MAJOR NEW TITLES THIS MONTH

Austin, R.P.; Ramsay, I.M., Ford's Principles of Corporations Law 14th ed, LexisNexis Butterworths Australia, Paperback, £74.00, ISBN: 9780409326444

Ford's Principles of Corporations Law is a classic high-level text. It is written by experts who provide the most authoritative and comprehensive commentary of all aspects of Australian corporate law.

Baker, Ellis; Mellors, Ben; Chalmers, Scott; Lavers, Anthony, FIDIC Contracts: Law and Practice, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £290.00, ISBN: 9781843116288

Previously announced with ISBN 9781843116134

The FIDIC Forms of Contract are used to provide a recognisable common basis of agreement where the project and the principal contract are international, and consist of a suite of contracts. This book covers the full range of FIDIC contracts, providing legal commentary, detailed clause-by-clause analysis, and relevant case law for each of the different forms.

Bichou, Khalid, Port Operations, Planning and Logistics, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £245.00, ISBN: 9781843118053

Port Operations, Planning and Logistics is designed to offer a comprehensive and detailed analysis of world port systems through applying both theoretical and practical (managerial) approaches to port operations, management and policy. The author draws from a rare combination of extensive cross-management professional experience and established multi-disciplinary academic expertise to provide a comprehensive and structured publication that cuts across different research fields; economics, engineering, operations, technology, management, strategy and policy.

Bown, Chad; Pauwelyn, Joost, Law, Economics and Politics of Retaliation in WTO Dispute Settlement, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9780521119979

The WTO allows its members to retaliate in the face of continued non-compliance. After more than ten years' operation and ten arbitration disputes, this volume assesses the law, economics and politics of trade sanctions in WTO dispute settlement. Including more than thirty contributions from leading academics, trade diplomats and practitioners, it offers a thorough analysis of the legal rules on permissible WTO retaliation as well as an assessment of the economic rationale and calculations behind the mechanism. In addition, it provides first hand experiences of those countries that have obtained WTO authorisation to retaliate, ranging from the United States and the EC to Mexico and Antigua.

Cartner, John A C; Fiske, Richard P; Leiter, Tara L, The International Law of the Shipmaster, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £305.00, ISBN: 9781843118077

A comprehensive review of the laws and regulations governing the shipmaster including customary law, case law, statutory law, treaty law and regulatory law.

Colino, Sandra Marco, Vertical Agreements and Competition Law: A Comparative Study of the EU and US Regimes, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN:

9781841138718

This book focuses on the current legal framework for vertical agreements in the EC and the US. Over the last ten years, antitrust rules governing these agreements have undergone thorough reform. In the EC, the old sector-specific block exemptions were replaced by Regulation 2790/99, applicable to all sectors of the economy. In addition, changes introduced to the procedural rules have led to the decentralisation of Article 81(3) and the removal of the notification requirement.

Conaglen, Matthew, Fiduciary Loyalty: Protecting the Due Performance of Non-Fiduciary Duties, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781841135830
Fiduciary Loyalty presents

a comprehensive analysis of the nature and function of fiduciary duties. The concept of loyalty, which lies at the heart of fiduciary doctrine, is a form of protection which is designed to enhance the likelihood of due performance of non-fiduciary duties, by seeking to avoid influences or temptations that may distract the fiduciary from providing such proper performance.

Crawford, Emily, The Treatment of Combatants and Insurgents under the Law of Armed Conflict, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780199578962

This book makes the case for eliminating the distinction between types of armed conflict under international humanitarian law (IHL), specifically as they apply to persons taking a direct part in the hostilities - be they soldiers or insurgents.

Cunningham, Naomi; LAG, Employment Tribunal Claims: Tactics and Precedents 3rd ed, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9781903307700

This new edition provides depth and variety to give reassurance to beginners in the field, and its accessibility and clarity make it ideally suited for trade unionists, non-specialist advisers, volunteer tribunal representatives, lawyers at an early stage in their careers, and claimants representing themselves. Employment Tribunal Claims also serves as an excellent occasional resource for the established practitioner looking for some borrowed experience of a particular tactical problem, or for harassed solicitors wanting to point their clients to an accessible source of answers to employment tribunal FAQs.

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, CCH: China Master Tax Guide 2009/10 7th ed, Kluwer Law International, Paperback, £71.00, ISBN: 9789041132307

The Guide is expertly authored by the professionals

at Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, who use their on-the-ground experience to make the book truly useful for day-to-day work. Highlighting recent changes in the revenue laws, the Guide offers expert guidance through tax legislation and circular references, revised tax rates for existing and newly introduced tax categories, and a list of the double tax treaties which China has ratified with other countries.

Dwyer, Deirdre, The Civil Procedure Rules Ten Years On, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £80.00, ISBN: 9780199576883

Ten years after the Civil Procedure Rules changed the landscape of civil justice in England and Wales, this book presents an analysis, by some of the leading judges, academics and practitioners involved in civil litigation in this country, of the effectiveness of the Woolf Reforms, and the challenges facing civil procedure today.

Ehlermann, Claus-Dieter; Marquis, Mel, European Competition Law Annual 2008: Antitrust Settlements under EC Competition Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £125.00, ISBN: 9781841139586

This is the thirteenth in the series, reproducing the debate which this year examined the settlements in cartel cases, including their links with leniency and with private enforcement mechanisms, and settlements pursuant to Article 9 of Regulation 1/2003.

