answer to every query. Covering all current and proposed taxes on property, including CGT, SDLT, VAT and Income Tax, the book takes an integrated approach, looking at the interaction of taxes in certain areas, rather than just individually and provides authoritative answers to all your queries in a single volume.

industry contracts, music company management and agents as well as music business lawyers. This new 3rd edition takes account of the latest music industry trends and new business models, in both its discussion and precedent material. Its coverage includes the 270 and 360 Degree deal, digital download, internet broadband and G4 and the business of image and personality rights.

Baker, Philip; Hay, Diane, Taxation of Foreign Profits 2009 - 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £130.00, ISBN: 9780754538226

Taxation of Foreign Profits 2009-2010 deals with the most extensive changes to UK law on taxation of foreign income in over 50 years. This new title provides timely and authoritative interpretation of the new 2009 rules addressing the taxation of Foreign Profits earned by UK companies and their subsidiaries and other significant changes affecting companies with cross-border investments.

Bamber, Lawrence, Tolley's Health and Safety at Work Handbook 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £110.00, ISBN: 9780754537106

Written by a team of experts on health and safety, this popular handbook provides an authoritative reference source covering key aspects of health and safety law and practice, as well as related environmental and employment information, in an easy-to-use A-Z format. Providing clear interpretation of legislation and regulations, on a range of subjects from accident reporting to workplaces and welfare facilities, the handbook is fully updated to include new legislation since the previous edition

Barlow Lyde & Gilbert LLP, Reinsurance Practice and the Law, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £395.00, ISBN: 9781843117964

Reinsurance Practice and the Law covers all the areas of reinsurance that are likely to give rise to problems. Paying special attention to the drafting and operation of the reinsurance contract, it also deals in detail with dispute resolution, including arbitration and Commercial Court practice and procedure.

NOTE: this is a book version of the existing loose-leaf also published by Informa, it does not replace the loose-leaf.

Benneyworth, Rebecca; Bober, Lyvete; Heaton, David; Ward, Julie, Tolley's Taxwise 1: 2009 - 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £84.95, ISBN: 9780754537229

Tolley's Taxwise 2: 2009 - 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £79.95, ISBN: 9780754537236

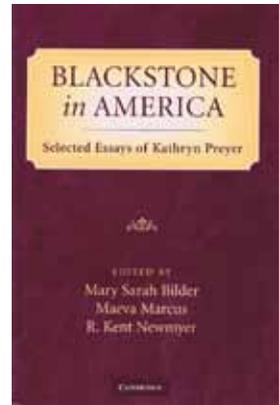

Published as a two-volume set, these highly practical tax books provide expert guidance on how to approach real-life computations by de-tailoring all the relevant points from current legislation, case law and other official material in the required format.

Bickley, Christopher, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands Company Law 3rd ed, Sweet & Maxwell Asia Ltd, Hardback & CD-ROM, £295.00, ISBN: 9789626613580

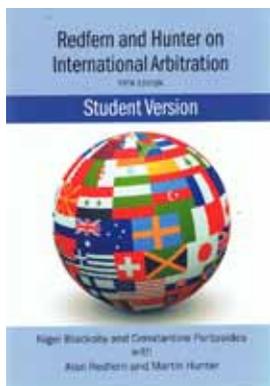

There have been major developments in the law and practice of offshore jurisdictions since the release of the Second Edition of this title over two years ago. The downturn in world economies has led to the insolvency and restructuring of many offshore entities. This has led to a new focus on the insolvency regimes in each jurisdiction with recent reported cases in Bermuda, BVI and the Cayman Islands.

Bilder, Mary; Marcus, Maeva; Newmyer, R. Kent, Blackstone in America: Selected Essays of Kathryn Preyer, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9780521490870

Blackstone in America explores the creative process of transplantation – the way in which American legislators and judges refashioned the English common law inheritance to fit the republican political culture of the new nation. With current scholarship returning to focus on the transformation of Anglo-American law to 'American' law, Professor Kathryn Preyer's lifelong study of the constitutional and legal culture of the early American republic has acquired new relevance and a wider audience.

Blackaby, Nigel; Partasides, Constantine; Redfern, Alan; Hunter, Martin, Redfern & Hunter on International Arbitration 5th ed: Student Version, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £49.95, ISBN: 9780199557196

Formerly published by Sweet & Maxwell as Law & Practice of International Commercial Arbitration, this leading commentary on international commercial arbitration is both academic and pragmatic, a book for students as well as for arbitrators and lawyers experienced in the field. Note this paperback student edition does not have the appendices material contained in the hardback practitioner edition.

Boulle, Laurence, The Law of Globalization, Kluwer

Law International, Hardback, £104.00, ISBN: 9789041128287

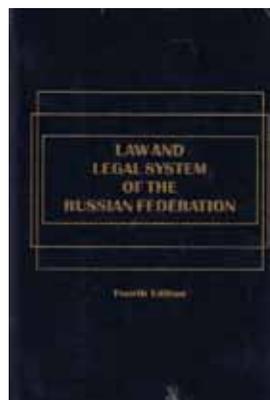

This thoughtful work focuses on the different forms of law which create the legal infrastructure of economic globalization and on how they interact with one another. It also explains how law is used both to maintain and oppose aspects of globalization. In addition it evaluates the governance of the global political economy in terms of the standards of the Rule of Law.

