members of the International Association of Maritime Economists (IAME). The diversity of the subjects covered is unique and the results of research developed over many years are not only comprehensive, but also have important implications on real life issues in maritime business.

Grinda, Georges, The Principality of Monaco: State, International Status, Institutions 2nd ed., T.M.C. Asser Press, Hardcover, £55.00, ISBN: 9789067043328

Founded in the thirteenth century, the Seigniorship of Monaco's independence has been recognised by the main European powers since the Middle Ages. Its status as a sovereign State was recognised by the Treaty of Vienna in 1815, by the Treaty of Versailles in 1919 and by treaties concluded with France in 1641, 1861, 1918 and 2002. A Member State of the UN, the OSCE and the Council of Europe, the Principality of Monaco is qualified as a third State in its relations with the European Union, although its territory has been assimilated to the European customs territory and it has given legal tender to the Euro. In this new edition, Georges Grinda discusses and comments on the public and international life of the State, its political and legal modernization and its future international role.

Harder, Sirko, Measuring Damages in the Law of Obligations: The Search for Harmonised Principles, Hart Publishing, Hardcover, £60.00, ISBN: 9781841138633

This book challenges certain

differences between contract, tort and equity in relation to the measure (in a broad sense) of damages. This book examines the present position in contract, tort and equity and establishes the differences between the three areas. It goes on to scrutinise the arguments in defence of existing differences. The conclusion on each topic is that the present differences between contract, tort and equity cannot be justified on merits and should be removed through a harmonisation of the relevant principles.

Harris, David, Cases and Materials on International Law 7th ed, Sweet & Maxwell Ltd, Paperback, £36.95, ISBN: 9781847032782

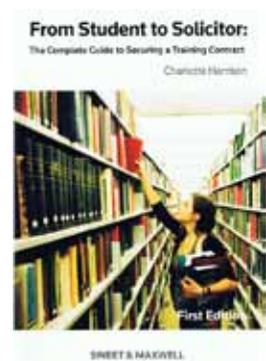

This highly popular work draws together in one volume an exhaustive selection of cases, materials and background information on public international law. It supplements cases and materials with expert commentary and analysis.

began with the unbanning of the liberation movements and release of Nelson Mandela from prison in February 1990. This book presents the South African Constitution in its historical and social context, providing students and teachers of constitutional law and politics an invaluable resource through which to understand the emergence, development and continuing application of the supreme law of South Africa.

Kono, Toshiyuki, The Impact of Uniform Laws on the Protection of Cultural Heritage and the Preservation of Cultural Heritage in the 21st Century, Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, Hardback, £195.00, ISBN: 9789004180444 Since Emer de Vattel's (1714-1767) pioneering work on the importance of the protection of cultural property in the interests of mankind and human society, international law has broadened the scope and strengthened protection in these areas. However, it is the work of UNESCO and its original mission of producing international instruments that has, in recent years, enhanced the protection and safeguarding of various types of cultural heritage. Providing an overview of the seven Conventions with the two Protocols adopted by UNESCO and UNIDROIT, this book offers comparative analysis of legal schemes for the protection or safeguarding of cultural heritage in 15 countries.

Lunney, Mark; Oliphant, Ken, Tort Law: Text and Materials 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paper-

back, £35.99, ISBN: 9780199571802

The fourth edition of this celebrated book brings together a selection of carefully chosen extracts from cases and materials with insightful author text. Each section begins with a clear overview of the law, followed by illustrating extracts from case law and from government reports and scholarly literature, which are supported by the authors' expert explanation and analysis. Opportunities for further research are highlighted by the many suggestions for additional readings that are woven throughout the text. This approach enables students to gain a rich and contextual understanding of the law of tort.

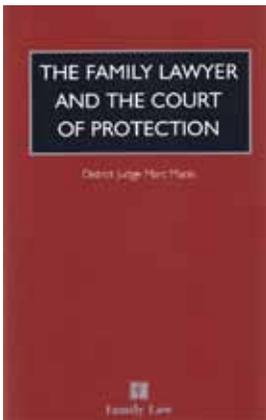

Picken, Simon; Eggers, Peter MacDonald; Foss, Patrick; Good Faith and Insurance Contracts 3rd

ed, Informa Publishing, Hardback, £360.00, ISBN: 9781843118794

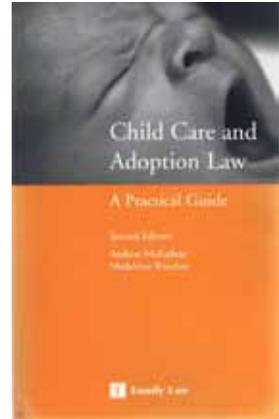

This is the only text book devoted to a discussion of the duty of utmost good faith applicable to insurance contracts. As good faith is an issue which arises in respect of all insurance contracts, it is a book which is of use to all insurance practitioners. The third edition has been updated to include references to new case law, any changes in the regulatory regime, and discussion on the movements towards law reform which have been undertaken over the past three years.

Marin, District Judge Marc; Family Lawyer and the Court of Protection, Family Law, Paperback, £60.00, ISBN: 9781846612077
The Mental Capacity Act

2005 has changed the role and work of the Court of Protection. The court's jurisdiction now extends not only to financial and property matters but also to health and welfare issues and disputes relating to lasting powers of attorney. The new jurisdiction has introduced formal rules and procedures which must be followed. It has also introduced a new user base. The court is more high profile than ever before. Lawyers who do not undertake private client work will therefore need to understand the court's procedures; for example within the context of any number of family disputes. Accordingly this book aimed at lawyers who specialise in family matters (such as children, care work or matrimonial finance) explains the relevance of the Court of Protection to their work and provides the relevant law and procedural knowledge needed to properly advise clients.