Ellinger, Peter; Neo, Dora, Law and Practice of Documentary Letters of Credit, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9781841136738

The book examines the topic on the basis of the common law system, primarily UK law, and adopts an approach that is analytical and not merely descriptive. Letter of credit transactions are, by their nature, international and most nations have adopted the Uniform Customs and Practices ('UCP') originally promulgated by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) in 1933 and updated from time to time.

Fitzgerald, Sean; Muth, Graham, Shareholders' Agreements 5th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Hardback & CD-ROM, £178.06, ISBN:

9780421932302

This authoritative book gives in-depth guidance on the law governing all forms of shareholder agreements and advice on drafting these agreements. It analyses the reforms introduced by the Companies Act 2006 which directly affect this area, and discusses the ramifications of the Companies Act 2006 on articles of association.

Forlin, Gerard; Smail, Louise, Corporate Liability: Work Related Deaths and Criminal Prosecutions 2nd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £128.00, ISBN: 9781845922177

This new, fully updated edition of Corporate Liability: Work Related Deaths and Criminal Prosecutions is the only book to provide, in a single-source, an expert guide to general procedure and practice surrounding this topic, plus analysis of how the law affects specific key industries.

Foster, Tony, Dutch Legal Terminology in English 3rd ed, Kluwer Academic Publishers Group, Paperback, £27.50, ISBN: 9789013064179

lish has proven an invaluable desk reference tool for students of law, legal academics and practitioners alike. This third revised and expanded edition is true to its original intent - to provide legally reliable translations of the 2000 most frequently used Dutch legal terms and to place these terms in their appropriate context.

Fuller, Graham, Purchasing Contracts: A Practical Guide 2nd ed, Spiramus Press Ltd, Softcover, £24.95, ISBN: 9781904905691

Purchasing Contracts is intended to be of assistance to those whose work is with contracts for the procurement of goods and services rather than yet another contract law textbook. This second edition contains additional chapters including one on the special rules governing purchasing by public bodies and utilities. The subjects of misrepresentation, exemption clauses and electronic contracting are amongst those that have been updated and covered in more detail. The bill currently going through Parliament on bribery is also dealt with.

Garb, Louis; Wood, John, International Succession 3rd ed, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £145.00, ISBN: 9780199550272

Although lawyers would often advise only on the law of the jurisdictions in which they are based, seeking advice from lawyers in other countries, this book will save the practitioner the time - and expense - of ascertaining the basics concerning the inheritance systems in different countries, offering clear and easy to use information on the laws of inheritance and succession. Each country's report is based on responses to a comprehensive questionnaire that considers the practical issues arising from the jurisdiction's individual laws, making it easy for users to make specific comparisons between the laws of one country and another. The book covers over fifty countries with entries written by experts from each country, making it an invaluable resource for the busy practitioner.

Grando, Michelle T., Evidence, Proof, and Fact-Finding in WTO Dispute Settlement, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780199572649

This book examines the process through which a World Trade Organization (WTO) dispute settlement panel formulates its conclusions with respect to the facts of a case, i.e. the process of fact-finding or process of proof. This book reviews the extensive jurisprudence developed in the 14 years of operation of the WTO dispute settlement system with a view to (a) determining whether panels and the Appellate Body have set out optimal rules to govern the process of fact-finding and, to the extent that that is not the case, (b) to make suggestions for improvement.

Hewitt Associates, Pensions Pocket Book 2010, Economic and Financial Publishing, Pocketbook, £42.00, ISBN: 9781841162171

The Pensions Pocket Book 2010 now in its 22nd edition, delivers to your fingertips the essential facts and figures you need in your daily work. You will find a wealth of instantly accessible data, condensed into over 280 pages of what is a compact and truly pocket-sized guide. The concise yet clear presentation, including statistical tables and charts, step-by-step guides to procedures, memory-jogging check lists and useful summaries, will help you enormously in dealing with pension schemes, the legal background or current pensions issues.

Heydon, J.D., Cross On Evidence 8th Australian Edition, LexisNexis Butterworths Australia, Paperback, £129.00, ISBN: 9780409326673

This prestigious work, written by the Honourable J D Heydon AC, provides a detailed and authoritative analysis of the Rules of the Law of Evidence in Australia with explicit statements of doctrine, together with an exposition of the principles underlying the various rules. In this eighth Australian edition, the author expands the commentary of this well-respected work to include; the extensive amendments to the Evidence Acts 1995 (Cth and NSW), and the extension of that Act to Victoria. Further, the work reflects the extensive revisions on views, judicial notice, opinion evidence, the control of prosecution addresses, and questions in cross-examination.

Hickey, Robin, Property and the Law of Finders, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £40.00, ISBN: 9781841135755

This first full-length treatment of finders sets them in their legal-historical context, and discovers a fascinating area of law lying at the crossroads of crime, obligations, and property. That on the same facts a finder might be thief, bailee, and/or property right holder has clouded our conceptual analysis, and prevented us from stating simply our rules about finding. Nonetheless, when the applicable doctrines and policies of our property law are explored, and particularly the central concept of possession, we can argue confidently that, despite centuries of doubt and confusion, English law has succeeded in producing a body of law that is theoretically and practically coherent.

Hill, Stephen, Corporate Fraud: Prevention and Detection 2nd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £62.00, ISBN: 9781847662873

Since the first edition of this practical book, there has been a huge change in this area of the law, in terms of both the types of fraud that are committed and the surrounding legislation. This book provides a step-by-step guide to detecting fraud and sets out the most effective counter-measures. Written for practitioners as well as nonspecialists, including auditors and company directors, Corporate Fraud puts solid forensic accounting skills into plain English, making the title an important addition to the library of anyone with responsibilities in this area.