Briggs, Adrian; Rees, Peter, Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments 5th ed, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £360.00, ISBN: 9781843118152

This book states, analyzes, illuminates, and criticizes the law of civil jurisdiction and the enforcement of foreign judgments in English law. Now in its fifth edition, it takes into account all developments in this area of law since 2005.

Burnham, William; Maggs, Peter; Danilenko, Gennady, Law and Legal System of the Russian Federation 4th ed, Juris Publishing, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9781578232543

This book is a detailed treatment of the Russian legal system written especially for English-speaking law students and lawyers. While it is designed primarily as a casebook, it will also be useful as a reference for scholars specializing in Russian and East European area studies and for lawyers bound for practice in Russia.

Burrows, Andrew; Feldman, David, Bundled Set: English Private Law 2nd ed & English Public Law 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, 2 Volumes, £390.00, ISBN: 9780199554508
Oxford Principles of English Law edited by Professor Andrew Burrows is the essential first point of reference on English law for lawyers in the UK and throughout the world. This pack makes the second editions of both English Private Law edited by Professor Andrew Burrows, and English Public Law edited by Professor David Feldman, available together as a single pack. Both books are an ideal quick reference for practitioners to fall back on when a client raises a point outside their normal area of expertise as well as for academics, overseas libraries, and practitioners overseas who want a one-stop resource on English private and public law.

Carbonneau, Thomas E., The Law and Practice of Arbitration 3rd ed, Juris Publishing, Hardback, £109.00, ISBN: 9781933833323
This is the first comprehensive treatise about the development and practice of arbitration law in the United States. It addresses in detail the recourse to arbitration in domestic matters— employment, labour, consumer transactions, and business— and its use in the resolution of international commercial claims. It covers all of the major subject areas in the field and provides practical advice as well as an easy-to-read, clear discussion of the relevant case law. It represents a masterful synthesis of the entire body of arbitration law.

This book takes a fresh look at the external relations of the European Union (EU) and in particular the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP). Rather than focusing exclusively on the competence aspects of the institutions and actors, the book makes the case that the CFSP can be understood as a system of governance, which produces effects beyond the traditional tools associated with foreign policy.

Caritas Data, Who's Who in the City 2010, CaritasData, Hardback, £197.00, ISBN: 9781857831122

Fully revised and updated, Who's Who in the City 2010 is your invaluable resource for networking in the city. Who's Who in the City gives you a quick and easy route to the major city firms, executives and professional advisers – all in one essential resource. Prepare for client meetings with confidence with biographies and contact details on over 15,000 city executives. Maximise your networking opportunities by studying the background and interests of potential clients.

Chesterman, Simon; Fisher, Angelina, Private Security, Public Order: The Outsourcing of Public Services and Its Limits Oxford University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780199574124

Private actors are increasingly taking on roles traditionally arrogated to the state. Both in the industrialized North and the developing South, functions essential to external and internal security and to the satisfaction of basic human needs are routinely contracted out to non-state agents. In the area of privatization of security functions, attention by academics and policy makers tends to focus on the activities of private military and security companies, especially in the context of armed conflicts, and their impact on human rights and post-conflict stability and reconstruction.

GDL courses. The clear, succinct coverage of key legal points within a specific topic area, including key cases, enables students to quickly grasp the fundamental principles of this area of law. The book focuses on the needs of students to succeed in their exams, showing how all the legal rules fit together and the approach that should be adopted when answering questions. A range of pedagogical features help with preparation for exams and suggest numerous ways to improve marks.

Feldman, David, English Public Law 2nd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199227938

First published in 2004, English Public Law has become the key point of reference on English public law for lawyers in the UK and throughout the world. Now in its second edition, the book acts as an accessible first point of reference for practitioners approaching a public law issue for the first time, whilst simultaneously providing a lucid, concise and authoritative overview of all the key areas of public law (constitutional, administrative, human rights, and criminal law) within one single portable volume.

Fennell, Shailaja, Rules, Rubrics and Riches: The Relationship between Law, Institutions and International Development, Routledge-Cavendish, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780415420358

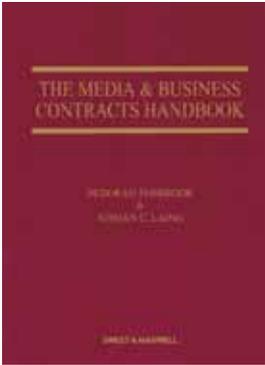

Rules, Rubrics and Riches highlights the limitations of the traditional school of law and development that was based on a mainstream understanding of economic development, emphasizing notions of rational man at the micro level and the superiority of modernity and unilinear models of economic progress at the macro level. It offers a frame for ‘law and development’ thinking by specifically posing the question: how do social sciences perceive the role of the law in international development? Discussing a range of local, national and international institutions the focus of the book turns from the law-making/law-breaking paradigm to law’s relation to social norms.