McFarlane, Andrew; Reddon, Madeleine, Child Care and Adoption Law: A Practical Guide 2nd ed, Family Law, Paperback, £50.00, ISBN: 9781846611889
This invaluable guide to public child law has been fully updated to take account of all recent developments. The focus is on providing a clear, practical text with an examination of the key cases and an emphasis on fact-based examples. The book is not simply a court work but is an essential publication for all legal practitioners and other related professionals, whether new to this important area of law, or more experienced.

McKendrick, Ewan, Contract Law: Text, Cases and Materials 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £34.99, ISBN: 9780199579792

The fourth edition of Ewan McKendrick's Contract Law: Text, Cases, and Materials provides a complete guide to the subject in a single volume, containing everything needed for the study of contract law at undergraduate level. The book comprises a unique balance of 40% text to 60% cases and materials, combining the best features of a textbook with those of a traditional casebook. The author's clear explanations and analyses of the law provide invaluable support to students, while the extracts from cases and materials promote the development of essential case reading skills and allow for a more detailed appreciation of the practical workings of the law, and of the best legal scholarship.

Moore, Terry; Rahman, Pakeeza; Rendell, Tony, Youth Court Guide 4th ed, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback, £68.00, ISBN: 9781847665430

Many sections have been updated including those dealing with mode of trial and the imposition of custodial sentences. Throughout the new edition of the Youth Court Guide updates have been made as a result of new case law including: C v Sevenoaks Youth Court [2009] EWHC 3088 (Admin), R (on the application of W) v Warrington Magistrates' Court [2009] EWHC 1538 (Admin), and R v Malicki [2009] EWCA Crim 365.

Morse, Geoffrey, Partnership Law 7th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £34.95, ISBN: 9780199576760

The new edition of this established text is a fully updated account of the law of partnerships in a readily accessible and readable form. It is a valuable tool for practitioners who need a readily available source of information on partnership law as well as students of partnership law. The work explains the essential characteristics of the subject, highlighting difficult and developing areas by reference to both established and modern cases and legislation. In addition to UK authorities, of which there are an increasing number at a high level, it also covers cases from many parts of the Commonwealth that still use the Partnership Act of 1890.

arena. In this concise volume international arbitrators and world-class attorneys present proven techniques for the effective cross-examination of laypersons, adverse witnesses, scientific experts, legal experts and others anywhere in the world.

O'Mara John; Duggan, Anne; et al, (Irish) Tax Guide 2010, Bloomsbury Professional, Paperback + eBook, £85.02,

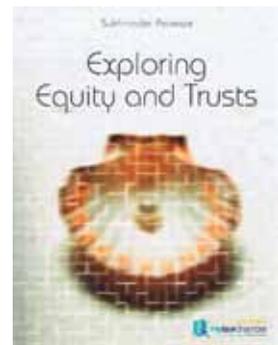

ISBN: 9781847665546
Tax Guide 2010 provides comprehensive coverage of all areas of taxation applicable to Ireland. It is a guide written in non-technical language by an expert team of tax practitioners. As well as taking on board the provisions of the latest Finance Act, it features detailed worked examples and extensive references to case law. It also contains a set of tables giving speedy access to allowances, tax rates, compliance deadlines and other invaluable information.

Orth, John V., Reappraisals in the Law of Property, Ashgate Publishing Ltd, Hardback, £55.00, ISBN: 9780754677314

Some of the most basic doctrines of property law are very old, many dating to the medieval era. How can legal rules that were born so long ago remain viable today? In Reappraisals in the Law of Property, author John V. Orth considers various topics in order to discover the forces that have been made and are continuing to remake these areas of the law. Orth proposes three forces in particular that have shaped the development of property law over time: the inertial force of tradition, the reforming power of judicial and legislative activism, and the constant challenge of academic criticism. Together, these themes form the foundation of a critical and challenging work, one that re-evaluates property law and demonstrates both its enduring consistency and the unique and often drastic ways in which it has evolved in the modern era.

Roberts, Julian V; von Hirsch, Andrew, Previous Convictions at Sentencing: Theoretical and Applied Perspectives, Hart Publishing, Hardback, £40.00, ISBN: 9781849460422

This latest volume in the Penal Theory and Penal Ethics series addresses one of the oldest and most contested questions in the field of criminal sentencing: should an offender's previous convictions affect the sentence, and how? Although there is an extensive literature on the definition and use of criminal history information, the emphasis here, as befits a volume in the series, is on the theoretical and normative aspects of considering previous convictions at sentencing. Several authors explore the theory underlying the practice of mitigating the punishments for first offenders, while others put forth arguments for enhancing sentences for recidivists. The practice of sentencing repeat offenders in two jurisdictions (England and Wales, and Sweden) is also examined in detail.

Russ, Tim; Foster, Jamie, Law of Field Sports, Wildy, Simmonds and Hill Publishing, Paperback, £35.00, ISBN: 9780854900695

Written by leading practitioners in the field, Law of Field Sports is the first book on the Game Act 1831 for the best part of a century during which time there has been considerable reform of the law. This book contains a detailed analysis of the civil and criminal law relating to shooting and hunting and offers a practical evaluation of the Hunting Act 2004.