Johnston, Andrew, EC Regulation of Corporate Governance, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780521876674

economic theory and reflexive governance. By contrasting the normative demands of the neoclassical 'agency' model with those of the productive coalition model, he shows how their incompatibility required political compromise.

Johnston, Christopher, Medical Treatment Decisions and the Law: The Mental Capacity Act in Action 2nd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £68.00, ISBN: 9781845924249

Medical Treatment Decisions and the Law covers an increasingly important area of law, seeking to place medical decision-making in its context and to provide practical guidance to the solution of many problems likely to be encountered in practice. The book concentrates on the decisions involved in obtaining authority for the provision, withholding and withdrawal of physical medical treatment and care and the legal requirements and consequences of the decision-making process. With a unique collection of valuable materials not easily obtained elsewhere, this important reference work examines both the general principles and specific problems such as caesarean sections, anorexia and persistent vegetative state.

Kapardis, Andreas, Psychology and Law: A Critical Introduction 3rd ed, Cambridge University Press, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9780521707732

Fully revised and expanded, the third edition of Psychology and Law: A Critical Introduction is an up-to-date discussion of contemporary debates at the interface between psychology and criminal law. Features new sections on restorative justice, police prejudice and discrimination, terrorism and profiling offenders.

Kimball, George, Outsourcing Agreements: A Practical Guide, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199575220

Wildy's Book of the Month - January 2010

Outsourcing Agreements: A Practical Guide is an accessible guide to the legal and practical issues arising from complex outsourcing deals with a particular emphasis on the UK and the US. Lawyers, executives and managers must learn how all of the pieces of the outsourcing jigsaw - contractual, operational, technical and financial - fit together into a coherent, manageable whole that suppliers can perform and customers can manage. This book covers the discrete legal issues involved, and also the management of the relationship between vendor and purchaser of outsourcing services, in a practical and comprehensive way. The accessible nature of this book means it will be of interest to lawyers in private practice or in-house, in particular those who are new to outsourcing as an area of practice.

Klinck, Dennis R., Conscience, Equity and the Court of Chancery in Early Modern England, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780754667742

This study tackles the difficult subject of the place of conscience in the development of English equity during a crucial period of legal history. Addressing the notion of conscience as a juristic principle in the Court of Chancery during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, the book explores how the concept was understood and how it figured in legal judgement.

Klose, Bernd H., Asset Tracing and Recovery: The FraudNet World Compendium, Erich Schmidt Verlag, Paperback, £142.00, ISBN: 9783503116607

Crime does not pay. What sounds so easy in theory is hard to keep in practice. Globalization has given criminals an unlimited number of possibilities especially in offshore areas to hide deprived assets. Bernd Klose and the international experts of FraudNet deliver comprehensive and crucial knowledge about the possibilities of asset tracing & recovery.

Kramer, Adam, Contract Law: An Index and Digest of Published Writings, Hart Publishing, Paperback, £25.00, ISBN: 9781841135748

This is a new type of book. It provides an index of the most useful and important academic and other writings on contract law, whether published in articles or journal chapters, or as books. These writings, with their full citation, are gathered under familiar contract law subject-headings, and the most significant half of them are digested in a summary of a few lines each.

Lagerberg, Gerry; Butter, Christian, Litigation Support: The PricewaterhouseCoopers Guide to Forensic Analysis and Accounting

Evidence 5th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £128.00, ISBN: 9781847661401

Expert guidance for accountancy and legal practitioners involved in litigation and commercial disputes. This popular guide from PricewaterhouseCoopers outlines the fundamental skills and techniques of forensic analysis, alongside the practical guidance and tips professionals engaging a forensic accountant need to know.

Lang, Yvonne; Thorpe, Peter, Accounts and Audit of Limited Liability Partnerships 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £75.00, ISBN: 9781847665034

This popular guide outlines how to apply the very latest UK accounting standards to limited liability partnerships.

Whether you already advise an LLP, or your clients are considering becoming one, it will ensure complete legal compliance and accountancy precision. The authors, both accountancy experts, consider the accounting implications arising from the use of LLPs in a wide range of sectors.

Lianos, Ioannis; Kokkoris, Ioannis, The Reform of EC

Competition Law: New Challenges, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £118.00, ISBN: 9789041126924

Twenty-nine prominent competition law authorities – representing all three ‘estates’ (practice, administrative regulation, and academe) – bring their deeply informed knowledge and perspectives on this crucially important body of law to the table. This book represents a fresh approach to EC competition law – one that is of singular value in grappling with the huge economic challenges we face today. As a synthesis of the law and options available to European competition authorities and legal practitioners in the field, it stands without peer. It will be greatly welcomed by lawyers, policymakers and other interested professionals in Europe and throughout the world.

Luba, Jan; Knafler, Stephen, Repairs: Tenants’ Rights 4th ed, Legal Action Group, Paperback, £45.00, ISBN: 9781903307670

The fourth edition of this handbook sets out the law and practice on the enforcement of landlords’ obligations for housing disrepair.

Dealing with situations that advisers are most likely to encounter, the text has been updated and revised to cover legislative and case law developments, including the new rules on civil procedure as they relate to disrepair cases.