Fosbrook, Deborah; Laming, Adrian C., Media and Business Contracts Handbook 4th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback &

CD-ROM, £231.31, ISBN: 9781847039088

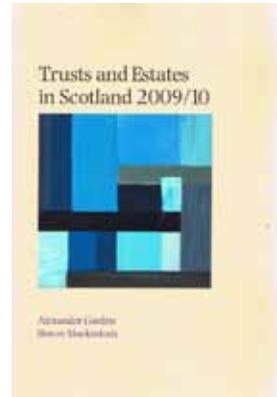

Provides a master reference book which combines a knowledge of contract, copyright and commercial practice to provide 85 ready to use and adapt expertly drafted contracts, licences, acquisition, distribution, termination, buyout agreements and other documents and letters. At the back of the book are a Checklist of Clauses; a list of Codes of Practice and Guidelines; and a Legal, Commercial and Business Internet Directory which can help in your research, marketing, and developing your business.

Foster, Michelle, International Refugee Law and Socio-Economic Rights, Cambridge University Press, Paperback Reissue, £21.99, ISBN: 9780521133364

A range of emerging refugee claims is beginning to challenge the boundaries of the Refugee Convention regime and question traditional distinctions between ‘economic migrants’ and ‘political refugees’. This book identifies the conceptual and analytical challenges presented by claims based on socio-economic deprivation, and undertakes an assessment of the extent to which these challenges may be overcome by a creative interpretation of the Refugee Convention, consistent with correct principles of international treaty interpretation.

Garden, Alexander; Mackintosh, Simon, Trusts and Estates in Scotland 2009/2010, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781847663467

Practical and accessible, this brand new annual guide will prove indispensable when starting, running or ending a trust, or dealing with a deceased estate, whilst ensuring you are complying with the law as of 31 August 2008. It guides you through the complexities of Scotland’s unique trust and estate regime. Worked examples, tax tables and practical commentaries help to illustrate the latest legislation and the key points of practice. The reader will not only fully understand current tax law, but be comfortable applying it to their clients’ trusts and estates.

Gordon, Keith M.; Montes-Manzano, Ximena; Tiley, John, Tiley & Collison’s: UK Tax Guide 2009 - 2010, LexisNexis Butterworths,

Paperback, £122.95, ISBN: 9781405742498

Tiley & Collison's UK Tax Guide adopts a practical approach to UK tax law providing essential guidance for the practitioner and is also ideally suited for students studying for the CIOT examination. It examines the workings of income tax, corporation tax, capital gains tax, inheritance tax, VAT, stamp duty and NIC. The thought-provoking commentary makes the complex subject of revenue law interesting and easy to understand.

Gormley, Laurence, EU Law of Free Movement of Goods and Customs Union, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £145.00, ISBN: 9780199229000

This work gives a practical overview of the legal aspects of the Free Movement of Goods and the working of the Customs Union within the European Union and their interpretation and application by the Court of Justice of the European Communities. This book analyses the operation of the customs union, with detailed treatment of the Community Customs Code and its implementing and associated measures. It also discusses the elimination of customs duties and charges having equivalent effect, and the elimination of quantitative restrictions and measures having equivalent effect in trade between Member States. It concludes with coverage of state monopolies of a commercial character, and the nuclear common market.

Green, Sarah; Randall, John, The Tort of Conversion, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9781841138336

This book is the first comprehensive appraisal of the modern tort of Conversion. It offers a coherent and accessible rationalisation of the subject, supported by rigorous analysis of all aspects, from title to sue to the available remedies. The principal thesis of the work is that the development of Conversion has somewhat stagnated, and in consequence the tort has so far been unable to fulfil either its theoretical or its practical potential as a legal device.

perback, £85.00, ISBN: 9780414041943

First published in 1890, Stroud is long-established as the foremost dictionary of the English language as it has been interpreted in the courts and in statutory material. The capacity to define words and phrases precisely is critical for lawyers; Stroud gives them quick access to exact, authoritative meanings. It is an indispensable tool for the practitioner and a unique source for the researcher.

Howard, Erica, EU Race Directive: Developing the Protection against Racial Discrimination within the EU, Routledge-Cavendish, Hardback, £75.00, ISBN: 9780415543736

In 2000, the European Union adopted a Directive against discrimination on the grounds of racial or ethnic origin. This book provides an in-depth evaluation of the Race Directive and its effects, questioning how successful the Race directive has been. This book will be of great value to students and academics in (European) law, social sciences and human rights, researching racism, racial discrimination, ethnicity and race relations. It will also be useful for policy makers.

Hull, Steven, Buy-outs and Buy-ins: The Elimination of Defined Benefit Pension Scheme Liabilities, Globe Law and Business, Hardback, £105.00, ISBN: 9781905783267

This timely new title covers topics such as the attractions of the current buy-out market, the non-insured buy-out option, the FSA regulated market and the elimination of pension scheme liabilities, as well as an overview of the buy-out market in selected countries. This book is aimed at a cross-section of the pension market and is intended to be of practical use to trustees, employers, advisers, administrators and other pension stakeholders in providing a comprehensive guide to how best to tackle the thorny issue of eliminating defined benefit scheme liabilities.