Russo, Francesco; Schinkel, Maarten Pieter; Günster, Andrea Maria; Carree, Martin, European Commission Decisions on Competition: Economic Perspectives on Landmark Antitrust and Merger Cases, Cambridge University Press, Hardback, £70.00, ISBN: 9780521117197

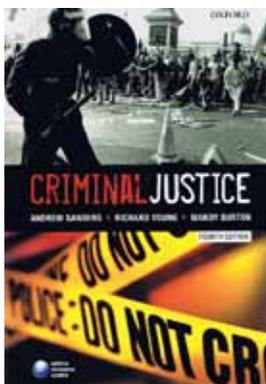

European Commission Decisions on Competition provides a comprehensive economic classification and analysis of all European Commission decisions adopted pursuant to Articles 81, 82 and 86 of the EC Treaty from 1962 to 2008. It also includes a sample of landmark European merger cases. The decisions are organized according to the principal economic theory applied in the case. For each economic category, the seminal Commission decision that became a reference point for that type of anticompetitive behaviour is described. For this, a fixed template format is used throughout the book. All subsequent decisions in which the same economic principle was applied are listed chronologically. It complements the most widely used textbooks in industrial organization, competition economics and competition law, to which detailed references are offered. The book contains source material for teachers and students, scholars of competition law and economics, as well as practising competition lawyers and officials.

Sanders, Andrew; Young, Richard; Burton, Mandy, Criminal Justice 4th ed, Oxford University Press, Paperback, £27.99, ISBN: 9780199541317

The fourth edition of Criminal Justice provides a comprehensive overview of the criminal justice system in England and Wales, as well as thought-provoking insights into how it might be altered and improved. Tracing the procedures surrounding the apprehension, investigation and trial of suspected offenders, this book is the ideal companion for law and criminology students alike.

Sargeant, Malcolm; Lewis, David, Employment Law 5th ed, Pearson Education Ltd, Paperback, £29.99, ISBN: 9781408229255

Offering comprehensive coverage of all aspects of employment law and the employment relationship, Employment Law is the ideal companion to support you throughout your study. Accessibly written, the book succeeds in presenting the wealth of case law and legislation at play in this area in an exceedingly clear manner enabling you to grasp a full understanding of the intricacies of the subject with ease.

Sasson, Monique, Substantive Law in Investment Treaty Arbitration: The Unsettled Relationship Between International Law and Municipal Law, Kluwer Law International, Hardback, £116.00, ISBN: 9789041132239

Arguing that international investment law requires a more nuanced consideration of the role of municipal law than many arbitral tribunals have implemented to date,

this book provides a detailed, systematic approach to the interplay of municipal law and international law in investment disputes. The treatment focuses on the role of municipal law in providing the substance for concepts such as contracts, property rights, and shareholders' rights, which are relevant in the international investment treaty context but are not regulated under international law.

Seetahal, Dana S., Commonwealth Caribbean Criminal Practice and Procedure 3rd ed, Routledge-Cavendish, Paperback, £49.99, ISBN: 9780415554848

The third edition of this best-selling book has been thoroughly revised to take into account recent developments in the law. This is the only textbook which thoroughly explores criminal practice and procedure as it relates to the Caribbean. The text clarifies the state law in each jurisdiction, making it clear when laws are the same or similar, and highlighting when differences in laws between the jurisdictions apply.

Selwood, John, Auditing and Reporting 2010-2011, CCH Editions, Paperback, 2 Volumes, £71.00, ISBN: 9781847982483

A comprehensive reference work containing the International Standards on Auditing (UK & Ireland) and the APB Ethical Standards as at 30 April 2010. Auditing and Reporting 2010-11 presents the current framework of standards and other pronouncements relevant to the conduct of audit practice in the UK and Republic of Ireland. The majority of these are issued by the Auditing Practices Board.

Spurr, Stephen, Economic Foundations of Law 2nd ed, Routledge, Paperback, £49.99, ISBN: 9780415778534

Economic Foundations of Law provides an economic analysis of the major areas of the law: property law, torts, contracts, criminal law, civil procedure, corporation law and financial markets, taxation and labour law. In line with current trends in legal scholarship, discussion is focused on economic principles such as risk aversion, efficiency, opportunity cost, moral hazard, rent-seeking behaviour and economies of scale. Accessible, comprehensive and well written, this book uses extensive practical examples and explanations to

Legal Service Commission Manual

Sweet & Maxwell's new and updated version of the LSC Manual has been reduced from four volumes to three: Crime, Civil Law and Funding Code:

Volume 1: Crime

This volume will cover the new Standard Contract for crime, introduced in July 2010. It also contains the relevant statutory materials and arrangements and directions, together with supplementary guidance on Criminal Defence Service codes.

Volume 2: Civil

This Volume will contain the new Standard Contract for civil legal aid. Due October 2010

Volume 3: Funding Code

This volume will contain the new Standard Contract for funding. Prepared by the Commission and approved by Parliament, the Funding Code determines which cases the Commission may fund as part of the Community Legal Service. Due October 2010

Each of these products can be bought individually, or as a bundle, in book format, as a CD or as an online subscription. Unfortunately Wildy & Sons are unable to supply online versions. The products are available to order but only as subscriptions, the new print volumes of the LSC Manual will be published as books, replacing the current loose-leaf version. The Manual will be updated twice yearly with a replacement book - saving you time filing new releases.

The End of Lawyers?