MacMillan, Catharine, Mistakes in Contract Law, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781841135076

This book explains the common law doctrine through an examination of the historical development of the doctrine in English law. Beginning with an overview of contractual mistake in Roman law, the book examines how theories of mistake were received at various points into English contract law from Roman and civil law sources. These transplants, made for pragmatic rather than principled reasons, combined in an uneasy manner with the pre-existing English contract law. Through its historical examination of mistake in contract law, the book provides not only insights into the nature of innovation and continuity within the common law but also the fate of legal transplants.

McKendrick, Ewan; Goode, Roy, Goode on Commercial Law 4th ed, Penguin Books,

Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780141030227

The fourth edition of Goode on Commercial Law, updated by Ewan McKendrick, is a highly acclaimed work and is used extensively by both students and practitioners, both in the UK and overseas. It combines a deep theoretical treatment of personal property and commercial law with a penetrating analysis of key issues in typical commercial and financial transactions.

Miller, Pete; Hardy, George, Taxation of Company Reorganisations 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback + eBook, £136.25, ISBN: 9781847663573

This practical day-to-day guide to the tax provisions of commercial reorganisations and reconstructions enables tax practitioners working in this increasingly important area of UK taxation to accurately negotiate their clients' commercial reorganisation transactions. This new 3rd edition is fully revised and updated and covers new legislation relating to the latest implementation of EU Directives into UK tax law

Munday, Roderick, Agency: Law and Principles 8th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9780199230372

This new work fills the gap for a much-needed clear, accessible and easy-to-use book on agency. It provides a useful reminder of the principles of agency law for experienced practitioners. It is also of interest to students looking for an approachable text on this topic. In addition to covering the general principles of agency law, the work addresses the application of law and the activities of particular classes of commercial agents operating in the major commercial centres, such as finance and banking, and international trade.

Nesic, Miryana; Boule, Laurence, Mediator Skills and Techniques: Triangle of Influence 2nd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £78.00, ISBN: 9781847661449

This is a clear, practical and essential guide covering the skills, techniques and strategies required in mediation by mediators, lawyers, clients and other participants. With examples, case studies, exercises and precedents throughout, this is an all-encompassing resource for both beginner and experienced mediators.

Parry, Rebecca; Xu, Yongqian; Zhang, Haizheng, China's New Enterprise Bankruptcy Law: Context, Interpretation and Application, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £65.00, ISBN: 9780754676379

China has recently entered a significant stage in its economic transition with the promulgation of a new bankruptcy law. The new law introduces a uniform and seemingly sophisticated regime, drawing inspiration from mature insolvency systems. However significant challenges are likely to be faced in the implementation of the new law, due to weaknesses in the legal and social infrastructure. This book presents a clear picture of the newly reformed Chinese bankruptcy legal structure.

Quenby, Richard, Flat Schemes in Residential and Mixed Use Developments 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback & CD-ROM, £103.55, ISBN: 9781847662446

Previously known as Cawthorn and Barraclough: The Sale and Management of Flats the 3rd edition of this practical book provides guidance on all areas of flat conveyancing from the points of view of the developer, landlord and flat buyer.

Roebuck, Derek, Disputes and Differences: Comparisons in Law, Language and History, HOLO Books, Hardback, £40, ISBN: 9780954405625

Thirty-eight papers written over fifty years show that anyone who wants to understand law can benefit from the insights of linguistics, history and anthropology. Equally important are the techniques of other disciplines, particularly the comparative method.

Rubini, Luca, Definition of Subsidy and State Aid: WTO and EC Law in Comparative Perspective, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780199533398

This book presents a conceptual analysis of the definitions of state aid and subsidy in EC and WTO law. It provides a comparative analysis of the regulation of subsidy in both systems, examining the coherence of the conceptual understanding of subsidy and the grounds for legitimate state intervention.

Salacuse, Jeswald W.; Braker, Henry J., The Law of Investment Treaties, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £95.00, ISBN: 9780199206056

Investment treaties, which grant special international protection to foreign investors and give them a means to enforce those rights against States in which they have invested, have become increasingly important in planning, executing and managing international investments. The Law of Investment Treaties explains the nature, history, and significance of investment treaties and their impact on international investors and investments, as well as on governments that are parties to them.

Salter, David; Rae, Maggie; Ellison, Robin, Pensions on Divorce: Law, Practice and Precedents, Lime Legal Ltd, Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9780955283444

In Pensions on Divorce three of the country's leading experts combine their wealth of knowledge and experience to provide family lawyers with everything they need to handle the pension aspects of family breakdown. Covering the law, practice and procedure relevant to everyday and more unusual cases, this immensely practical work will become the essential handbook for all practitioners advising couples on divorce, nullity, judicial separation or dissolution of a civil partnership.

Simpson, Mark; Smith, Nicole; Srivastava, Arun, International Guide to Money Laundering Law and Practice 3rd ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, £175.00, ISBN: 9781847661593

International Guide to Money Laundering provides an in-depth insight into the background of money laundering operations and offers a greater understanding of the anti-money laundering laws and regulations of the key global financial centres.

Smit, Anneke; Waters, Christopher, A Guide to International Law Careers Guide,

British Institute of International and Comparative Law, Paperback, £25.00, ISBN: 9781905221141

The experience of many students studying public international law at university is, ‘This is fascinating, but what can I do with it?’ While this Guide in no way detracts from the more intangible reasons to study international law, it is practically focused. The essential message is that international law jobs are out there and attainable if approached strategically and with perseverance.