Ife, Jim, Human Rights from Below: Achieving Rights Through Community Development, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9780521711081

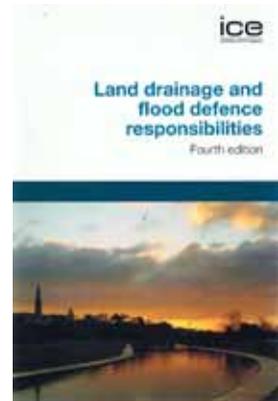

The book offers a long overdue assessment of how human rights and community development are invariably interconnected. It highlights how critical it is to understand the two as a basis for thinking about and taking action to address the serious challenges facing the world in the twenty-first century. Written both for students and for community development and human rights workers, Human Rights from Below brings together the important fields of human rights and community development, to enrich our thinking of both.

Institution of Civil Engineers, Land Drainage and Flood Defence Responsibilities 4th ed, Thomas Telford Ltd, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9780727733894

First published in 1983, this guide has established itself as a popular text for civil engineers and professionals, from a range of disciplines, concerned with the practice of land drainage and the legal implications of drainage operations. This fourth edition has been fully updated to reflect the significant changes in legislation and statutory bodies since the last edition was published. This includes the move to a risk-based approach in environment management and the planning process, resulting in greater control of development on flood plains.

Lavranos, Nikos, Jurisdictional Competition: Selected Cases in International and European Law, Europa Law Publishing, Paperback, £27.50, ISBN: 9789089520678

The selected cases examined in this book, which cover different areas of international and European law, illustrate the methods applied by various international courts and tribunals to deal with overlapping jurisdictions. Since any formal hierarchy or coordination between the various international courts and tribunals is lacking, it is argued that only soft law methods, such as the application of comity, in particular the Solange-method, appears to be a useful tool to deal with the negative effects associated with jurisdictional competition.

Law Commission, Intestacy and Family Provision Claims on Death, The Stationery Office, Paperback, A4, £34.55, ISBN: 9780118404686

Every year, tens of thousands of people die without a will, leaving their property to be distributed according to legal rules dating back to 1925. Even if there is a will, it may not stand up to scrutiny from the courts if reasonable provision was not made for certain family members and dependants. The Law Commission examines options for reform of these rules which would safeguard the position of bereaved spouses, while taking account of the con-

Luttrell, Sam, Bias Challenges in International Arbitration: The Need for a Real Danger Test, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £112.00, ISBN: 9789041131911

In a broad comparative survey of the law of bias challenges in international commercial arbitration covering all leading states, the author examines various municipal laws to determine their tolerance for a 'real danger' clause in commercial contracts. His analysis, replete with case summaries and material facts, provides a strong scaffolding for his thesis, and also probes the causes of the increased rate of bias challenge. The need for a uniform test in this area is made very convincing by this original study. Arbitrators and other interested professionals and academics will find it of unusual value and interest, and corporate counsel will find much to consider in the use of the 'real danger' clause.

Merryman, John Henry, Imperialism, Art and Restitution, Cambridge University Press, Paperback Reissue, £21.99, ISBN:

The issue of returning art and cultural property removed from explored or conquered lands by Americans and Europeans is an unresolved problem. This book is about the return, or not, of works of art and antiquity taken during the Age of Imperialism and now held in museums and private collections. Arguments put forth by the states seeking return or restitution for lost art treasures and meaningful cultural icons are pitted against conservator interests who maintain that these art treasures and cultural artefacts belong to all humanity and should be preserved in museums. In this volume, scholars and authorities on art, cultural property law and museum collections offer contrasting views on topics such as the Elgin Marbles, the return of the Nefertiti Bust and the problems and progress of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA).

Robertson, Andrew; Tang, Hang Wu, The Goals of Private Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £85.00, ISBN: 9781841139098

This collection contributes to a fundamental debate about the nature of private law.

The essays consider whether private law should be seen as having goals and, if so, whether those goals are particular to private as opposed to public law. They consider the legitimacy of the pursuit of community welfare goals in private law and the place of instrumentalist thinking in private law scholarship.

Romano, Cesare, Sword and the Scales: The United States and International Courts and Tribunals, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £19.99, ISBN: 9780521728713

The Sword and the Scales is the first in-depth and comprehensive study of attitudes and behaviors of the United States toward major international courts and tribunals, including the International Courts of Justice, WTO, and NAFTA dispute settlement systems; the Inter-American Court of Human Rights; and all international criminal courts. Thirteen essays by American legal scholars map and analyze current and past patterns of promotion or opposition, use or neglect, of international judicial bodies by various branches of the United States government, suggesting a complex and deeply ambivalent relationship. The United States has been, and continues to be, not only a promoter of the various international courts and tribunals but also an active participant of the judicial system.