Rethinking the Nature of Legal Services
Revised Edition

Richard Susskind OBE, IT Adviser to the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales; Honorary and Emeritus Law Professor, Gresham College, London; Visiting Professor in Internet Studies, Oxford Internet Institute, Oxford University

- Widely acclaimed as a book with far-reaching and profound consequences for all legal readers
- Includes an extensive new introduction commenting on the changes in the economic climate over the last two years, and how the work can be read in this context
- With a highly practical focus, the book offers viable and sensible solutions for change and action

In the extended new introduction to this revised paperback edition, Richard Susskind updates his views on legal process outsourcing, courtroom technology, access to justice, e-learning for lawyers, and the impact of the recession on the practice of law. He analyses the four main pressures that lawyers now face and reveals common fallacies associated with each. In an entirely new line of thinking, He suggests four business models from which to choose in the future, and provides some new tools and techniques to help lawyers plan for their future.

IMPORTANT FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Directors' Liability and Indemnification: A Global Guide 2nd Edition

edited by Edward Smerdon
Globe Law and Business, Hardback, ISBN 9781905783342, due August 2010, £145.00

Directors' liabilities have been a key concern in boardrooms since the various high-profile corporate failures in Europe and the United States over the past two decades, when regulation increased and shareholders' and companies' rights to bring civil claims were extended. The current financial crisis will inevitably bring with it greater risks and challenges for directors. There is an increasingly aggressive environment for civil claims, fuelled by insolvencies, shareholder pressure and public outcry. The attention of the regulators is also ever more sharply focused on directors' conduct. Directors are understandably looking closely at the protection available to them, through both indemnification and directors' and officers' insurance. The exposures faced by directors and the extent to which indemnification and insurance may provide protection vary significantly around the world. This comprehensive second edition features contributions by leading experts on the important aspects of directors' liability, the protection available to directors and the risks of doing businesses in multiple jurisdictions. New to the second edition are chapters on China, the Czech Republic, Kazakhstan, Slovakia, South Korea and the United Arab Emirates. In addition to civil claims and indemnification, each chapter now includes commentary on regulatory and criminal liability. Particular focus is placed on the impact of the credit crisis. The book also features a new section dealing with regulatory issues surrounding global directors' and officers' programmes and their ability to provide cover in all intended jurisdictions. Unique in its approach, this new title is a powerful tool in assisting directors, officers, in-house counsel and the private practice lawyers advising them to make well-informed judgements about the risks they are taking.

Constitutional and Administrative Law 15th edition

by A.W Bradley and K.D Ewing

Pearson Education Ltd., Softcover, ISBN 9781405873505, due August 2010, £35.99

Written by two experts in the field, Constitutional and Administrative Law is highly regarded for its comprehensive and authoritative coverage of this rapidly changing area of the law. The wide-ranging constitutional reforms which have characterised much of the Labour government since 1997 have not slowed since the publication of the previous edition in 2006. In the new fifteenth edition, the authors analyse these changes while maintaining a focus on essential legal principles bringing detailed analysis and illuminating insight to students of constitutional and administrative law. A staple recommendation on undergraduate and postgraduate law courses throughout the UK, Constitutional and Administrative Law is also used by practising lawyers, political scientists and public administrators.

The Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook 17th Edition

edited by Frances Silverman, Annette Goss, Russell Hewitson and Peter Reekie Law Society Publishing, Hardback, ISBN 9781853288692, due October 2010, £79.95

Join the thousands of practitioners who rely on the Law Society's Conveyancing Handbook to be their first port of call to resolve a vast range of conveyancing queries. Published annually, it provides authoritative and up-to-date guidance on topics from agricultural tenancies to zero-carbon homes. Written by expert editors and contributors, the 17th Edition has been thoroughly revised to take account of developments including the introduction of the Building Societies Association's Mortgage Instructions, the launch of the Land Registry's Portal, recent legislation, including the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 2009 and the Equality Act 2010. Also new and updated Law Society practice notes, including: gifts of assets and anti-money laundering, amendments to the Solicitors Code of Conduct 2007 and increased availability of flood risk information. These developments and more are integrated within a chronological account of conveyancing practice, distilled in procedural checklists, and complemented by extensive appendix materials, making this an indispensable companion for every conveyancer.

Disabled Children: A Legal Handbook

by Luke Clements, Janet Read, Stephen Broach and Mitchell Woolf
Legal Action Group, Softcover, ISBN 9781903307762 due October 2010, £40.00

This is a comprehensive and accessible book focusing on the law affecting disabled children and their families in England and Wales. It gives authoritative legal guidance on all the duties and responsibilities of public bodies towards this vulnerable group of children. Covering areas such as children's services, education, health, housing and disability discrimination, it is designed for use by parents and their advisers, professionals, legal practitioners and the judiciary.

Design Law in Europe and United States of America 2nd Edition

by Uma Suthersanen
Sweet and Maxwell Ltd, Hardback, ISBN 9781847039064, due August 2010, £195.00

Now in its second edition, Design Law in European Union and United States of America investigates the developing body of case law which has been steadily coming out of the EU Office for Harmonisation in the Internal Market (OHIM) in this area: Shows how designs can be protected using the entire intellectual property system; Covers the protection of artistic, industrial and functional designs; Deals with protection under copyright, design, competition and utility model laws; Examines protection under EC legislation; Discusses the European Design Regulation, European Design Directive, European Trade Mark Regulation and EU copyright directives; Reviews OHIM case law in depth; Gives guidance on using competition law as a shield against infringement actions; Goes through free movement and market integration in the EU to understand the trade conditions that allow parallel importation; Considers anti-competitive agreements showing how and why these might exist and how to go about challenging them; Shows how parallel importation relates to royalty collecting societies and trade associations, automobile and film distribution; Discusses consent and the burden of proof after Davidoff and explains developments relating to how consent is given for extra-EU imports into the market.