Spangler, Timothy, Investment Management Law and Practice, Oxford University Press, Hardback, £250.00, ISBN: 9780199582501 Investment Management: Law and Practice provides an in-depth guide to the processes and legal and regulatory issues relating to investment management. Edited by Timothy Spangler, a New York qualified lawyer and English solicitor, this work provides a comparative consideration of UK and US practice.

Sparks, Arthur; Coppers, Frans, Steel: Carriage by Sea 5th ed, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £290.00, ISBN: 9781843118633

misfeasance, tracing assets has become important in all significant insolvencies. This is the first book to provide comprehensive coverage of the legal and practical forensic issues involved in asset tracing in insolvencies. Both corporate and personal insolvencies are covered in domestic and international cases.

Vanneste, Frédéric, General International Law Before

Human Rights Courts: Assessing the Specialty Claims of Human Rights Law, Intersentia Publishers, Hardback, £149.00, ISBN: 9789050959582

This book analyzes how the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) and the Inter-American Court of Human Rights (IACtHR) deal with general international law. In the light of the concerns of various authors about the fragmentation of international law and the “human rightist” aspirations of human rights law, the question arises whether these human rights courts put the unity of general international law into danger.

Wacks, Raymond, Privacy: A Very Short Introduction,, Pocketbook, £7.99, ISBN: 9780199556533

Privacy is a fundamental value that is under attack from several quarters. Electronic surveillance, biometrics, CCTV, ID cards, RFID codes, online security, the monitoring of employees, the uses and misuses of DNA, - to name but a few - all raise fundamental questions about our right to privacy. This Very Short Introduction also analyzes the tension between free speech and privacy generated by intrusive journalism, photography, and gratuitous disclosures by the media of the private lives of celebrities. Professor Wacks concludes this stimulating introduction by considering the future of privacy in our society.

ed, Oxford University Press, Hardcover, £195.00, ISBN: 9780199534869

The second edition of Practitioner's Handbook on International Arbitration provides concise country reports on important arbitral jurisdictions worldwide as well as commentaries on the most frequently used international arbitral rules and conventions.

Young, Kelly; Bruty, Sarah, Varsity Directory of Investigators and Process Servers 2010, Shaw & Sons Ltd,

Paperback, £38.00, ISBN: 9780721917917

First produced in 1984, this is now firmly established as the definitive guide to the services offered by professional investigators, process servers, bailiffs, security consultants, debt collectors, etc. Over 1000 entries are classified geographically and list names, postal addresses, telephone, fax and DX numbers and e-mail addresses, together with the type of services offered and to which professional bodies the organisation or individual belongs. 100% of the entries have been verified and updated as necessary. A Postcode Index further aids the location of appropriate services.

Property Development: A Practical Guide

by Gavin Le Chat

Law Society Publishing, Hardcover + CD, ISBN 9781853287695, £85.00, due April 2010.

Property Development offers a comprehensive, step-by-step guide to the acquisition of land for development. It provides a detailed analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of the different structures that may be used to finance and facilitate development work. The author draws on his considerable experience to highlight issues and offer practical solutions to potential pitfalls. This thorough and authoritative book identifies key issues with different finance structures and offers model clauses and suggested amendments to be made to development documentation, and considers the issues from a developer's and a landowner's point of view. It includes a substantial selection of model clauses, checklists and precedents which are reproduced on an accompanying CD-ROM for swift customisation. Gavin Le Chat is a partner at Howes Percival where he specialises in property development, acting for developers as well as landowners. He has over 26 years' experience and a detailed understanding of development work.

Drafting Service Agreements for Senior Employees 2nd edition

by Eugene Wojciechowski
Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback + CD, ISBN 9781847662866, £120.00, due March 2010.

This book provides a valuable precedent and reference source for in-house counsel and private practitioners who need to draft employee agreements. In addition to providing a bank of precedents (which are also included on the CD), it highlights key areas of which drafters need to be aware and the legislation that affects them. The new edition is substantially updated to take into account developments, including Codes of Practice, Company Directors (Companies Act 2006), TUPE 2006 and Paternity Leave. Eugene Wojciechowski is a Partner in the Employment team at Shoosmiths and has several years' experience specialising in employment law and advising on a full range of employment matters.

Urgent Applications in the Court of Protection

Her Honour Judge Nazreen Pearce and District Judge Sue Jackson

Jordan Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781846612152, £75.00, due March 2010.

The Mental Capacity Act 2005 has changed the role and work of the Court of Protection. The court's jurisdiction now extends not only to financial and property matters but also to health and welfare issues and disputes relating to lasting powers of attorney. The enlarged jurisdiction has introduced formal rules and procedures which must be followed. Court users therefore need to be familiar with the new regime, particularly where there is a degree of urgency, in order to ensure that applications are made in the correct form and contain the appropriate supporting information. This invaluable new book for professionals working with incapacitated adults, including barristers, solicitors, local authority lawyers, health authorities and NHS Trusts, is specifically designed to address this need, by covering all relevant topics from the perspective of the Court of Protection user faced with making an urgent application. For each topic there is a law and practice section, procedural guide, precedents and draft orders.

Nuclear Law: The Law Applying to Nuclear Installations and Radioactive Substances in its Historic Context 2nd edition

by Stephen Tromans QC

Hart Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781841138572, £95.00, due March 2010.