Schulze, Reiner, Common Frame of Reference and Existing EC Contract Law 2nd ed, Sellier, Paperback, £68.00, ISBN: 9783866531239

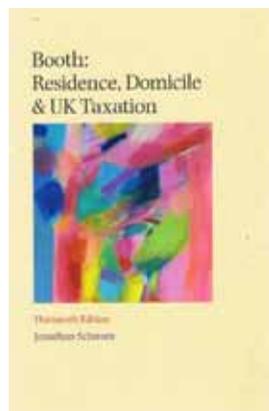

A number of key developments have taken place in European Private Law in 2009: the European Commission has proposed and made changes in a number of areas of Consumer law; the outline edition of the Draft Common Frame of Reference has been published and the second volume of the Acquis Principles (Contract II) will soon be available. This second revised edition will therefore draw upon these recent changes with regard to the key question as to what extent the CFR can and should reflect existing EC Contract Law, and to what extent the DCFR has already incorporated the acquis communautaire. The contributions to this volume try to provide answers to this question by analyzing different controversial areas such as the conclusion and content of the contract (pre-contractual duties, non-discrimination or withdrawal), non-performance, remedies, damages and the relation to International Private Law.

Written from the litigator's point of view, this guide covers a range of areas including termination, non-payment of rent, licences, forfeiture, proceedings for possession and applications for new tenancies.

Weber, Anne, Manual on Hate Speech, Council of Europe Publishing, Paperback, £21.50, ISBN: 9789287166142

The right to freedom of expression entails duties and responsibilities and is subject to certain limits, provided for in Article 10.2 of the European Convention on Human Rights, which are concerned, among other things, with protecting the rights of others. Identifying what constitutes hate speech is especially difficult because this type of speech does not necessarily involve the expression of hatred or feelings. On the basis of all the applicable texts on freedom of expression and the case law of the European Court of Human Rights and other bodies, the author identifies certain parameters that make it possible to distinguish expressions which, although sometimes insulting, are fully protected by the right to freedom of expression from those which do not enjoy that protection.

Whitbourn, Lesley, The Lawyer's Remembrancer 2010, Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback Pocketbook, £56.00, ISBN: 9781847662927

The pocket-sized Lawyer's Remembrancer 2010 combines a diary and year planner so you can have the details of all your appointments and meetings at your fingertips where ever you may be. It is packed with practical information covering everything from commercial terms and

Whittaker, John; Machell, John; Ives, Colin, The Law of Limited Liability Partnerships 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional,, £120.00, ISBN: 9781847663221

The Law of Limited Liability Partnerships is the leading legal text relating to this particular type of corporate vehicle, which combines a degree of protection from personal liability with the traditional flexibility of a partnership.

Wicks, Joanne; Davey, Jonathan, Butterworths Property Law Handbook 8th ed, LexisNexis Butterworths, Paperback, £77.00, ISBN: 9781405743211

Butterworths Property Law Handbook provides an invaluable collection of statutory materials for property law practitioners in a single compact volume. Major statutory reforms have occurred in this complex area of law and this new edition has been brought right up-to-date to take account of these.

 FOR ALL ACCOUNT CUSTOMERS *****

WAMS – Wildy Account Management System

After months of planning and development Wildy's online Account Management System (WAMS) is up and running and ready to use.

WAMS will allow you to view all aspects of your account online. You will be able to look at invoices issued on your account, outstanding book orders, standing orders and subscriptions, and view full details for each. You can also use the Quick Orders tab to place orders using ISBNs – particularly useful if you are ordering a large number of books at once. Also included are various reports that you can either view on-screen or download to your desktop.

To start using WAMS you will need to register yourself first. Go to <https://accounts.wildy.com> and click on the New User link and enter the details requested. The field for username and password are for you to enter a username and password of your own choice to use when accessing WAMS.

Once you have completed the registration form you will get an automated e-mail to verify your e-mail address, and once we have authenticated your details you will be able to log-in and start using the service.

WAMS supports multiple registrations for each account, so your colleagues can also register themselves as users in the same way.

We have designed WAMS to be easy to use and intuitive, and we hope you will like the look and feel of the site as much as the functionality.

Goode: Commercial Law 4th Edition

£125.00

Product Code: GCL

ISBN: 9781405734473

Publication Date: December 2009

Goode: Commercial Law 4th Edition acts as a first port of call for the modern day practitioner with its theoretical and practical coverage of commercial law in both a national and an international context.

Key changes to this edition include:

- Discussion of the current version of the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits (UCP 600)
- Consideration of the implications of the House of Lords decision in Spectrum Plus for charges over book debts in particular and floating charges in general
- Treatment of the Rome I Regulation as to the law applicable to contractual obligations

Drafting Commercial Agreements 4th edition

by Richard Christou

Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9781847036100, £185.00, due December 2009

The new edition of this authoritative text provides the most commonly used precedents for the general commercial practitioner. Extensive in its coverage, with topics including dispute resolution, employment, joint ventures, teaming agreements, agency and distribution agreements, and much more, the precedents are accompanied by advice on drafting and negotiating agreements, as well as authoritative commentary with cross references to case law. The mergers and acquisitions process is outlined, with appropriate precedents and explanation of the basic principles. International in its scope with references to EC legislation and Commission decisions, the book addresses such topics as distribution agreements within the realms of EC competition law. A detailed and thorough analysis of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977 is provided, as well as other areas such as the supply of goods and services to both business customers and consumers. The new edition includes a chapter on confidentiality agreements with selected precedents and guidance, and includes a CD-ROM of precedents for use when drafting documents. The author, Richard Christou, is Corporate Senior Vice President of Fujitsu Ltd, and has many years of experience drafting, advising on and negotiating commercial agreements.