The Law Relating to Charities 4th Edition

by Hubert Picarda

Bloomsbury Professional, Hardback, ISBN 9781847660749, due September 2010, £250.00

Thoroughly updated and revised to take account of the new Charities Act 2006, this new edition of The Law and Practice Relating to Charities covers the creation, administration and marketing of charities. It provides an invaluable source of practical advice on the registration of new charities, appeals and fundraising, administration, jurisdiction, court proceedings, trading, taxation and rating. It considers duties of charitable trustees and the updating of charitable trusts. The new fourth edition takes into account the major changes brought about by the Charities Act 2006 including the new categories of charitable purposes, an explanation of the new Charity Tribunal and Charitable Corporations and details of the new procedure for Charity Tribunal appeals, reviews and references. Also contained is discussion of the new accounting procedures and the significant revisions to the taxation position of Charities and details of all the changes to the registration requirements for charities and the revised constitution and workings of the Charity Commission.

Law and Practice of International Banking

by Charles Proctor

Oxford University Press, Hardback, ISBN 9780199291861, due August 2010, £195.00

This book is a comprehensive and authoritative work on the law of banking, paying particular attention to the needs of legal practitioners in international finance centres. This is the first major banking law text to publish for some years and it provides a fresh approach to banking law by taking into account recent major developments in the field. Such developments include the increasing growth of cross-border transactions and problems, the rise of electronic banking and payment systems, the appearance of Islamic finance on the world stage, and policy, practice and regulatory matters resulting from the banking crisis. The work includes unique coverage of syndicated loans and security structures, as well as an explanation of the supervisory liability issues raised by the BCCI litigation. The coverage of the effects of the recent 'banking crisis' includes commentary on the Icelandic bank situations, deposit protection and government interests, derivative products and mis-selling claims, and discussion relating to recent legislation to facilitate mergers of financial institutions in the UK. The book also addresses difficult and uncertain areas of law including cross-border matters such as worldwide freezing injunctions, foreign disclosure orders and bankers' duty of confidentiality. Reflecting the growth of interest in Islamic finance, there is a detailed section on this highly specialized but increasingly important area. There is consideration of regulatory developments at international level including discussion of legal issues arising from Basel II, such as credit risk mitigation. With a focus on English law, the work draws extensively on authorities Commonwealth jurisdictions for a comparative approach.

Edited by Michael Bridge
Sweet and Maxwell
Ltd, Hardback, ISBN 9781847038623, due September 2010, £435.00
Part of Sweet and Maxwell's Common Law Series, Benjamin's Sale of Goods presents a comprehensive explanation of the law of sale of goods, including terms and conditions, rights and obligations, and discusses the nature and formation of the contract of sale.
It covers all relevant areas of contract and property law and includes discussion of unfair contract terms in commercial and consumer sales. It deals with defective goods, considers the remedies available when disputes arise and explains the implications of e-commerce, including electronic contracts and payments. Also covered vides authoritative discussion on conflict of laws.

Vacant Possession: Law and Practice

by Keith Shaw Estates Gazette, Softcover,
ISBN 9780080966809, due
August 2010, £65.00
Vacant possession is an element of property law that ensures a property is left in good condition when it changes hands. Every time a property is sold, or if tenants move out of rented property, vacant possession is unavoidable, it's a vital part of the job of any property lawyer or surveyor. Yet this is the first book to look at this area in depth. If a property professional understands vacant possession they can make sure their cases move quickly and complete at a time that suits them. If they don't, they're vulnerable to others who know it better and can use the law to frustrate proceedings for months or even years while their clients continue to pay money on rent or mortgage payments for properties they're not using. This book is essential reading for all property lawyers and surveyors.
It's destined to be the definitive guide to vacant possession.

Guidelines for the Assessment of General Damages in Personal Injury Cases 10th Edition

by The Judicial Studies Board
Oxford University Press, Softcover, ISBN 9780199595334, due September 2010, £22.00
This is the standard reference work for general damages in personal injury claims. Now in its tenth edition it has established itself as essential reading for all those involved in the area of personal injury. The Guidelines are designed to provide a clear and logical framework for the assessment of general damages while leaving the discretion of the assessor unfettered, since every case must depend to a degree on its own facts. They provide an invaluable guide to all those involved in personal injury litigation: solicitors, barristers, insurance companies, trade unions, and medical defence organizations. As with previous editions, all judges involved in hearing personal injury cases will automatically receive a copy of the book. This tenth edition has been fully updated to take account of inflation and decisions made in the two years since the previous edition and includes a foreword written by Lord Justice Neuberger.

LAW OF FIELD SPORTS

Tim Russ and Jamie Foster

Price:	£35
ISBN:	9780854900695
Extent:	circa 160pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

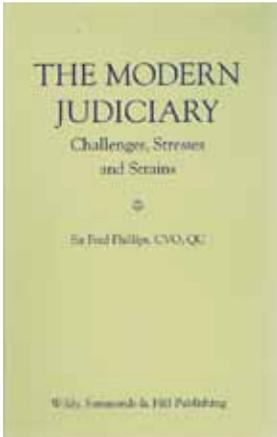

Written by leading practitioners in the field, Law of Field Sports is the first book on the Game Act 1831 for the best part of a century during which time there has been considerable reform of the law. This book contains a detailed analysis of the civil and criminal law relating to shooting and hunting and offers a practical evaluation of the Hunting Act 2004. The authors look at the law of poaching and control of shooting and hunting in terms of closed seasons and provide up-to-date precedents on the Ground Game Act 1880. A useful overview of pertinent firearms law is also included.