This book is a practical guide to the international, EC and UK law applying to the various uses of nuclear energy and radioactive substances. The first edition was produced in 1997, and given the renaissance of interest in nuclear power in the UK and worldwide, this new, updated and much expanded edition is timely. It will cover the law relating to the permitting and operation of nuclear power stations, the decommissioning and clean-up of former nuclear facilities, radiological protection, the management of radioactive waste and spent fuel, liability and insurance, and the security and transport of radioactive materials. Readers will find a clear framework explaining the development and application of nuclear law, and how domestic law is based on and influenced by international and European requirements and by its historical context. In the commercial context, the chapters dealing specifically with new build and with decommissioning will be vital reading. Stephen Tromans QC is a barrister specialising in environmental, planning and energy law, and has had an interest in nuclear matters for over 20 years.

Renewing Business Tenancies 4th edition

by Graham Fife

Jordan Publishing, Softcover, ISBN 9781846611919, £65.00, due February 2010.

Renewing Business Tenancies is a popular and practical step by step guide to the law and procedure for renewing business tenancies under Part II of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954, which was radically altered by the Regulatory Reform Order. The new edition of this popular title has been substantially revised to incorporate new developments such as Lay v Drexler (2007) (tenant's liability for cost if the tenant discontinued renewal proceedings); Trans-World Investments Limited v Dadarwalla (2007) (concerning the Court's calculation of the new rent under s 34); Wessex Reserve Forces and Cadets Association v White (2005) (landlord was opposing the grant of a new lease on the ground that it intended to redevelop); and Fowles v Heathrow Airport Limited (2008) (effect of the tenant's (flagrant) breach of planning law on a landlord's case for objecting to the grant of a new lease). A new chapter on contracting out of the security of tenure provisions will be added together with the appropriate forms. The book also includes checklists of information, Part II of the 1954 Act (as amended by the 2003 Order), and numerous helpful tips for advisers to both landlords and tenants.

Hamilton on Tax Appeals

by Penny Hamilton and Oliver Connolly

Bloomsbury Professional, Softcover, ISBN 9781847665089, £85.00, due February 2010.

From 1 April 2009 the four existing Tax Appeals Tribunals have been replaced by a new Tax Chamber of the First-Tier Tribunal, with a right of appeal with permission to a new Finance and Tax Chamber in the Upper Tribunal. The new system applies to the whole range of direct and indirect taxes. This new title reflects the new system and therefore applies to both direct and indirect taxes. It guides the reader through the whole appeals process from start to finish, providing a review of the new system. Penny Hamilton LLB FTII and Oliver Connolly are both barristers at Pump Court Tax Chambers.

International Trust Laws

by Paolo Panico

Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199551620, £145.00, due February 2010.

International Trust Laws provides practical and broad ranging coverage of the most important issues in international trust law across leading jurisdictions. It analyzes crucial topics surrounding the creation of trusts, the powers and duties of trustees, mechanisms of control, and the special uses of trusts. The topics are considered in the light both of their original development under English law, and the statutory solutions worked out by offshore jurisdictions such as Jersey, Guernsey, the Cayman Islands, the Bahamas, the Isle of Man and New Zealand. Other examples are drawn from a wealth of other jurisdictions including Dubai, Mauritius, and the Cook Islands. The book also reviews a wealth of case law from English and offshore courts and offers a unique consideration of the recognition and impact of trust law issues in civil law contexts.

Market Abuse Regulation 2nd edition

by Edward J Swan and John Virgo

Oxford University Press, Hardcover, ISBN 9780199532834, £115.00, due March 2010.

The second edition of Market Abuse Regulation offers a detailed analysis of the market abuse regime and the application of the regulations in the UK and EU. The work is of great value to financial services lawyers and companies who need a succinct, comprehensive and up to date analysis of the regime and the implications for their businesses. Consideration is given to the implementation and interpretation of the regulations, the conduct of investigations, the defences and appeals available against a finding of market abuse, and overlapping US regulation. Since the implementation of the EU Market Abuse Directive in the UK dates only from 2005, detailed consideration is given to the important enforcement policy decisions and market abuse cases which have been recently decided by the FSA and referred to the Financial Services Markets Tribunal. In particular, the new edition examines the modifications to enforcement procedures by the FSA, the move towards a more ‘principles-based’ approach to enforcement and the increased focus on senior management liability.

Copyright Law in the UK and European Community

by Jeremy Phillips

LexisNexis Butterworths, Hardcover, ISBN 9781405745369, £199.00, due March 2010.

Written by a team of expert practitioners led by Jeremy Phillips of Olswang, Copyright in the UK and European Community is a practical and forward thinking treatment of current and future copyright issues in the UK and Europe. Appealing to IP Practitioners and more specifically copyright practitioners, this work offers a practical and real-life treatise of how to approach day-to-day situations faced by practitioners as well as engaging readers with the subject. The increase in globalisation and the nature of current business practice means that it is no longer enough to consider only UK law, it is essential to consider the European angle and the decisions of the European Court of Justice. This book incorporates and treats thoroughly case law from the ECJ. It addresses technology media tools such as YouTube, Facebook, wikis, blogs, Twitter and other internet functions, looking at the effect advances in technology have had in the treatment of copyright and how this affects the practitioner and his client.

A User's Guide to Trade Marks and Passing Off 3rd edition

by Aaron Wood

Bloomsbury Professional, Softcover, ISBN 9781845921569, £82.00, due March 2010.

This new edition of a well established title provides a clear and concise commentary on trade mark law and practice in the UK and under CTM regulation. Completely updated to take account of the myriad of changes that have occurred since the second edition was published in 1998, it includes the key decisions of the UK courts, the UK registry, OHIM and the ECJ, as well as relevant changes in practice/procedure and statutory provisions. It is an essential reading for the busy IP practitioner and trademark specialist.