Competition Litigation: UK Practice and Procedure

Edited by Mark Brealey QC and Nicholas Green QC

Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199573332, £145.00, due January 2010

Competition Litigation: UK Practice and Procedure is the new definitive work on competition litigation in the UK. Written and edited by a team from leading competition set Brick Court Chambers, this book draws upon the vast collective experience of the authors and offers unprecedented breadth of commentary and depth of expert insight into the practice and procedure of competition litigation, focussing particularly on the High Court and the Competition Appeal Tribunal. The work covers all aspects of competition litigation including: commencement of proceedings, jurisdiction, statements of case, disclosure, evidential issues, privilege and confidentiality, hearings, intervention, remedies, and dispute resolution. It takes a unique hands-on approach to the subject, offering extensive practical guidance that goes beyond the scope of typical civil procedure books. The book will be an essential companion for any practitioner specialising in contentious competition law, as well as for those in the judiciary and the regulatory authorities themselves. It will also be the first port of call for commercial litigators who need to understand the specific demands and peculiarities of competition litigation.

Whitman & Sherry on Income Tax 4th edition

by Michael Sherry, David Southern, Barrie Akin, Philip Ridgeway, Rebecca Cave, Geraldine Caulfield and Setu Kamal

Sweet & Maxwell, Looseleaf, ISBN 9781847038579, £354.00, due December 2009
First published in 1971 as Whitman & Wheatcroft on

Income Tax and Surtax, the fourth edition of this leading practitioner text is now being published in loose-leaf format, allowing for regular updates to ensure the contents reflect the latest developments in legislation and case law. Written by an experienced team of tax practitioners and tax authors, the new edition examines every aspect of income tax showing how the legislation has been interpreted by the courts and providing examples of case studies. Complete coverage of business income, employment income, investment income and foreign income is given, as well as explanatory notes on recent income tax acts and regulations. Business income is analysed in terms of computation for profits on trade, profession and ventures, and the administration of income tax, including returns, self-assessment, machinery of assessment, appeals and collection, is covered. Focused commentary is provided on specific taxpayers such as trustees, charities and partnerships, and the principles of remittance of tax on individuals bases are outlined. Administrative provisions including the new tribunal appeals structure and the new review provisions are also covered.

Kerr & Hunter on Receivers and Administrators 19th edition

by Sandra Frisby, Malcolm Davis-White QC, David Bennett and Michael Jones
Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9781847037541, £265.00, due December 2009
This authoritative text explains the procedures for the appointment, liability and termination of receivers and administrators. It guides practitioners through the impact of the new legislative developments and reflects the latest rulings from both UK and EU courts. The new edition includes the relevant developments of the UNCITRAL Model in the EU and US, as well as the latest decisions and a case study on Cross Border Insolvency. Coverage is provided on the rulings of the Spectrum case and its impact of the 'charge on book debts' jurisprudence, and also on the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, including the abolition of the Assets Recovery Agency and transfer of its main civil recovery function to the Serious Organised Crime Agency. It considers development in relation to the 'prescribed part' for the unsecured creditors in receivership and administration, and includes a comprehensive account of the highly important taxation position in both receivership and administration. A full exposition of the law and practice of administrative receivership as it applies in Scotland is also provided.

Solicitors' Duties and Liabilities 2nd edition

by Roger Billins
Law Society Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781853285196, £130.00, due December 2009
This authoritative and comprehensive guide examines the principal obligations of a solicitor in private practice. It covers the main areas of operating a practice and the relationship with the client, from commencement to termination of the retainer. The work provides a thorough analysis of the obligations that solicitors owe to clients, third parties, the court and the State and the liabilities for failing to meet these obligations. In addition to duties that have been created by regulation, the book looks in depth at the many instances where they have been created and extended through common law by decisions of the courts. The book takes account of all of the recent significant case law in these areas including Marks & Spencer v Freshfields, Hilton v Barker, Booth and Eastwood, and Football League v Edge Ellison. The author offers practical guidance and advice on key topics in this area, including: the retainer; the solicitor's authority to act for a client; privilege; the duty of confidence; and conflicts of interest. The commentary is supported by a range of supplementary materials including the Solicitors' Code of Conduct and the Solicitors Act 1974.

FIDIC Contracts: Law and Practice

by Ellis Baker, Ben Mellors, Scott Chalmers and Anthony Lavers

Informa Law, Hardcover, ISBN 9781843116288, £265.00, due December 2009
The Federation International des Ingénieurs - Conseils (FIDIC) is the leading body for the development of model standard forms of contract for use in the international construction industry. The FIDIC suite of contracts are generally accepted by employers and contractors as providing a recognisable common basis of agreement for defining the conditions of contract for the construction industry worldwide. FIDIC Contracts: Law and Practice will provide legal commentary, detailed clause-by-clause analysis and relevant case law for each of the different forms. The FIDIC suite of contracts will be seen in relation to other organisations, such as the World Bank and ICC who are closely involved with their use. The author team includes both 'front-end' experience of project procurement and international dispute resolution experience and their commentary will be given against the background of conflicting views held by those occupying particular positions in the industry. FIDIC Contracts: Law and Practice will be suitable for lawyers practising in international procurement and dispute resolution, but also for engineers, project managers, quantity surveyors, architects and contractors.