Land ownership of rural land is also covered so far as it relates to shooting and hunting, in particular the issue of how field sports rights are treated by the law of real property. The book also sets out the law appertaining to badgers, deer and other species managed in the countryside.

Law of Field Sports provides a comprehensive single source of reference that will prove invaluable for practitioners drafting game rights in sporting or farming leases, or defending those who might have fallen foul of the law and be facing prosecution in relation to game issues.

Tim Russ is a Partner with Clarke Willmott LLP. He specialises in agricultural property disputes including agricultural tenancy and related issues and has been recognised as an agricultural expert by the Chambers and Legal Experts directories. He is a member of the Agricultural Law Association, the Country Land & Business Association, and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Jamie Foster is a Senior Associate with Clarke Willmott LLP and specialises in regulatory law, advising and representing clients involved in environmental prosecutions, health and safety prosecutions and animal welfare cases.

This book examines the vocation of being a judge. It covers training, discipline and removal of judges as well as their position in the broader context as law-makers and servants of society.

The book is both comparative and practical while also examining the theory and jurisprudence of judging. It is full of practical examples drawn from the author's extensive experience and numerous contacts within the judiciary around the world. It examines their relationship to the societies they are representing and answerable to and their position and responsibilities as part of an international judicial brotherhood.

Although based in the Caribbean, the author is well known throughout the Commonwealth and in the United States as a writer on constitutional law and ethics.

Sir Fred Phillips is the former Governor, St. Kitts/Nevis/Anguilla and a Barrister-at-Law and member of the Middle Temple. He is the author of six books on constitutional law and ethics of the legal profession

LEGAL RESEARCH: A Practitioner's Handbook

Peter Clinch with contributions by James Mullan

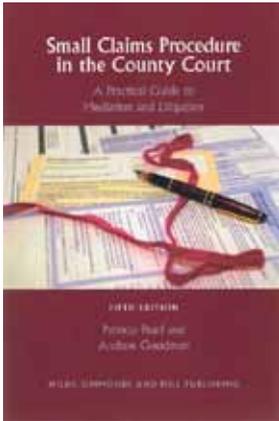

Price:	£39
ISBN:	9780854900640
Extent:	450 pp
Size:	246 x 189mm
Binding:	Hardback

This comprehensive reference is specifically aimed at busy practitioners (solicitors, barristers and professional support lawyers), particularly those who do not have the benefit of access to a law librarian or information officer. Legal Research: A Practitioner's Handbook provides practical advice on every aspect of effective legal research: problem analysis, selecting and finding the best sources, and presenting results effectively.

Part A covers problem identification and analysis, followed by advice on how to select the best sources and formats (paper or electronic) for research. Part B deals with the information most frequently sought by practitioners, listing sources with analytical comments and, for a selection of the most complex, 'how to use' instructions developed to a standard template. Jurisdictional coverage includes England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland and the European Union, with the addition of information on key sources in European human rights and international law. Part C details sources on how to make the presentation of the results of legal research more effective.

Peter Clinch is Senior Subject Librarian for Law at Cardiff University and has trained law students, practising solicitors and law librarians in legal research skills. He devised and runs the award-winning Cardiff Index to Legal Abbreviations.

James Mullan is Knowledge Management Systems Manager for Field Fisher Waterhouse LLP. Previously he was an Information Officer at CMS Cameron McKenna LLP. He is a member of the British & Irish Association of Law Librarians (BIALL) council.

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE
IN THE COUNTY COURT (5ed)
A Practical Guide to Mediation and Litigation

Patricia Pearl and Andrew Goodman

Price: £19.99
ISBN: 9780854900527
Extent: 309pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Paperback

Legal professionals rarely receive any formal training or guidance on how to run a small claims case in the county court, while litigants in person often have to conduct such cases without legal representation. A lack of understanding of the rules frequently leads to confusion and mistakes, which in turn adds to expense and causes delay. The fifth edition of this popular title (formerly entitled Small Claims Procedure: A Practical Guide) will prove invaluable for busy practitioners and litigants in person alike, equipping them with the latest know-how on avoiding errors and making the most of the procedures that are available.

The mediation section of the book has special prominence in this edition. Litigants using the small claims track can now agree to have their cases diverted to a mediation service run by the Courts service and at no additional charge. The system has been in operation now for over a year and has proved popular with court users, especially litigants in person. This book sets out the scheme in detail together with practical tips on how to make the best use of this new service.

Updating material in this edition has been significant; of particular importance are the clarified rules on the date upon which court proceedings are served and the material which must be included in letters before action and other pre-action steps. Finally, the book has been made even more user friendly by improved cross-referencing, handy tables and an extensive glossary.

CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS
A Comparative Study

Andrew Harding & Peter Leyland

Price: £19.95
ISBN: 9780854900633
Extent: 384 pp
Size: 152 x 229 mm
Binding: Paperback

This book contains an outstanding set of essays on constitutional courts. In many nations constitutional justice can be identified as a central feature of contemporary constitutionalism. Moreover, viewed from a comparative global perspective it is clear that constitutional justice as well as providing a special kind of dispute resolution, also has been turned to as a means of safeguarding conditions of liberal democracy. What characteristics must such a court possess to undertake the tasks that confront them? These contributions by providing an analysis of features such as constitutional context, jurisdictional scope, organisational features and interpretative techniques to give a selective snapshot of the legal characteristics and the operation of constitutional courts across the world.