Carter-Ruck on Libel and Privacy 6th edition

Edited by Alastair Mullis and Cameron Doley

LexisNexis Butterworths, Hardcover, ISBN

9781405734523, £280.00, due April 2010.

Part of the Butterworths Common Law Series, Carter-Ruck on Libel and Privacy is an essential purchase for every practitioner involved with the law of defamation and privacy. Consisting of an account of the law of defamation in over 50 different countries including Eastern Europe, Malaysia and Singapore, it takes account of the Defamation Act 1996 and will be of value to all those whose activities take them into the international field. Fully updated and expanded to include the law of privacy, new developments such as harassment, the Human Rights Act, data protection and important cases such as Reynolds v Times Newspapers.

Legitimacy in EU Cartel Control

by Ingeborg Simonsson

Hart Publishing, Hardcover, ISBN 9781849460057, £85.00, due February 2010.

This book examines the law developed by the EU to control cartels. The law, including case-law, is carefully documented and analysed against a standard of legitimacy which questions the EU's enforcement measures, its institutional structures, policy choices, substantive law, evidentiary standards and procedures and sanctions. It includes a unique catalogue of over 150 EU cartel decisions, as well as novel analyses of difficult borderline issues such as mixed horizontal and vertical cartels, single-brand dealer cartels and buyer cartels. The effect on trade in cartel cases is analysed with reference to established law and deterrence theory. Throughout the book the author asks whether EU law also applies at the national level, or whether certain assessments need to be made according to national law. This approach makes the book particularly helpful for national authorities, courts and private practitioners. The book includes in-depth comparisons with US law as well as a comprehensive survey of the secondary (academic) literature on cartels. As such it presents not only a comprehensive practical view, but also a sound theoretical framework for better understanding cartel law. This is a work which will be of utmost importance to those working in competition authorities and competition courts in the EU Member States, as well as those working for EU institutions and in private practice and academia.

THE SNAIL AND THE GINGER BEER
The Story of Donoghue v Stevenson

Matthew Chapman

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854900497
Extent: 200 pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Hardback

On an August evening in 1928 May Donoghue, a shop assistant, entered a café in Paisley. The circumstances of her visit made legal history. A ginger beer was ordered for Mrs Donoghue who famously complained that, to her surprise and shock, a decomposed snail had tumbled from the bottle into her glass. Mrs Donoghue sued for the nervous shock she claimed to have suffered as a result. The question whether she had a case in law against the manufacturer of the ginger beer was argued as far as the House of Lords. It is hard to overstate the importance of the decision in Donoghue v Stevenson. It represents, perhaps, the greatest contribution made by English and Scottish lawyers to the development of the common law.

Donoghue v Stevenson made it clear that, even without a contract between the parties, a duty of care is owed by 'A' to take reasonable care to avoid acts or omissions which could reasonably be foreseen as likely to cause injury to his neighbour: 'B'. This concept, developed by the great jurist Lord Atkin, has become known by the universal shorthand, 'the neighbour principle'. Who, Lord Atkin asked rhetorically, is 'in law' my neighbour? Donoghue v Stevenson provides the answer.

The Snail and the Ginger Beer tells the full story of this remarkable case. It provides vivid biographical sketches of the protagonists and of the great lawyers who were involved in the case. It sets Donoghue v Stevenson in its historical context and re-evaluates the evidence. The roots of the neighbour principle are excavated in the parable of the Good Samaritan and the case law of the United States. The constitutional importance of the case is also dealt with; the blow it struck for a moral approach to the law which departed from a rigid doctrine of precedent. Finally, the book investigates the influence of Donoghue v Stevenson across the common law world: from the USA to the countries of what is now the Commonwealth.

CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS A Comparative Study

Andrew Harding & Peter Leyland

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854900633
Extent: 384 pp
Size: 152 x 229 mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains an outstanding set of essays on constitutional courts. In many nations constitutional justice can be identified as a central feature of contemporary constitutionalism. Moreover, viewed from a comparative global perspective it is clear that constitutional justice as well as providing a special kind of dispute resolution, also has been turned to as a means of safeguarding conditions of liberal democracy. What characteristics must such a court possess to undertake the tasks that confront them? These contributions by providing an analysis of features such as constitutional context, jurisdictional scope, organisational features and interpretative techniques to give a selective snapshot of the legal characteristics and the operation of constitutional courts across the world.

The chapters by a team of leading international scholars include a general introduction and then focus on: Austria, Central and Eastern Europe, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Spain, Turkey, Egypt, Francophone Africa, South Africa, Latin America, East Asia, Indonesia and Thailand.

Andrew Harding is Director of the Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives and Chair of Asia-Pacific Relations at the University of Victoria, Canada.

Peter Leyland is Professor of Public Law at London Metropolitan University. Both have published extensively in the field of comparative public law and they are joint editors of the series: 'Constitutional Systems of the World'.

WEIRD CASES
Comic and bizarre cases from courtrooms around the world

Gary Slapper

Price: £12.99
ISBN: 9780854900619
Extent: 160 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

Based on the author's popular Times Online column 'Weird Cases', this book draws on extraordinary cases from many countries, including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Romania, and China. The result is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys reading about the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century.