International Succession

by Louis Garb and John Wood

Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199550272, £145.00, due January 2010

Increasing numbers of people have connections with one country, but live and work in another, frequently owning property or investments in several countries. As such, international aspects arise in an increasing number of estates. Different countries may have separate arrangements for ownership, taxation, and succession. International Succession equips practitioners with the information necessary to navigate problems involving these different systems. Although lawyers would often advise only on the law of the jurisdictions in which they are based, seeking advice from lawyers in other countries, this book will save the practitioner the time - and expense - of ascertaining the basics concerning the inheritance systems in different countries, offering clear and easy to use information on the laws of inheritance and succession. Each country's report is based on responses to a comprehensive questionnaire that considers the practical issues arising from the jurisdiction's individual laws, making it easy for users to make specific comparisons between the laws of one country and another. The book covers nearly fifty countries with entries written by experts from each country, making it an invaluable resource for the busy practitioner. This title is an improved and expanded version of International Succession, edited by Louis Garb and published by Kluwer Law International, 2004. This edition, published in hardback form, will also be supplemented annually in between editions to update the individual country entries.

International Commercial Arbitration and Conciliation in UNCITRAL Model Law Jurisdictions 3rd edition

by Peter Binder

Sweet & Maxwell, Hardcover, ISBN 9781847032058, £225.00, due December 2009
International Commercial Arbitration and Conciliation in UNCITRAL Model Law Jurisdictions gives you complete coverage of UNCITRAL's Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration and the Model Law on International Commercial Conciliation. It covers all the information that you will need when considering arbitration in one of the 'Model Law Countries' and enables you to ascertain what you can expect in each jurisdiction. The reasons for and policies behind UNCITRAL's Model Laws are clearly and analytically examined. The work evaluates the different views on the provisions and their practical implications. With an examination of over sixty national adoptions of the Model Laws (including the world's top ADR locations and new countries that have adopted the Laws since the previous edition), this work gives you a complete picture of global practice. Updated with extensive commentary on the revised 2006-Model

Law provisions on arbitration agreements and interim measures, the new edition also includes CLOUT case summaries for the first time. The new edition highlights details of the new countries that have adopted the Model Laws since the second edition, and features a first preview of the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules 2010.

Amending a Commercial Lease 4th edition

by Karl Bamford

Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, ISBN 9781847663481, £88.00, due December 2009

The 4th edition of this text offers practical information on identifying potential amendments and is written in a highly accessible format, standard lease terms are cited on one page with the relevant commentary given on the opposite. Negotiating tips are included assisting practitioners to develop negotiating tactics and arguments. The new edition has been fully updated and revised to take account of recent industry developments and case law, and includes coverage of the 2007 Code of Practice for Commercial Leases in England and Wales; a specimen Retail Index rent review clause; and updated version of the Service Charge Code; and a draft Rent Deposit Deed.

Civil Costs: Law and Practice

Dr Mark Friston

Jordan Publishing, Paperback, ISBN 9781846611803, £75.00, due February 2010

The law regulating civil costs has undergone a transformation over the past 10 years following the introduction of the CPR and the abolition of legal aid for most areas of civil litigation. The result is a complex regime of primary and secondary legislation, common law and professional conduct rules. Civil Costs: Law and Practice is an authoritative and comprehensive new work covering all aspects of civil costs coupled with practical applications, detailed references and precedents. The work includes the text of relevant statutes, rules and cases, as well as references to many authorities difficult to find elsewhere. The result is a valuable reference work which provides a one-stop-shop for the law governing civil costs. Civil Costs: Law and Practice is essential reading for all civil litigators (especially costs lawyers), costs draftsmen, solicitors with management responsibilities and the judiciary.

The Snail & Ginger Beer by Matthew Chapman

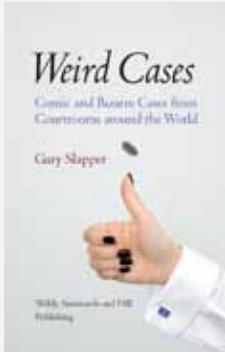

New

ISBN: 9780854900497
Published: December 2009
Binding: Hardback
Price: £14.99

On an August evening in 1928 May Donoghue, a shop assistant, entered a café in Paisley. The circumstances of her visit made legal history. A ginger beer was ordered for Mrs Donoghue who famously complained that, to her surprise and shock, a decomposed snail had tumbled from the bottle into her glass. Mrs Donoghue sued for the nervous shock she claimed to have suffered as a result. The question whether she had a case in law against the manufacturer of the ginger beer was argued as far as the House of Lords. It is hard to overstate the importance of the decision in Donoghue v Stevenson. It represents, perhaps, the greatest contribution made by English and Scottish lawyers to the development of the common law. The Snail and the Ginger Beer tells the full story of this remarkable case.

Weird Cases by Gary Slapper

New

ISBN: 9780854900619
Published: December 2009
Binding: Hardback
Price: £9.99

Based on the author's popular Times Online column 'Weird Cases', this book draws on extraordinary cases from many countries. The result is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century. The cases featured in Weird Cases are those that stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts. The chapters are: Compensation and Punishment, Love and Sex, Food, Drink, and Drugs, Judges, Death and Violence, Pets and Animals, On the Road, Lawyers, and Jurors, Friends, and Neighbours.