The chapters by a team of leading international scholars include a general introduction and then focus on: Austria, Central and Eastern Europe, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, Spain, Turkey, Egypt, Francophone Africa, South Africa, Latin America, East Asia, Indonesia and Thailand.

Andrew Harding is Director of the Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives and Chair of Asia-Pacific Relations at the University of Victoria, Canada.

Peter Leyland is Professor of Public Law at London Metropolitan University. Both have published extensively in the field of comparative public law and they are joint editors of the series: ‘Constitutional Systems of the World’.

MIXED LEGAL SYSTEMS AT NEW FRONTIERS

Esin Örucü

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900701
Extent: 338pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

The aim of this volume is to provide the reader with original views on and insight into mixed legal systems in general, and some mixed legal systems and ongoing mixes in particular. The hope is that the analyses to be found in the eleven contributions will be helpful for scholars, students and practitioners who have a general interest in comparative law and a special interest in mixed legal systems, and provide inspiration to pursue further inquiries.

The contributions are a selection of papers presented at the 2007 Second World Congress of the World Society of Mixed Jurisdiction Jurists, ‘The Boundaries of Unity: Mixed Systems in Action’. As can be gleaned from the title of the Congress, the emphasis has shifted from the closed family of ‘mixed jurisdictions’ towards a wider embrace, considering ‘mixed systems’, in addition to the classical ‘mixed jurisdictions’. Following the introduction, the first two pieces inform the reader of the multiplicity of approaches to mixed legal systems and widen the horizon, offering expansion, though retaining exclusivity. Then follow chapters throwing new light on Commonwealth Caribbean, United States Novojo law, Turkey, South Africa, Sri Lanka, England and Ireland, the European Union, and Public International Law and International Trade Law; all showing that we are entering an era of legal studies involving looking at all legal systems anew.

BUILDING THE CIVILIZATION OF ARBITRATION

Thomas E Carbonneau and Angelica M Sinopole

Price: £65
ISBN: 9780854900688
Extent: 390pp
Size: 229mm x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

This book brings together a group of distinguished academics and practitioners and codifies their discussion of cutting-edge topics in the contemporary law of arbitration. A number of the contributors are members of the American Law Institute’s drafting committee on the Restatement of the Law of International Arbitration, a document likely to have a significant impact on the development and evolution of law in the area. The subject matter of the chapters variously accesses the development of investment arbitration, the difficulties raised by adhesionary arbitration, the problems associated with the State regulation of the arbitral process, the role of courts in acclimatizing the legal system to arbitration, the continued power of contracting parties in establishing and operating arbitrations, and the significance of recent U.S. Supreme Court rulings. A number of the authors have substantial practical experience in the process; all are well-known and regarded in the field.

Originally published as a symposium issue of the Penn State Law Review, the volume is intended to provide meaningful insights and useful guidance to students and practitioners of the process alike. The perspective adopted in the considerations is both national and international. The Dean of Penn State Law, Philip J. McConaughay, himself an authority on arbitration, provided invaluable support for the symposium and book project.

MEDICAL LAW PRECEDENTS FOR LAWYERS

Charles Foster

Price: £79
ISBN: 9780854900374
Extent: 416 pp
Size: 246 x 189mm
Binding: Hardback

Written by eminent practitioners in their respective fields, Medical Law Precedents for Lawyers provides a comprehensive collection of fully annotated precedents. It is designed to be a procedural one-stop-shop for all lawyers, whether specialists or otherwise, conducting litigation in any area of medical law from clinical negligence to public law.

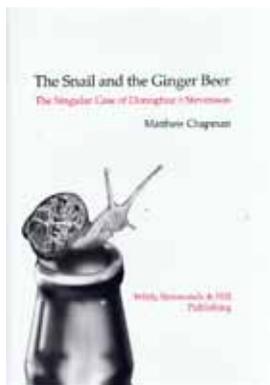

Each section of the book contains precedents – including draft letters, checklists, pleadings, court orders etc – which are designed to be easily adaptable to whatever factual situation the user faces. It is not assumed that the user will be familiar with the legal or procedural reasons for doing things in the way suggested by the precedent, and accordingly each precedent is annotated in detail. These annotations, which are inserted by way of footnote, mean that the book is a complete and very practical guide to most of the relevant procedural law and many important aspects of substantive law. It will be invaluable to any busy practitioner asked for advice on clinical negligence, inquests, consent to treatment, withdrawal of treatment, clinical confidentiality, complaining about a healthcare professional, disciplinary and regulatory law in the medical sphere, public law challenges to the decisions of healthcare bodies and – (of increasing importance) – mental capacity issues.

Charles Foster (editor) is a barrister at Outer Temple Chambers, specialising in medical law. He has written, edited or contributed to over thirty books, many of them concerned with medical law, and is a regular speaker at medico-legal conferences.

Contributors: Susan Bartfield, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Jamie Carpenter, Hailsham Chambers; Cara Guthrie, Outer Temple Chambers; Nick Peacock, Hailsham Chambers; Susan Freeborn, Outer Temple Chambers; Alan Jenkins, Outer Temple Chambers; Fiona Borrill, Lester Morrill Solicitors; Andrew Allen, Outer Temple Chambers.