Courts have seen judges do things like try to turn off a musical tie playing "We wish you a merry Christmas" while sentencing a defendant to prison, fall fast asleep in the middle of trials, flip a coin to decide a case, demand a foot massage from a clerk, and get sentenced for judicial racketeering. Courts have listened to the defences like that of a bogus dentist caught using DIY tools on his patients, a man who based his defence on being as hapless as Homer Simpson, and a woman who was running a brothel from an office in the criminal courts. Courts have seen a litigant sue for becoming pregnant by a stray sperm in a swimming pool, and a litigant suddenly strip naked before the judges.

The cases featured in Weird Cases are those that truly stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts. The chapters are: Compensation and Punishment, Love and Sex, Food, Drink, and Drugs, Judges, Death and Violence, Pets and Animals, On the Road, Lawyers, and Jurors, Friends, and Neighbours.

Gary Slapper is an established writer in bringing law to a wide audience. He is a columnist with The Times, for which he has written since 1998, and Professor of Law at The Open University. He also acts as a Legal Consultant to BBC drama and documentaries.

CIVIL CODE OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

William E. Butler

Price: £95
ISBN: 9780854900589
Extent: 618 pp
Size: 189x246mm
Binding: Hardback

Although Part One of the Civil Code celebrates a decade and a half since its enactment, the final Part Four has been in force for about eighteen months. The “economic constitution” of the Russian Federation required not only some twelve years to be drafted and enacted, but as the keystone legal document in the transition from a socialist Planned Economy to a market-based economic system.

The present text contains Parts One, Two, Three, and Four of the Civil Code, as amended. It constitutes the complete Civil Code as contemplated by Russian civil law doctrine. The translation of the Civil Code is based on the official text published in the official gazette and as integrated on the legal data base provided by Consultant Plus.

William E. Butler, B. A. (The American University), M. A. (Johns Hopkins University SAIS), J.D. (Harvard), LL.M. (Academy University of Law, Institute of State and Law, Russian Academy of Sciences), Ph.D. (Johns Hopkins University SAIS), LL.D. (University of London), is the John Edward Fowler Distinguished Professor of Law, Dickinson School of Law, Pennsylvania State University, Professor Emeritus of Comparative Law in the University of London, and Director, The Vinogradoff Institute, Pennsylvania State University. By secondment (1994-2004) he served as the founder of the Faculty of Law and the M. M. Speranskii Professor of International and Comparative Law, Moscow Higher School of Social and Economic Sciences attached to the Academy of National Economy of the Russian Federation. He has been elected Academician of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, the Russian Academy of Natural Sciences, and a member of the Russian Academy of Legal Sciences and the American Law Institute. He also serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the Russian Association of Maritime Law.

SEXUAL OFFENCES HANDBOOK
A Practitioner's Guide to Sex Crime Trials

Felicity Gerry and Catarina Sjölin

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900350
Extent: 630 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

The law and procedure relating to sexual offences is notoriously complex. Since the advent of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, the law (both as to the offences and as to sentencing) changes depending on when the offence was committed, the age of the parties involved and the nature of the act committed. This new guide deals with historic and recent sexual offences, providing a step-by-step approach to the relevant law and procedure, including matters arising before and during trials, from the perspectives of both prosecution and the defence. It also provides coverage of proposed amendments and new legislation arising from the Policing and Crime Bill 2008 and the Coroners and Justice Bill 2009.

Written by two practitioners with extensive experience of preparing and presenting sex crime trials, this practical and accessible work will prove an invaluable reference for all practitioners working within this specialised area of criminal law.

Felicity Gerry is a barrister specialising in serious fatal, sexual and violent offences. She is a “Rape Specialist” advocate and is particularly experienced in complex and lengthy trials concerning recent or historic sexual crime. She has contributed to Counsel Magazine and to BBC Radio 4 “Law in Action” and recorded podcasts for CPDcast.com.

Catarina Sjölin is a specialist criminal barrister. She prosecutes and defends in cases involving a wide range of serious violence, abuse of children and sexual assaults including rape. She has contributed to Counsel Magazine and acted as Junior to the Midland Circuit.

GENETICS, MOLECULAR BIOLOGY AND THE LAW

John Candlish

Price:	£69
ISBN:	9780854900404
Extent:	287 pp
Size:	152mm x 229mm
Binding:	Hardback

This timely book provides a comprehensive treatment of the interface between the law and modern science as represented by genetics and molecular biology, albeit in a highly digestible and lucid style. Chapters are: 'The Basics of Molecular Biology' (the genome, genetics, proteomics); 'Criminal Law' (molecular transfer processes; theft of DNA; forensic mathematics; keynote cases); 'Aspects of Civil Law' (paternity and maternity; retention of DNA and privacy; DNA in medical law; DNA, insurance and employment); 'Intellectual Property' (patenting genes, expressed sequence tags and single nucleotide polymorphisms, keynote cases in U.K. and U.S.A.); 'Food' (gene manipulation; aspects of tort; environmental risks); 'International Law' (genetically modified organisms, CITES and CBD, warfare and molecular biology). Genetics, Molecular Biology and the Law provides practitioners and academics alike with a detailed analysis of how the law is responding to the latest advances in the increasingly complex fields of molecular biology and genetics.

John Candlish took degrees in science and law from the Universities of St Andrews, London and Singapore, and has held academic positions in Scotland, Malaysia, Saudi Arabia and Singapore. He is the author of several books, including Hawking Genes, Selling Spleens: the Human Body and the Laws of Property (UNIMAS Press, Kuching, 2006), and has contributed articles to several journals.