ISBN: 9781898029908
Binding: Hardback
Price: £12.95

Professor Rains provides a humorous collection of modern-day fables based on actual law cases. These tales are for everyone: not just lawyers, but people too. The fables and their accompanying morals offer us ironic views of the illusive quest for justice in the American legal system. These follies of the legal system, and of those who use and abuse it, are cleverly illustrated by the charming drawings of the creative E.A. Jacobsen.

Faces of Law by James Hunkin

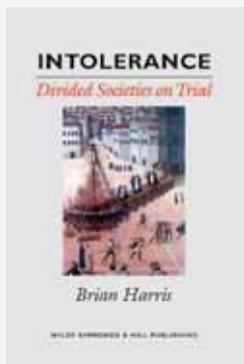

ISBN: 9780854900275

Binding: Hardback

Price: £25

Faces of Law is a unique photographic chronicle of 100 people working in the legal profession at the beginning of the twenty-first century. It forms part of an on-going chronicle – ‘Faces of Britain’. The collection covers a broad spectrum of activities including some of the country’s most respected judges, solicitors and barristers as well as support staff and others. Each portrait is accompanied by a personal testimony providing a fascinating insight into the working lives and ideas of the men and women who help shape our society.

Intolerance by Brian Harris

ISBN: 9780854900251

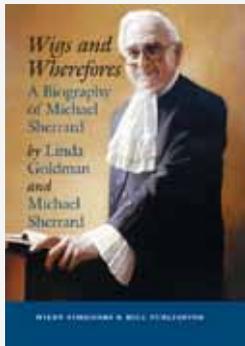

Binding: Hardback

Price: £19.95

By making extensive use of surviving court documentation from famous - and not so famous - trials, Brian Harris is able to explore several issues that have given rise to deep-rooted divisions within Western society, such as slavery, religion and homosexuality. Intolerance: Divided Societies on Trial provides an engaging and thought-provoking account of man’s intolerance to man through the ages.

Wigs and Wherefores by Linda Goldman and Michael Sherrard

ISBN: 9780854900305
Binding: Hardback
Price: £25.00

This book provides a frank and entertaining account of Michael Sherrard's life in the law. Many of the events and personalities within its pages continue to spark public interest: the defence of James Hanratty; the inquiry into John Stonehouse's activities; encounters with Robert Maxwell; and the anti-apartheid activities of Peter Hain. Wigs and Wherefores is a compelling tale told with humour and compassion, providing a fascinating insight into the remarkable career of one of the foremost advocates of his generation.

In these three volumes of reminiscences Eric Stockdale gives an amusing account of some of his more entertaining and interesting cases while at the Bar and on the Bench, coupled with revealing stories about some of his contemporaries in the law.

Forensic Fables by 'O'

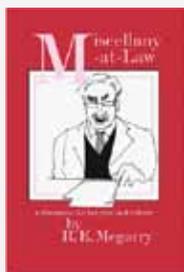

ISBN: 9781898029878

Binding: Hardback

Price: £19.95

Forensic Fables appeared first in the Law Journal and then in book form between 1926 and 1932. They were published anonymously, but their authorship was quickly guessed. The literary style and the pictorial delineation were alike unmistakable. They were the work of Theo Mathew composed in his study on the ground floor at the back of 31 Cornwall Gardens. They show his wit in all its maturity.

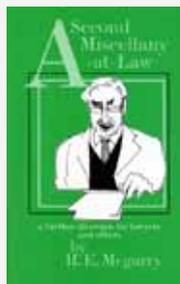

Miscellany at Law A Second Miscellany at Law by Robert Megarry

ISBN: 9781898029762

Binding: Hardback

Price: £19.95

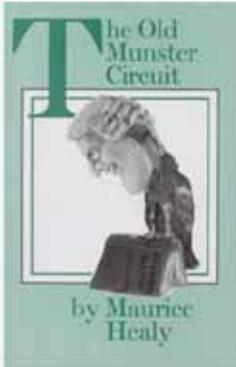

ISBN: 9781898029779

Binding: Hardback

Price: £19.95

Primarily a collections of the wise and witty sayings of judges, Megarry's Miscellany and Second Miscellany were first published 50 and 35 years ago and have become classics and required reading for anyone interested in the law.

The Old Munster Circuit by Maurice Healy

ISBN: 9780854900985
Binding: Hardback
Price: £19.95

"A charming unstructured anthology of humorous legal anecdotes from Ireland. The stories include instances of judicial severity like that of Lord Justice Holmes's sentencing an old man from a farming community to 15 years. The convict cried for mercy saying he would not live to finish the sentence. "Well," said the judge, "try to do as much of it as you can!"

The contribution of litigants is also well documented, such as that of the defendant in a case about the allegedly unfair sale of a horse. Examining the ethics of horse-dealing, the judge barked at the defendant: "That's not what you told (the purchaser) at the Bandon Fair." "Oh no, but I'm on me oath now" came the reply which won him the case. " Gary Slapper- The Times Student Law Supplement, 18 October, 2005.