THE SNAIL AND THE GINGER BEER
The Story of Donoghue v Stevenson

Matthew Chapman

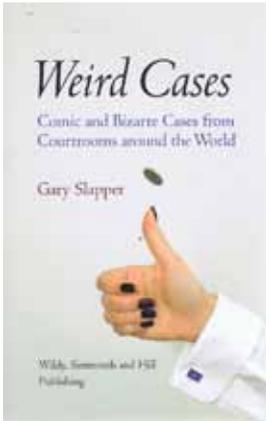

Price: £14.99
ISBN: 9780854900497
Extent: 200 pp.
Size: 152mm x 229mm
Binding: Hardback

On an August evening in 1928 May Donoghue, a shop assistant, entered a café in Paisley. The circumstances of her visit made legal history. A ginger beer was ordered for Mrs Donoghue who famously complained that, to her surprise and shock, a decomposed snail had tumbled from the bottle into her glass. Mrs Donoghue sued for the nervous shock she claimed to have suffered as a result. The question whether she had a case in law against the manufacturer of the ginger beer was argued as far as the House of Lords. It is hard to overstate the importance of the decision in Donoghue v Stevenson. It represents, perhaps, the greatest contribution made by English and Scottish lawyers to the development of the common law.

Donoghue v Stevenson made it clear that, even without a contract between the parties, a duty of care is owed by 'A' to take reasonable care to avoid acts or omissions which could reasonably be foreseen as likely to cause injury to his neighbour: 'B'. This concept, developed by the great jurist Lord Atkin, has become known by the universal shorthand, 'the neighbour principle'. Who, Lord Atkin asked rhetorically, is 'in law' my neighbour? Donoghue v Stevenson provides the answer.

The Snail and the Ginger Beer tells the full story of this remarkable case. It provides vivid biographical sketches of the protagonists and of the great lawyers who were involved in the case. It sets Donoghue v Stevenson in its historical context and re-evaluates the evidence. The roots of the neighbour principle are excavated in the parable of the Good Samaritan and the case law of the United States. The constitutional importance of the case is also dealt with; the blow it struck for a moral approach to the law which departed from a rigid doctrine of precedent. Finally, the book investigates the influence of Donoghue v Stevenson across the common law world: from the USA to the countries of what is now the Commonwealth.

WEIRD CASES
Comic and bizarre cases from courtrooms around the world

Gary Slapper

Price: £9.99
ISBN: 9780854900619
Extent: 160 pp
Size: 229 x 152mm
Binding: Hardback

Based on the author's popular Times Online column 'Weird Cases', this book draws on extraordinary cases from many countries, including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Italy, Romania, and China. The result is a highly entertaining read for anyone who enjoys reading about the more bizarre aspects of human life that fetch up in the law courts at the beginning of the 21st century.

Courts have seen judges do things like try to turn off a musical tie playing "We wish you a merry Christmas" while sentencing a defendant to prison, fall fast asleep in the middle of trials, flip a coin to decide a case, demand a foot massage from a clerk, and get sentenced for judicial racketeering. Courts have listened to the defences like that of a bogus dentist caught using DIY tools on his patients, a man who based his defence on being as hapless as Homer Simpson, and a woman who was running a brothel from an office in the criminal courts. Courts have seen a litigant sue for becoming pregnant by a stray sperm in a swimming pool, and a litigant suddenly strip naked before the judges.

The cases featured in Weird Cases are those that truly stand out as odd, even among all the unusual dramas that challenge the courts. The chapters are: Compensation and Punishment, Love and Sex, Food, Drink, and Drugs, Judges, Death and Violence, Pets and Animals, On the Road, Lawyers, and Jurors, Friends, and Neighbours.

Gary Slapper is an established writer in bringing law to a wide audience. He is a columnist with The Times, for which he has written since 1998, and Professor of Law at The Open University. He also acts as a Legal Consultant to BBC drama and documentaries.

PARTNERSHIP AND LLP LAW

Elspeth Berry

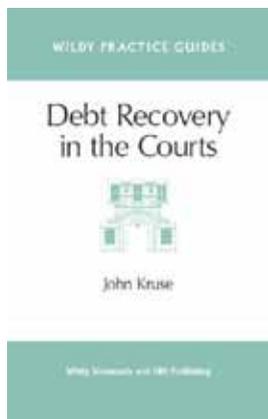

Price:	£29
ISBN:	9780854900602
Extent:	183 pp.
Size:	216 x 138mm
Binding:	Paperback

This book contains a mass of legal and practical information within a compact, user-friendly format. It provides a comprehensive and comparative explanation of the law relating to all three types of business partnership available under English law; general partnerships, limited partnerships and LLPs. Partnership and LLP Law explains the applicable law from formation of the business to termination, including chapters on the availability or otherwise of legal personality, duties of partners and members, management issues, property and finance, taxation, litigation and insolvency. It includes coverage of the Limited Liability Partnerships (Application of Companies Act 2006) Regulations 2009, which adapt and apply the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 to LLPs; and the Legislative Reform (Limited Partnerships) Order 2009, which introduces key reforms to limited partnership law.

The law relating to each of the three types of partnership is set out clearly and concisely to enable the reader to understand, or refresh their understanding of partnership and LLP law. This approach will also enable those with knowledge or experience of one type of partnership to understand the similarities and differences of the other types. A sample partnership/ LLP agreement is included within the book.

Elspeth Berry is a Senior Lecturer in Law at Nottingham Law School, with over fifteen years of experience in researching partnership and LLP law and teaching undergraduate and postgraduate students the law of business organisations and other commercial and international subjects. She is the co-author of European Union Law (2007) and Partnership Law (1999).
